15 H

This being the first day of the Second Session of the Thirty-fifth Parliament convoked by Proclamation of the Lieutenant Governor for the despatch of business, and the members of the House having assembled:-

His Honour the Lieutenant Governor entered the Legislative Chamber and, having taken his seat on the Throne, was pleased to open the Session by making the following gracious speech:-

Mr Speaker, Members of the Legislative Assembly, Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have the honour of welcoming you to the opening of the Second Session of the Thirty-fifth Parliament of the Province of Ontario.

In opening this session, I am pleased to report that Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, Queen of Canada, will be visiting the Nation's Capital from June 30 to July 2 to join in the celebration of the 125th anniversary of Confederation.

We are a remarkably diverse people, coming from all over the world, living and working in the heart of a Canada we love and want to strengthen. We are a truly international community living in a global economy.

We believe fundamentally that the purpose of an efficient, productive and competitive economy is to provide a secure, healthy and prosperous society. But experiences of the past months and years show that nothing can be taken for granted, and we have to learn and understand how to do things better ourselves.

The illusion that our society has to choose between caring and productivity, between compassion and efficiency, has to be broken. Ontario at its best has always tried to choose both. We will manage our public resources more efficiently and effectively so we can continue to build a fairer society.

Taking care of the environment is an essential part of true progress, and making our economy more conserving will ultimately be a source of strength and competitiveness. Anything less -- in this generation and the next -- is simply a charge on the future.

We have to be prepared to take a longer view, to understand the importance of learning and skill, to celebrate the fact that we are an international society, to encourage real co-operation between governments, business, labour and communities, and to break down the solitudes that we can no longer afford.

More than ever, these are critical times for our province, and country. Over the next year the future of Canada itself may be decided. My government is an active participant in intense discussions involving the federal government, the provincial and territorial governments, and aboriginal peoples to achieve a renewed federalism that can unite Canada. This is a time for creativity, and flexibility. Nothing less will secure the future for our children.

And so too with the economy. Dealing with the most persistent and deepest recession since the 1930s has been an enormous challenge for this government, and governments across Canada. Sadly, there are disturbing signs that this recession's hold on some of the most powerful economies around the globe has not loosened as predicted.

But our province faces additional challenges. Ontario lost more than an argument in the free trade deal. Implemented without adjustment measures, free trade has devastated Ontario's manufacturing base, costing tens of thousands of jobs in Ontario communities. Combined with the Goods and Services Tax, persistently high real interest rates, and an overvalued dollar, the new trading arrangements between Canada and the United States have not worked for Ontario.

Now, the prospect of a North American Free Trade deal, driven by political agendas unconcerned with the welfare of this province's businesses and workers, is equally disturbing. My government has made it clear to the national government that this is not the time, particularly as profound changes are being negotiated to the General Agreement on Trade and Tariffs, for more adventurism at the expense of Ontario jobs.

The federal government's cap on transfers to the provinces, coming as the recession struck with full force, represents a fundamental and unilateral change in the rules of federalism. This change is unacceptable to the taxpayers of Ontario.

The Ontario government cannot, by itself, solve every economic problem. But neither can we rely on others to fix our economic circumstances. We must do what we can ourselves. And my government has already launched an economic renewal plan, an investment strategy to build a stronger future during this time of change. We are investing in the people and the economy of Ontario now to build a dynamic economy that treats all Ontarians fairly.

Today, there is no subject more important to the people of Ontario than getting our economy back to health. Doing our part to build a stronger economy is the first priority of this government.

INVESTING IN BUSINESS

Our investment strategy starts with the conviction that a strong economy depends on a flourishing business sector.

The foundation of Ontario's economy remains our manufacturing and resource industries. Our province is also the financial centre of the country, and is home to a growing and important service sector. Today's world of free trade and globalization has forced our economy, along with all others, to restructure and adjust to changing conditions.

Many in Ontario are meeting the challenge, taking on and winning in the international marketplace. Our province is one of the best places in the world to do business.

Recently, Delcan International Corporation of North York was awarded a $36-million contract to design and implement two state-of-the-art sewage treatment plants in Venezuela.

Sandoz Limited of Whitby, a pharmaceutical firm, was awarded the mandate to produce and distribute Neo-Citran for the entire North American market by its Swiss parent.

Babcock and Wilcox of Cambridge led the Ontario Group consortium to sign a $900-million contract to design, build and commission a 1,100 megawatt thermal power plant in Iran. This will generate nearly $400 million of goods and services for participating Ontario businesses.

My government welcomes the remarkable turnaround by Magna Limited, a major force in automotive parts.

Where challenges exist, my government is prepared to be creative in proposing solutions, and assisting companies, communities, and workers build a new future in different ways.

Investments in Kapuskasing's Spruce Falls Mill and Sault Ste. Marie's Algoma Steel have preserved jobs for those communities while breaking new ground in worker ownership in Canada.

My government's strategic investment as a minority shareholder in de Havilland Aircraft has already paid dividends. A reinvigorated de Havilland recently announced a new sale of planes and plans to produce a new line of Dash 8 aircraft.

A more stable future for UTDC has also been assured with its sale to Bombardier, making the firm the largest North American manufacturer of mass transit systems and equipment.

When appropriate, government can play a strategic role as partner or co-investor with the private sector.

Our assistance to a three-company venture, involving Devtek Corporation and ORTECH International of Mississauga, and Stewart and Stevenson Power Incorporated, will help bring an efficient natural gas fuel injection system to market.

Last fall, the government signed a memorandum of understanding with the Society of the Plastics Industry of Canada to cooperate with this growing Ontario industry as it makes major inroads into the global marketplace.

The government has supported the establishment of the Industrial Research and Development Institute in Midland. The institute, dealing with advanced tools, dies and molds, represents a unique partnership between the private sector, academic community, and government to enhance Canada's competitive position through applied research and development.

Innovative solutions for the forest industry are being developed by the joint business-labour-government Forest Industry Action Group.

We intend to keep investing in Ontario jobs and business. Ontario will continue its support to position many small and mid-size Ontario firms for future expansion. In addition, we will step up our work with groups of companies in key areas of our economy to broaden Ontario's base of skills, knowledge and innovation, enhancing our ability to compete in world markets. We will announce new funds to assist the development of made-in-Ontario products and to promote our successes aggressively around the globe.

My government will introduce measures to assist Ontario's agriculture community, hit hard by the recession and international trade policies. Already we have announced the Commodity Loan Guarantee Program to help farmers meet financing requirements this spring. Under this program, we expect more than $50 million to be lent this year, and as much as $100 million in subsequent years.

INVESTING IN INFRASTRUCTURE

While the federal government has yet to respond to our challenge to invest in the infrastructure of Ontario, my government will continue to invest billions of dollars this year in vitally needed capital works, including transportation, housing, education, communications, and environmental protection. We will work in partnership with Ontario Hydro, with local and regional governments, and we continue to seek the participation of the Government of Canada.

The Treasurer will release details later this spring of our plans to channel capital resources towards growth-related projects and continue this government's commitment to renewing our infrastructure.

NEW INVESTMENT MECHANISMS

A central challenge to Ontario is getting access to investment dollars, whether for new projects or expanding enterprises. My government appreciates the sound advice on investment strategies offered through the Premier's Council on Economic Renewal.

Beginning this spring, consultation will take place on establishing an Ontario Investment Fund, designed to increase, voluntarily, the productive investment by Ontario pension plans in the Ontario economy. There can be few better uses for Ontario pension funds than investing in jobs in our own province, while providing good returns to Ontario workers and retirees.

