at our City of Toronto in Our said Province this fourteenth day of February in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-nine and in the twenty-eighth year of Our Reign.

BY COMMAND

GEORGE MCCAGUE,
Acting Minister of Government Services.

Tuesday, the sixth day of March, 1979, being the first day of the Third Session of the Thirty-first Parliament of the Province of Ontario for the Despatch of Business pursuant to a Proclamation of the Honourable Pauline M. McGibbon, O.C., B.A., LL.D., D.U. (Ott.), B.A.A. (Theatre), Hon. F.R.C.P.S.(C), Lieutenant Governor of the Province.

3.00 O'CLOCK P.M.

And the House having met,

The Honourable the Lieutenant Governor then entered the House and, being seated on the Throne, was pleased to open the Session by the following gracious speech:—

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly:

We assemble for this, the Third Session of the Thirty-first Parliament of Ontario, at a time of unprecedented challenge and promise. The circumstances that prevail in our Province, in Canada, and, indeed, on the international scene, give rise to differing attitudes as to Ontario's prospects and expectations. For it is clear that not all the factors that shape our destiny lie within our control. Nevertheless, my Government approaches the future, both immediate and long-term, with faith and confidence, trusting in our abundance of human and natural resources and in the resourcefulness and abilities of our people.

The challenge which our nation holds for all Canadians will not be fully met until firm choices are made about the kind of nation we are to have. Similarly, the economic well-being of our nation will be of paramount importance in determining the opportunity we all share as Canadians.

Le défi qui se pose à tous les Canadiens ne sera pas pleinement relevé tant que l'avenir de notre pays n'aura pas fait l'objet de choix définitifs. De même, c'est de la prospérité économique de notre pays que dépendent essentiellement les chances qui s'offrent à nous en tant que Canadiens.

Honourable Members will realize, however, that security and prosperity for Ontario citizens are not pre-ordained, nor is the prescription for an assured future to be found in any known or readily available formula. Rather, we have learned, over the years, that the ingredients for progress are numerous and complex, encompassing many intangible factors, including the sense of confidence we possess in ourselves. My Government calls on this Assembly to provide significant leadership in advancing and shaping that spirit of confidence that is needed in Ontario and among its people.

At the same time, there is every recognition that, if the full potential of our talents and resources is to be realized, effective management must be the hallmark of all areas of government operation, as well as of the private sector of our economy. The measures to be introduced by my Government at this Session, and other programs relating to the on-going process of government, will be consistent with the requirements of good management.

Some may wish to argue as to whether the primary emphasis of this Session should be directed to improving the economic climate of Ontario or to improving the social services available to our people. In truth, extensive attention must be given to both. For it is clear that only if the economic circumstances in our Province remain strong will we be able to maintain and develop the programs that contribute to a fair and balanced society.

Ontario's citizens are among the most prosperous in the industrial nations. However, this prosperity, of which we can be justly proud, faces a strong wave of international competition, not only in regard to the sale of goods and services, but also in the location of new and expanded production facilities.

It is the Government's view that industry in Ontario will need to be carefully but aggressively supported in future years, as Canada adjusts to the new trading rules that will be established on the conclusion of the international trade talks in Geneva. Ontario will therefore be actively engaged in negotiations with the Federal Government on the outcome of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, and would expect that there will be a fair apportionment of Federal financial and technical assistance to our Province.

While there must be prudent limits to the use of public funds to attract industrial jobs, the social costs of not maintaining our industrial strength cannot be ignored. These social costs and the risk of losing long-term jobs have motivated the Government of Ontario to take firm action to ensure the cost competitiveness of the Province in attracting new jobs for our labour force.

Thus, as a matter of first priority, my Government will take specific measures that will ensure that the Ontario economy continues to expand in a positive and productive fashion. Such measures will not only bring the obvious benefits of increased employment opportunities and steady incomes, but will also add to the assured tax base of Ontario, thus contributing increased revenues from which important programs can be financed.

Primary among these efforts will be the establishment of an Employment Development Fund to offer appropriate assistance to industry in our province and spur economic activity and employment. The allocation of funds, monitoring of shifting economic priorities, and co-ordination of job-creation programs will be the responsibility of a special board of Ministers, chaired by the Treasurer. A single focus for submission, analysis and development of major proposals will be provided by the Minister of Industry and Tourism, as Vice-Chairman of the board.

But, if the Ontario economy is going to grow, and bring with it expanded opportunities for our people, it will require more than government assistance. Private sector investors will look for other factors that contribute to effective operations and which ensure that they can remain fully competitive in the marketplace. It is essential, therefore, that we point to a favourable, receptive climate that offers such important features as skilled manpower, harmonious labour/industry relations, price and wage stability, assured energy supplies at competitive prices, fair taxation policies, and government determination to avoid unnecessary controls, regulation, and expenditures.

Progressive measures can be expected, during this Session, in all these areas.

The present education structure does not meet fully today's need for highly skilled persons in the manufacturing and service industries. In answer to this need, my Government will implement a comprehensive business and industrial training program, involving our secondary schools, colleges, organized labour and the business community.

This will mean a realignment of secondary school technical programs with post-secondary programs, innovative trades study courses and an expansion of apprenticed trades as well as of the new Employer-Sponsored on-the-job training initiatives. Emphasis will be placed on providing guidance information on job market and training opportunities in the industrial sector. At the same time, efforts will be made to develop a more positive attitude among young people, and their parents, toward careers in the skilled trades.

Under existing arrangements a number of manpower responsibilities—job creation and retention, training, placement, counselling and the compilation and analysis of essential labour market data—fall within the jurisdiction of several ministries. To ensure that these activities are planned and implemented in the most effective way, both internally and in relation to federal programs, the Minister of Labour will be designated the Minister of Labour and Manpower, and will be given the appropriate mandate to guide and co-ordinate the Government's manpower activities.

Continued high priority will be given to special programs for women in the public and private sectors. In addition to the on-going programs of the Women's Bureau and the Women Crown Employees' Office, the Ministry of Labour will establish an Equal Opportunity Advisory Committee, composed of senior labour and management representatives.

As an important step toward better labour/management relations, Ontario established, last fall, the first Quality of Working Life Centre in Canada. This unique co-operative experiment by labour, management and government will embark on a program of pilot projects and educational activities aimed at increasing employee participation in decision-making in the workplace, improving labour relations and enhancing productive performance. The Centre will continue to be guided and assisted in its activities by an advisory committee of leading members of the labour and business communities.

At the last Session, the Minister of Labour tabled a report of an Industrial Inquiry Commission which identified problems in the process and structure of grievance arbitration. This Session, the Government will introduce amendments to The Labour Relations Act designed to reduce the costs for arbitration, to provide third-party assistance in resolving grievances prior to arbitration, and generally to enable the process to be carried out in the fairest and most expeditious manner.

Despite the over 133,000 new jobs created in Ontario in 1978—a record high since 1974—unemployment levels remain unacceptable as more people are entering the workforce than ever before. This creates a particular burden on the capacity of our economy to expand and embrace the many citizens who seek to earn their place within it.

We are encouraged, however, by the fact that almost all of these new jobs were created by the private sector, which can be taken as significant justification for a policy of limiting public sector growth to allow the private sector to expand.

Some 2,000 labour contracts will come due for negotiation in Ontario in 1979. It is important that all parties to these negotiations show reason and moderation, if inflationary pressures on the economy are to be resisted. However, the battle against inflation, if it is to be fair and successful, must be fought at all levels. Prices and incomes—including executive salaries and professional fees—must all be restrained, if we are to break the momentum of self-perpetuating inflation.

The Government will seek to set an appropriate example by following the precepts of bargaining in good faith, while insisting on recognition of the dollar value of job security, pensions and other fringe benefits in wage and salary negotiations with its own public servants.

Nevertheless, as has been recognized at recent federal-provincial conferences, any successful effort to contain the problem of inflation must be undertaken as a matter of national priority. My Government will, therefore, do everything within its power to co-operate with the Federal Government in combatting unacceptable inflationary trends.

Consistent with this commitment, Ontario will continue the effective steps already taken to manage government spending so that public expenditures do not, in themselves, contribute to rising inflation. Further, while recognizing the limits imposed on any provincial jurisdiction in controlling the general monetary situation, we are prepared to take further action.

Since food prices are unquestionably a matter of great concern to the average citizen, the Ministry of Consumer and Commercial Relations will assist consumers in making informed choices, by establishing a program to monitor and report on prices across the province. Significant market trends will be analyzed as they develop, and periodic reports will address specific problem areas.

