*Departed this life on February 9th, 1944.

C. F. BULMER,
Clerk of the Crown in Chancery.

And the House having met,

The Honourable the Lieutenant-Governor, having entered the House, took his seat on the Throne.

Mr. Dunbar, the Provincial Secretary, then said:

“I am commanded by The Honourable the Lieutenant-Governor to state that he does not see fit to declare the causes of the summoning of the present Legislature of this Province until a Speaker of this House shall have been chosen according to law, but to-day at a subsequent hour His Honour will declare the causes of the calling of this Legislature.”

His Honour was then pleased to retire.

And the Clerk having called for nominations for the office of Speaker, the Prime Minister, Mr. Drew, addressing himself to the Clerk, proposed to the House for their Speaker, W. J. Stewart, Esquire, Member for the Electoral District of Parkdale, which motion was seconded by Mr. Nixon, and it was Resolved, That W. J. Stewart, Esquire, do take the Chair of this House as Speaker.

The Clerk having declared the Honourable W. J. Stewart duly elected, he was conducted by the Premier and Mr. Nixon to the Chair, where, standing on the upper step, he returned his humble acknowledgements to the House for the great honour they had been pleased to confer upon him by choosing him to be their Speaker.

And thereupon he sat down in the Chair and the Mace was laid upon the Table.

The House then adjourned during pleasure.

The Honourable the Lieutenant-Governor then re-entered the House and took his seat on the Throne.

Mr. Speaker then addressed His Honour to the following effect:

May it please Your Honour.

The Legislative Assembly have elected me as their Speaker, though I am but little able to fulfil the important duties thus assigned to me.

If, in the performance of those duties, I should at any time fall into error, I pray that the fault may be imputed to me and not to the Assembly whose servant I am, and who, through me, the better to enable them to discharge their duty to their King and Country, hereby claim all their undoubted rights and privileges, especially that they may have freedom of speech in their debates, access to your person at all seasonable times, and that their proceedings may receive from you the most favourable consideration.

The Provincial Secretary then said:

Mr. Speaker,

I am commanded by The Honourable the Lieutenant-Governor to declare to you that he freely confides in the duty and attachment of the Assembly to His Majesty's person and Government, and not doubting that the proceedings will be conducted with wisdom, temperance and prudence, he grants and upon all occasions will recognize and allow the constitutional privileges.

I am commanded also to assure you that the Assembly shall have ready access to His Honour upon all suitable occasions, and that their proceedings, as well as your words and actions, will constantly receive from him the most favourable construction.

The Honourable the Lieutenant-Governor was then pleased to open the Session with the following gracious speech:

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly:

As you meet to-day to inaugurate the Twenty-first Legislature of the Province of Ontario, I wish to extend a welcome to all those who have served before in this Chamber and to those of you who now meet here for the first time.

We are now half way into the fifth year of war, and from all battlefronts come encouraging reports which justify confidence in victory. But the military leaders of the United Nations have seen fit to utter repeated warnings that the road to victory will still be long and hard. While the first concern must be the winning of the war, my Ministers believe that the Province should be prepared for the readjustments which will come when peace returns. With this thought in mind, legislation will be presented to you which will create a new Department of Planning and Development. It will be the purpose of this department to prepare plans in all fields of provincial responsibility so that the development of our great resources and the stimulation of production will provide employment for our people. It will be one of the functions of this department to develop town and country planning, to prepare housing programmes, to assist in the conversion of war industries to peace production, to co-ordinate the planning activities of Ontario municipalities, and also the post-war plans of the various provincial departments. It will also guide the preparation of plans for great construction projects, land reclamation, and the opening of new territory. In this way preparation will be made for the rehabilitation of young men and women now serving so gallantly in the Armed Forces of Canada.

As soon as trading between nations returns to a normal basis, it will be necessary to seek commercial and trade expansion in many countries. The most important market for Ontario products is Britain, and my Ministers decided that it was desirable to open offices in London to take full advantage of every opportunity to find new outlets for the things that we produce. It was also thought desirable to take steps to arouse interest on the part of British manufacturers in the possibilities for establishing branch plants or new industrial enterprises in Ontario. Already there is gratifying evidence that as a result of these efforts we may expect many British manufacturers to start work here with a resulting increase in the opportunities for employment. When Ontario House is in full operation in the near future, it will provide many facilities for the members of the Canadian Armed Forces from Ontario, assisting them in many ways and providing needed recreational accommodation. During the period of demobilization, it will be able to offer advice and assistance to those who will be returning to Ontario.