The government will re-structure the investment services of the Ministry of Industry, Trade and Technology. The Investment Development Office will create a "one-stop shopping" system for businesses investing and expanding in Ontario.

Worker ownership legislation will come forward for final debate.

The credit union and cooperative movements play a major role in supporting small business and community investments. The Cooperative Corporations Act and proposals on credit union reform will go forward this session. These are innovative solutions to our need for new investment.

Municipalities will be given increased flexibility to borrow and invest.

INVESTING IN THE ENVIRONMENT

In the 1990s and into the next century, the interests of the environment and the economy are converging as consumers, businesses and governments respond to new realities. "Green" restructuring is happening all around us as domestic and international standards change, consumers demand green products, and technology advances.

Our investment strategy includes a Green Industry Strategy to support our environmental goals and make Ontario a leading producer and exporter of environmental goods and services.

Recently we concluded an agreement with Canadian General Electric to locate in Ontario production of energy efficient lighting products for the North American market.

Ontario continues to be on target to become a leading jurisdiction in energy efficiency by the year 2000. Hydro's Home Power Saver audit program, underway right now, will save participating households $350 million. The utility's overall demand management programs will save $170 million and stimulate over 10,000 jobs in Ontario this year.

During the next year the Sewell Commission on Planning and Development Reform in Ontario will produce recommendations on a land-use system that is both efficient and environmentally responsible.

The Environment Bill of Rights consultation group, involving members of the environmental and business communities, is expected to report this spring. Draft legislation will be released later this year.

My government acknowledges the productive work of the Ontario Roundtable on the Environment and Economy and looks forward to its recommendations on a strategy for sustainable development this spring.

STREAMLINING REGULATION

The regulatory system in Ontario is overburdened. While each individual regulation, act or process has its justification, the accumulation over several decades has resulted in gridlock.

Our investment strategy includes tackling critical roadblocks in the regulatory maze.

We are immediately committing new resources to the backlog at the Ontario Municipal Board. Already we have achieved modest success in speeding up the process, and we are determined to do more. Last week, we appointed a facilitator to move vital capital projects through the regulatory process as part of a broader urban economic recovery strategy. A task force to streamline regulations will be set up to identify and remove unnecessary regulations and barriers.

My government will not engage in destructive deregulation. The ongoing reform of the environmental assessment process will simplify, expedite and clarify the process, not lower Ontario's environmental standards.

This is an area where actions are more important than words, and the recent fast-track approvals of the two expansions of the Spadina Subway in Metro Toronto are promising examples of the creative solutions possible.

Amendments to the Condominium Act will be introduced to overcome outmoded legislation that is inhibiting development and inadequately protecting consumers. The building code will be updated. My government will revise the Planning Act to increase the supply of basement apartments throughout the province, an inexpensive way to increase affordable housing and create jobs in the home renovation industry.

INVESTING IN PEOPLE

Ontario's people are its greatest strength.

In our budget, we will be releasing details of a new training strategy that will help create thousands of new jobs in growth areas of the private sector, particularly in small businesses, while providing new training opportunities. The plan will put social assistance recipients and workers whose Unemployment Insurance has run out back to work.

We will, as part of the strategy, increase the child care spaces available for working women.

This session, we will introduce legislation that will make Ontario a leader in training with the Ontario Training and Adjustment Board. Building on real economic partnership, representatives of labour, business and community groups will take responsibility for many training programs now run by government.

The investment strategy will also give a high priority to training agreements that tie skills development directly to market needs. We are vigorously pursuing new agreements with the steel industry and with auto parts employers and employees, where up to 30,000 workers could benefit.

Work on reforming and restructuring the school system, including curriculum, is proceeding with the goal of making what and how our students learn more relevant to today's society and work world. The first effects will be felt in the coming school year.

Ontario's work force has changed, both in terms of who is in it and what they do. Women, members of minority communities, and part-time workers are significant and growing contributors to our economy. The rules that govern our labour force, however, have not kept pace. In fact, the Ontario Labour Relations Act has not been reformed in more than 15 years.

Our public consultations on the Act have recently concluded, and my government has listened intently to the advice from representatives of both the business community and the labour movement.

The legislation, with changes based on the results of those consultations, will come forward this session. Many will pre-judge the bill, and spend large sums of money doing so. My government will move forward responsibly, and reasonably.

No economy can function at its peak, and no society can call itself truly fair, if some of our citizens are excluded from full participation because of discrimination.

Employment equity legislation will be brought forward this session. By tackling workplace discrimination, all Ontarians will have more opportunity to contribute fully and creatively in their jobs. Using the talents and abilities of all our people will help us compete in a global economy. Simply put, employment equity makes good economic sense.

As well, my government will proceed with legislation to extend pay equity to 400,000 women left out of the original legislation, underscoring our commitment to fairness for all Ontarians and the right to a decent living wage.

AFFORDABLE AND EFFECTIVE PUBLIC SERVICES

The province's economic circumstances have forced the government to make some tough decisions about the services we provide and the funding that goes with them.

More difficult decisions are coming. The budget will announce the first-phase results of a massive review of government programs, affecting virtually every Ontarian. We are implementing stringent financial measures, beyond the spending cuts, salary freezes, and program savings already announced, to control the government's operating expenses. These efforts will continue.

As we said when we provided an historically low increase in the transfers to schools, universities, colleges, hospitals and municipalities, governments must balance the cost of services people expect and need, and what we can afford. Every dollar that goes to pay the interest on borrowed money is a dollar that cannot be spent to improve our health care system, educate our children or provide a vital service.

We remain profoundly committed to national programs, and to paying our fair share in Confederation, particularly in support of equalization. Ontario asks in return that it be treated with fairness as we experience unprecedented change.

Our job has been made enormously difficult by the federal government's abdication of its traditional responsibility to pay its share of health care, social assistance and education costs. In this fiscal year alone, these actions by the federal government will cost Ontario about $4.5 billion, or more than $1,700 for the average family of four in our province.

The federal government's unilateral and arbitrary cap on social spending in Ontario could not come at a worse time. Changes to Unemployment Insurance, for instance, have shifted a tremendous financial burden to our social assistance rolls at the very time the federal government has cut its share of welfare costs. The effect on families has been devastating.

With our public services being pushed to the brink, the government must act to preserve them. We will manage more effectively, and efficiently. Where necessary, sectors will undergo a dramatic restructuring as the tough choices are made.

Many ministers in my government are working closely with affected sectors to start the sometimes difficult process of changing the way Ontario provides services, and the way the public has access to them. Already, results are being achieved.

In the hospital sector, for example, plans are being developed in Guelph to rebuild St. Joseph's Hospital as a long-term care facility and develop Guelph General as an acute care hospital. This rationalization of services will build expertise and save money. At Women's College Hospital in Toronto, management and a union president worked together to implement innovative recycling, operational efficiency, and retraining programs. Major cost savings were achieved with almost no layoffs or service reductions.

These tangible examples speak well for the job ahead. If we do not succeed, then badly-needed reforms in our child care, social assistance, and long-term care systems will be unaffordable. Future funding can no longer be an automatic add-on; emphasis must be on shifting resources.

A critical component of these plans is labour relations. Public sector employers must find ways in which workers and their representatives can participate fully in designing new, more effective delivery systems for the high quality public services Ontarians deserve. Creative collective bargaining, such as the settlement at Ontario Hydro with its employees, can produce solutions where no one loses.

CONCLUSION

My government is confident that this province will emerge from the current economic circumstances stronger. Our investment strategy recognizes that the way back to economic health for Ontario will require intense commitment by all Ontarians, and the willingness to work in partnership to achieve the goals we share.