Further, because of the particularly sharp price increases in many imported foods, caused primarily by the decline in the value of the Canadian dollar, my Government intends to launch a province-wide campaign, immediately, to advise and assist consumers on ways to reduce their food costs by using Ontario-grown, fresh and processed agricultural products.

As well, an extensive campaign will be undertaken, in conjunction with the "Shop Canadian" program, to persuade the people of Ontario as to the merits of import substitution through the purchase of a wide variety of Canadian manufactured goods. It is clear that a determined move toward self-sufficiency in respect of basic goods and services will not only contribute to effective price stability, but will also increase the prospect of assured supply. In this context, government support of projects, such as that intended to demonstrate the productivity of green-house complexes, through the use of waste heat from nuclear generating stations, takes on new importance.

Keeping in view the energy needs of industry and the private citizen, the Government, through the Ministry of Energy, will continue efforts to ensure that options for Ontario's future supplies are as flexible as possible.

First, the Government recognizes the primary importance of electricity as a source of energy for this province. Foreign political instability makes it mandatory that we continue policies and programs that safeguard and enhance Ontario Hydro's production facilities as a future guarantee of domestic supplies. What appears to be an oversupply of electrical energy today, may well become essential to our continuing prosperity within a comparatively short period of time.

Transient and essentially unpredictable changes in demand may alter considerations of timing, but it would be highly irresponsible to weaken the Province's commitment to the generation of electricity from nuclear power as a safe, secure and efficient means of protecting present and future generations of Ontarians. Energy security now and in the future will not be inexpensive; yet we will be able to finance this security at prices, to the consuming public, lower than in almost all other jurisdictions.

As part of the continuing search for alternative energy sources, my Government hopes to conclude, shortly, a $58 million, 5-year bilateral cost-sharing agreement with the Government of Canada to demonstrate, in co-operation with the private sector, new technology in energy conservation and renewable energy.

Through the Ontario Energy Corporation, support will be given to energy-related business development, including projects using by-product power and energy from waste. Changes will be made in the financing and organization of the Energy Corporation to enable it to take a more active role in the achievement of energy and economic policy objectives in Ontario.

At the national level, the Government will ensure that the interests of Ontario's industrial, commercial and residential consumers will be vigorously represented in matters relating to the export, transmission and pricing of natural gas and security of supply of other energy resources.

The driving force of our economic system is private enterprise and initiative. It is entrepreneurs in businesses, big and small, who create new products, new businesses and new jobs through the application of brains and skills, and their willingness to take considerable financial risks. It is vital to our economic future that we maintain a climate of opportunity for innovative and imaginative individuals. My Government believes potential rewards must justify the considerable risks. Accordingly, measures will be introduced to encourage the flow of risk capital into new and expanding small businesses.

Likewise, Ontario's tourism industry, which experienced a 16 per cent growth in revenue last year, will be aggressively supported by the Government in 1979. There will be a substantial increase in tourist promotional investment.

Phase Two of the highly successful hospitality awareness program—"We Treat You Royally"—will be launched in May. An important new element of the program will train 25,000 employees of the hospitality industry and make for better service and better business among participating operators.

If private enterprise is to operate effectively, it must be freed from obstacles created by excessive government regulation. Steady progress has been made since the adoption, just under a year ago, of a government-wide policy to improve the regulatory process. There can be, of course, no dispute that a certain measure of government regulation is essential. However, it is equally important that such controls be consistent, effective, and administered without undue interference or excessive cost.

A significant share of the problems faced by small business can be traced to government regulation. It is a situation that must be corrected if this vital segment of the community is to thrive. My Government will ensure that, in implementing recommendations from various sources, special attention is paid to items that affect small business.

In other areas of operation, continued efforts will be made to improve existing legislation, regulations, and administrative structures in an exercise which will affect all levels of government. Various legislative amendments will be proposed to clarify statutory requirements, remove oblique or obsolete references, and simplify procedures. Consumer legislation will be amended to give self-regulatory responsibilities, where appropriate, to industries, associations, or municipalities.

For example, the Minister of Consumer and Commercial Relations will introduce a program of self-regulation for general insurance agents and brokers that will permit them to serve the public as effective advisers and consultants, while continuing to provide the necessary financial and trust account control.

Major emphasis will be placed on the consolidation of regulatory authority for specific programs into single areas of responsibility. This will be one of the features of important new legislative proposals for The Planning Act, the aim of which will be to accelerate and streamline the process of community planning approvals.

The Government also recognizes the need to give attention to the manner in which it serves the public, as being consistent with the need for appropriate and adequate legislation. To this end, new programs will be developed to ensure easier access to government by citizens who need information or assistance.

My Government would consider these two factors as key to a relationship of mutual trust between people and government. It is important that there be the fullest possible access to government by the people. Government must also try to limit its regulatory function to such uses as are absolutely necessary and for the benefit and protection of those served. The degree to which these elements co-exist is itself a measure of the strength of the democratic process.

Ontarians can take satisfaction and pride from the fact that their productive efforts have made it possible to develop and maintain a large variety of social programs. Full educational opportunity, care and concern for those afflicted by illness and need, necessary representation in legal affairs, as well as many other important protections have become fundamental to our way of life.

By the same token, the high standard and the effectiveness of law enforcement in our Province are a testimony to an orderly way of life based on an historical respect for law by the vast majority of our people. If Ontario is to continue to enjoy this high level of protection, there is a real need for full public support of the police function. That function is the protection of our people against all criminal acts by those who are not content to live within the law. The objective, simply stated, is the protection of society. It is a goal which will be pursued through continued emphasis on efficient management and a professionalism, tempered by compassion, in the administration of justice.

In pursuing efforts to secure full social justice for all members of the community, my Government proposes several initiatives, which government alone can take, to assist specific groups of citizens. It is, of course, incumbent on us, particularly in times of fiscal restraint, to ensure that wastefulness, misuse and duplication of service relating to these programs are eliminated. Every effort is being made to achieve this end.

For the past two years the Ministry of Community and Social Services, together with the Ministry of Transportation and Communications, has been providing special transit services for the physically disabled on a pilot project basis in five communities.

Building on the success of this program, the Government will take steps to make these projects permanent. Introduction of a gradual expansion to other communities will begin without delay. The program will continue to depend on volunteer involvement. At the same time, provision will be made for grants to municipalities through amendments to The Public Transportation and Highway Improvement Act.

The Government will move toward a modest expansion of several pilot projects which were launched recently to provide special accommodation and necessary attendant care for the young physically disabled. These projects have been remarkably successful in enabling these young people to maintain a life in the community—in many cases going to work or school and working toward being self-supporting.

The Ministry of Community and Social Services will develop ways to ensure that social assistance programs provide positive incentives to enable sole-support mothers and disabled persons who wish to become self-supporting, to take and maintain full-time employment. Improved part-time work incentives will be introduced to help disabled persons on social assistance.

My Government has also been most concerned to ensure that young people are not disadvantaged in the search for work. For this reason, the Government proposes to continue the Ontario Youth Employment Program during the summer months.

The Government will continue to pursue the reshaping of health care delivery services to ensure both excellence of service and effective management.

Citizens may be assured, however, that Ontario's health care programs, and other programs which now ensure adequate protection for those who may not always be in the best position to help themselves, will remain solidly in place. For example, after careful review, the Government has decided that the Drug Benefit Program for senior citizens and other persons in need of assistance should not be altered. The social value to Ontario is too great to allow any diminution in the quality or quantity of such significant social advances.

Home Care services for chronically ill patients who wish to live at home, but who require some nursing and other medical assistance to do so, will be extended. A significant number of beds will be added to the system for persons needing long-term nursing home or chronic hospital care, where need is identified through the health-planning process. It is the intention to establish placement co-ordination services to ensure that patients requiring such care are placed in the most appropriate setting.

Out-patient services and day surgery programs will be expanded in a number of hospitals.

The Ministry of Health will work with local boards of health to upgrade their programs by developing standards for such public health services as immunization and family planning.

The Government's many programs and policies to preserve and strengthen the vitality of rural and remote parts of Ontario reflect a concern that Ontarians, however far removed from larger or more accessible centres, must be enabled to share the opportunities afforded others of their fellow citizens.

With this aim in view, Honourable Members will be asked to consider a new Local Services Boards Act to address some of the needs of communities in Northern Ontario that lack municipal organization. This will be in the form of enabling legislation so that those communities, if they wish, may give elected local bodies the power to raise revenues and provide basic services.