Education assumes an ever more important part in the life of our people. Many greatly needed reforms will receive attention. Already there has been a reorganization of the Department of Education, which has brought new vigour to the direction of education, and has assured a better balance between the purely educational and financial affairs of that department.

The most difficult single educational problem requiring solution is the unsatisfactory system of financing the maintenance of the schools of the Province. Intensive study has been given to this subject, and the results of the inquiries which have been made will be reported to the Legislature where the subject will be fully discussed.

The standard of education cannot rise above the qualifications of the teachers in our schools. There is at present an acute shortage of competent teachers as a result of the war. To meet this immediate emergency courses will be modified so that additional teachers may be trained with the least possible delay. To assure permanent improvement in this situation, however, a much larger proportion of the best trained young men and women must be attracted to the teaching profession. Steps will be taken therefore to raise the minimum salary of teachers, to assure greater security and prestige, to provide better conditions of service and to place the Teacher's Superannuation Fund upon a sound basis.

Increasing emphasis will be placed upon the importance of the development of character. Religious education will be offered in public and secondary schools. Cadet training, under school control, will become a part of the regular programmes. Physical and health education will be extended. The duties of citizenship and significance of Canadian institutions will be given a more important place in the school curriculum. Schools will be encouraged to establish types of internal organization calculated to develop a co-operative spirit and the habit of assuming responsibilities.

Everything possible will be done to assure that every child in Ontario is educated to the full extent of his individual capacity. This means that vocational education and the means of cultural development must be extended to many areas in which they are not now found. It also means that advanced vocational education must be provided for able pupils who have finished the ordinary school course but do not seek to enter the professional schools of the Universities. It means that the Department of Education must assume the responsibility for providing either alone or in partnership with other agencies, a wide range of adult education. The Provincial Scholarship Plan will be extended, not only to care for a larger number of very able high school graduates, but also to enable those who have entered the Universities on these scholarships and have done well during their first year to continue their courses.

The Government's desire to do full justice to the individual ability of each child will be apparent at every stage of education. Greater incentives will be offered to encourage the formation of school areas large enough to provide and enrich elementary programmes and diversified secondary schooling. More constructive supervision will be provided, with special attention to guidance and the expanding fields of instructional opportunities afforded by the radio, gramophone, sound film, and other visual aids. The aims of the various types of schools will be clarified and their courses adjusted in the light of those aims.

The unique contribution of our Universities to Canada's war effort is fully recognized, as well as the necessity of enabling them to give increasing leadership in research, professional training and cultural development. Provision has been made to assist the Universities to meet the challenge of the period of rehabilitation and post-war developments.

The education of New Canadians is of vital concern to all our people. A strong committee will be appointed to advise the Government in planning an effective programme for those among this group of citizens who require special education to gain the full advantage of their Canadian citizenship.

Leadership in the organization and control of agriculture has in the past depended too much upon the Government. My Ministers have decided to introduce legislation which will correct this situation by forming County Agricultural Committees so that practical farm operators may themselves advise in regard to suitable policies and have a recognized place in the administration of those policies.

In the end, the satisfactory marketing of products is the test of the success of agriculture. Steps will be taken to assure better marketing methods. To improve the marketing of livestock, legislation will be introduced for the purpose of acquiring the Union Stock Yards in West Toronto so that they may be operated as a public enterprise in the sole interest of the breeders of the province.

Buildings belonging to the Ontario Agricultural College and the Kemptville School were loaned to the Dominion Government as part of the war training programme. This has to some degree curtailed agricultural education and I am pleased to be able to inform you that as a result of the changes in training requirements, the buildings will soon be returned to their normal use. Those at Kemptville will be made available on May 1st, and those at Guelph at the earliest possible opportunity.

Crop prospects for the coming year are better than last year when adverse spring weather delayed seeding and resulted in the shortest grain crop for many years. The importation of 55,000,000 bushels of grain from Western Canada helped to meet this situation and Ontario farmers were able to carry through the winter a larger number of cattle and considerably more poultry than in previous years. Although fewer hogs will be marketed, production of bacon for overseas will be well maintained.

The Agricultural Commission of Inquiry, appointed several months ago, has been engaged in a careful survey of the general requirements of agriculture within the province and they will from time to time make recommendations to the Government regarding measures which can be adopted for the improvement of all branches of agriculture throughout Ontario.