And as we do so, we know that building a stronger Ontario is one of the greatest contributions we could make to a strong and united Canada.

May Divine Providence attend your deliberations.

In our Sovereign's name, I thank you.

God bless the Queen and Canada.

Monsieur le président, Mesdames et Messieurs les membres de l'Assemblée législative, Mesdames et Messieurs, J'ai l'honneur de vous souhaiter la bienvenue à l'ouverture de la deuxième session de la trente-cinquième législature de la province d'Ontario.

J'ai le plaisir de vous annoncer, en ouvrant cette session, que Sa Majesté la reine Elizabeth II, souveraine du Canada, visitera la capitale nationale du 30 juin au 2 juillet à l'occasion des célébrations marquant le 125^e anniversaire de la Confédération.

Nous formons une population très diversifiée. Venant de tous les coins du monde, nous vivons et travaillons au coeur de ce pays, le Canada, que nous aimons et que nous voulons renforcer. Nous sommes une communauté vraiment cosmopolite qui évolue dans une économie mondiale.

Nous croyons fondamentalement que l'objet d'une économie dynamique, productive et concurrentielle est d'assurer à la population santé, sécurité et prospérité. L'expérience des derniers mois et des dernières années nous montre toutefois qu'il ne faut rien tenir pour acquis. Nous devons apprendre et comprendre la façon de mieux faire les choses nous-mêmes.

Il faut nous débarrasser du mythe selon lequel la société doit choisir entre humanité et productivité, entre compassion et efficacité. L'Ontario, dans les plus fiers moments de son histoire, a toujours essayé de réunir ces deux qualités. Nous allons donc gérer les ressources publiques de façon plus rationnelle et plus efficace de sorte que nous puissions continuer à bâtir une société plus juste.

La protection de l'environnement constitue un aspect essentiel d'un véritable progrès, et une économie plus soucieuse de la conservation de ses richesses s'avérera en fin de compte source de vigueur et de compétitivité. Pour notre génération et celle qui nous suit, c'est là une réalité que nous ne devons en aucun cas ignorer si nous ne voulons pas hypothéquer l'avenir.

Nous devons être prêts à adopter une stratégie de longue haleine, à comprendre l'importance de l'apprentissage et de la connaissance, à célébrer le fait que nous constituons une société cosmopolite, à encourager une collaboration réelle entre les gouvernements, les entreprises, le monde du travail et les collectivités et à briser les murs de solitude que nous ne pouvons plus nous permettre de dresser entre nous.

Jamais auparavant nous n'avons traversé de période aussi critique pour notre province et pour notre pays. L'année qui vient décidera peut-être de l'avenir du Canada. Notre gouvernement prend une part active aux débats intenses engagés entre le gouvernement fédéral, les gouvernements provinciaux et territoriaux et les peuples autochtones afin de réaliser un fédéralisme renouvelé, capable d'unir le Canada. Il nous faut faire preuve de créativité et de souplesse. Rien d'autre ne pourra assurer l'avenir de nos enfants.

Il en va de même de l'économie. Notre gouvernement, comme tous les autres gouvernements au Canada, a dû faire face à la récession la plus persistante et la plus profonde qu'ait connue le pays depuis les années 30. C'est là un énorme défi. Malheureusement, des signes inquiétants indiquent que cette récession n'a pas, comme on l'avait prédit, relâché son emprise sur quelques-unes des économies les plus puissantes du monde.

Mais notre province a encore d'autres défis à relever. L'Ontario a perdu plus qu'une bataille de mots dans l'accord de libre-échange. Mis en oeuvre sans mesures d'adaptation, le libre-échange a dévasté le secteur manufacturier ontarien, sabrant des dizaines de milliers d'emplois dans diverses localités de la province. S'ajoutant à la taxe sur les produits et services, aux taux constamment élevés d'intérêts réels et à la surévaluation du dollar, les nouvelles ententes commerciales entre le Canada et les États-Unis sont loin d'avoir été avantageuses pour l'Ontario.

Aujourd'hui, il y a également lieu de s'alarmer à la perspective d'un accord de libre-échange nord-américain, animé par des objectifs politiques qui se soucient fort peu du bien-être des entreprises et des travailleurs et travailleuses de la province. Notre gouvernement a fait savoir en termes non équivoques au gouvernement fédéral que le temps n'est pas à l'aventurisme économique aux dépens de la main-d'oeuvre ontarienne, surtout pas au moment où les négociations de l'Accord général sur les tarifs douaniers et le commerce laissent présager de profonds changements à l'échelle mondiale.

La décision du gouvernement fédéral de plafonner les paiements de transfert aux provinces, prise au moment même où la récession nous assiège de toutes parts, constitue une modification unilatérale des règles fondamentales du fédéralisme, ce qui est tout à fait inacceptable pour les contribuables de l'Ontario.

Le gouvernement de l'Ontario ne peut régler seul tous les problèmes économiques pas plus que nous ne pouvons compter sur les autres pour améliorer notre situation. Nous devons faire nous-mêmes tout ce qui est en notre pouvoir. C'est pourquoi le gouvernement a déjà lancé un plan de reprise économique, une stratégie d'investissement en vue de construire un avenir plus prospère en cette période de profonde transformation. Nous investissons aujourd'hui dans la population et l'économie de l'Ontario afin de bâtir une société dynamique au sein de laquelle tous les Ontariens et Ontariennes seront traités de façon juste et équitable.

Aujourd'hui, nul sujet n'est plus important pour la population de l'Ontario que celui de la relance économique. Faire notre part pour bâtir une économie plus vigoureuse, voilà la grande priorité de notre gouvernement.

L'INVESTISSEMENT DANS L'ENTREPRISE

Notre stratégie d'investissement est fondée sur la conviction profonde qu'une économie saine repose sur un secteur commercial florissant.

Les assises de l'économie ontarienne demeurent nos industries manufacturières et le secteur des ressources naturelles. Notre province est également le cœur financier du pays et le foyer d'un important secteur des services qui est en pleine croissance. Les tendances actuelles à la mondialisation et à la libéralisation des échanges ont forcé notre économie, à l'instar de bien d'autres, à se restructurer et à s'adapter à des conditions nouvelles.

Nombre d'entreprises ontariennes relèvent le défi et, se lançant à la conquête des marchés internationaux, s'y taillent une place prépondérante. Notre province est sans contredit l'un des meilleurs endroits au monde pour faire des affaires.

Ainsi, la société Delcan International de North York a obtenu récemment un contrat de 36 millions de dollars pour la conception et la construction de deux usines ultramodernes d'épuration des eaux usées au Venezuela.

La compagnie pharmaceutique Sandoz Limited de Whitby s'est vu confier par sa société mère, en Suisse, la production et la distribution du Neo-Citran pour tout le marché nord-américain.

La maison Babcock and Wilcox de Cambridge a pris la tête du consortium du Groupe Ontario pour conclure un contrat de 900 millions de dollars pour la conception, la construction et la mise en service d'une centrale thermique de 1 100 mégawatts en Iran.

Ces travaux entraîneront des achats de produits et services de l'ordre de 400 millions de dollars pour les entreprises ontariennes qui y participent.

Le gouvernement salue le remarquable rétablissement de Magna Limited, une importante entreprise dans le domaine des pièces d'automobiles.

Face à un défi, le gouvernement est toujours disposé à faire preuve de créativité en proposant des solutions et en aidant les entreprises, les collectivités et les travailleurs et travailleuses à trouver des façons différentes de se tailler un nouvel avenir.