The Ministry of Northern Affairs will also seek ways to provide a greater range of television service for remote areas in order to overcome the sense of isolation that exists for many Northern residents.

In the agricultural community, the Government proposes to support the Foodland Guidelines policy adopted at the last Session by establishing a modified grants program to maintain and enhance productivity on farms. The grants will be given mainly for water and erosion control projects, as well as to assist in construction of selected farm production facilities.

Special attention will be given to the need to assure that farmers are protected by minimum farm machinery warranties and contract standards.

Agricrew, a popular pilot project of the Ministry of Agriculture and Food last year, will be expanded to a province-wide program that will provide students an opportunity for new training and employment. The program offers support to farmers during peak harvest periods and for improvements to farmsteads.

At the same time, Ontario will press the Federal Government for continuation of the Agricultural Rehabilitation and Development Agreement or for a similar program, as being of crucial importance to continued growth in Northern and Eastern Ontario.

A major new fisheries management initiative will be launched by the Ministry of Natural Resources to maintain fisheries resources throughout Ontario and, indeed, to rebuild some already lost in the Southern part of the Province. Efforts will be made to improve the stock in the Great Lakes, by working more effectively with the International Joint Commission and the Great Lakes Fisheries Commission. The scope of the program calls for significant new policies as an investment in the future. The environmental as well as the economic benefits are paramount.

Over the past two years, the Ministry of Natural Resources has worked with the forest industry on bringing together the harvesting and regeneration phases. As a result of these consultations, the Government will introduce amendments to The Crown Timber Act to provide for contractual arrangements with timber harvesting companies for the management of specific forest lands. The effect of these agreements will mean the transfer of much of the forest management work to the private sector, while the responsibility to maintain the productivity of forest land will remain with government.

My Government has taken into account the public comments on proposed amendments to The Environmental Protection Act concerning spills of toxic substances. Legislation will be re-introduced which will broaden the Government's authority to order control, clean-up and restoration, with liability provisions for compensation for damages resulting from spills.

Ontario has made major advances in the water quality of the Great Lakes in co-operation with the Federal Government, and with United States agencies through the International Joint Commission. Now that a new international agreement is in effect, the Canada/Ontario Agreement is being revised, with emphasis on the control of toxic substances, and on pollution of the Great Lakes from land use and airborne contaminants.

Commitments have been made for research and analysis for better understanding of low level environmental contaminants which can build up in living tissue. This new knowledge is being incorporated in a thorough revision of water quality programs, guidelines and objectives, to be released shortly by the Ministry of the Environment.

Throughout 1979, the observance of the International Year of the Child offers a special opportunity to reinforce the awareness that our children are the single most important assurance for the future.

Government initiatives that will be taken include an intensive immunization awareness campaign directed at the public, and particularly at parents of young children. Specialized services such as poison control centres will be established in the children's hospitals.

Following on legislation, two years ago, giving all children equal status before the law, and recently enacted provisions for children's services, my Government will introduce a second phase of The Children's Law Reform Act to recognize the best interests of the child in custody and access cases.

Foster care programs for mentally retarded and emotionally disturbed children will be expanded. Increased funding will be allocated to programs to counter child abuse.

These programs for children will be supported throughout the government and in the community by scores of other activities, many of which will be by way of celebration. In this vein, this year's Civic Holiday on August 6 will be declared Children's Day in all provincial parks.

My Government is able to report steady progress in the provision of French-language services in Ontario and will introduce enabling amendments under The Evidence Act to give appropriate status to Ontario statutes in French. This follows on last year's implementation of a system to prepare such translations.

The multicultural reality of Ontario is characterized by a tradition of fairness and harmony among its citizens. It is, however, a tradition that requires dedicated effort to ensure that multiculturalism remains the positive force that it can be in our society. Through our schools, through other social institutions and through individual example, we must develop attitudes that further the equality and dignity of all people.

My Government sees its role in maintaining a harmonious society as one of leadership as well as of responsiveness. To this end, the Government intends to restructure the Advisory Council on Multiculturalism to make it a more dynamic force in the promotion of cultural retention and sharing. As well, every effort will be made to enlarge the scope of effective communication between government and the various ethnic communities so that they may understand and gain full participation in the Canadian way of life.

My Government reaffirms its deeply felt commitment to a strong and unified Canadian nation, and renews its pledge to contribute in a positive and constructive manner to intergovernmental discussions which have as their urgent purpose a renewed Constitution for Canada that will be in the best interests of all Canadians.

It is our firm conviction that a renewed Constitution is a high priority of this nation, in order to provide a framework in which all citizens and regions can enjoy growth and prosperity within the context of a harmonious and flourishing country.

The general principles governing Ontario's approach in this respect are, we believe, supported by the people of Ontario. They are:

- preservation of the unity of Canada;
- preservation of a strong central government with adequate powers to pursue the national interest, and provincial governments that reflect the regional diversities that are the Canadian heritage;
- preservation of a union which ensures free movement and a free flow of goods, services, capital and people from coast to coast;

- preservation of an economic union underscored by a commitment of all provinces and regions to contribute to each other's well-being, and, generally, to share each other's endowments, on a privileged basis as Canadians first;
- preservation of the Monarch as Head of State for Canada;
- finally, to bring the Constitution home as soon as possible so that Canadians, as proud inheritors of these traditions, can deal, as a mature and independent people, with their own self-governance.

My Government believes that these principles are fundamental to a strong and united nation. In future Constitutional discussions we will continue to build on them, sensitive always to the expressed and perceived concerns of our Native people and of our partners in the Canadian Confederation.

However, the Government places a caution unequivocally before the citizens of this Province and of Canada as a whole: namely, that Ontario will not negotiate sovereignty association with the Government of Quebec. We wish to work with the Province of Quebec within the Canadian framework and we will strive to do so with vigour.

Our two Provinces share similar experience and traditions as founding partners in the Canadian nation. We are compatriots and friends. My Government has inherent understanding and support for the great French-speaking partner of our Confederation in its efforts to preserve the French identity, language, culture and heritage. Within our own Province, we have pursued and accomplished significant measures, and will continue to develop further measures to recognize our mutual duality in language, culture and tradition.

It is the firm conviction of my Government that, having full regard to the real and understandable aspirations of the people of Quebec, the interests of all will best be served by retaining the national boundaries that now designate the Canadian nation.

To this end, it is my Government's intention to place a resolution before this House, in the hope that it will receive unanimous support and put on record the will of the Legislators of this Province.

Honourable Members, the program presented for your consideration will seek to consolidate Ontario's position within Confederation; to promote efficient and effective management of government programs; to sustain economic stability and opportunity for the people of Ontario, and to advance their social well-being.

May Divine Providence guide your deliberations.

In our Sovereign's name, I thank you. God bless the Queen and Canada.

Her Honour was then pleased to retire.

That the ordinary business of the House be set aside to discuss a matter of urgent public importance under Standing Order 34, namely, the failure of the province to provide the funds necessary to avert the fare increase of the Toronto Transit Commission, a matter of extreme urgency because,

- (1) ridership has been declining and a fare increase is expected to accelerate that decline;
- (2) falling TTC ridership jeopardizes the long-term viability of the transit system in Ontario's largest municipality, the decline of which would have serious energy use and financial implications for all citizens of Ontario;
- (3) the Metropolitan Government has agreed to match the required additional Provincial contribution;
- (4) Toronto is asking, not for special treatment, but for equal treatment with other large municipalities of Ontario;
- (5) without the additional funds, the fares will increase on March 12, 1979".

Mr. Speaker addressed the House as follows:—

This afternoon, Mr. Sterling, on what he considered to be a point of order, requested a ruling on the question of the expenditure of funds by a subcommittee without the express authority of the standing committee from which it is composed.

I must point out that it is an established rule of procedure that the Speaker and the House may not deal with matters originating in a committee unless they are properly brought to the House by a report of the committee presented by the Chairman thereof.

I realize that Mr. Sterling has raised an important question in view of the fact that the provision for subcommittees is new in our Standing Orders and the provision of budgets to standing committees is a very recent development. I therefore suggest that this is a question which should properly be considered by the Procedural Affairs Committee which might be inclined to bring in a report to the House proposing guidelines for the proceedings of subcommittees and generally for the expenditure of funds by standing committees and subcommittees thereof.