The Minister of Labour will submit several measures for the improvement of labour relations and the general working conditions throughout the Province. One of these is a bill which will limit the hours of work to forty-eight hours a week and assure an annual holiday of one week with pay to commercial and industrial employees. Extensive amendments to the Factory, Shop and Office Building Act will greatly extend provisions for the safety, health and welfare of employees, and reduce the hours of employment for youths, young girls and women. Supervision of the conditions of employment for young people in certain places other than factories will provide an additional check on child labour and juvenile delinquency. The Workmen's Compensation Act will be broadened to afford protection to those suffering from various types of industrial diseases. The field of occupations covered by the provisions of this Act will be widened.

The Department of Labour has been co-operating actively with the Dominion Labour authorities in plans to provide training opportunities for the members of our Armed Forces upon demobilization.

A few days ago the Dominion Government adopted a National Labour Relations Code limited in its application to war industries. This Code will supersede any Provincial legislation dealing with the subjects covered in this Code so far as war industries are concerned, and my Ministers are of the opinion that it will be in the best interests of employees, employers and the general public if this Code is extended in its effect to all industries within Ontario. Legislation will therefore be presented to you which will give effect to this decision.

Legislation will be introduced to afford legal protection to members of the Armed Forces from Ontario who are on active service, where such service renders it impossible for them to meet their financial obligations properly and reasonably incurred prior to joining the Armed Forces. Legislation will also be introduced establishing priority of appointment to the public service for men and women who have served in the active service units of the Armed Forces of Canada, and assuring them protection in their employment.

Steps have been taken to protect the person and property of our people by stopping certain practices which permitted the imposition of fines and penalties without proper access to the Courts. An example of this was the stopping of the practice of padlocking gasoline stations without the operators being given any opportunity to prove their innocence. Another example of steps taken to protect the rights of the citizens of the Province was the restoration of inquests in war industries as exemplified by the reopening of the inquest into the Nobel disaster. As a result of representations by the Attorney-General, blackouts were discontinued in Ontario, having regard to the greatly reduced possibility of air raids and the unnecessary expense and inconvenience under those circumstances which they caused. The Dominion Government subsequently disbanded the A.R.P. organization. Another readjustment which effected considerable saving to the Province was the release of the Veterans' Guard organization which had been guarding the property of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission. This work is now being done by the Commission itself and the change was made at a time that it was possible to arrange other employment for the men thus released. The Ontario Volunteer Constabulary, established as an adjunct to the Ontario Provincial Police, has been disbanded, as it was not thought that it had any direct connections with the police functions of the Ontario Government. Every effort has been made to put an end to the improper use of slot machines and other gambling devices which are contrary to the provisions of the Criminal Code. Effective steps have been taken to protect farm workers who have been forced to do necessary harvesting on Sunday from frivolous prosecutions under the provisions of an ancient statute passed before Confederation.

In an effort to provide the minimum ration of beer for all citizens wishing to purchase this beverage, arrangements were made for the transfer of five million gallons of beer annually from hotels and clubs to the Brewers' Retail Stores. In view of the restrictions in quantity imposed by the Dominion Government, it has become increasingly difficult to assure orderly distribution, and this step was taken as the only practical measure possible to relieve the crowding which occurred at Brewers' Retail Stores. The whole question of supply and distribution is under review by the Government. It is proposed in the future to have only one permit to cover the purchase of spirits, beer and wine. Steps have also been taken to enforce the provisions of the Liquor Control Act in regard to the transfers of licenses to sell beer. Legislation will be introduced to create a licensing board with judicial functions to control the licensing of premises where alcoholic beverages can be consumed, and to provide a decentralized system for dealing with all applications for the issuance, renewal, transfer, and cancellation of licenses.

The Department of Highways has conducted extensive surveys throughout the whole Province and has completed plans for a four-year post-war programme which can be started at any time. The scope of these plans may be judged by the fact that they will involve a total of 27,840,000 man days for their completion. Current expenditures have been curtailed and the work during the coming season will consist mainly of maintenance. It is hoped, however, that some bituminous material may be available which will make it possible to resurface sections of highways which are now in need of repairs. Capital expenditure will be confined to the surfacing of roads serving military camps, airports and war industries, and to the completion of some bridges on which work has already been started. This will apply both to the King's Highways and municipal roads. The Highway Improvement Act will be amended to clarify its administration, particularly as it affects municipal roads.