C'est ainsi que les montants investis dans l'usine Spruce Falls à Kapuskasing et dans l'Algoma Steel à Sault-Ste-Marie ont permis de sauvegarder des emplois dans ces localités tout en ouvrant de nouveaux horizons pour la participation des travailleurs et travailleuses à la propriété de l'entreprise.

L'investissement stratégique du gouvernement à titre d'actionnaire minoritaire de la compagnie de Havilland a déjà porté des fruits. En effet, la société, qui reprend de sa vigueur, a annoncé récemment un nouveau contrat de vente d'avions et des projets pour la production d'une nouvelle série d'appareils Dash 8.

À la suite de la vente à la maison Bombardier, la Société de développement du transport urbain s'est également assuré un avenir plus stable et fait maintenant partie de la plus grande entreprise manufacturière nord-américaine dans le domaine des réseaux et de l'équipement de transport en commun.

Lorsque la situation s'y prête, le gouvernement peut jouer un rôle stratégique en collaborant avec le secteur privé à titre de partenaire ou de coinvestisseur.

L'aide que nous avons apportée au projet de trois compagnies, Devtek Corporation et ORTECH International, de Mississauga, et Stewart and Stevenson Power Incorporated, contribuera à la commercialisation d'un système à injection de gaz naturel à faible consommation de carburant.

L'automne dernier, le gouvernement a signé un protocole d'entente avec la Société des industries du plastique du Canada afin de collaborer avec cette industrie ontarienne en pleine expansion qui fait des pas de géant sur le marché mondial.

Le gouvernement a appuyé la création de l'Industrial Research and Development Institute à Midland. Cet établissement, qui se spécialise dans les techniques poussées d'outillage, d'ajustage et de moulage, est un exemple unique de partenariat réunissant le secteur privé, le monde de l'éducation et le gouvernement dans le but d'améliorer la position concurrentielle du Canada grâce à la recherche appliquée et au développement.

Le Groupe de travail de l'industrie forestière, composé de représentants des entreprises, des syndicats et du gouvernement, a élaboré des solutions novatrices pour favoriser l'industrie forestière.

Nous avons la ferme intention de continuer à investir dans l'emploi et l'entreprise en Ontario. Le gouvernement continuera d'aider un grand nombre de petites et moyennes entreprises ontariennes à se préparer à une future expansion. De plus, nous intensifierons nos efforts auprès de groupes de sociétés représentant des secteurs clés de notre économie pour élargir notre base de compétences, de connaissances et d'innovations, afin d'améliorer la compétitivité de l'Ontario sur les marchés internationaux. Nous annoncerons de nouvelles affectations de fonds visant à faciliter la mise au point de produits fabriqués en Ontario et à promouvoir énergiquement nos réalisations à l'échelle mondiale.

Le gouvernement annoncera également des mesures pour aider le secteur de l'agriculture, qui a été durement touché par la récession et les politiques commerciales internationales. Nous avons déjà lancé le Programme de garanties d'emprunt pour les produits agricoles, qui vise à aider les exploitations agricoles à faire face à leurs obligations financières ce printemps. Dans le cadre de ce programme, nous prévoyons qu'une somme de plus de 50 millions de dollars pourra être prêtée aux agriculteurs cette année; cette somme pourra atteindre 100 millions de dollars les années suivantes.

L'INVESTISSEMENT DANS L'INFRASTRUCTURE

Bien que le gouvernement fédéral n'ait pas encore répondu à l'invitation que nous lui avons lancée d'investir dans l'infrastructure de l'Ontario, notre gouvernement continuera cette année à consacrer des milliards de dollars à des travaux d'infrastructure d'une importance vitale dans les domaines du transport, du logement, de l'éducation, des communications et de la protection de l'environnement. Nous agirons de concert avec Hydro Ontario et avec les administrations locales et régionales, tout en continuant à solliciter la participation du gouvernement du Canada.

Plus tard ce printemps, le trésorier dévoilera les détails de nos projets visant à acheminer les ressources financières vers des activités favorisant la croissance économique, en vue de concrétiser l'engagement du gouvernement à l'égard de la modernisation de notre infrastructure.

DE NOUVEAUX MÉCANISMES D'INVESTISSEMENT

Une des principales difficultés que doit surmonter l'Ontario est d'accéder aux fonds d'investissement qui permettront l'exécution de nouveaux projets et l'expansion des entreprises. Le gouvernement apprécie les judicieux conseils en matière de stratégies d'investissement que lui prodigue le Conseil du premier ministre sur le renouveau économique.

Au cours des prochaines semaines, nous entreprendrons des consultations sur l'établissement d'un Fonds d'investissement de l'Ontario conçu pour augmenter, de façon volontaire, les investissements productifs provenant des régimes de retraite ontariens. En effet, il est difficile d'imaginer un meilleur usage pour les caisses de retraite ontariennes que ce moyen de stimuler l'emploi dans la province tout en offrant un bon taux de rendement du capital investi pour notre main-d'oeuvre active et à la retraite.

Le gouvernement s'emploiera à restructurer les services liés à l'investissement qui sont offerts par le ministère de l'Industrie, du Commerce et de la Technologie. Le Bureau de développement des investissements mettra en place un service intégré d'accueil et d'orientation à l'intention des entreprises qui veulent investir et prendre de l'expansion en Ontario.

Un projet de loi sur la participation des travailleurs et travailleuses à la propriété des entreprises sera présenté en dernière lecture à l'Assemblée législative.

Les credit unions et les autres mouvements coopératifs jouent un rôle de premier plan lorsqu'il s'agit d'épauler les petites entreprises et de faciliter les investissements communautaires. Au cours de la session, l'Assemblée législative poursuivra l'étude du projet de loi sur les sociétés coopératives, ainsi que d'autres propositions portant sur la réforme des credit unions. Nous y voyons des solutions novatrices qui répondront à nos besoins en nouveaux investissements.

Les municipalités disposeront d'une plus grande marge de manoeuvre quand il s'agira d'emprunter et d'investir.

L'INVESTISSEMENT DANS L'ENVIRONNEMENT

Au cours des années 90 et au début du XXI^e siècle, on assistera à la convergence des préoccupations environnementales et des impératifs économiques. Consommateurs, entreprises et gouvernements devront s'adapter à de nouvelles réalités. Les initiatives de restructuration «verte» se multiplient déjà par suite de l'évolution des normes intérieures et internationales, de l'intérêt accru pour des produits écologiques et des progrès de la technologie.

Notre programme d'investissement comprend une stratégie éco-industrielle à l'appui de nos objectifs environnementaux et permettra à l'Ontario d'être à l'avant-garde dans la production et l'exportation de biens et de services écologiques. Nous avons récemment conclu avec la Générale Électrique du Canada une entente en vertu de laquelle la compagnie concentrera en Ontario la production de ses produits d'éclairage éconergiques destinés à l'ensemble du marché nord-américain.

L'Ontario continue à marquer des points dans le domaine du rendement énergétique et compte bien devenir un chef de file à cet égard d'ici l'an 2000. Le Programme Éconergie à domicile d'Hydro Ontario, actuellement en cours, consiste à préparer des bilans énergétiques et à les remettre aux ménages participants, qui pourront réaliser des économies totalisant 350 millions de dollars. Globalement, les programmes de gestion de la demande d'Hydro Ontario permettront cette année d'épargner 170 millions de dollars et entraîneront la création de plus de 10 000 emplois.

