OF THE

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

OF THE

PROVINCE OF ONTARIO

THURSDAY, MARCH 6TH, 1947

PROCLAMATION

R. S. ROBERTSON

CANADA

PROVINCE OF ONTARIO

GEORGE THE SIXTH, by the Grace of God of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas KING, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

To Our Faithful, the Members elected to serve in the Legislative Assembly of our Province of Ontario, and to every of you—GREETING.

L. E. BLACKWELL, }
Attorney-General. } WHEREAS it is expedient for certain causes and considerations to convene the Legislative Assembly of Our Province of Ontario, WE DO WILL that you and each of you and all others in this behalf interested, on Thursday, the Sixth day of March now next, at Our City of Toronto, personally be and appear for the actual Despatch of Business, to treat, act, do and conclude upon those things which, in Our Legislature for the Province of Ontario, by the Common Council of Our said Province, may by the favour of God be ordained.

HEREIN FAIL NOT.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the GREAT SEAL of Our Province of Ontario to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS:

THE HONOURABLE ROBERT SPELMAN ROBERTSON, ADMINISTRATOR OF OUR GOVERNMENT OF OUR PROVINCE OF ONTARIO.

At Our City of Toronto in Our said Province this thirteenth day of February in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven and in the eleventh year of Our Reign.

BY COMMAND

C. F. BULMER,
Clerk of the Crown in Chancery.

Thursday, the sixth day of March, 1947, being the first day of the Third Session of the Twenty-second Legislature of the Province of Ontario for the Despatch of Business pursuant to a Proclamation of the Honourable Robert Spelman Robertson, Administrator of the Province.

And the House having met,

The Honourable the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province then entered the House and, being seated on the Throne, was pleased to open the Session by the following gracious speech:—

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly:

As you assemble for the Third Session of the Twenty-second Legislature of the Province of Ontario, may I take the opportunity to express my pleasure on meeting you here for the first time. I wish to extend my personal greetings to each one of you and offer you my best wishes for the successful discharge of the duties for which you were elected.

Since last you met, the resumption of peacetime pursuits throughout our province has moved steadily forward notwithstanding the disturbing conditions elsewhere throughout the world. There have been difficulties, as was to be expected. The unfortunate industrial disputes last year greatly retarded some lines of production but there is good reason to hope for more stable conditions this year. The release of wartime controls has shifted some problems from the Dominion to the Provincial Government. Shortages of all kinds continue to impede commercial expansion, and individual activities in many fields. Adjustment of population in certain areas where the change from war to peace production has changed employment demands has only taken place to a very limited extent.

Constructive measures to deal with some of these questions will be submitted for your approval as well as amendments to existing statutes, but the volume of legislation during the present Session will not approach that of last year when no less than 111 public bills and 34 private measures received legislative approval.

My government is continuing its generous support of elementary and secondary education. In 1947 government grants will equal those paid in 1946. Generous support will also be extended to public libraries throughout the province.

Now that the rehabilitation training of ex-service personnel appears to have passed its peak, the Government will acquire some of the training centres and use them for advanced technological training for civilians and as trade schools for apprentices.

Further steps are to be taken to equalize educational opportunity. A subsidy for transportation will be offered to students who live at a considerable distance from the institutions of higher learning which they wish to attend. Greater assistance is also to be offered for the transportation of pupils to secondary schools. An experimental class is being undertaken to determine the possibilities of giving useful education to children of very limited mental ability. Adult education is to be brought into closer co-ordination with the physical fitness programme of the Department of Education. In this joint programme, citizenship and leadership training will be emphasized. It will also be expanded to embrace recreation along the lines so successfully developed already as part of the physical fitness training.

To meet the urgent demand for additional teachers, the Department of Education will co-operate with the universities in providing special summer courses to qualify additional teachers throughout the province.

During the past year Ontario agriculture has made a tremendous contribution to the food requirements of the hungry people of Britain and of Europe. The value of agricultural production in this province in 1946 was the greatest in our history, reaching a total of $733,000,000 as compared with $687,000,000 in 1945, which was the previous record up to that time. Of this total production, $232,000,000 was the value of our field crops, and the other half billion dollars was represented very largely by processed and manufactured farm products, such as beef, bacon, and pork products, lamb and mutton, eggs and poultry, milk, butter and cheese, all of which are so essential to the feeding of the world's population, and which figure very largely for that reason in the export trade of Canada. The leading place which Ontario occupies in Canadian agriculture is indicated by the fact that of the 23 major farm products of Canada, Ontario led in the production of 17 of these.

Throughout the whole province, the Junior Farmer organization continues to show rapid growth and development. This association is now recognized as one of the most valuable in Ontario. There are now over 200 Junior Clubs and Institutes, with every county organized and with units also in three of the Northern Districts. The Junior Farmer organization is proving a splendid training ground for the future leaders of agriculture, and it is gratifying to learn of the extent to which these young leaders are being absorbed into the Boards of Directors of the Senior Farm organizations.

So that we may maintain our present markets and secure new export outlets for our farm products, the emphasis in all departmental activities is being placed on higher quality, lower costs of production, and improved methods of marketing. Towards these ends the best efforts of the Department of Agriculture and all its institutions with their trained staffs are being directed. Agriculture in Ontario has reason to look to the future with faith and confidence.

It will be of interest to all our people to know that there was greater mining activity in Northern Ontario last year than in any previous year. The evidence of this lay in the largest number of mining claims ever recorded, a greater volume of provincial assays and a higher demand for geological maps, reports and blueprints. All of this has been at the same time a source of great encouragement as well as a heavy strain upon the Department of Mines.

A minimum of twelve survey parties will be placed in the field this coming season, notwithstanding the dearth of qualified leaders and attendants.

The Department will assist in the restoration of the mining of gold and of base metals, as well as the output of industrial minerals, including clay products and building materials. Activities in the latter field are now greater than at any time in the history of Ontario mining, and promise to make new records during the coming year.

Not only in mining and agriculture but in all other productive activities my Government places the utmost emphasis upon scientific research as an aid to the most effective use of our great resources.

In agriculture this has been recognized by a substantial expansion of the staff and facilities for research at the Ontario Agricultural College, the Ontario Veterinary College, the Horticultural Experimental Station at Vineland, and other similar institutions. Significant progress has already been made with research in regard to animal diseases.

In addition to very constructive activities of its own, the Ontario Research Commission has brought together Advisory Committees composed of representatives of the research agencies in agriculture, mines, soils, forestry, wild life and fisheries. As a result of these activities, there is for the first time effective integration of research work now being done, and a new appreciation of the gaps which must be filled in our present research programmes.

You will be asked to approve expenditures for specific research projects, and for the distribution of up-to-date technical information to industry throughout the province, under joint plans of the Ontario Research Foundation and the Department of Planning and Development. Plans will also be presented for the assistance of smaller industries by the organization of trade research associations on a co-operative basis.

Legislation will be introduced to re-codify The Securities Act (1945) and the regulations thereunder as a result of experience in administering the 1945 Act. Subject to the overriding provisions of this legislation you will be asked to consider other legislation governing separate groups engaged in the investment business.