Since the beginning of the present year, the Hydro-Electric Power Commission has brought into effect a comprehensive revision of the charges for rural service and had adopted a uniform rate for all areas of the Province formerly served by 120 rural power districts. The amalgamation of these 120 districts into one district with one rate marks the greatest single step forward in rural power distribution since its inauguration. Under the new schedule, Provincial grants-in-aid will be of the most benefit to farmers in sparsely settled areas where the installation of electrical service is most costly. Of a total 135,000 rural customers, 97% will benefit in varying degrees depending upon the extent of their use of electricity. The total saving to rural customers affected by this readjustment will be more than half a million dollars. Some of those who fall within the small group of 3% of the total will find a slight increase in the total cost of their electricity for the present but they in turn will benefit considerably once they make full use of the electrical services which they have installed.

Legislation will be introduced to amend the Power District Service Charge Act so that the Hydro-Electric Power Commission will be protected by the Government against any loss which may result from the elimination of the service charge to farmers and the reduction of service charge to hamlet customers. During the past few months, the Commission has been able to install electric services on more than two thousand additional farms under arrangements with the Dominion Metals Controller who permitted extensions to serve farmers who were able to demonstrate that a supply of electricity would increase their food production.

With the consent of the co-operating Hydro-Electric Municipalities, the three Southern Ontario systems, namely, Georgian Bay, Niagara and Eastern Ontario, will be amalgamated into one system to be called the Southern Ontario System. The resulting economies will permit a reduction in power charges. With the consent of the municipalities, the cost of power to municipalities will be limited to a maximum of $39.00 per horse power within this system. Experience proves that reduced cost to consumers leads to greater consumption and increased revenue, and the grants-in-aid which will make this possible at the outset will in a very few years become unnecessary.

Gross capital expenditures by the Commission in 1943 were 8½ million dollars. The revenues of Northern Ontario Properties were again sufficient to provide for all expenses including full provision for reserves.

To bring about a closer association between the Hydro-Electric Power Commission and the consuming public, you will be asked to approve a bill authorizing the appointment of an Ontario Hydro-Electric Advisory Council. There will be five members of this council representative of the Hydro-Electric municipalities, labour, industry, mining and agriculture.

The Ogoki Diversion Project was completed during the summer, and the diversion flow was gradually increased to its designed average of four thousand cubic feet per second. The six-million-dollar power plant at DeCew Falls, constructed as a war measure and capable of producing more than sixty-thousand horse power, was completed and commenced delivery of 25-cycle power to the Niagara system on October 15th, 1943.

The Department of Lands and Forests has at present under its control one hundred million acres of accessible crown forests. Under well planned, long-term policies of conservation, reforestation and soil control, these areas will be capable of greatly increased production which will provide employment for many thousands of new workers. An Ontario Forest Resources Commission will be appointed to assume the responsibility for supervising this great development which has now become the largest single source of our provincial income. Steps have already been taken to impose a maximum limitation upon the size of new saw mills. From now on, the supply of timber available in any area, under proper forestry conditions, will decide the capacity of the mill to be erected. The maximum figure of production for any single mill is fixed at fifteen million feet per year. The Kirkwood Forest Management Unit near the town of Thessalon has been set aside as an area for intensive training in the practice of forestry. Eight thousand acres of planted trees in the Kirkwood Plantation will form the nucleus of this scheme. Two new parks have been set aside for recreation, health and the protection of wild life. They are Lake Superior Provincial Park north of Sault Ste. Marie, and Sibley Provincial Park near Port Arthur. Plans for their organization and management are under way.

To aid settlers and others interested in reforestation who are eligible, the Crown now releases without charge pine trees formerly reserved in land grants. It is expected that this will benefit holders in Southern Ontario. Intensive study has been given to methods of protection for forest areas from destructive insects. Appropriate action will be taken following recommendations from the best international authorities.

The Department of Game and Fisheries is preparing an extensive programme of development, designed to maintain the fish and game reserves of the Province, which each year attract great numbers of tourists from outside the Province. These plans will provide employment for many members of the Armed Forces who prefer outdoor occupation when they return to civil life.

I wish to commend those municipalities which are setting up Reserve Funds from appropriations for construction and maintenance which have not been spent because of shortage of labour and materials. This is a wise provision for the future, making it possible for those municipalities to create employment when it will be most needed.

The Assessment Act will be amended to enable municipalities to levy an additional business assessment to compensate for the tax on incomes of corporations which has been suspended by Dominion-Provincial Agreement. Legislation will also be introduced to permit municipalities to accept a fixed sum in lieu of taxation on properties owned by Wartime Housing Limited. Ontario municipal authorities have done splendid work under the added burdens of war, and have given a useful example by making grants to the extent of more than one million dollars to assist various war organizations.