Mr. Speaker then delivered the following ruling:—

This afternoon, the Member for Sudbury East, Mr. Martel, introduced a Bill entitled An Act respecting Insured Services under the Ontario Health Insurance Plan. At the time that the Member made his explanation of the Bill's purpose, I felt that it was a money bill. However I reserved a ruling on it until I could examine it more carefully. Having done so, it is obvious to me that as the Bill would increase the services under OHIP, it must of necessity increase the expenditure of public funds under the Plan.

I must rule that the Bill is a money bill which can only be introduced by a Minister of the Crown supported by a message from the Honourable the Lieutenant Governor. The Bill is therefore Out of Order and must be omitted from the Order Paper.

The House resolved itself into a Committee to consider certain Bills:—

THE EVENING SITTING

FORTY-EIGHTH DAY

FRIDAY, MAY 25TH, 1979

PRAYERS

10.00 O'CLOCK A.M.

Mr. Gaunt from The Standing Social Development Committee presented the Committee's report concerning Lakeshore Psychiatric Hospital as follows and moved its adoption:

(1) Your Committee recommends and affirms that the Lakeshore Psychiatric Hospital site be retained in public ownership.

(2) Your Committee could reach no consensus on the matter of in-patient transfers and the opinions of the three parties are as follows:

Progressive Conservative Party

The Progressive Conservative Party endorses the decision to make use of existing, unused capacity for in-patient psychiatric treatment at the Queen Street Mental Health Centre and at the Hamilton Psychiatric Hospital by ceasing use of out-dated facilities at the Lakeshore Psychiatric Hospital for in-patient care.

Liberal Party

In that the Liberal Party believes that the inpatients of Lakeshore Psychiatric Hospital should obtain the benefits of a more modern facility, we recommend that these inpatients be transferred to the Queen Street Mental Health Centre provided:

- (a) that the transfer can be accomplished in an orderly, well-planned fashion and that no transfers take place until such a plan has been submitted by the Minister to the Social Development Committee, and
- (b) that the Minister of Health be required to make a report on the state of the transfers to the Social Development Committee for examination and discussion no later than November 30, 1979.

New Democratic Party

Since we oppose the closing of Lakeshore Psychiatric Hospital, for the many reasons set forth in our Dissenting Opinion which is attached to this Report, we believe that the present in-patient population should and must remain at Lakeshore.

(3) Your Committee recommends and affirms that all existing out-patient services presently connected to Lakeshore Psychiatric Hospital be retained; and further, that these community services be expanded and enriched beyond the level they were prior to January 22nd, 1979, and that no administrative difficulties associated with the transfer of the in-patients be permitted to interfere with the achievement of this goal.

Dissent by the New Democratic Party:

We believe that the existing out-patient services presently located on the Lakeshore site should remain there.

(4) Your Committee strongly recommends that the employees at Lakeshore Psychiatric Hospital be retained to the fullest possible extent, and that every assistance be given to these employees (including management employees) in locating alternative employment.

Dissent by the New Democratic Party:

Since we believe that the closing of the Lakeshore Hospital is a very serious mistake, we do not think that any employees should lose their jobs.

(5) Your Committee recommends and stipulates that an independent survey be undertaken immediately in order to study the in-patient and out-patient services in Greater Toronto, and that this survey be completed in two years and be made public and be used as the basis for future planning of mental health services.

Dissent by the New Democratic Party:

We believe that an independent survey is very much in order before any decision is made to terminate any aspect of Lakeshore's present facilities, services or staff. Such an investigation should be completed and made public within six months.

Dissenting Opinion of the New Democratic Party:

After four weeks of hearings we believe that the evidence is overwhelming that there is no justification for closing Lakeshore Psychiatric Hospital at this time.

We are quite dismayed that the Ministry of Health did not undertake a systematic evaluation of the $116,000 McKinsey Role Study of the three Metro Toronto Psychiatric Hospitals, especially in view of the central recommendation that both Whitby and Lakeshore Psychiatric Hospitals be rebuilt to service the mental health needs in their communities.

We wish, at the outset, to state our fundamental disagreement with the Minister of Health, for the way in which he reached his decision to close Lakeshore Psychiatric without prior planning and consultation with those directly involved with the provision of mental health services in Metropolitan Toronto.

We recognize the need for a full systems approach to mental health services, but we are shocked that the Minister would contemplate shutting down an integral part of the delivery of psychiatric care without even having undertaken such a complete study let alone evaluating its conclusions.

In lieu of further study, we find it highly inconsistent to accept the logic of the McKinsey study to support the rebuilding of Whitby Psychiatric but not the rebuilding of Lakeshore.

We wish to note four areas of concern which substantiate this view. First, there is the budgetary situation; second, the quality of Lakeshore; third, the capacity of Queen Street, and fourth, the need for community services.

1. As the Minister has explained repeatedly, budgetary considerations were paramount in the decision to close Lakeshore. While we recognize the need to make the most efficient use of taxpayers' money, we must fault the present government for having overbuilt the renovated Queen Street Mental Health Centre to a capacity of 700 beds, despite the protests from the staff at the time that this would make it too large.

We must express deep concern that the Psychiatric Services allocation in the 1979-80 Estimates is projected to increase by only 3%, as opposed to an overall increase of 6% in the Health budget. This does not indicate a commitment to maintain existing services, let alone to expand them.

We must raise serious questions about why sufficient funds cannot be found in the current $4.182 billion Health budget to phase in the rebuilding of the Lakeshore facility over a number of years, as recommended by the Government Services report on Lakeshore in 1977, the Member for Lakeshore, and the Ontario Public Service Employees' Union.

Finally, we must state unequivocally, that it is most inappropriate to determine how much will be allotted for new out-patient services on the basis of halving the initial savings derived from shutting down the psychiatric hospital and laying-off nearly 200 employees. It is noteworthy that there was not one mental health professional who was willing to state that the proposed $1.3 million was a sufficient amount to put in place a network of community services.

2. Regarding Lakeshore Psychiatric, we appreciate the testimony from the staff, psychiatric professionals and community groups, that Lakeshore has functioned as an excellent community psychiatric hospital.

We were impressed by the praise from all concerned for the high quality of staff and in- and out-patient programs at Lakeshore. We were informed of the close relationship which Lakeshore enjoys with the general hospitals, psychiatrists and community groups. We accept their belief that such a backup facility, located in the Western Toronto region, is needed to treat the seriously disturbed, violent and chronic patients who cannot be accommodated in the general hospital psychiatric wards.

We take very seriously the remarks of a senior director at Queen Street who stated that Lakeshore is being punished for having done such a "terrific job" in placing people in the community. We draw attention to the comment of Dr. Anderson, "If they (Lakeshore) had not done as good a job in moving people out, if they hadn't developed a first-class out-patient department, they wouldn't be closing, and the rest of the community in psychiatry are watching what happens to people who do a good job."

We are distressed by the anguish which has been caused amongst the staff by the Minister's precipitous action, and with the further uncertainty caused by the recent indeterminate assurance that some programs would be retained on the Lakeshore site.

We are concerned about the viability of the superb program involving more than 300 volunteers. The President of the Lakeshore Volunteers' Association, Celia Royce, told us that they would lose their effectiveness if the hospital were closed, and this would be most unfortunate.

Finally, we have been persuaded by the Ontario Fire Marshal, the Etobicoke Fire Inspector and the Lakeshore staff that any suggestion that the institution is a fire hazard is a gross distortion. In fact, the administration has responded promptly—within the limits of the budget—to the recommendations for improving the safety of the buildings, and the fire safety experts have concluded that it is a safe facility.

3. Regarding Queen Street Mental Health Centre, we wish to acknowledge that it is only sensible to utilize fully these modern facilities—excessively large as they are.

However, we believe that there is reason to expect that a 20% increase in Queen Street's catchment area, as recommended by McKinsey, will result in proper utilization of this facility within the next few years.

At present, we are deeply disturbed by the attempt to coalesce two hospitals, with medium-sized patient loads and the highest admission rates in Ontario, into one large institution, because this defies the prevailing wisdom that we need smaller community-based in-patient facilities. This merger will result in a 700 bed institution, the largest in all of Ontario with over 4,000 in-patients per year, serving an area of close to two million people, and it is anticipated that there will be continued rapid population growth.

With the addition of Lakeshore's patients, Queen Street will reach an occupancy rate of approximately 85% this year. This leaves no buffer for increased admission, and we note with concern the fact that there has been a 34% increase in admissions to Queen Street from the hospitals in the old catchment area in the first 3½ months of 1979. A sign of the imminent problems is the fact that the medical staff of Queen Street have already communicated their concern about administrative difficulties, overcrowding, premature discharges and increased disturbances within the hospital.