Since the last meeting of this Legislature, the important task of reclassifying establishments formerly classified in every case as hotels, into hotels, taverns and public houses, has been carried out and the regulations governing new and old types of licences have been settled. The Liquor Licence Act was brought into effect as of January 1st, 1947, and since then the issuance of banquet and entertainment permits on a substantial scale has already resulted in a reduced and more temperate consumption of alcoholic beverages at banquets and entertainments given by a wide variety of organizations throughout the province. It is anticipated that, when the new licences are issued in municipalities of over 50,000, a corresponding improvement will result from the consumption of beverages legally and under control upon licensed premises.

Under The Police Act, 1946, a survey was made leading to the designation of all urban areas throughout the province other than cities and towns where policing responsibility was to be undertaken locally. The regulations under the Act were also brought into force. Thirty-one municipalities in the province have availed themselves of the provisions of this Act to enter into agreements with the Commissioner of Police to discharge the policing responsibilities of such municipalities by engaging the services of a detachment of the Provincial Police. Amending legislation will be introduced to clarify the circumstances under which the province will enter into further agreements of this type; to prohibit subversive activities among police forces; to create, on behalf of local police associations, the right to collective bargaining between the association and the employing municipality with arbitration; to outlaw improper affiliations and strikes on the part of those employed in police departments.

A contract has been entered into between the province and the Canadian General Electric Company Limited, whereby that company will install and maintain the frequency modulated radio communication system of the Ontario Provincial Police Force. This system will involve the establishment of eleven 250-watt broadcasting stations and thirty-one 60-watt broadcasting stations. In addition to the stations themselves, the police cars of the Force will be equipped with sending and receiving sets. This system will completely cover Southern Ontario with two-way communication between central broadcasting points and the police areas, and between these and the police cars, while within smaller areas communication will be maintained between the cars and the stations, as well as from car to car. The study necessary to prepare for the extension of police radio communication suitable to the needs of Northern Ontario is now in progress.

Legislation will be introduced to revise The Fire Departments' Act, and to provide for collective bargaining between those employed by the Municipal Fire Departments and the Municipal employer, with arbitration.

With a view to preventing disasters by fire in Ontario hotels, legislation will be introduced requiring suitable safety standards in hotels.

Legislation will be introduced reserving the use of white canes to blind persons; regulating the terms and conditions upon which credit may be extended by way of conditional sale of articles in the province; and providing for simplified methods of disposition of unclaimed articles.

During the past year which was the first full year of highway construction and restoration since the war, a record mileage of pavement and other hard surface roads was completed. A new King's Highway, approximately 100 miles in length, was pushed through from the Trans-Canada Highway to Red Lake in record time. It is now in use as a winter road. It will be surfaced during the coming season. The northern and tourist areas generally will derive great benefit from the new four-lane Toronto-Barrie Highway upon which notable progress has already been made. Every part of the province has been assisted by a programme of highway improvement and extension. Further new projects will be undertaken as men and materials become available.

Municipal governments have received more generous subsidies and new proposals will be made for further aid and encouragement in carrying out their extremely important road programmes.

The renovation and repair of public buildings, including many which have been on loan to the Dominion Government for war purposes, has proceeded and will be continued, along with such new construction as may be undertaken with due regard for housing needs and the shortages of material and labour.

Ontario municipalities have continued the steady reduction of their gross debenture debts by amounts and percentages which have not been equalled in any other province, and in consequence are obtaining lower interest rates than at any previous time. They are in a sound position to make necessary capital expenditures. Their total tax levies of 1945 were $6,000,000 less than in 1939, and were relatively small in 1946, due, in the main, to the provincial educational grants and subsidies. The one mill subsidy amounting to $3,170,000 was continued in 1946 in addition to total educational grants to the municipalities amounting to $29,500,000.

In 1947 it is intended to extend still further the schools which the Department of Municipal Affairs conducts for the instruction of municipal officials.

A new Vital Statistics Act will be introduced to provide an improved procedure for the registration of births, marriages and deaths. This Department will also introduce the latest techniques for statistical analysis.

The rehabilitation of those who are committed to Ontario prisons and reformatories has been emphasized in the administration of the new Department of Reform Institutions established last Session.

Great advances have been made in the training of officers, the provision of well qualified teachers, vocational instructors and other staff, as well as in the classification and segregation of young prisoners, training and disciplinary practices and the provision of useful work and healthy recreation.

Although it is still difficult to provide adequate building accommodation, this Department has established a very successful training school for younger boys at Galt, and has permanently acquired two properties at Cobourg as a training school for girls.

A section of the former army camp at Brampton has been set aside for young prisoners with very satisfactory results. This year the Department hopes to begin the construction of industrial farms and other buildings which will replace the common jails as well as a large new building to replace the Andrew Mercer Reformatory for women.

The Department of Reform Institutions has been assisted very greatly in its work by voluntary organizations of interested citizens and it seeks their continued support in its plans to give active and direct help in re-establishing those who have been discharged from reform institutions.

With the expiration of the National Wartime Labour Relations Regulations on March 31st, 1947, my Government will be called upon to resume jurisdiction over labour relations and such steps as are called for will be taken to meet this situation.

Amendments will be proposed to The Hours of Work and Vacations with Pay Act, 1944, with respect to the rates of vacation pay, and also to The Workmen's Compensation Act, to cover all occupational diseases attributable to employment, to increase the pensions of widows and children, as well as the pensions for total disability, and also to effect other desirable improvements.

To keep pace with our rapid industrial growth, the Inspection and Examining Boards have been greatly expanded to protect and insure the health and welfare of industrial workers. The Department's work in vocational and apprenticeship training will be energetically continued in co-operation with the Department of Education. A minimum wage order for female workers in industry has been prepared and will soon be brought into effect. In many trades and industries, minimum wage rates and working conditions have been established under The Industrial Standards Act.

During the past year plans for industrial construction to a total value of $43,000,000 have been examined and approved. From this and other experience of the Department of Labour, it is evident that there is great confidence in the industrial future of this province. This confidence offers a sound basis for co-operation between labour and management in the solution of their common problems.

The Planning Act, 1946, is being used extensively in all parts of the province, particularly where industrial expansion is taking place. Thirty planning areas have been defined and 800 sub-division plans have been submitted for approval. Experience in administration of the Act suggests certain amendments which will be introduced with the object of improving procedure and meeting special conditions which arise.

The Conservation Authorities Act is also giving good results and minor amendments will be introduced.

The Trade and Industry Branch of the Department of Planning and Development, in the closest co-operation with Ontario House, has brought about the establishment of a number of British and other industries in Ontario. Its services continue to be widely used by industry and will be still further extended.

The Department of Health has been confronted with the common problem of shortages, both in hospital and mental hospital accommodation, as well as in the supply of doctors, nurses, and other necessary staff. One project, that of a nine-months training course for nursing assistants has been sufficiently successful to warrant its continuance for a further period of trial.

Some extension of the Department's activities in the control of tuberculosis and industrial hygiene is planned for the present year, the former by an extension of the programme of X-ray examinations. Further extension throughout the province of the unit type of local health administration is only limited by lack of staff, particularly public health nurses.

The Department proposes to assist the Canadian Red Cross Society in its plan to provide free blood serum to Ontario Hospitals, by the provision and maintenance of the necessary clinical buildings.

The problem of providing adequate accommodation and necessary treatment for the mentally sick is still one of major concern. A substantial start has been made upon the erection of a new hospital school for the mentally defective in Smiths Falls. It is hoped that it will be possible to increase the numbers of the female staff, particularly nurses, during the year. Diagnostic services at the community level are being provided to a number of the larger centres throughout the province.