Ontario's great mining industry last year produced minerals to a value of $230,000,000.00. This industry can assume greater importance and employ more men in the future under proper guidance. With that objective, a Commission was appointed to inquire into all aspects of this basic industry and to make recommendations which would stimulate the development of existing mines and assist the search for new mines. A Commission has also been appointed to report upon the supply, availability and utilization of fuel for domestic and commercial purposes. Following the reports of these Commissions, measures will be adopted to expand this great industry so that it may offer the widest opportunities for employment when our armed forces are demobilized. Amongst the achievements of the past year, I would refer to the Steep Rock Iron Mines, west of Port Arthur, where operations for the production of iron ore on a very large scale will, according to present expectations, result in the shipment of high grade ore during the coming summer.

It is the opinion of my Ministers that a well-organized, full-time Public Health programme, embodying adequate school health service, for the entire Province, is long overdue. It is therefore planned to make it possible for local municipalities to implement Section 35 of The Public Health Act, which already provides for such service. The provision of adequate hospital care for all our citizens will require some time to fulfill, but certain immediate steps are being taken to bring this about. Committees have been set up by the Government and by the hospitals to study the problem with a view to inaugurating a new policy.

The Ontario Hospital service operates 15 hospitals for the treatment of the mentally ill, mentally defective and epileptic. Treatment of these groups is handicapped by inadequate hospital accommodation. At present 14,172 patients occupy accommodation originally planned for 11,000 persons. It is the general experience on this continent, that five beds per 1,000 of the population is required in the treatment of these groups. On this basis, Ontario requires 19,000 beds. It is hoped to remedy this situation as rapidly as materials can be made available for the purpose. As a first step, it is planned to have 300 additional beds available at the Hospital School, Orillia, within the coming year. Owing to the extent of this particular problem, the Government has decided that two other approaches should be made: namely, research and prevention. With this in mind, a Division of Psychiatric Research has been organized with a well-known British research physician in charge. In the field of prevention it is proposed to extend the Mental Health clinics to serve all parts of the Province as soon as the 57 physicians, now on loan for special work in the Armed Forces, again become available.

Through collaboration with the Director-General of Medical Services, a united front has been established to control social disease in Ontario. Plans have been made for a wide extension of public education in this field; for a careful search for unknown or hidden cases that are not receiving treatment; and for more adequate medical care for all who are so unfortunate as to contract the disease. The full co-operation of the general public, social welfare organizations, hospitals and the medical profession, is being sought to deal with this problem.

With a view to protecting the worker in industry, industrial employers have been encouraged to develop health services in the individual factory. There are now employed in this work in the Province 52 full-time physicians, 162 part-time physicians, and 464 full-time graduate nurses. Over 50,000 employees in industry have received chest x-ray examinations in the past twelve months, and those found suffering from tuberculosis have been placed under treatment. The six travelling chest clinics operated by the Department have examined 15,593 persons, finding 421 new cases of pulmonary tuberculosis, which were placed under treatment. Extension of this service, together with additional sanatoria accommodation, as planned by the Government, should go far in reducing the incidence of tuberculosis in the Province.

The control of sanitation continues to accomplish results in the prevention of disease. Typhoid fever cases in the last year were the lowest on record. Extensive plans are being made for post-war construction of municipal water and sewage works. Notwithstanding the usual history of rapid spread of communicable diseases under war conditions, there has been a marked reduction in the major communicable diseases. Maternal and infant mortality rates in the Province have continued to fall to new low levels, a vivid demonstration that public health education gives quick and valuable results.

The Department of Public Welfare is being reorganized. Extensive studies have been made of the various allowances now provided by this Department. They have established a scientific basis for determining food requirements, and the inclusion of items not previously recognized.

It is worthy of comment that many employable pensioners have voluntarily requested suspension of their pension until their employment is terminated. Increased opportunities for employment have resulted in a considerable decrease in the number of those receiving Mothers' Allowances. For those mothers who continue to require this allowance, arrangements are being made to increase still further the amount of assistance where this is needed. A War Appropriation Bonus of $5.00 per month, and a Provincial Bonus of $3.00 per month, have been added to the former maximum Old Age Pension. A general increase in Child Welfare activities calls for continuing expansion of Children's Aid services. The conditions of war-time employment have called for the extension of Day Nurseries to six communities in the Province.

The Ontario Civil Service will be assured of greatly improved conditions of employment, under a sound civil service system. The first step has already been taken to establish a system of appointment by merit through the application of uniform tests in certain classes of appointments. The entire classification of the Civil Service is under review and a new procedure for dealing with questions arising in connection with the Civil Service will be instituted.