Au cours de l'année prochaine, la Commission sur la réforme de l'aménagement et de l'exploitation du territoire de l'Ontario, la Commission Sewell, formulera des recommandations grâce auxquelles le processus d'aménagement du territoire deviendra vraiment efficace et responsable sur le plan de l'environnement.

Un groupe consultatif sur la Charte des droits environnementaux, formé de membres d'organismes voués à la protection de l'environnement et de gens d'affaires, devrait être en mesure de présenter son rapport ce printemps. Un projet de loi sera déposé cette année à ce sujet.

Le gouvernement souligne le travail productif de la Table ronde de l'Ontario sur l'environnement et l'économie et attend avec intérêt d'ici peu ses recommandations pour une stratégie de développement durable.

LA RATIONALISATION DE LA RÉGLEMENTATION

Le système de réglementation de l'Ontario est surchargé. Tous les règlements, lois et processus particuliers ont leur raison d'être, mais leur accumulation au fil des ans a produit un effet sclérosant.

Notre stratégie d'investissement nous amènera à éliminer un grand nombre de ces obstacles.

De nouvelles ressources permettront de venir à bout de l'arriéré de dossiers qui se trouvent devant la Commission des affaires municipales de l'Ontario. Nos efforts pour accélérer le processus commencent déjà à donner des résultats et nous entendons bien ne pas nous arrêter là. La semaine dernière, dans le cadre d'une stratégie d'envergure visant à stimuler la reprise économique urbaine, nous avons nommé un facilitateur chargé de piloter certains projets d'immobilisations d'une importance vitale. En vue de simplifier la réglementation, nous mettrons sur pied un groupe de travail qui aura le mandat de repérer et d'éliminer les règlements superflus ainsi que les obstacles.

Le gouvernement se gardera de procéder à une déréglementation qui pourrait s'avérer destructive. Ainsi, en ce qui touche les évaluations environnementales, la réforme en cours vise à créer un processus plus simple, plus rapide et plus clair, sans pour autant affaiblir les normes environnementales de l'Ontario.

Dans ce domaine, les actes comptent plus que les paroles. Récemment, la rapidité avec laquelle on a approuvé les deux projets d'expansion de la ligne de métro Spadina, dans la communauté urbaine de Toronto, illustre bien qu'il est possible de trouver des solutions créatrices.

Nous proposerons des modifications à la Loi sur les condominiums afin d'améliorer les mesures législatives dépassées qui freinent le développement et protègent mal les consommateurs. Le code du bâtiment sera mis à jour. Le gouvernement révisera la Loi sur l'aménagement du territoire de manière à augmenter le nombre de logements dans les sous-sols, un moyen économique d'accroître le stock de logements abordables dans la province et de créer des emplois dans le secteur de la rénovation domiciliaire.

L'INVESTISSEMENT DANS LA POPULATION

Ce qui fait la force de l'Ontario, ce sont les Ontariens et les Ontariennes.

Dans notre budget, nous publierons les détails d'une nouvelle stratégie qui contribuera à créer des milliers d'emplois dans les activités de pointe du secteur privé, en particulier dans la petite entreprise, tout en offrant de nouvelles perspectives en matière de formation. Cet ensemble de mesures permettra aux prestataires de l'aide sociale et aux travailleurs et travailleuses qui ont reçu toutes les prestations d'assurance-chômage auxquelles ils avaient droit de retourner au travail.

Dans le cadre de cette stratégie, nous augmenterons le nombre de places disponibles en garderie afin d'aider les travailleuses.

Au cours de la présente session, nous déposerons un projet de loi qui fera de l'Ontario un chef de file dans le domaine de la formation, grâce au Conseil ontarien de formation et d'adaptation de la main-d'oeuvre. Dans le cadre d'un véritable partenariat économique, des représentants des syndicats, des entreprises et des groupes communautaires assumeront la responsabilité de nombreux programmes de formation qui relèvent actuellement du gouvernement.

La stratégie en matière d'investissement accordera un haut degré de priorité aux ententes de formation qui concilient la formation professionnelle avec les besoins du marché. Nous travaillons de pied ferme en vue de conclure avec l'industrie sidérurgique et avec les employés et employeurs du secteur des pièces d'automobiles de nouvelles ententes en vertu desquelles près de 30 000 travailleurs et travailleuses pourront bénéficier d'une formation.

Des travaux sont en cours pour réformer et restructurer le système scolaire, y compris les programmes d'études, afin que les matières enseignées et les modes d'apprentissage soient plus compatibles avec le monde du travail et la société d'aujourd'hui. Les premiers effets de ces modifications seront visibles dès la prochaine année scolaire.

Le monde du travail en Ontario a changé, tant dans sa composition que dans sa fonction. Les femmes, les membres des groupes minoritaires et les travailleurs et travailleuses à temps partiel apportent une contribution de plus en plus considérable à l'économie. Cependant, les règles qui régissent la main-d'oeuvre n'ont pas évolué au même rythme. En fait, la Loi sur les relations de travail n'a subi aucune modification depuis plus de 15 ans.

Notre gouvernement a mené des consultations à propos de cette loi et il a écouté attentivement les conseils formulés par les représentants du monde des affaires et des syndicats.

Des modifications fondées sur les résultats de ces consultations seront déposées au cours de la session. Bien des gens seront prêts à condamner le projet de loi et à dépenser des sommes importantes pour le faire. Notre gouvernement agira de façon responsable et raisonnable.

Une économie ne peut être florissante et une société ne peut à juste titre se qualifier d'équitable si une partie de la population n'a pas droit à une participation pleine et entière par suite de discrimination.

Des mesures législatives sur l'équité en matière d'emploi seront déposées au cours de la session. Si l'on s'attaque de front à la discrimination au travail, tous les Ontariens et Ontariennes auront davantage la possibilité d'apporter une contribution substantielle et créatrice à leur milieu de travail. Nous serons plus en mesure de soutenir la concurrence dans une économie globale si nous faisons appel au talent et aux compétences de toute la population. Pour dire les choses simplement, l'équité en matière d'emploi, c'est rentable.

Pour concrétiser son engagement à l'égard de l'équité et du droit à un revenu décent pour tous les travailleurs et travailleuses, le gouvernement adoptera en outre des dispositions législatives qui élargiront les mesures d'équité salariale en vigueur pour tenir compte de 400 000 femmes qui n'étaient pas touchées par la loi initiale.

DES SERVICES PUBLICS EFFICACES ET MOINS COÛTEUX

La situation économique de la province a forcé le gouvernement à prendre des décisions difficiles en ce qui a trait aux services qu'il offre et au financement que ces services requièrent.

Il reste encore des décisions difficiles à prendre. Le budget fera état de la première étape d'une révision considérable des programmes du gouvernement, laquelle touchera pour ainsi dire toute la population. Pour restreindre les dépenses de fonctionnement du gouvernement, il nous faut prendre d'autres mesures énergiques que celles déjà annoncées — coupures budgétaires, gel des salaires, économies dans l'exécution des programmes. Nous poursuivrons nos efforts dans ce sens.

Comme nous l'avons mentionné lorsque nous avons accordé aux conseils scolaires, aux universités, aux collèges, aux hôpitaux et aux municipalités une des plus faibles augmentations des paiements de transfert qu'ils aient connues, les gouvernements doivent établir un équilibre entre le coût des services que la population attend et dont elle a besoin et les sommes qu'ils sont en mesure de dépenser. Chaque dollar utilisé pour payer l'intérêt sur l'argent emprunté est un dollar qui ne peut servir à améliorer notre système de santé, à éduquer nos enfants ou à fournir un service indispensable.