The Department of Public Welfare has made provision in the Unemployment Relief Regulations to alleviate distress to some older persons who require special home care by allowing payment up to $40.00 a month to individuals who will provide care for these persons in private homes.

To encourage and assist in the creation of additional accommodation for the aged, legislation will be introduced to enable a larger provincial contribution to the capital cost of the erection of houses of refuge.

Administrative efficiency within the Department of Public Welfare has been greatly improved by departmental reorganization and legislation will be introduced to continue this process.

During the first year of the new Department of Travel and Publicity, Ontario has received the largest number of tourists in its history. It is estimated that visitors from the United States alone expended upwards of $130,000,000 in this province. The Department has been aggressive on the one hand in bringing Ontario to the attention of prospective visitors throughout United States and Canada, and on the other hand in improving the accommodation available for the visitors.

During the coming year, establishments which serve tourists will be classified and licensed. Reception centres, so successful last year, will be extended to the western part of the province and the promotional and publicity activities will be intensified.

A new and successful approach to Ontario's tourist development was the inauguration during this past winter of a vigorous winter sports programme, the first step in an effort to widen the appeal of this province to include year-round vacations.

The Department of Lands and Forests now also administers those activities connected with Game and Wild Life and thus combines two Departments which previously dealt with different aspects of our forest resources. This has given new impetus to the conservation and effective use of those great resources. My Government is recognizing the importance of these activities by proposing the highest expenditure in the history of this province for the combined work of the Department of Lands and Forests and the Division of Fish and Wild Life.

New activities include reforestation nurseries at Kemptville and Fort William; the renovation and rebuilding of fish hatcheries; commercial fishery studies and experiments on the Great Lakes; education and publicity and forest fire prevention; courses of instruction for guides at the Ranger School; the zoning of traffic and the provision of a specialist in the fur trade.

Recognizing the magnitude of the pulp and paper industry, as well as the lumbering industry, in the economy of this province, my Government will introduce a forest management bill which will place all companies on an equal footing in their forest management obligations.

The Ontario Royal Commission on Forestry and its staff of expert engineers and foresters have completed the most thorough examination ever made of our forest areas and practices. It has concluded its public hearings throughout Ontario and is now preparing its report from which the most valuable recommendations may be expected in regard to the future management of the forests as a continuing source of employment, wealth and pleasure.

I know that you all share the general satisfaction that so many Civil Servants have returned from military duties and have been re-established in the Public Service of this province. It is also gratifying to learn that of the new male employees appointed during the past year, 82 per cent were veterans.

A complete revision of the salary scale of the Civil Service has been effected to compensate for increased living costs, and reclassification has been completed in accordance with new rates of remuneration. It is proposed at this Session to revise the superannuation provisions of the Public Service Act and to follow this with other improvements with the view, not only to the maintenance of satisfactory conditions of employment and security of tenure but also to increased efficiency of the service and the attraction to its ranks of men and women of the highest capacities and qualifications.

It is with great regret that I mention the death during the past year of several public servants with long years of service, some of whom occupied the highest departmental positions. The gratitude of the people of Ontario is due to them for their loyal and faithful work, and also to those whose service is being terminated by superannuation.

The hopes expressed in this Legislature last year that there would be general agreement between the Dominion and all Provincial Governments defining their responsibilities and allocating appropriate taxing powers, have unfortunately not been realized. It will be recalled that my Government was not only the first to ask for a Dominion-Provincial Conference to settle tax problems, to provide adequate social security measures and otherwise to combine the constitutional powers of all governments for the general welfare of all Canadians, but it has also been most insistent that such general agreement is essential if the Canadian people are to receive the full benefit of the great resources which we possess.

Because of the refusal of the Dominion Government to reconvene the general Conference which adjourned last May, there will be no new agreement between the Government of Ontario and the Dominion Government to replace the War-time Tax Agreement which expires on March 31st. The Government of Ontario will therefore be called upon to raise its own required revenues and there will be presented to you for your consideration proposals for meeting the financial requirements of my Government during the coming fiscal year.

In addition to legislation already mentioned, bills will be introduced for various other purposes or to amend present Acts for the good and welfare of this province.

The Public Accounts for the last complete fiscal year and the estimates for the year 1947-48 will be submitted to you later for your consideration and approval.

In conclusion, I wish to express the hope that Divine Providence may so guide your deliberations that your work here will promote the general welfare and happiness of all the people of Ontario.

His Honour was then pleased to retire.

Mr. Speaker presented the report of the Select Committee appointed on April 4th, 1946, to prepare a revision of the Rules of the House as follows:—

Your Committee begs leave to present its report following consideration of a revision of the Rules of the House and recommends that it be printed in the Orders of the Day for to-day and held for consideration at a later date:—

Report of the Select Committee Appointed to Inquire into the Revision of the Rules of the Legislative Assembly.

To the Honourable the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario:

GENTLEMEN:

On Thursday, April 4th, 1946, a select committee was appointed by the Assembly "to study and inquire into the Rules of the House with a view to the improvement and simplification of the procedure in and pertaining to the House and the clarification of the Rules, and to prepare a revised edition of the Rules of the House and to report to the House." Authority was given to sit during the recess of the House and to call for persons, papers and things, and to examine witnesses under oath.

The Committee so appointed and which now begs leave to present its report consists of Mr. Stewart (Parkdale), Chairman, and Messrs. Creighton, Davies, Oliver and Grummett.

Sittings were held at the Parliament Buildings on May 21st, 22nd and 23rd, July 8th and 9th, and September 23rd and 24th. Prior to the first meeting all members of the House were circularized by letter requesting suggestions and recommendations on the subject matter of the inquiry.

The Committee has had the advantage of the advice of Alex. C. Lewis, K.C., Clerk of this Assembly, and of Arthur Beauchesne, C.M.G., K.C., LL.D., Clerk of the House of Commons of Canada. Their criticisms, based on many years of experience in parliamentary practices, were of great assistance. The Committee also wishes to express appreciation of L. R. MacTavish, K.C., Municipal Legislative Counsel, who acted as Counsel and Secretary.

It will be helpful at this point to outline briefly the various types of "rules" and how each type operates. The Legislature is governed primarily by the Imperial statute that created it, namely, the British North America Act, 1867; secondly by its own statute, The Legislative Assembly Act; thirdly, the standing, sessional and other orders adopted by the House; and fourthly, the usages and customs of the House established by practice. Regulatory provisions in these four categories constitute the "rules" of the House and, so far as internal management is concerned, they are designed to secure an orderly and expeditious despatch of the business of the Assembly and to secure proper privileges to the members who are in the minority.

It will be seen, therefore, that the Assembly is always in complete control of its own procedures, subject to its required observance of the British North America Act, section 92 of which confers exclusive authority on the Legislature to amend its constitution in any respect except the office of Lieutenant Governor. Thus the Legislature may at any time repeal or amend The Legislative Assembly Act, and the Assembly may at any time revoke, amend or suspend any of its standing, sessional or other orders, or adopt a course of action contrary to existing custom or contrary to the Speaker's ruling.

Having regard to the above observations, the Committee considers it advisable to adopt the nomenclature in use at the Parliament at Westminster, the House of Commons of Canada and several of the Provinces and entitle what has been known heretofore as "Rules, Orders and Forms of Procedure" simply "Standing Orders". Thus this type of rule is aptly described by its title and the title does not give the impression of being all inclusive, which is a criticism of the present title. Standing orders do not purport to cover all contingencies that may arise, but on the contrary are designed to govern events that constantly recur—the usual rather than the unusual situation—leaving many matters to be governed by custom, or in any event as the House sees fit.