In addition to legislation already mentioned, bills will be introduced to amend The Active Service Election Act; to provide for the registration, publication and codification of regulations passed under Provincial statutes; to extend the provisions of the Mortgagors' and Purchasers' Relief Act; to amend the laws governing the sale of securities; respecting gambling devices; respecting racial discrimination; respecting Justices of the Peace; and for various other purposes.

The public accounts for the year ending March 31st, 1943, have been issued, and estimates for the coming year will be placed before you.

In conclusion, I wish to express the trust that Divine Providence may so guide your deliberations that they may promote the public welfare and advance the happiness and security of all our people.

His Honour was then pleased to retire.

Mr. Grummett moved for permission to introduce a Bill intituled "An Act to amend The Mothers' Allowance Act."

Mr. Speaker ruled that the proposed Bill contemplated an extension of the powers of the Mothers' Allowance Commission to disburse public funds and was therefore subject to Section 54 of the British North America Act which provided that all Bills contemplating the appropriation of money voted by the Legislature had to be preceded by a recommendation from the Lieutenant-Governor.

This Committee begs to report as follows:—

We recommend that this Committee continue its work after the House rises and in particular that it be authorized to visit the lignite deposits at Onakawana and to hold a public hearing or hearings at a suitable centre or centres in Northern Ontario.

Pending a further report this Committee recommends that the necessary work be carried on meanwhile at the property to assist in determining:

- (a) the actual condition of the lower lignite seam for mining purposes;
- (b) the feasibility of treating large quantities of this lignite by the Fleisner system for uses in the first instance as domestic fuels in Northern Ontario, and
- (c) a more complete study of the relationship of this lignite deposit and use thereof and the development of nearby deposits of gypsum, refractory clays, etc.

We further recommend that the Committee be authorized to review any further recommendations of the Provincial Fuel Committee on the supply of peat, coal and/or other fuels and make recommendations thereon.

It is further recommended that in respect to lignite and other fuel developments, this Committee should be authorized to serve the Department of Planning and Development in an advisory capacity.

It is emphasized that at the present stage the lignite research work is still in the exploratory and experimental stage.

The Committee held three meetings and heard members of the Ontario Fuel Commission and others on various aspects of the lignite problem. Among those who addressed the Committee were Dr. H. B. Speakman, Prof. G. B. Langford and F. D. Tolchard, members of the Fuel Commission, and H. C. Rickaby, Deputy Minister of Mines; D. G. Sinclair, Deputy Minister of Mines and A. R. The Order of the Day for the second reading of Bill (No. 93), An Act to amend The Milk Control Act, having been read, Mr. Speaker addressed the House as follows:—

The Honourable Member for Elgin yesterday asked me for a ruling on two points in connection with Bill (No. 93), "An Act to amend The Milk Control Act."

First—As to its constitutionality;

Second—As to whether the Bill is a Public or Private Bill.

I respectfully submit that in answer to the first point regarding constitutionality, that this is not within my province to give an opinion.

In regard to the second point as to whether the Bill is a Public Bill or a Private one, I have given this matter consideration and respectfully submit to the House that down through the years this House has accepted the rules of Sir Erskine May in the British House. I refer you to Chapter 26, Page 657:—

PRELIMINARY VIEW OF PRIVATE BILLS

"Bills for the particular interest or benefit of any person or persons, are treated, in Parliament, as private bills. Whether they be for the interest of an individual, of a public company or corporation, or of a parish, city, county, or other locality, they are equally distinguished from measures of public policy; and this distinction is marked, in the very manner of their introduction. Every private bill is solicited by the parties themselves who are interested in promoting it, being founded upon a petition which must be duly deposited in accordance with standing order.

But while the distinction between public and private bills may be thus generally defined, considerable difficulties often arise in determining to which description particular bills properly belong. Thus, upon a public bill, the question not infrequently arises whether it ought not more properly to have been introduced as a private bill. And private bills have often been objected to, and have been debarred from proceeding, on the ground that, from their scope or objects, or from the principles involved in them, they should have been introduced as public bills."

A Minister of the Crown is within his rights to introduce a Bill to amend a Public Act. I question whether Bill No. 93 can be regarded as such when it gives authority to a private organization and not the Milk Control Board.

I am aware that a Public Act cannot be amended by a Private Bill. Nevertheless Bill No. 93 appeared to me to provide for a compulsory means of raising money for the financing of an association or corporation that it would appear could derive such authority by means of a Private Bill instead of amending a Public Act.