Nous maintenons notre engagement profond à l'égard des programmes nationaux et nous sommes disposés à payer notre juste part au sein de la Confédération, surtout en ce qui a trait à la péréquation. En retour, l'Ontario exige un traitement équitable en cette période où nous sommes témoins de changements sans précédent.

En se soustrayant à la responsabilité qu'il avait assumée jusqu'ici en ce qui a trait à sa part des dépenses aux chapitres de la santé, de l'aide sociale et de l'éducation, le gouvernement fédéral nous rend la partie extrêmement difficile. Pour le présent exercice seulement, la réduction des sommes versées par le gouvernement fédéral coûtera à la province quelque 4,5 milliards de dollars, soit plus de 1 700 $ pour la famille moyenne de quatre personnes.

Pour la population de l'Ontario, le gouvernement fédéral n'aurait pu choisir un pire moment pour restreindre les dépenses de façon aussi arbitraire et unilatérale. Des modifications apportées à l'assurance-chômage, par exemple, ont accru de façon considérable nos dépenses au chapitre de l'aide sociale, au moment même où le gouvernement fédéral a réduit sa contribution à ces dépenses. Ces restrictions ont eu des conséquences néfastes pour les familles.

Nos services publics se trouvant à la limite de leurs possibilités, le gouvernement doit trouver des moyens de les sauvegarder. Notre gestion se doit d'être efficace et efficiente. Si cela s'avère nécessaire, nous devons prendre les décisions qui s'imposent et soumettre certains secteurs à une restructuration en profondeur.

Un grand nombre de nos ministres travaillent en étroite collaboration avec les secteurs touchés pour amorcer le processus parfois difficile qui vise à modifier la façon dont le gouvernement de l'Ontario fournit des services, de même que la façon dont la population peut y avoir accès. Ces démarches commencent déjà à produire des résultats.

Dans le secteur hospitalier, par exemple, des projets sont en cours pour transformer l'hôpital général St. Joseph de Guelph en établissement de soins de longue durée et pour faire de l'hôpital général de Guelph un établissement de soins actifs. Cette rationalisation des services favorisera l'acquisition de compétences et permettra de réaliser des économies. Au Women's College de Toronto, la direction de l'hôpital et la présidence d'un syndicat collaborent à la mise en oeuvre de programmes innovateurs de recyclage, d'efficacité opérationnelle et de formation professionnelle. On a ainsi réalisé d'importantes économies sans effectuer de nombreuses mises à pied ou de réduction considérable des services.

Ces exemples tangibles illustrent bien la tâche qui nous attend. Si nos efforts s'avèrent infructueux, nous n'aurons pas les moyens d'effectuer la réforme qui s'impose dans les domaines des services de garde d'enfants, de l'aide sociale et des soins de longue durée. Nous ne pouvons plus nous permettre d'ajouter systématiquement aux dépenses engagées; il faut désormais mettre l'accent sur la réaffectation des ressources.

Les relations de travail constituent un élément critique de notre programme. Les employeurs du secteur public doivent trouver des moyens pour les travailleurs et travailleuses et pour leurs représentants et représentantes de participer de façon substantielle à la conception de nouveaux mécanismes de prestation des services d'excellente qualité que la population ontarienne mérite. La créativité dans la négociation collective peut permettre d'arriver à des solutions qui profitent à tout le monde, comme on l'a vu au moment de la négociation entre Hydro Ontario et son personnel.

CONCLUSION

Le gouvernement a la conviction que la province vaincra les difficultés économiques qu'elle connaît actuellement et qu'elle s'en trouvera plus vigoureuse. Notre stratégie en matière d'investissement reconnaît que pour permettre à la province de recouvrer sa vitalité, les Ontariens et Ontariennes devront faire preuve d'une profonde détermination ainsi que d'une grande volonté de travailler en collaboration pour atteindre nos objectifs communs.

Si nous nous appliquons à bâtir ensemble un Ontario plus fort, nous saurons que nous avons apporté la plus grande contribution qui soit à l'édification d'un Canada fort et uni.

Puisse la divine Providence guider vos délibérations.

Au nom de notre souveraine, je vous remercie.

Dieu bénisse la reine et le Canada.

His Honour was then pleased to retire.

Mr Runciman moved,

M. Runciman propose,

That, in the opinion of this House, since this government has assumed office, there has been a significant increase in crime, particularly violent crimes and crimes against women and children; this government has demonstrated various misuses of police resources; this government has politicized police services boards; this government has failed to provide a bill of rights for victims of crime; this government has not provided adequate support for law enforcement agencies on the streets and in the courts; this government has undermined the morale of police forces in Ontario through political pressure and fiscal strangulation; this government has taken no action to address the serious shortage of Ontario Provincial Police officers and this shortage has left numerous communities unprotected; this government has continued the pattern of neglect and low prioritization of Ontario's law and order concerns established by recent Liberal governments; therefore, this House calls upon the government to introduce specific measures to resolve these concerns so the citizens of Ontario and those who visit our communities can walk our streets safely and without fear.

Mr Martin moved,

M. Martin propose

That, in the opinion of this House, recognizing that cross border shopping is one of the major threats to the economy of our communities, province and country and that an estimated $2 billion in 1991 was spent in the United States by Ontario alone and, further, that cross border shopping is a significant factor in a more integrated North American economy; the Government of Ontario should make the challenge of cross border shopping a priority by conducting a comprehensive study of its impact on the economy of Ontario. Such a study would be a joint venture of Provincial, Federal and the affected Municipal governments and would examine the unique and combined influences of such factors as the present cross border shopping initiatives of the Ministry of Industry, Trade and Technology; the cost of gasoline; the impact of Sunday Shopping; and the value of the Canadian dollar.

A debate arising, at 11:00 a.m., further proceedings were reserved until 12:00 noon.

À 11 heures, la suite du débat est réservé jusqu'à midi.

Mr Phillips (Scarborough-Agincourt) then moved,

Ensuite, M. Phillips (Scarborough-Agincourt) propose,

That, in the opinion of this House, the provincial budget must present a comprehensive picture of Ontario's Economic and Social situation to include a broad range of social and economic indicators which can be monitored and targeted for progress including:

- 1) The number of people living below the poverty line, including the number of children.
- 2) Social assistance caseloads.
- 3) Social assistance benefit levels expressed in both dollar terms as well as a percentage of the poverty line.

- 4) Usage of foodbanks.
- 5) Housing data including the average home prices in selected cities required to purchase a home, average rents in selected cities, and waiting lists for assisted housing.
- 6) Distribution of income and wealth in Ontario.
- 7) Income distribution by gender.
- 8) Tax burdens faced by different income groups.
- 9) Number of lay-offs and their success rates at securing comparable re-employment.