The present "Rules, Orders and Forms of Procedure" are divided into seventeen parts or chapters and 135 numbered paragraphs, though in fact there are many more than this as frequently more than one provision appears under one number. The Committee has reduced these to four parts, consisting of 102 main provisions, drawn in accordance with the modern drafting practices. Consequently, the Committee feels that a substantial improvement in form has been achieved, which will result in a welcome simplification and clarification of the procedures applicable to the regulation of the business of the Assembly.

Several important changes in substance appear in the recommended standing orders which are attached to and form part of this report.

For instance, provision is made for the House to sit in the afternoons from 2.30 until 5.30, with, when necessary, evening sittings from 7.30 until 10.30. On Wednesdays it is proposed that the House meet an hour earlier in order to provide for the weekly question hour, an innovation which will be mentioned later in this report.

In order to secure an orderly disposition of a session's business, two old practices are made the subject of standing orders. The first states that the budget is not to be presented until the debate on the address is completed, and the second, that the estimates are not to be considered until the budget debate is ended.

While no change is recommended in the daily routine business of the House, the standing order on the "Orders of the Day" provides for a set precedence for the business of each day and from day to day. On Mondays and Fridays precedence will be given to Government bills. On Tuesdays and Thursdays precedence will be given to the debate on the address or the budget debate, as the case may be. On Wednesdays, which open with the question hour, private members' business will have precedence.

Changes are recommended in the practice with respect to questions put by members. These are to be made in writing and filed with the Clerk. Those filed before Thursday adjournment are to be answered orally during the question hour on the following Wednesday, on which day the House sits one hour earlier than usual for the purpose of accommodating the question hour.

The chief recommendation with respect to committees is that the number of members composing a standing committee shall not exceed thirty and in the case of a special committee, fifteen, and that the quorum in each case shall be fixed at not less than one-third of all the members thereof.

Under the heading "Bills", the recommended standing orders abolish the present two days' notice of motion for leave to introduce a bill. Instead, it is provided that a bill is not to be read a second time until at least forty-eight hours, and in the case of a bill of a municipal nature, at least five days, have elapsed after it has been placed in printed form on the members' desks. These standing orders also provide that when a bill is reprinted it shall not be advanced through the next stage until at least twenty-four hours have elapsed after it has been placed in reprinted form on the members' desks. When a bill is amended, reprinting is obligatory unless the Speaker otherwise directs.

The recommended changes with respect to private bills are substantial. The procedures are simplified and many archaic requirements deleted. One petition instead of two need be filed and the time of filing petitions and bills is made uniform, namely, at least one week before the opening of the session. The present requirement of referring municipalities' bills of a certain nature to the Municipal Board is deleted, and the mandatory reference of estate bills to the Commissioners of Estate Bills for report is made permissive and left to the discretion of the Private Bills Committee. The filing fee for private bills is increased from $150 to $200 (the fee is now $500 in the Dominion, $300 in British Columbia and $200 in Quebec and Alberta) and the special fee applicable when borrowing by-laws and the like are validated is deleted.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. The Committee considers that the Standing Orders attached to this report will facilitate the conduct of the business of the Assembly, and therefore unanimously recommends their adoption. The Committee further recommends that if adopted the Standing Orders become effective on the 1st day of May, 1947, and that on that day the present Rules, Orders, and Forms of Procedure be revoked.

It is also recommended that the Standing Orders as adopted be printed as an appendix to the Journals of the present session, and that the Speaker be authorized to have sufficient copies printed in booklet form for distribution to the members.

In order that the members may have the statutory rules before them, it is recommended that the Speaker be authorized to have a companion booklet prepared and distributed containing The Legislative Assembly Act.

It is also recommended that the Speaker be authorized to have another companion booklet prepared for distribution to the members containing brief paragraphs on the unwritten rules of the Assembly, that is, matters that are governed by custom.

These three booklets will encompass most of the field covered by the rules and be available to the members in the most convenient form. It is perhaps superfluous to add that each booklet should be well indexed.

2. The Committee is of opinion that the sessional work would be improved if the leader of the Government and the leaders of the other groups in the House were to confer at the beginning of each session and agree upon the amount of time to be allowed to each of the chief items of sessional business, such as, the debate on the address, the budget debate, the estimates and legislation, with a view of avoiding undue haste in the standing committees and in the House at the close of the session. The Committee recommends accordingly.

3. The Committee is also of opinion that the sessional work would be improved and the members more effectively discharge their duties if the Public Accounts Committee were to meet as early in each session as practicable for the purpose of scrutinizing government expenditures and more particularly those items known as "Treasury Boards" and "Special Warrants" being items not specifically voted by the House, which are set out separately in convenient form in the Provincial Auditor's Report. The Committee recommends accordingly.

4. Doubt has been expressed as to the authority of the Speaker to function as such during the recesses of the Assembly, and there is no provision covering the hiatus in the office of Speaker between the dissolution of one Legislature and the election of a Speaker by the following Assembly (see the Legislature Act, Quebec, R.S.Q., c. 4, s. 42). The Committee recommends that consideration be given to amending The Legislative Assembly Act in order to make it clear that the Speaker functions as such during recesses of the Assembly and also to provide that the Speaker at the time of dissolution of a Legislature shall continue to function as such in so far as the internal administration of his office is concerned until a new Speaker is elected.

5. The Committee has considered the suitability of the name "Department of Legislation" and finds it inappropriate. It is recommended that consideration be given to changing it to "Office of the Legislative Assembly" as aptly describing its purpose and functions.

6. Section 2 of The King's Printer Act, which sets out the duties of the King's Printer, states in clause a that he shall act as accountant to the Legislative Assembly. The Committee recommends that this clause be repealed and that the duties of the accountant to the Legislative Assembly be performed by a person in the Office of the Legislative Assembly.

7. For a great many years section 6 of The Statutes Act has required the King's Printer to print, publish and distribute the statutes in the manner prescribed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council and approved by resolution of the Assembly.

The Committee recommends that the section be amended so that the statutory duty of printing, publishing and distributing the statutes will not be that of a public officer but that of a Minister of the Crown. Thus the Minister charged with the duty would be directly responsible to the Assembly.

8. At the time of Confederation the library of the Parliament of the Province of Canada was taken over by the Dominion and $100,000 given to Ontario as compensation and as a fund from which to create a new legislative library. This library, under the control of the Speaker and a standing committee of the Assembly, grew to 110,000 volumes by 1909, when it was substantially reduced by fire. It has now been rebuilt to 175,000 volumes. In this figure are included some 50,000 volumes of the Department of Education Library. This library for many years prior to 1922 was housed in the Normal School Buildings in Toronto and at that time was taken over by the Legislative Library and moved to Queen's Park.

On May 13th, 1921, an order-in-council was passed transferring to the Minister of Education the duty of general supervision of the Legislative Library, other than that provided by the House Committee. Since the retirement of the librarian in 1935 no annual report has been made to the Speaker as required by the Rules, nor has the Standing Committee on the Legislative Library functioned for many years.

The Committee recommends that consideration be given to the advisability of restoring the Legislative Library to the position existing prior to 1921, that is, returning it to the control of the Legislature.