Furthermore, we note that it is apparent that 48 of the 100 beds, which are supposed to be surplus at the Hamilton Psychiatric Hospital, would be in facilities which the Administrator, Mr. Morin, admits should be demolished. Thus, we have grave concern about any attempt to reduce the number of psychiatric beds to 0.35 per 1000 of population in Metro Toronto by closing Lakeshore, when McKinsey stated that a minimal level would be 0.5 beds per 1000.

4. Regarding out-patient services generally, we accept the expert opinions of the psychiatrists who came before the Committee, including Doctors Durost, Wasylenki, Roberts, Monroe, Anderson, Mech and Rzadki, that a 'generous infusion of funds', likely far in excess of $1.3 million, would be needed to create a dynamic community services program, and this would have to be done 'on a planned co-ordinated basis' over a period of years not a few months.

We heard repeatedly that there is not simply a lack of community mental health services in Metro, but also a severe problem of co-ordination. We are very reluctant to accept the notion that such out-patient services for a vast, populous area could be easily and effectively co-ordinated from Queen Street alone at this time. As Mr. Fisher, the Administrator of Queen Street, informed us, "We have yet to design a program or to participate in the design of a program for the after-care in the community." This confirms our concern that important changes cannot be implemented speedily.

Finally, we note the fact that psychiatric hospitals tend to create a surrounding ghetto of ex-patients, and we are very sensitive to the strenuous and well-founded representations made by those from the Parkdale community that nothing should be done to compound the existing problems caused by the proliferation of unsupervised boarding homes and bachelorettes in Parkdale.

Therefore, whereas, in the course of our hearings it has become obvious that it is most injudicious to attempt to close a provincial psychiatric institution in the cavalier manner adopted by the Minister of Health, the New Democratic Party cannot accept the statements of the Minister when they are not supported by detailed study and evidence, nor the informed opinions of most health professionals and community representatives.

We concur wholeheartedly with Dr. Monroe, Chief of Psychiatry at the Toronto General Hospital, when he agreed with the Liberal Health Critic, Mr. Sean Conway, that at a bare minimum Lakeshore should be kept open "until at least there is some more tangible evidence the community resources are strengthened and in place."

First, we believe that it is imperative that a full systems study of the mental health needs of the greater Metropolitan Toronto area must be begun, completed and evaluated before any decision is made to terminate an integral element of the existing network of psychiatric services, and that this study be completed and made public within 6 months.

Such an independent study would require extensive community involvement, and not simply a hasty review by a few of proposals for out-patient services, most of which were presented to the Ministry long before any inkling of the intention to close Lakeshore.

With wider terms of reference, this thorough analysis of mental health needs would be able to confirm or deny the central conclusion of the McKinsey study that a rebuilt Lakeshore Psychiatric Hospital is necessary to serve the people of West Metro Toronto.

Without such a study it is apparent that we in the Legislature and the health planners have no definitive plan for the integration of community and institutional psychiatric services in any cohesive, rational fashion.

Second, we insist that the full range of community programs and a co-ordinating medium be well established and functioning before any beds are cut, in order to assure the mental health services are available to everyone who can receive care outside of a psychiatric hospital. We do not wish to see anyone suffer from a lack of appropriate care because of the premature closure of any beds and programs.

Until such time as these two conditions are met we do not believe that any decision can be reached on the future role of the Lakeshore Psychiatric Hospital. Therefore, we call upon the Government to rescind the order to close Lakeshore Hospital and to maintain the existing in- and out-patient services and appropriate staff complement.

We ask also, that the Minister of Health prevent any further transfers of patients or staff from Lakeshore to any other psychiatric hospital until such time as the Legislature of Ontario has had an opportunity to consider this report.

Since we are opposed to the closing, there is no necessity to make proposals for alternative employment. The full staff should be retained.

Further, we take it for granted, of course, that the Lakeshore Psychiatric Hospital grounds remain in public ownership.

Respectfully submitted by the New Democratic Members of the Social Development Committee.

I have reviewed the Standing Order and the Member's comments. Two distinct actions must take place. First, the Clerks will determine if 20 Members are standing and if 20 Members are standing their names will then be recorded. My interpretation of the Standing Order is that if 20 Members are not standing, the names of any Members who do object shall not be recorded and the Chair will proceed to place the question as it is authorized to do by Standing Order 64.

I hope this will be of assistance to the Honourable Member.

PRAYERS

2.00 O'CLOCK P.M.

Mr. Speaker addressed the House as follows:—

On Thursday last, June 7, Mr. Reid of Rainy River, asked me to consider, as a point of order, whether the government was, in fact, complying with Standing Order 32, clause c, in not tabling as part of the compendia on the introduction of government bills those opinion polls which the various ministries have had taken from time to time.

I have considered the question very carefully and I fail to see how I can be expected to know what was, or what was not, the background information considered by a Minister and his staff when preparing legislation. The Minister tables what he considers to be the compendium required by the Standing Order and there is no way that I can look behind his decision.

On motion by Mr. Welch,

Ordered, That, the recommendations of the Sixth Report of the Select Committee on the Ombudsman be referred to the Committee of the Whole House for consideration.

The House resolved itself into a Committee to consider the recommendations contained in the Sixth Report of the Select Committee on the Ombudsman:—

After some time, Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair, and the Chairman reported, That the Committee had directed him to report the following recommendations:—

1. Your Committee concurs in the recommendation that the Ministry of Health consider what changes should be made to The Public Hospitals Act and Section 47 in particular, including changes in the quorum provisions and length of membership respecting the Hospital Appeal Board, to give better effect to the principle of a widely distributed membership of the Hospital Appeal Board. Further, the Ministry of Health cause an inquiry to be made into the provisions of The Public Hospitals Act to identify and to correct any acts flowing from Sections 44 to 50 of the Act which may be improperly discriminatory.

2. Your Committee concurs in the recommendations that the Legislature require The Workmen's Compensation Board to implement the recommendations of the Ombudsman made pursuant to Section 22(3) of The Ombudsman Act made to The Workmen's Compensation Board in Complaint No. 76 as reported in his Fourth Report to the Legislature by granting the complainant in question entitlement to the sum necessary to purchase the commercial type heating lamp which has previously been requested. (Pages 15-16).

3. Your Committee concurs in the recommendation that the Legislature require The Workmen's Compensation Board to implement the recommendation of the Ombudsman made to The Workmen's Compensation Board pursuant to Section 22(3) of The Ombudsman Act in Complaint No. 79 of his Fourth Report by reconsidering its Appeal Board decision of March 4, 1976 and granting entitlement to the complainant on the basis of an aggravation of a pre-existing back disability, to temporary total disability benefits from September 4, 1974 until such time as it is established that the complainant was medically fit to return to employment within the complainant's capabilities.

4. Your Committee concurs in the recommendation that The Workmen's Compensation Board increase the complainant's temporary partial disability beyond 50% for the period March 2nd, 1968 to May 22nd, 1968 by an amount determined by the Board to be appropriate in the circumstances.

5. Your Committee concurs in the recommendation that The Workmen's Compensation Board implement the Ombudsman's recommendation by awarding the complainant a permanent disability award which would more adequately reflect the prevailing medical opinions as to the permanent disability resulting from the two compensable accidents. In making this recommendation, the Committee is of the opinion that this disability award should be something in excess of 20%.

6. Your Committee concurs in the recommendation that The Workmen's Compensation Board implement the Ombudsman's recommendation by awarding entitlement to the complainant for the period of disability commencing June, 1973 and ending March, 1975.

7. Your Committee concurs in the recommendation that The Workmen's Compensation Board assess and determine the nature and extent of the disability benefits for the period in question which it considers adequate and appropriate in the circumstances.

8. Your Committee concurs in the recommendation that The Workmen's Compensation Board revoke its decision dated March 3, 1976 and order that the complainant is entitled to a permanent disability award respecting the low back disability for the periods referenced in the Ombudsman's Report.

9. Your Committee concurs in the recommendation that The Workmen's Compensation Board implement the recommendation of the Ombudsman by awarding the complainant temporary total disability benefits for the time lost at work as a result of the injury which occurred at work in July, 1976.

Ordered, That the Report be now received and adopted.