Pursuant to Standing Order 94(e), no objection having been made to the putting of the question on Mr Martin's Resolution Number 6, the question having been put, was declared carried

Opposition Day

Jour de l'opposition

With unanimous consent, in the absence of Mr
Elston, Mr Sorbara moved,

Avec le consentement unanime, en l'absence de
M. Elston, M. Sorbara propose,

Whereas the NDP government has undertaken to make "integrity in government" and "conduct of Ministers" the centrepiece of a new NDP administration and made specific reference to that undertaking in its first Speech from the Throne;

And whereas, pursuant to that undertaking, the Premier (1) placed before the Legislature and the Standing Committee on the Administration of Justice a new set of guidelines regulating conflict of interest and conduct of Ministers of the Crown; and (2) committed his government to introducing legislation based upon the Committee's consideration of these guidelines;

And whereas several Ministers and Parliamentary Assistants of the government have, since the NDP government took office, violated the Member's Conflict of Interest Act, the general standard of conduct applicable to elected officials and Ministers of the Crown and the specific guidelines initially adopted by the Premier;

And whereas in each such instance the Premier has applied ad hoc, politically expedient standards and sanctions to those who have violated his own guidelines;

And whereas a special committee of the Legislature charged with examining the conduct of the Minister of Northern Development, having conducted 15 days of public and in camera hearings, found no justification for the damaging remarks made by the Minister of Northern Development concerning an Ontario physician;

And whereas the strictest application of stringent standards of conduct is essential to the maintenance of public confidence in government and the integrity of the democratic process;

Therefore, this House calls upon the government to introduce specific legislation regulating conflict of interest and the conduct of Ministers of the Crown, including clear and enforceable sanctions for any violations.

Mr Carr moved,

M. Carr propose,

That, in the opinion of this House, given that the previous Liberal government and the present NDP government have contributed to the high taxation, high government spending, and high unemployment in the province of Ontario through their tax, spend and borrow approach to fiscal management, this government should introduce the following measures to bring prosperity back to Ontario:

- Commit to a policy of achieving deficit reduction through expenditure controls and not through tax increases.
- Avoid hiking taxes or introducing new taxes.
- Introduce legislation to cap and where necessary to roll-back wage increases in the broader public sector to hold wage hikes to the level of the transfer payment increases announced by the Treasurer on January 21.
- Provide tax relief for the retail, tourism and small business sectors through reductions in the provincial sales and gasoline taxes.
- Abandon its proposed changes to Ontario labour law, proposals which are only helping to fuel the exodus of business and investment from Ontario.
- Restructure the provincial welfare system to make more productive use of social assistance dollars by financing wage subsidies for employers who hire social assistance recipients.

SIXTEENTH DAY

MONDAY, MAY 4, 1992

PRAYERS

PRIÈRES

The Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

Last Wednesday, the member for Simcoe West (Mr Wilson) rose in the House on a question of privilege. On April 21, in the course of placing a question and a supplementary in Oral Question Period, the member had made certain remarks about the business practices of an individual. According to the member, the individual in question had, in succeeding days, entered into communications with various media concerning the member's remarks, and had distributed an altered press release and misinformation. The member was of the view that these actions amounted to intimidation, making it difficult for him to discharge his function as a member of the House.

I have since reviewed the Hansard for last Wednesday and for April 21, together with the documentation the member has submitted and paragraph 2 of subsection 1 of section 46 of the Legislative Assembly Act, but I have to say that the matter falls short of establishing a prima facie case of privilege or contempt.

I do, however, want to thank the member for the helpful and proper way in which he drew this matter to the attention of the House.

Pursuant to Standing Order 35(b), the following

"-recognizing that the tax policies proposed by the 1992 budget constitute an attack on the middle-class and a betrayal of the government's promise made in its "Agenda for People" to increase the fairness of the tax system,

-recognizing that the 1992 budget is the latest in a series dating back to 1985 which through tax, borrow and spend fiscal policies have burdened this and future generations of Ontarians with higher taxes and more debt,

-recognizing that the tax hikes imposed by the 1992 budget could have been avoided had the government adopted the same standard of spending restraint it imposed on its transfer payment partners,

- 1) establish specific emission limits and schedules for each of the four major acid gas emission sources (Ontario Hydro, Inco Ltd., Falconbridge and Algoma Steel) for the period 1995-2005; and

Mrs McLeod moved,

M^{me} McLeod propose,

Whereas the economy of Ontario is not now providing our citizens, particularly our young people, with a sense of future security or job opportunity, and;

Whereas our current institutions and programs are not now providing relief for our people from the sense of frustration and hopelessness in which they find themselves, and;

Whereas this frustration and hopelessness have been manifest in the form of incidents of violence in the City of Toronto which incidents are of great concern to all Ontarians;

Therefore, this parliament urges cooperation and understanding from all members in order to undertake constructive change designed to address the underlying causes of these incidents.

And a debate arising, after some time, the motion was declared carried.

TWENTY-SECOND DAY

WEDNESDAY, MAY 13, 1992

PRAYERS
1:30 P.M.

PRIÈRES
13 H 30

The House expressed its condolence on the death of Paul Blundy, member for the Electoral District of Sarnia from June 9, 1977 to February 2, 1981.

The Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

On Monday of this week, the member for Mississauga West (Mr Mahoney) rose on a question of privilege. He informed the House that 10 ministers comprising 40 per cent of the Cabinet would be absent from that day's Oral Question Period, thereby preventing members from holding the government accountable. The member was of the view that this amounted to an infringement of members' collective privileges, and in this regard he referred to Standing Orders 1(b) and 21(a).

Having had an opportunity to review the authorities and our precedents, let me refer members to the Hansard for April 19, 1977 where Speaker Rowe, responding to a question of order, made the following remarks (at page 623):

[I]t is surely the duty of the executive council to see that there are sufficient members of the council in the House during the question period to make it meaningful. Certainly, the Speaker cannot be expected to take on this obligation.

And on April 24, 1990, Speaker Edighoffer stated as follows (at page 729 of that day's Hansard):

I have advised all members in the House on previous occasions that it is up to them whether they attend or do not attend, and it is not up to other members to draw their attention to that.

In reviewing our precedents on ministerial attendance in the context of privilege, I note that Speaker Turner stated in 1984 that the Speaker was not responsible for members' attendance in the House. (I refer members to page 3823 of the Hansard for November 5, 1984 and to page 4846 of the Hansard for December 11, 1984.) And in the first Session of the current Parliament, I responded to a question of privilege raised by the member from Mississauga West by suggesting (at page 2671 of the Hansard for October 2, 1991) that the House leaders might want to address the issue of ministerial attendance.

I will add that our precedents also accord with citation 481(c) of the 6th edition of Beauchesne, which states (at page 141) that members should refrain from referring to the presence or absence of other members. Furthermore, citation 289(3) of Beauchesne states the following (at page 90):

The duties of Members have become extremely varied and Members must travel frequently. The discharge of those responsibilities will sometimes take a Member away from the House. This absence from the chamber should not be the subject of comment.

In closing, I will say that although the concerns that were raised on Monday do not amount to a point of order or a prima facie case of privilege, I hope that all members will find these remarks helpful.

Mr Wilson (Kingston and the Islands) moved,

M. Wilson (Kingston et les Îles) propose,

That, in the opinion of this House, the Ministry of the Environment should adopt a policy of composting at the place the organic waste is generated - homes, schools, etc. as the most effective way of reaching our province's target of diverting 50 percent of solid waste from landfill sites by the year 2000. The policy should emphasize the need for composting to take place at source wherever possible, for two reasons:

- 1) It is more cost effective as there is no need to transport the organic materials and as there would be less need to build central composting facilities throughout the province.
- 2) It also eliminates the ongoing contamination problem central composting facilities must deal with as non-compostables become mixed with compostables.

A debate arising, at 11:00 a.m., further proceedings were reserved until 12:00 noon.

À 11 heures, la suite du débat est réservé jusqu'à midi.