It is to be noted that if this recommendation is not acted upon, Part IV of the Standing Orders recommended in this report should be deleted, as it consists of two standing orders dealing with the Legislative Library.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Dated at the Parliament Buildings, Toronto, this 1st day of December, 1946.

PRAYERS.

3 O'CLOCK P.M.

Mr. Creighton from the Select Committee appointed on April 4th, 1946, to inquire into Indemnities and Allowances of Members of the Legislative Assembly, presented the Committee's report, as follows:—

To the Honourable the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario:

GENTLEMEN:

A Select Special Committee was appointed on Thursday, April 4th, 1946, to study and inquire into the payment of indemnities and allowances to members of the Assembly, including special indemnities or allowances, or both, payable to the member recognized by the Speaker as occupying the position of Leader of the Opposition, and to the member who is elected as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House, and to any other member occupying a special position as a member, and including the nature, form and amount of such indemnities and allowances and all matters pertaining thereto, and to report upon what amendments are necessary or desirable to the existing law or what other action is desirable.

The Committee, so appointed and which now presents its report, comprises Messrs. Creighton (Chairman), Murphy, Davies, Oliver and Grummett and has been assisted by Mr. E. H. Silk, K.C., Legislative Counsel, who acted as counsel and secretary to the Committee.

SITTINGS: SUBMISSIONS: WITNESSES.

The Committee met at the Parliament Buildings at Toronto on the 10th and 11th days of July and the 24th and 25th days of September, 1946, and on the 7th day of March, 1947.

A letter, dated June 20th, over the signature of the chairman, was sent to each of the members of the Legislature reciting the appointment of the Committee and the scope of the inquiry and inviting each member to make suggestions or recommendations. Replies were received from a number of the members and these were carefully studied by the Committee. The views of the members of the Legislature as so expressed were of considerable assistance to the Committee in its deliberations.

The Committee called as witnesses the Honourable W. J. Stewart, Speaker of the Legislative Assembly; A. C. Lewis, K.C., Clerk of the House; T. E. Bowman, who is the Legislative Accountant as well as the King's Printer; Miss Mary Gaylord, who assists Mr. Bowman in his duties as Legislative Accountant and H. Cochrane of the Audit Office. Mr. Stewart and Mr. Lewis expressed their views with regard to several aspects of the matters under consideration. The evidence of the other three witnesses related principally to the practices followed in connection with the payment of indemnities and allowances.

SITUATION ELSEWHERE.

The situation with respect to members' indemnities and allowances in the legislatures of the other provinces of Canada, the Parliament of Canada, the Parliament of Great Britain, the central parliaments and local legislatures of the other Dominions in the British Commonwealth as well as the practices prevailing in the various States of the Union, was studied by the Committee. It is significant that allowances have recently been substantially increased for the members of the House of Commons at Westminster, members of the Senate and House of Commons in Canada, members of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of the Province of Quebec and members of the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia and that recommendations for substantial increases have been made in New York State.

A Select Committee of the House of Commons at Westminster was appointed on November 15th, 1945, to consider expenses incurred in connection with the parliamentary and official duties of the members of the House, including Ministers whose salaries are less than £5,000 per annum, their remuneration and their conditions of work and the report of the committee was recently published. In New York State a joint legislative committee of both Houses was appointed recently to study legislative methods, practices, procedures and expenditures and the committee has included in its final report, which was published in 1946, a chapter entitled "Compensation to Legislators". Both committees recommend increased allowances to the members of the respective legislative bodies. The recommendations of the committee in Great Britain have already been implemented by legislation. The recommendations of the New York State Committee await the action which is necessitated by the less flexible form of constitution of that jurisdiction.

INCOME WAR TAX ACT (CANADA).

Prior to the first sitting of the Committee, the Minister of Finance for Canada delivered his budget address in the House of Commons. Included in the resolution presented to the House at the conclusion of the address was a provision affecting the taxability, under the Income War Tax Act (Canada), of the allowances for expenses paid to members of provincial Legislatures. The portion of the resolution which is relevant is embodied in item 21 of the Budget Resolution. This principle has been implemented by the enactment of subsection 9 of section 3 of the Income War Tax Act (Canada) as provided in subsection 5 of section 2 of chapter 55 of the Statutes of Canada for 1946.

As inquiries made from appropriate officials at Ottawa indicated that the implementing legislation was not yet available, the chairman and counsel were requested by the Committee to attend upon responsible officials of the department of the Government of Canada charged with the administration of the proposed legislation for the purpose of discussing the effect thereof. On July 18th Mr. Creighton and Mr. Silk accordingly attended upon Mr. C. Fraser Elliott, the then Deputy Minister of National Revenue for Taxation, and discussed the proposed legislation and its effect with Mr. Elliott and Dr. Eaton of the Department of Finance. In formulating its recommendations, this Committee has done so in the light of the discussions had with Mr. Elliott and Dr. Eaton relating to the effect of the then proposed legislation and the practices which will be followed in the administration thereof.

AMOUNT AND FORM OF INDEMNITIES AND ALLOWANCES TO MEMBERS.

Much could be and has been said with respect to the inadequacy of the present sessional indemnity and other allowances payable to members, having regard to the responsibilities involved in the discharge of their duties both during and between sessions, and of the desirability of providing indemnities and allowances which will not only make it possible for persons to represent constituencies without making financial sacrifices which are possible only for men of means, but will also ensure for candidature persons competent to represent the constituencies of the Province. In the Committee's view such statements, which do not involve any new or unique principles, require no elaboration in this report.

The Committee feels that the public generally does not appreciate the extensive nature of the duties falling upon a member of the Legislature. The nature of his responsibilities requires him to keep in constant touch with his constituents and numerous public bodies within his constituency as well as with various departments of government at Queen's Park. This is particularly due to the increasing complexity of government problems of a local nature pertaining to such matters as highway improvement; the supervision of social services, including old age pensions and mothers' allowances; problems of health and welfare generally; contacts between municipalities and school authorities and the appropriate government departments; the presentation, now increasingly frequent, of private Bills for municipal and other purposes, and the problems connected with rural districts such as contacts between local agricultural interests and the Department of Agriculture. In some ridings, frequent contacts with the Department of Lands and Forests and the Department of Mines relating to local problems are necessary. The effect of this requires the maintenance of special office facilities in the constituency and adds very substantially to demands both on the time and pocket of the individual member.

The entire expenses incurred by a member in carrying out the above functions of his office must be borne by the member. There is no other provision for the payment of his expenses.

To appreciate fully the nature of the present indemnity it must also be borne in mind that the indemnity is intended to cover both compensation for services rendered and indemnity for expenses incurred in attending the sessions of the Legislature and in discharging his other duties. No part of it is in any sense exempted from taxes under the Income War Tax Act (Canada). Nor is there any provision for exempting from the taxes imposed by that Act any of the moneys expended by a member in carrying out the duties of his office. To the extent that the indemnity may be regarded as a reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses it will be seen that this is an exception to the ordinary principles of that statute under which income is subject to deductions for the amount of the bona fide expenses of the taxpayer incurred in earning his income.