SEVENTY-THIRD DAY

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16TH, 1979

PRAYERS

2.00 O'CLOCK P.M.

On motion by Mr. Wells, seconded by Mr. McMurtry,

Ordered, That, the Estimates of the Ministries of Housing and Energy be withdrawn from the Standing Resources Development Committee and referred to the Standing General Government Committee to be considered following the completion of the Estimates of the Office of the Provincial Auditor.

The following Bills were introduced and read the first time:—

Bill 144, An Act to amend The Corporations Act Mr. Drea.

Bill 145, An Act to provide for Fiscal Planning in the Government of Ontario. Mr. Van Horne.

Before the Orders of the Day, Mr. Speaker delivered the following ruling:—

Yesterday the NDP House Leader, the Member for Sudbury East, raised a Point of Order with respect to the debate to be held today on Sessional Paper No. 181, Oil Pricing and Security: A Policy Framework for Canada and Sessional Paper No. 182, Energy Security for the Eighties: A Policy for Ontario.

An interesting discussion then took place with respect to the authority for the procedure of putting an Order on the Order Paper for consideration of a sessional paper or papers without a motion for that purpose. While it is, of course, correct to say that as a general rule all business is brought before the House by way of motion, there are, as the House is aware, exceptions to this rule. There is of course the provision of the present Standing Order No. 30(b) by which a committee report may be placed on the Order Paper for discussion simply at the request of the committee in the report or at the request of twenty Members. Also there is the procedure made use of with respect to today's Order. While I agree that this procedure has not been defined by the Standing Orders, and that in the majority of instances the Order has been put on the Order Paper as a result of a motion for that purpose, still there is the clear precedent in 1976 at which time the decision of the House Leaders was announced on Friday, April 30, by the then Government House Leader and the Order was placed on the Order Paper for the following Monday, May 3rd.

I am therefore ruling that as far as the Order of today is concerned, the discussion is in order and will be permitted to proceed. I would however ask that the Procedural Affairs Committee examine this procedure and as quickly as possible make its recommendation with respect thereto, perhaps for an addition to the Standing Orders of the House if that is the committee's decision.

The Order of the Day for consideration of Sessional Paper No. 181, Oil Pricing and Security: A Policy Framework for Canada and Sessional Paper No. 182, Energy Security for the Eighties: A Policy for Ontario, having been read, and a debate arising,

Mr. Young then moved, seconded by Mr. McClellan,

That, in the opinion of this House, the Government of Ontario should take immediate steps to: (a) develop standards and provide support for community residential care services, such as group homes and half-way houses; (b) consider the provision of provincial funding support for local agencies operating that special category of boarding and lodging homes which cater to emotionally, physically or mentally disadvantaged adults; and (c) to provide community support services for the above facilities. And, that in particular: 1. For the purpose of rationalizing the provision of community residential care services, the Government should immediately designate responsibility to a single provincial Ministry, either the Ministry of Community and Social Services, or the Ministry of Health, for the provision of administrative coordination of the existing and future community residential care services. 2. For the purpose of ensuring minimum standards of operation for community care residences the Government should license and regulate all such facilities especially with regards to staffing, recreational and therapeutic programs, etc. Adequate inspection and enforcement procedures should also be developed to ensure compliance with the regulations and licensing requirements. 3. For the purpose of ensuring the appropriate provision of community care residences, the Government should: (i) devise criteria to define the population in need of community residential care services; (ii) design the services needed to meet the requirements of this population; (iii) and, develop provincial funding mechanisms for program, capital and operating costs. 4. For the purpose of solving the problems that have occurred in attempting to locate community care residences, the Government should introduce legislation to amend section 35 (1) of The Planning Act so as to require municipalities to permit the establishment of licensed community care residences in reasonable proportion to the local populations. 5. For the purpose of ensuring close cooperation between the Province and the municipalities, the Government should form a Community Liaison Section within the designated Ministry to confer with communities regarding the location, size, and type of community residential care facilities in municipalities. 6. For the purpose of ensuring that adults with special personal care needs, living in boarding and lodging homes, receive the services they require, the Government should encourage municipalities to: (i) consider the licensing of a special category of boarding and lodging homes which cater to such adults; (ii) and, to establish for that special category whatever additional personal care and physical facility municipal standards may be necessary. 7. For the purpose of promoting the operation of these special boarding and lodging homes by volunteer, non-profit and municipal agencies, the Government should consider funding these agencies for the capital costs of providing such shelter. 8. For the purposes of improving standards of operation in those boarding and lodging homes within this special category, which are privately owned and operated, the Government should consider providing funds for support services such as public health, social services, community police, and educational programs. 9. The Government should consider devoting a greater portion of provincial funds to the development of a comprehensive body of community support services, including more appropriate support programs, for the physically, mentally, or emotionally handicapped or disadvantaged adults.

Pursuant to Standing Order 64(e) no objection having been made to the putting of the question on Bill 134, An Act to provide for an All Ontario Pitch-In-Day, the question having been put was declared carried.

NINETY-NINTH DAY

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 22ND, 1979

PRAYERS

2.00 O'CLOCK P.M.

Mr. Breaugh from the Standing Procedural Affairs Committee presented the Committee's Report which was read as follows:—

The Committee has considered two points of order raised in the House.

On October 11, 1979, the point at issue was the mechanism by which answers could be provided to written questions when the House is recessed. Standing Order 33 (d) permits the tabling of documents by Ministers simply by depositing them with the Clerk of the House on any day. The Committee therefore recommends that answers to written questions should be tabled with the Clerk as soon as they are ready, whether or not the House is in session.

The second point arose on November 9, 1979, and concerned Ministers answering questions which were asked at an earlier date. On occasion, answers to such questions are given when the Member who asked the original question is not in the House. The Committee believes that this problem can be resolved without recourse to a change in the Standing Orders. The Committee recommends that, except in unusual circumstances, Ministers should refrain from answering a previously asked question until the Member who asked it is present in the House.

On motion by Mr. Wells,

Ordered, That the recommendations of the Seventh Report of the Select Committee on the Ombudsman be referred to the Committee of the Whole House for consideration.

The following Bill was introduced and read the first time:—

Bill 188, An Act to provide for Rights of Handicapped Persons. Mr. Elgie.

The Answers were tabled to Questions Nos. 336 and 337 (See Hansard).

Mr. Ashe moved, seconded by Mr. McCaffrey,

That in the opinion of the House, the Government should urge the Federal Government of Canada to upgrade the Windsor-Quebec rail corridor to accommodate an electric, LRC (light, rapid, comfortable) train service.

And a debate arising, at 4.43 p.m. further proceedings on the motion were reserved until 5.50 p.m.

Mr. Breithaupt then moved second reading of Bill 159, An Act to amend The Family Law Reform Act, 1978, and a debate arising, after some time,

Pursuant to Standing Order 64 (e) no objection having been made to the putting of the question of Mr. Ashe's Resolution (No. 37) the question having been put was declared carried and it was,

Resolved, That in the opinion of the House, the Government should urge the Federal Government of Canada to upgrade the Windsor-Quebec rail corridor to accommodate an electric, LRC (light, rapid, comfortable) train service.

Pursuant to Standing Order 64 (e) no objection having been made to the putting of the question on the motion for Second Reading of Bill 159, An Act to amend The Family Law Reform Act, 1978, the question having been put was declared carried.

And the Bill was accordingly read the Second Time and Ordered for Committee of the Whole House.