The matter upon which I have been asked to rule in my opinion is a legal question, not one pertaining to the Rules of the House on Procedure, consequently I consulted Crown Officers and have been advised by the Legal Officers of the Crown that Bill No. 93 is a Public Bill.

The Bill was accordingly read a second time and was referred to the Committee of the Whole House to-morrow.

The following Bills were severally read the second time:—

Bill (No. 85), An Act to provide for the Establishment of the Ontario Stock Yards Board.

Referred to a Committee of the Whole House to-morrow.

Bill (No. 96), An Act respecting Hours of Work and Holidays with Pay in Industrial Undertakings.

Referred to a Committee of the Whole House to-morrow.

Bill (No. 98), An Act to amend The Mining Act.

Referred to a Committee of the Whole House to-morrow.

Bill (No. 99), An Act to amend The Old Age Pensions Act.

Referred to a Committee of the Whole House to-morrow.

Bill (No. 101), An Act to amend The Medical Act.

Referred to a Committee of the Whole House to-morrow.

Also, Report of the Ontario Municipal Board for the year ending December 31st, 1943. (Sessional Papers No. 24.)

Also, Report of the Civil Service Commissioner for the year ending December 31st, 1943. (Sessional Papers No. 37.)

The House then adjourned at 11.35 p.m. on motion of the Prime Minister to meet at 1 of the clock to-morrow afternoon.

In how many newspapers published outside the Counties of Norfolk and Haldimand was the said advertisement published during the week preceding March 18th. 9. Has the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario on any previous occasion during the past five years published two advertisements in the same issue of one newspaper, and if so, on what dates and in what newspapers.

The Honourable Mr. Challies, Minister without Portfolio, replied as follows:—

1. The Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario. 2. Four. 3. $92.00. 4. Three in week of March 13th, and one hundred and eighty-five in week of March 20th. 5. The Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario. 6. Four. 7. $107.64. 8. One hundred and fifty-five. 9. Yes, but no readily available record because all Hydro advertising is placed through an advertising agency in one hundred and ninety-three weekly and daily newspapers, and date of issue depends upon many factors, such as, space available, date of issue, time copy is received by paper, etc., sometimes causing overlapping of advertisements.

Bill (No. 90), An Act to amend The Municipal Act.

Bill (No. 88), An Act to amend The Children of Unmarried Parents Act.

Bill (No. 89), An Act to amend The Children's Protection Act.

The Order of the Day for consideration of Motion No. 4 having been read, Mr. Salsberg moved, seconded by Mr. MacLeod,

“That in the opinion of this House, the Standing Committee on Labour be authorized to conduct a Public Enquiry into the minimum wage rates now being paid to workers in this Province—female, male, adolescent youth, and apprentices: to establish the relationship of such rates to living costs and to an adequate standard of life; and to submit to this House, proposals and recommendations for legislation to establish a new minimum wage scale in Ontario in harmony with the possibilities for a higher Canadian standard of life and in accordance with the needs for an expanding home market.”

Mr. Speaker ruled that as the exceptions from the provisions of The Minimum Wage Act do not include members of the Civil Service the motion was an abstract motion which, if carried, would contemplate an increase in expenditure of public money and, therefore, it was not within the power of a private member to move it. He referred to Lewis on Parliamentary Procedure, page 161, first paragraph, and to the list of rulings on similar motions listed on page 364 of the index to the same book.

The Order of the Day for consideration of Motion No. 1 having been read, Mr. MacLeod moved, seconded by Mr. Salsberg,

“That in recognition of the valiant services being rendered for Canada and the civilized world by the members of the Canadian Active Service Forces and being of the opinion that the present allowance made to members of the forces on their discharge for the purpose of replacing their civilian clothing is quite inadequate, this House is of the opinion that a memorial should be presented to the Dominion Government by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council requesting that such clothing allowance be increased to an amount of at least $125.00.

Mr. Speaker ruled as follows:—

“While we may all agree with the sentiment expressed in the proposed motion in my opinion it is not within the jurisdiction of this House to pass such a motion. Section 54 of the British North America Act provides

‘That the House shall not adopt or pass any vote, resolution, address or bill for the appropriation of any part of the public revenue, or of any tax or impost, to any purpose that has not been first recommended by a message of the Lieutenant-Governor in the Session in which such vote, resolution, address or bill is proposed.’

It would clearly be out of order for the honourable member to move such a motion in this House and I therefore rule that it is not competent for a member to move such a motion affecting another parliamentary jurisdiction.