Some observations on the development of the responsibilities of the members since the present rate of indemnity of $2,000 was first established in 1925 are, however, in order. At that time the membership comprised 112 members representing a like number of electoral districts, as compared with the 90 members and electoral districts of to-day. Notwithstanding such a reduction in the membership of the House which resulted in an enlargement of many of the electoral districts as well as increasing the responsibilities of each of the members of the Legislature, other factors have played a part in the period of a little over twenty years in increasing the obligations and responsibilities of the members necessitating the spending of a greater amount of time on their work as members. In that period the population of the Province has increased by more than 900,000 persons, an increase in excess of 29 per centum of the 1925 population. The growth in the business of operating the Province is indicated by comparing the gross ordinary expenditure of less than $52,000,000 in 1925 with the gross ordinary expenditure of more than $125,000,000 in 1946. When this comparison is being considered the total sums payable annually as members' indemnities in the years 1925 and 1946 and amounting to $224,000 and $180,000 respectively, should be examined in the light of the substantial increase of the annual expenditures involved in the business of government. The relationship of the respective amounts to gross ordinary expenditures during the years mentioned and those in the intermediate period can best be comprehended by reference to the fifth and sixth columns of the "Study of the Relationship of the Ontario Government's Gross Expenditure to Members' Indemnities—1925-46 Inclusive," prepared by the Ontario Bureau of Statistics and Research which appears as a schedule to this report.

Other features which are factors in rendering membership in the Legislature a task which requires almost the full time of the member are the advances made in legislation relating to social welfare, labour and agriculture. Modern transportation has also had the effect of requiring members to spend more time throughout their ridings and more time at the seat of the government attending to the needs of their constituents.

These developments in the government of the Province have substantially altered the nature and increased the scope of the obligations of members of the Legislature without providing any corresponding enhancement of the indemnities payable to them and in the view of the Committee it is apparent that the present indemnities are inadequate. In arriving at this conclusion, and in determining the amount by which the indemnity should be increased, and the nature of the allowances which should be made, it must be borne in mind that the increase is not in the nature of an increase in salary. The purpose of the increase is to render the payments to the members more in keeping with the actual expenses incurred by them and the time spent by them in the discharging of the duties of the office to which each has been elected. The amounts paid to them are not in the nature of compensation for services rendered, but rather as an indemnity to compensate them for the time lost from their occupations and for expenses incurred by them, or to express it in another way, to make it possible for each member to perform his work as a member without unreasonable personal sacrifices. It is then, for the most part, a matter of determining the amount by which the indemnity (using the term in its wider sense) should be increased and the form thereof. Other matters of an incidental or auxiliary nature are also dealt with.

INDEMNITY FOR REGULAR SESSION: EXPENSE ALLOWANCE.

In view of the nature of the expenditures which a member is called upon to make, as well as the effect of the Dominion legislation, it is desirable that each member should be paid an indemnity and an allowance for expenses. Consideration was given to paying each of these items on a monthly or yearly basis rather than upon a sessional basis. The Committee is of the view that the indemnity should be paid upon a sessional basis and the allowance for expenses upon a monthly basis. While it was inclined to relate the indemnity to regular sessions of the Legislature it does not appear feasible to define satisfactorily the term "regular session". It would appear however, in view of the practices which have prevailed in Ontario for many years, that the first session held in each year will in all probability be the regular session of the Legislature and that any special session of the Legislature which it may be necessary to call will likely fall later in the calendar year than the regular session. This assumption permits the date of payment of the indemnity to be related to the first session held in each calendar year. In the opinion of the Committee the present indemnity payable to each member should be increased to $2,400 and each member should also be entitled to an allowance for expenses incidental to the discharge of his duties as a member at the rate of $100 per month, payable monthly. The full amount of the indemnity ($2,400), which would be paid in respect of all sessional and other duties, regardless of the number or duration of the sessions held in each calendar year, should be payable at the conclusion of the first session held in the calendar year. Nor should any further indemnity be paid in that calendar year in the event of the calling of an election and the holding of a session of a subsequent Legislature during the same calendar year.

DURATION OF SESSION.

The Committee has carefully considered the principle embodied in subsection 1 of section 70 of The Legislative Assembly Act which renders payment of what may be termed "full indemnity" conditional upon a session continuing for the minimum period there prescribed. As experience has shown that the time required at a session for the completion of the business of the Legislature varies greatly from year to year and because the indemnity is, in the opinion of the Committee, paid in respect of duties performed both during and between sessions, the desirability of departure from such a principle would appear to be indicated. It is further to be observed that there should on no occasion be grounds for any suggestion that a session has been extended in order that the members might qualify for larger indemnities. The Committee would accordingly eliminate all requirements as to the minimum duration of a session.

DEDUCTIONS.

The Committee studied the practices which have been followed with respect to deductions made from sessional allowances for absence from a session or part of a session. While The Legislative Assembly Act is specific as to the deductions which shall be made, it has been the practice to pass a resolution each year which has been construed by those responsible for making the deductions as relieving all members from the incidence of the deduction provisions. The evidence before the Committee is that deductions have not been made from the members' indemnities for a great many years, if at all. Nor is the principle of making deductions a practical one for if a member appears at any committee of the House, or if he appears in his seat in the House during any part of the day's sittings he is entitled to be credited with his attendance for the day. In these circumstances it is easy to comprehend the difficulty of maintaining an accurate record of attendance at the session for each of the ninety members of Legislature.

In any event the Committee does not agree with the principle of making deductions from a member's indemnity for his failure to attend a session of the Legislature since, as stated above, it regards the indemnity payable to the members as an allowance payable in respect of services performed both during and between sessions. The Committee accordingly favours discontinuing the principle of making deductions for non-attendance.

MILEAGE ALLOWANCE.

The Committee would not interfere with the present mileage allowance made in respect of each session of the Legislature including special sessions. It would, however, extend the allowance so that it will apply to members of select special committees meeting between sessions, in respect of each series of meetings held by the Committee.

STATIONERY ALLOWANCE.

For many years a stationery allowance of $25 has been made to each of the members. The Committee was advised that this practice replaced a former custom of furnishing each of the members with a miniature trunk filled with stationery supplies at the commencement of each session. The authority for the allowance is a resolution which it has been the practice of the Committee on Printing to pass annually. This Committee favours discontinuing the allowance in its present form but takes the view that each member should be provided with ample correspondence paper and envelopes for his requirements as a member throughout the year.

SELECT COMMITTEES.

The Committee would allow each member of a select special committee sitting between sessions of the Legislature an allowance of $20 per diem to reimburse him for his expenses. This is the per diem rate presently prescribed for attendance at a session and it is difficult to comprehend why a lesser rate was prescribed for attendance at committee meetings when the section providing therefor was first enacted in 1919. Such an allowance should also be payable to any member of the committee who has occasion to perform any function as a member of a committee although he is not actually engaged in attending a meeting of the committee. Members of select special committees meeting between sessions of the Legislature should be paid mileage allowance at the regular rate as indicated above.

The Committee does not favour making any special allowances to the chairmen of select standing committees or select special committees sitting either during a session or between sessions.

INDEMNITIES AND ALLOWANCES TO MEMBERS HOLDING SPECIAL POSITIONS.

With respect to members holding special positions as members, the Committee has studied the indemnities and allowances payable to Mr. Speaker, the chairman of the committees of the Whole House and the Leader of the Opposition.

CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEES OF THE WHOLE HOUSE.

It is convenient to deal first with the chairman of the committees of the Whole House. The Committee sees no reason for departing from the present practice of paying the chairman of the committees of the Whole House an indemnity or salary of $1,000, such indemnity or salary to be payable at the conclusion of the first session held in each calendar year.