THE EVENING SITTING

8.00 O'CLOCK P.M.

The House resolved itself into a Committee to consider the recommendations contained in the Seventh Report of the Select Committee on the Ombudsman:—

After some time, Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair, and the Chairman reported, That the Committee had directed him to report the following recommendation as amended:—

1. The Committee concurs in the recommendation that the Select Committee's order of reference be amended to include a provision whereby with the agreement of the Legislature it is permitted to sit concurrently with the Legislature to consider from time to time, interim reports tabled by the Ombudsman in the Legislature. (Page 23 of the Report)

2. The Committee concurs in the recommendation that the last paragraph of the policy of benefit of the doubt of The Workmen's Compensation Board be deleted and the following substituted therefor:

“When applied to an injured employee, the effect is that the employee does not require a preponderance of evidence in support of his claim. Rather, where there is doubt on any issue, and the disputed possibilities are approximately equal in weight, then the issue will be resolved in favour of the employee. On the other hand, speculation will not suffice.” (Page 29 of the Report)

3. The Committee concurs in the recommendation that the Ombudsman shall, no later than three months after the end of his reporting period, table his Annual or Semi-Annual Report, as the case may be, with the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly. (Pages 31 and 32 of the Report)

4. The Committee concurs in the recommendation that:—

(i) The Ombudsman and his staff shall not, except where permitted by The Ombudsman Act in carrying out functions thereunder, disclose to any third party any information received by him or his staff while carrying out any of the functions of the Ombudsman under The Ombudsman Act, and

(ii) A member of the Ombudsman's staff carrying out Ombudsman functions under The Ombudsman Act, shall not express to anyone, other than to the Ombudsman or to his authorized delegate, his or her opinion, recommendation or other similar comments respecting the decision, recommendation, act or omission purported to have been committed by or on behalf of the governmental organization in question or respecting anything else arising out of the investigation of the complaint by the Ombudsman and his staff. (Page 32 of the Report)

5. The Committee concurs in the recommendation that preliminary investigations by the Ombudsman's office shall be limited to cases wherein further information is required by the Ombudsman or any member of his staff either to confirm a complaint or wherein immediate assistance of a complainant is required and the circumstances of the complaint make the immediate implementation of the procedural requirements of The Ombudsman Act impossible. Once the substance of the complaint has been confirmed by the Ombudsman or his staff or where the immediate disposition of the complaint is neither possible nor advisable, the requirements of The Ombudsman Act must be followed. (Pages 32 and 33 of the Report)

6. The Committee concurs in the recommendation where at any time during the course of an investigation it appears to the Ombudsman that there may be sufficient grounds for formulating opinions under Sections 22 (1) and (2) of The Ombudsman Act or of making any recommendations pursuant to Section 22 (3) of The Ombudsman Act, which has the effect of altering, opposing or causing the original decision, recommendation, act or omission to be changed in any way, the Ombudsman shall give the governmental organization and any person who is identified or is capable of being identified as having made or committed or caused to be made or committed, as the case may be, the decision, recommendation, act or omission, an opportunity to make representations respecting the adverse report or recommendations either personally or by counsel. (Pages 34 and 35 of the Report)

7. The Committee concurs in the recommendation that all reports of the Ombudsman made to governmental organizations in accordance with Section 22 of The Ombudsman Act shall contain opinions in the wording of Section 22 (1) and recommendations within the wording of Section 22 (3). (Page 35 of the Report)

8. The Committee concurs in the recommendation that in all cases where the Ombudsman has concluded that a response by a governmental organization to a report made by him pursuant to Section 22 (3) of the Act is neither adequate nor appropriate, and where he wishes ultimately, if the matter cannot be resolved, to seek support for his recommendation in the Legislature, the report under Section 22 (3) shall be referred to the Premier before it is referred to the Legislature. (Page 35 of the Report)

9. The Committee concurs in the recommendation that when Section 12 (11) of The Family Benefits Act is amended, it contain the substance of the Committee's recommendation which is:

"The Board of Review may, on application of any party or on its own motion and with or without a hearing, reconsider and vary any decision made by it and if the Board hears from the parties to the proceedings in which the original decision was made, the provisions of this section, except subsection (4), apply mutatis mutandis to the proceedings on such reconsideration."

The amendment should contain the substance of concerns expressed by the Minister that all persons affected by the decision of the Board of Review be given an opportunity to make representations and a reasonable time limit for board rehearings be stipulated. (Page 44 of the Report)

10. The Committee concurs in the recommendation that The Financial Administration Act be amended to provide that when the Ombudsman, after all necessary and appropriate requirements of The Ombudsman Act have been adhered to, makes a recommendation to a governmental organization for the payment of a sum of money, in the absence of any other express legal authority, and when the recommendation is entirely accepted by the governmental organization, a "lawful authority" is created for such money to be paid by the governmental organization out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund upon recommendation to the Treasurer for payment of such money by the Minister responsible for the governmental organization. (Pages 50 and 51 of the Report)

11. The Committee concurs in the recommendation that the Ministry of Health cause an amendment to be made to The Health Insurance Act providing that:

"where the amount payable by the Plan for an insured service rendered by a physician is not prescribed by the regulations, it is the function of the General Manager and he has the power to determine the amount." (Page 62 of the Report)

12. The Committee concurs in the recommendation that the Workmen's Compensation Board revoke its decision of December 30, 1976 and grant the complainant a permanent partial disability pension for the disability referable to his lower back caused by the compensable accident in October, 1958. (Page 66 of the Report)

13. The Committee concurs in the recommendation that the Workmen's Compensation Board reconsider, by hearing, its decision of December 15, 1971. In that hearing the Board should at least hear fresh evidence respecting the relationship between the complainant's symptoms and the compensable accident both from the medical referee appointed in 1971 and the psychiatrist retained by the Ombudsman during the course of his investigation. (Pages 70 and 71 of the Report)

14. The Committee concurs in the recommendation that the Workmen's Compensation Board reconsider, by hearing, this matter pursuant to Section 75 of The Workmen's Compensation Act to determine the extent to which total benefits paid to this complainant should be increased. (Page 74 of the Report)

15. The Committee also concurs in the recommendation that for the purpose of the hearing, the Workmen's Compensation Board arrange for the complainant to be examined by its consulting psychiatrist who originally examined the complainant in May of 1975 and that the psychiatrist be required to express an opinion specifically as to what proportion of the psychiatric disability suffered by the complainant is attributable to the organic liver dysfunction. (Pages 74 and 75 of the Report)

16. The Committee concurs in the recommendation that the Workmen's Compensation Board reconsider this case pursuant to Section 75 when the Corporate Board has finally adopted and approved the policy of benefit of the doubt as discussed with the Ombudsman and this Committee. (Pages 80 and 81 of the Report)

17. The Committee concurs in the recommendation that the Workmen's Compensation Board, when the policy of benefit of the doubt has been approved by the Corporate Board, reconsider this case by hearing, pursuant to Section 75 of The Workmen's Compensation Act. At that hearing the Board shall consider the application of the policy of benefit of the doubt to the issues in this case. (Page 86 of the Report)

PRAYERS

2.00 O'CLOCK P.M.

Mr. Breaugh from the Standing Procedural Affairs Committee presented a report from the Committee as follows:—

Your Committee has considered the timing of delivery to the critics of estimates briefing material.

The Committee is of the view that briefing material should be given to the critics as soon as it is ready, but no later than the two weeks before the beginning of the Ministry's estimates.

Most problems relating to delivery of briefing material seem to be adequately resolved through the office of the Government House Leader. The Committee therefore sees no need for an amendment to the Standing Order in this matter.

Your Committee has also considered the practice of Members making statements to the House concerning events or persons from their constituencies.

The Committee recommends that Members wishing to make such a statement should inform Mr. Speaker beforehand so that he may decide whether it is appropriate for a statement to be made.

Mr. Breaugh from the Standing Procedural Affairs Committee presented the Committee's Report as follows and moved its adoption:—

Your Committee has reviewed the practice of amending Private Members' Resolutions.

Private Members' opportunities for presenting their views to the House for debate are very limited. In the Committee's view, it is undesirable for amendments to a Private Member's Resolution to shift the entire focus of the debate away from the original idea proposed by the mover of the resolution.

The Committee therefore recommends that a new section be added to Standing Order 64, to read:

No amendment may be made to a motion under this Standing Order.

On motion by Mr. Breagh,

Ordered, That the debate be adjourned.

Mr. Breagh from the Standing Procedural Affairs Committee presented the Committee's Report as follows and moved its adoption:—

Your Committee has considered the matter of referring Private Members' Public Bills to committee and recommends as follows:

That a new section be added to Standing Order 64 to read:

Notwithstanding Standing Order 56(c), Private Members' Public Bills given second reading shall stand referred to the Committee of the Whole House, unless referred to a Standing or Select Committee by a majority of the House.

On motion by Mr. Breagh,

Ordered, That the debate be adjourned.

The amendment to the motion as follows:—

That all of the words after "That" be struck out and the following be substituted therefore:—

This House deplores the government's failure to recognize the seriousness of the unemployment problem in Ontario by providing any full-time jobs; rejects the increase in OHIP premiums and other regressive taxes while doing nothing to protect consumers against rising prices; condemns the lack of commitment to rebuilding any specific industry within our manufacturing sector, and the failure to attach any performance and employment guarantees to its employment development fund; opposes the continued giveaways of our mineral resources; and finally, condemns the shift of the costs of education and social services to municipalities, and for these reasons, the government no longer enjoys the confidence of this House.