It would be possible to take up the greatest part of the time of the House considering such resolutions if they were to be admitted.”

On motion of Mr. Wismer, seconded by Mr. Jolliffe,

Ordered, That there be laid before this House a Return showing, in each Department of Government:—

1. The number of employees who have received salary increases in the following, or similar salary brackets, since March 31st, 1943—

- (a) Employees formerly receiving under $1,000 per year;
- (b) Employees receiving from $1,000 to $2,000;
- (c) Employees receiving from $2,000 to $3,000;
- (d) Employees receiving from $3,000 to $4,000;
- (e) Employees receiving from $4,000 to $5,000;
- (f) Employees receiving over $5,000 per year.

2. The total number of employees in each of the above salary brackets.

His Honour was then pleased to deliver the following speech:—

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly:

As your legislative duties are now ended for the present Session, I wish to express my appreciation of the services you rendered and to refer briefly to some of the measures with which you have dealt.

A new department of the public service, to be known as the Department of Planning and Development, has been constituted. It will be the function of the Minister presiding over this department to collaborate with the Ministers of the other departments of the public service in Ontario, with the Ministers in charge of the public service of the Dominion and of other provinces, with municipal councils, with Agricultural, Industrial, Labour, Mining, Trade and other associations and organizations and with public and private enterprises, with a view to formulating plans to create, assist, develop and maintain productive employment, and to develop the human and material resources of the province. The interest you have taken in this measure is an indication of the importance you attach to its functions. It shows your appreciation of the need for constructive planning in the years that lie immediately ahead.

Members of the Armed Forces have been given protection, in certain cases, against court and other proceedings during their period of service and during any period of treatment or rehabilitation after discharge. Provision has also been made for protecting their life insurance policies during the same period. The Active Service Moratorium Act, which affords protection to members of the Armed Forces in respect of mortgage indebtedness, has been brought in line with the foregoing enactments. A further measure relating to the Armed Services is a provision for commissioned officers to take affidavits either within or without the province.

The setting up of Agricultural Committees in the various counties and districts of Ontario, which will be representative of all agricultural organizations in those areas will provide an opportunity for farmers themselves to organize their own production and marketing. Provision for the payment of an increased subsidy to the producers of sugar beets has been provided this year. Provision has also been made for the extension of The Cheese and Hog Subsidy Act until the end of March, 1945. A further measure which forms part of the plan to assist the farmers of Ontario in the marketing of their livestock is the Act creating an Ontario Stockyards Board. This Board will have the power to take over and operate stockyards. No new stockyard may in future be established without the approval of the Board.

A few weeks ago the Dominion Government adopted a Labour Relations Code applying to war industries. The steps you have taken to apply this code to all other industries in Ontario will effect uniformity of the labour laws in this province, and will facilitate their administration. The Act which you have passed provides for the establishment of an Ontario Labour Relations Board. This Act, together with an Act amending The Judicature Act, terminates the operation of the Ontario Labour Court but protects any certifications which have been made by the Court and any proceedings pending therein. Another measure you have placed on the statute books, The Rights of Labour Act, will preserve the status given to trade unions under the repealed statute.

A maximum working day of eight hours and a maximum working week of forty-eight hours is provided for in the Hours of Work and Holidays with Pay Act. Ample powers are given to the Industry and Labour Board for the effective carrying-out of the terms of this Act. Every employee in an industrial undertaking is assured by the same Act a holiday with pay of one week for every working year.

An agreement with the Dominion Government providing for increased allowances for old age pensioners and blind pensioners, which has been in effect since the first of November, 1943, has been confirmed by legislation.

The Ontario Forest Resources Commission has been created for the purpose of making the best use of our great forest resources. The Commission will promote research work, studies and investigations, having for their object the conservation, development and effective utilization of Crown forests. The Commission will also devote its attention to conservation, reforestation, as well as the development and marketing of forests products.

The various school Acts have been amended and provision has been made for the establishment of funds to be used later in payment of capital expenditures. The Teaching Profession Act confers upon school teachers a professional status.

As part of the Government's plan for more adequate medical and hospital care for the citizens of Ontario, provision has been made for municipalities to adopt plans for Municipal Health Services. An amendment to The Medical Act provides for the temporary registration of medical practitioners from outside of Ontario who may be resident in the province during the period of the war. This Act has also been further amended to allow regulations to be made recognizing specialists in various branches of medicine, surgery and midwifery.

Various measures have been enacted in which the municipalities of Ontario are directly interested. Municipalities in the future will be able to remunerate members of municipal councils on an annual basis.