MR. SPEAKER.

At the present time, in addition to his indemnity and allowances as a member, it is the practice to vote the Speaker a salary of $2,500 and an allowance for expenses of $2,000. The salary vote is made pursuant to the general provisions of section 37 of The Legislative Assembly Act. There is no specific statutory authority for the vote for expenses. The amount voted as salary does not appear to have varied since 1906. In view of the nature of the duties and obligations which the Speaker is called upon to perform and discharge in carrying out the functions of his office the Committee favours increasing the Speaker's indemnity or salary to $3,000 and increasing his allowance for expenses to $2,500 and is of the view that it is desirable to have these amounts fixed by statute as in the case of other indemnities and allowances. Both amounts should be payable at the conclusion of the first session held in each calendar year.

LEADER OF THE OPPOSITION.

There is payable to the Leader of the Opposition, over and above the sessional indemnity mentioned in section 70, an additional sessional indemnity of $3,000. The Committee regards the office of the Leader of the Opposition as one which, in addition to the special indemnity that is paid, warrants a special expense allowance and favours an allowance for expenses of $2,000. Both the indemnity and the allowance for expenses should be payable at the conclusion of the first session held in each calendar year.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Your Committee accordingly recommends:

1. That there be paid to each member of the Assembly,
 - (a) an indemnity of $2,400, such indemnity to be payable at the conclusion of the first session held in each calendar year and no further indemnity to be paid in the same calendar year whether or not a further session or further sessions of the same or a subsequent Legislature are held in such year;
 - (b) an allowance for expenses at the rate of $100 per month, payable monthly from the date of his election; and
 - (c) a mileage allowance, as presently prescribed in subsection 1 of section 74 of The Legislative Assembly Act, be paid in respect of each session.
2. That the indemnity above recommended be paid regardless of the duration of the session or sessions held in each calendar year and that no deductions from sessional indemnity be made on account of absence from a session.

3. That,

- (a) the Committee on Printing be requested to consider the advisability of discontinuing the practice of recommending a stationery allowance to members; and
- (b) Mr. Speaker be requested to consider means of making available to the members of the Legislature all the correspondence paper and envelopes which may be necessary for their requirements as members throughout the year.

4. That each member of a select special committee be paid,

- (a) an allowance for expenses of $20 for each day's attendance at any meeting of the committee which is held between sessions of the Legislature;
- (b) a like allowance for each day during which he is absent from his home (other than days spent travelling to and from meetings of the committee) engaged in the work of the committee, although not actually attending a meeting of the committee; and
- (c) mileage allowance for attending each series of meetings of the committee held between sessions of the Legislature at the rate prescribed for mileage allowance payable to a member attending a session of the Legislature.

5. That The Legislative Assembly Act be amended to provide for the payment to Mr. Speaker of,

- (a) an indemnity of $3,000 payable at the conclusion of the first session of the Legislature held in each calendar year; and
- (b) an allowance for expenses of $2,500 payable at the conclusion of the first session of the Legislature held in each calendar year.

6. That there be payable to the member recognized by the Speaker as occupying the position of Leader of the Opposition,

- (a) an indemnity of $3,000 payable at the conclusion of the first session of the Legislature held in each calendar year; and
- (b) an allowance for expenses of $2,000 payable at the conclusion of the first session of the Legislature held in each calendar year.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Mr. Hall, from the Standing Committee on Agriculture and Colonization presented their Report which was read as follows and adopted:—

Your Select Standing Committee on Agriculture and Colonization begs leave to present the following as their Report:—

Your Committee met on March 26th and March 31st. At the first meeting Mr. Hall was elected Chairman of the Committee for the Session.

The Committee discussed with the Minister matters of importance relative to departmental administration.

Your Committee recommends that the Ontario Municipal Board be requested to grant Public Carrier Vehicle licenses more readily.

At the second meeting the members engaged in general discussion on milk and cheese prices and the view was expressed by the members that there is too much difference between the price received by the producer and the price paid by the Consumer. No action was taken pending the report of the Royal Commission on Milk.

Mr. Kennedy, Minister of Agriculture, replied to questions on the operation of the stockyards and the buildings at the Ontario Agricultural College. The Minister said the annual cost of operating the stockyards has increased by $93,000 due to increased labor costs and a reduction of $5 per ton in the price of hay sold to farmers bringing cattle to the yards. He said the Department plans alterations and additional accommodation at the O.A.C.

On motion of Mr. Johnstone (Bruce), seconded by Mr. Patrick, the committee approved suggestions by the Minister that trips be taken this year to acquaint the committee with farming practices in other sections of the province. A motion by Mr. Murdoch, expressing appreciation to the Chairman for ably conducting the meetings of the committee was unanimously endorsed by the members.

Mr. Drew moved, seconded by Mr. Frost, That this House is of the opinion that a strong federal system is the best form of government for Canada and approves the steps taken by the Ontario Government to preserve that system and to protect the established rights, customs and educational system of this Province; and a debate having arisen, after some time Mr. Oliver moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. Nixon,

That the Motion now before the House be amended by striking out the words "approves the steps taken by the Ontario Government" and substituting therefor the word "desires" and by adding to the Motion so that the Amended Motion will now read:—

"That this House is of the opinion that a strong federal system is the best form of government for Canada and desires to preserve that system and to protect the established rights, customs and educational system of this Province, but this House regrets that the Ontario Government has by the adoption of an uncompromising attitude toward the Dominion Government, and other Provinces, obstructed the establishment of social security measures needed and demanded by the citizens of Ontario, as well as hindered a redistribution of taxing powers which would reduce the incidence of double taxation and permit a timed public investment policy as a preventive against business recession."

The debate continued, and after some time, Mr. Grummett moved, in amendment to the amendment, seconded by Mr. Anderson,

That the amendment to the Motion now before the House be amended by the addition of the following words:—

"And this House regrets that both the government of Canada and the government of Ontario have used the failure to reach a Dominion-Provincial agreement as an excuse for not introducing essential measures of social security and social welfare, such as adequate old age pensions, health insurance, unemployment assistance and a vigorous housing program."

The debate was resumed and, after some time, the amendment to the amendment having been put, was lost on the following Division:—

2. That the Legislative Assembly authorize the establishment of a cash prize of $500.00 to be awarded every year to an Ontario artist whose picture is adjudged by a Committee of judges as the best of those entered for competition; that the pictures so entered for competition shall be amongst those exhibited at the annual exhibition of the Ontario Society of Artists; that the rules governing the competition shall be set by the Committee for Art Purposes and that the Province shall have an option for a period of fifteen days, to purchase the successful picture.

The Committee of Judges to be composed of the President of The Ontario Society of Artists, the Chairman of the Select Committee on Art, two artists and one layman.

3. That the sum of Seventy-five dollars ($75.00) be paid to Mr. Charles Comfort as an honorarium in recognition of his assistance in connection with the Committee's activities.

To these Bills the Royal Assent was announced by the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly in the following words:—

In His Majesty's name the Honourable the Lieutenant-Governor doth assent to these Bills.

His Honour was then pleased to deliver the following gracious speech:—

Before proroguing this session of the Twenty-second Legislature of the Province of Ontario, it is fitting that I should make some reference to the extent and variety of the legislation which has engaged your attention during the sittings in March and April, and again in this month. I am pleased also to refer to the faithful and conscientious manner in which you have dealt with these matters, and to thank you for the services which you have rendered in this way to the welfare and progress of our great Province.