To this Act the Royal Assent was announced by the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly in the following words:—

“The Honourable the Lieutenant Governor doth thank Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, accept their benevolence and assent to this Bill in Her Majesty's name”.

The Honourable the Lieutenant Governor was then pleased to deliver the following gracious speech:—

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly:

The close of this Third Session of the Thirty-first Parliament of Ontario also marks the end of a decade. As a Province, Ontario has made great strides throughout the 1970s, despite certain economic difficulties which few countries have escaped in recent years. As a nation, the '70s have brought us to the edge of one of the most critical moments in our history, as Quebec determines its future within Canada.

Today, as at the start of the decade, Ontario continues its unflagging efforts to promote the cause of “Canada first”, in policies which the Government feels are important to the nation as a whole.

Significantly, the Government can cite from the early '70s the positive actions which stemmed from the work of the Select Committee on Economic and Cultural Nationalism, appointed by this Legislature. Again, in Ontario's stand on energy pricing, consistently held since the mid-decade, the interests of the nation have remained paramount. But among the most vigorous manifestations of this approach is the recent rejection of the “sovereignty-association” proposal of the Government of Quebec.

In looking ahead to the 1980s, my Government reaffirms its belief in the ultimate wisdom of its philosophy, which takes as given that the future will be better if shared by all Canadians working in harmony, one with another.

At the same time, looking back on this Session, the record shows a substantial number of achievements which reflect a deep sense of duty and commitment to the interests of the people of Ontario on the part of all Members of this House.

Unfortunately, in 1979, nature was not always kind to certain areas of Ontario. In the first part of the year, ice storms and flooding made emergency assistance and special funding arrangements necessary in ten areas of the province. Similar assistance was also provided as a result of the severe tornado damage in Oxford and Brant Counties in August.

Last month, what could have become an overwhelming disaster in the City of Mississauga was averted by the dedicated service of the men and women who work in our fire, police, hospital and related services, and by the highly laudable sense of order exhibited by the quarter of a million citizens directly affected.

The plight of the "Boat People" and of refugees in Southeast Asia has been of enormous concern to the Government and people of Ontario, who have assisted, both in relocation and settlement of several thousand individuals and families in the province, as well as in providing emergency relief, through the Canadian Red Cross, for thousands more in refugee camps in the Far East.

The observance of 1979 as the International Year of the Child was marked in numerous ways throughout the province. Within the government, the Children's Services legislation package, which received Royal Assent last year, was proclaimed in June. The legislation covers amendments to almost all areas of social service to children, and includes provisions governing child abuse, adoption procedures and day-care services—all of which have the singular aim of serving the best interests of children.

Special attention has been paid to the health of young children through a highly successful immunization campaign against communicable diseases. Of equal, if not greater, significance, is the fact that, by expanding the provincial screening program for newborns to include detection of hypothyroidism, about thirty babies who would almost certainly have been mentally retarded now have a good chance for healthy, normal lives.

Already, preparations are under way to observe 1981 as the International Year of the Handicapped, with governments and organizations developing initiatives that respond to the needs and desires of handicapped citizens.

One recent major initiative of this Government was the creation of a province-wide program of subsidies to municipalities to provide transportation facilities for the physically handicapped. The program, which began on July 1st, follows on experimental services run in five cities over the previous two to three years. The pilot projects, themselves, are now permanent programs.

The new Residential Tenancies Act has been proclaimed, with the exception of certain sections which are the basis of a constitutional reference to the Court of Appeal. Under the Act, the residential premises rent review program is continued throughout the province in a form that will simplify and improve the process for landlords and tenants.

Major legal reforms have been the hallmark of the Ontario justice system over the past several years, and 1979 has been no exception. A new Provincial Offences Act sets out a code of procedures for the prosecution of provincial offences, as distinct from offences under the Criminal Code of Canada. Where past rigidities may often have appeared to be less than just, the built-in flexibility of this new legislation is likely to attract greater respect from the public at large, by relating penalties for minor offences more closely to the nature of the offence.

At the same time, greater responsibility is being asked of Ontario's drivers, who are now obliged by law to carry a minimum of $100,000 in third party liability insurance on all motor vehicles. This is the main purpose of The Compulsory Automobile Insurance Act, which took effect on December 1st, and which also provides for the formation of an insurance industry pool to ensure that high-risk drivers have access to coverage.

The Evidence Act has been amended to permit the use of the official translation of statutes in French-language court proceedings. This measure follows on the Government's undertaking to prepare official translations of 150 selected statutes over the next four years, for which task a special legal translation unit has been set up in the Ministry of the Attorney General.

Ontario's economy has, by any reasonable standard, fared well in the 1970s and Ontarians have been spared the undue hardship that might have occurred without the timely adoption of a program of restraint in government spending that began in the middle of the decade. Nevertheless, it is the Government's continuing endeavour to temper the obvious limitations required by fiscal restraint with an ever-present awareness of the needs of our citizens and of the community as a whole.

Municipal governments can look forward in 1980 to an average increase in provincial grants of over ten per cent.

In addition, unorganized communities may now make use of a special mechanism to facilitate the provision of such basic services as fire protection, water supply and street lighting. Through The Local Services Boards Act, residents and property owners in these communities may create corporate boards with powers to provide these services. This legislation will be particularly useful in communities in Northern Ontario.

Ontario's budgetary policies paid high dividends last year in terms of the creation of over 130,000 jobs in the province, all of them in the private sector. Projections run to about 140,000 new jobs for the current year.

Efforts to create jobs for young people also produced better results this year, with the Ontario Youth Employment Program providing over 40,000 jobs in the private sector over a six-month period. Government wage-subsidy costs for this program will run to about $26 million.

A seven-member advisory council on equal employment opportunities for women was formed in March. The Ministry of Labour is relying on the joint cooperation of high-level labour/management representation on this body to provide invaluable assistance in securing better prospects for women in the workplace.

More than twenty Small Business Development Corporations have been registered since the announcement of this new incentive program in the Ontario Budget last April. The program is helping to stimulate private sector investment where it is most needed — in manufacturing and processing, tourism and mineral exploration — by encouraging equity investment in Ontario-based small businesses.

In other Budget measures aimed at stimulating investment, succession duties and gift taxes have been abolished in Ontario.

The Government has taken up the challenge to ensure that the opportunities facing our manufacturing sector and the accompanying demand for skilled labour are met. The Province has promoted the formation of Community Industrial Training Committees under the Employer-Sponsored Training Program.

The Employment Development Fund, established in the spring, is securing the development and expansion of manufacturing enterprises that will create long-term employment. The Fund is also being used as the source of needed incentives to the pulp and paper industry, whose modernization, it is widely agreed, is imperative, both in productive and in environmental terms.

At the same time, Ontario must capitalize on the tariff advantages gained at the Tokyo round of GATT negotiations which were concluded this summer, and make necessary adjustments where the rules are less in our favour. In its consultations with Ottawa, the Province has persistently underlined the key role required of the Federal Government in this area, if markets are to be maintained and, indeed, enhanced, both at home and abroad.

In the constant, watchful concern of government and the public about the quality of our environment, the problem of acid rain has become a major area of focus. Intensified research programs are being carried out, involving the monitoring and analysis of effects on fish and other aquatic life. Some of this research funding is being made available from proceeds of The Provincial Lottery.

The studies also underline the basic goals and objectives for water quality and management in Ontario, which were published earlier in the year. The Government's policies, as set out in this document, have been updated according to newest scientific developments and criteria established in the international Great Lakes Water Quality Agreement.

The negative effects of increasing energy costs on the economy and the question of security of supplies are a source of concern to the Government. While Ontario has had a good record in energy management and conservation over the past several years, there must be a resolve—by our institutions, industries and by individual citizens—to do much more. This resolve is our strongest weapon against any possibility of inconvenience or hardship.

Honourable Members, the scope of these issues, and your efforts in addressing them, speak well of the loyalty you bear to this Province and to the wider interests of our nation. Ontarians can look back on the 1970s with a feeling that our people have made much progress. But, more important, we look to the new decade with optimism, because we know we have the required abilities, resources and resilience to serve our highest aspirations.

On behalf of the people of Ontario, I thank you especially for your endeavours and accomplishments during this Session. May I wish you the joys of the season and a safe and happy holiday among your families and friends.

I now declare the Session prorogued.

In our Sovereign's name, I thank you.

The Government House Leader then said:—

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly:

It is the will and pleasure of the Honourable the Lieutenant Governor that this Legislative Assembly be prorogued and this Legislative Assembly is accordingly prorogued.