It would not be possible, nor desirable, at this time to review the statutory provisions which result from the consideration and disposition, during this session, of no less than one hundred and seventy-one bills—public and private. Viewing your work as a whole it is evident that this Province is enjoying a period of prosperity and of unusual growth and expansion, and that in consequence you have had to deal with problems which result from growth and would not arise in a static society.

On the one hand you have maintained the proper relationships of a sound federal system, and in so doing have been able to provide the public revenues required by our expanding Provincial economy.

On the other hand in matters of Provincial concern you have provided for, and extended, the services which are directed to the assistance and encouragement of the many forms of business activities, by which our resources are turned to use and our production maintained at satisfactory levels; and in the sphere of social and individual well-being you have made many advances in education, health, welfare and kindred services.

I note with satisfaction a measure to protect the business records of individuals, partnerships and companies from removal beyond the jurisdiction of the Province, in compliance with the improper attempts of outside courts or authorities, having no jurisdiction in Ontario, to obtain possession of such records.

Although not a subject of legislation, I should like to commend you for the lead which was given during the session to the assistance, by individual and voluntary contribution of clothing and food given to the people in Great Britain who were most seriously affected this year by floods and inclement weather. The results of this campaign show the deep sympathy this misfortune has aroused in the people of Ontario.

This sympathy brings to our minds the very practical assistance which has also been given to the people of Great Britain who wish to make their future homes in Ontario. As is well known, the Government has stimulated this movement by providing Trans-Atlantic air transport at reduced rates, and in consequence has brought here, to enrich our Province, some thousands of young men and women, selected with a view, both to the many fields of employment which are now open, as well as to the housing conditions which prevail in Ontario as in other parts of the Dominion.

As I have said, satisfactory financial provisions have been made for carrying on the affairs of the Province for another year. In concluding may I thank you for these provisions as well as for your services as legislators. It is my hope and confidence that under the guidance of Divine Providence the legislation which you have enacted at this session and the consequences which will flow therefrom, will be of lasting benefit to the people of this Province.

The Provincial Secretary then said:—

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly:—

It is the will and pleasure of The Honourable the Lieutenant-Governor that this Legislative Assembly be prorogued and this Legislative Assembly is accordingly prorogued.

Report of the Standing Committee on Fish and Game

To the Legislative Assembly of Ontario.

GENTLEMEN:

The Standing Committee on Fish and Game for the Session of 1947 begs to report that meetings of the Committee were held on Tuesday, March 25th, 1947, and Wednesday, March 26th, 1947. At the first meeting Mr. Pringle was elected as Chairman.

The Hon. Mr. Scott, Minister of Lands and Forests, in a short address outlined the activities of the Branch of Wild Life and invited suggestions from the various organizations interested in hunting and fishing as to any improvements they thought could be made in the operations of the department.

Representations were made to the Committee by the following organizations and persons:

The Northern Ontario Game and Fish Protective Federation (South Zone).
The Northern Ontario Outfitters Association.
Ontario Federation of Anglers and Hunters.
Waterloo County Fish and Game Protective Association.
Welland Anglers Association.
Huntsville Fish and Game Association.
Huntsville Board of Trade.
Peterborough Fish and Game Protective Association.
Kenora and Patricia Fisheries Association.
Mr. T. A. Golden.
Mr. Len Hughes.

The Northern Ontario Game and Fish Protective Federation (South Zone) recommended that before forest lands are turned to agricultural purposes studies of the soil be made to determine the fitness of the land for such purposes; That revenue from forests be applied to the preservation, restoration and improvement of resources; That ranger schools be established affording facilities for the study of forest and wildlife; That the damage to game and fishery activities by sulphur fumes and mill waste be given careful study with a view to minimizing such damage; That all pelts of fur-bearing animals be stamped by game supervisors in the district in which the pelts are taken before they can be legally sold; That deer and moose licenses be issued for certain zones and only be valid in the zones for which they are issued; That in the Electoral District of Sudbury the deer and moose season be from November 1st to November 25th and that biological surveys be made to determine the fish and game population of the Province.

The Northern Ontario Outfitters Association asked that hatcheries and rearing ponds for muskies be established in the vicinity of Dryden and Nestor; That the number of overseers be increased in the Lake of the Woods Area; That no additional commercial fishing licenses be issued for Whitefish Bay; That the open season for muskies be closed on October 15th; That gill net fishing be prohibited in Shoal Lake Narrows on Lake of the Woods, in waters adjoining Little Current, in Sheguindah Bay, Frazer Bay, Baie Fine and McGregor Bay; That pickerel, pike and lake trout be classed as game fish in inland lakes and pickerel and pike be so classed in the Great Lakes; That the pollution or contamination of any lake or river be made unlawful.

The Ontario Federation of Anglers and Hunters asked that the fine for taking maskinonge illegally be a minimum of $50.00 and a maximum of $200.00 for each fish and that the 30-inch limit on maskinonge be retained for at least two additional years.

The Waterloo County Fish and Game Protective Association asked that a closed season be established in Northern Ontario during the lake trout spawning season; That the closed season on lake trout in inland waters of Southern Ontario be continued and that seized hunting and fishing equipment be sold only at public sales regardless of value.

The St. Catharines and Lincoln County Fish and Game Protective Association recommended that the taking of all fish except coarse fish by commercial means or by angling be prohibited during the spawning season.

The Welland Anglers Association recommended that the use of dip nets be prohibited in Welland County and that in Lake Erie the opening day for bass fishing be fixed at July 1st.

The Huntsville Fish and Game Association and the Huntsville Board of Trade recommended that a course of instruction for guides be instituted; That the minimum size for speckled trout to be taken be fixed at nine inches; That restocking of speckled trout be done in the fall instead of the spring; That the Department consider the establishment of a fur market under government supervision and that deer hunting licenses should be coloured differently for different areas.

The Peterborough Fish and Game Protective Association asked that Deer Lake Fish Hatchery be enlarged; That all fines for breach of Fish and Game regulations be increased; That representations be made to the Dominion Government to have the waters of the Trent Waterway System more rigidly controlled during the spawning season for lunge and bass; That the 30-inch limit on lunge be retained for a further period of at least three years; That the open season for pickerel and speckled trout open on May 1st and that four large lakes in Peterborough County be investigated to ascertain if maskinonge would thrive therein.

The Kenora and Patricia Fisheries Association telegraphed a recommendation that there be consideration given to the present system of permitting commercial gill net fishing on a tonnage basis in the smaller inland lakes in Northern Ontario.

Mr. T. A. Golden cited a number of authorities in support of his expressed opinion that commercial fishing does not damage game fishing and instanced the South Bay experiment as an example.

Mr. Len Hughes of Trout Mills recommended the establishment of a fish hatchery for the Dryden District to serve the Eagle Lake trout restocking; That an experiment similar to that carried on in South Bay be undertaken in the French River; That some provision be made by the Department to encourage commercial fishermen in Lake Nipissing so that coarse fish would not be thrown back into the lake after being taken, and That a school for guides be established in Northern Ontario.

Mr. Pringle, the Chairman, suggested that for confiscations the fines might be increased and a fee charged for the return of equipment.

The Minister assured those who had made recommendations that all suggestions would be given consideration when the regulations were under consideration.

The Committee adjourned for the Session at 1.00 p.m. on March 26th, 1947.