Mr Brown then moved,

Ensuite, M. Brown propose,

That, in the opinion of this House, the government should establish immediately a Select Committee on Energy and the Environment to investigate the following factors and make recommendations:

In view of the increasing evidence of the contribution of combustion of fossil fuels to global warming, amongst other contributors, substantial understanding of the implications of climatic change on the environment and economy of Ontario and on human activity, and widespread public concern regarding these issues, and in view of the fact that energy policy has a direct bearing on these issues because of its impact on the mix, level and efficiency of use of all types of primary energy resources, to identify the extent to which current provincial energy policy affects carbon dioxide emissions, the potential for controlling, stabilizing or reducing carbon dioxide emissions, and the types of public policy or programme initiatives to achieve the objectives of limiting the adverse environmental and economic impacts of carbon dioxide emissions, and to consider:

- (i) all energy sources, including oil, natural gas, coal, electricity and alternative energy sources, with an emphasis on energy produced by the combustion of fossil fuels to provide heat or motive power;

- (ii) in the case of electricity and alternate energy sources, both the direct use of fossil fuels and the economic potential for non-combustion energy sources;
- (iii) demand management initiatives, including energy efficiency, with respect to their roles as non-carbon dioxide-forming sources of energy; and
- (iv) all sectors of energy applications, including the industrial, commercial, residential, institutional and transportation sectors.

Pursuant to Standing Order 94(e), no objection having been made to the putting of the question on Mr Wilson's (Kingston and the Islands) Resolution Number 9, the question having been put, was declared carried and it was, Conformément à l'article 94(e) du Règlement, la motion portant sur la résolution numéro 9 de M. Wilson (Kingston et les Îles) n'a pas fait l'objet d'opposition et la motion, mise aux voix, est déclarée adoptée.

Opposition Day

Jour de l'opposition

Mrs McLeod moved,

M^{me} McLeod propose,

Whereas the conflicting pronouncements of the Premier, the Deputy Premier, the Solicitor General and the NDP caucus have created a crisis of uncertainty in the retail industry in Ontario;

And whereas municipalities across the province have demanded that they be given the freedom to decide whether or not to open their stores on Sundays;

And whereas in border communities, faced with a growing epidemic of cross-border shopping, the matter of Sunday shopping is of particular urgency;

And whereas 67% of Ontarians have expressed their support for more open Sunday shopping;

And whereas retailers across the province are facing severe economic constraints and have identified Sunday shopping as one solution to their difficulties;

And whereas in the face of this growing crisis the NDP government has irresponsibly delayed taking action while it awaits direction from the unelected members of its party;

And whereas the government has said that it is committed to creating jobs to lead us out of the current recession and it is acknowledged that more open Sunday shopping would stimulate jobs in the retail sector;

And whereas the Employment Standards Act provides considerable protection for workers who do not wish to work on Sundays;

Therefore this Legislature calls upon the NDP government to repeal the Retail Business Holidays Act immediately and introduce new legislation which would allow municipalities to decide what is the best economic decision for their communities and responds to the growing public demand for Sunday shopping in Ontario.

THIRTIETH DAYWEDNESDAY, JUNE 3, 1992

PRAYERS
1:30 P.M.PRIÈRES
13 H 30

The Speaker ruled as follows:-

On May 14 last, the members for Mississauga West (Mr Mahoney), York Centre (Mr Sorbara), Parry Sound (Mr Eves), Mississauga North (Mr Offer) and Brampton South (Mr Callahan), raised a point of order that Ministers had been using responses to questions asked by Government Members during Question Period in order to make statements on Government Policy to the House.

I have taken the time to review Hansard carefully and although I agree with the honourable members that Statements by Ministers should be made to the House in that period of our Routine Proceedings that is reserved for such, it is sometimes very difficult for the Speaker to become the adjudicator of what is or is not a change in Government Policy.

It might be of interest to members at this point, to go back in history a few years, in order to put things in context. Before 1970, in this House, oral questions were permitted only after the Speaker had a chance to vet them when they had been presented in writing before hand. I would like to quote Speaker Cass on March 31, 1969:

"As has been explained on many occasions in the House, the only questions contemplated by our rules are the written questions which appear on the Notice Paper. The putting of oral questions before the Orders of the Day on private notice is a practice of long standing, which has the authority of precedent and approval by the House, and the procedure on such questions has also been well established by practice and precedent. When Mr. Speaker or the Minister to whom the question is directed is of the opinion that the question is not a proper one to be answered orally before the Orders of the Day, the Speaker or the Minister, as the case may be, may require that the question be placed by the Clerk on the Notice Paper as a written question".

Members will appreciate that our rules have changed since 1970 and one of the effects of these many changes is that the Speaker must now give more latitude to members in the subject matter of their questions for the very simple reason that he has no occasion to vet these questions in advance. I must say that this applies to both sides of the House and therefore, I can only repeat that while I try to be vigilant, I cannot apply standards of questioning to the Government Members that I do not apply to Opposition Members and therefore, the rule is that Ministers should make statements on public policy to the House when that is possible; they should reserve those statements for that part of our Routine Proceedings that calls for Statements by Ministers and they should not try to insert statements on new Government Policy when giving answers to Government Members. However, I must caution that these are expressions of what should take place but I repeat, it remains very difficult for the Speaker to make final and arbitrary decisions on every answer that is made because it is not the style of the Oral Question Period as we know it today.

These are restrictions that were more easily enforced by the Speaker before 1970, when he was required to read questions presented to him in writing before allowing them to be asked orally in the House. I am certain I can count on the comprehension and goodwill of members who will understand that it is impossible for a Speaker in today's complex world which is influenced to a great degree by public policy, to determine instantly, upon hearing it for the first time, in the House, what constitutes or does not constitute new Government Policy or a departure from what was previous Government Policy.

The House expressed its condolence on the death of Stanley W. Farquhar, member for the Electoral District of Algoma-Manitoulin from September 25, 1963 to September 13, 1971.

THE AFTERNOON SITTING
1:30 P.M.SÉANCE DE L'APRÈS-MIDI
13 H 30

The Speaker ruled as follows:-

On May 28 last, the House Leader for the Official Opposition (Mr Elston), rose on a point of order, pointing out that Speakers had been lenient in applying the rules governing responses to Statements by Ministers since the Standing Order changes in 1986. I must agree with the honourable member that this is indeed the case as he so skilfully demonstrated to me last week. However, that does not change the basic rule that members are recognized in that period of time set aside to reply to the statements that have been made by Ministers that day, even though in some cases, because of the skilful quality of members' replies, the Speaker is not always as quick as he might be, in bringing the member to order. In other words, we are governed here by our own rules and what the honourable member for Bruce has pointed out is that it does happen that members sometimes are successful in circumventing those rules without bringing harm to anyone.

Opposition Day

Jour de l'opposition

Mr Harris moved,

M. Harris propose,

That, in the opinion of this House, given the misallocation of taxpayers money during seven years of Liberal and NDP government, and given that this has resulted in the closing of hospital beds, the laying off of hospital staff, an ever increasing deficit and the constant increasing of taxes, it is essential that every possible means of reducing government spending and redirecting of funds for priority services be examined, in particular the complicated, expensive and misdirected housing policies.

Therefore, this House calls upon the government to undertake a comprehensive review of the housing policies in Ontario including the following specific areas:

1. Recognizing the role of non-profit and co-op housing, but given that the present government's commitment for non-profit construction is in excess of one billion dollars and monthly government subsidies per non-profit unit are often in excess of 2000 dollars, the government should seriously examine its involvement in non-profit housing.
2. The government should institute a program of shelter allowances which would address the need for affordability and accessibility by housing families and individuals in current and future private sector units, thus advancing the goals outlined in the Report of the Social Assistance Review Committee.
3. Revise and implement a more timely regulatory approvals process which will facilitate greater social and economic opportunity through home ownership.
4. Improve planning of the infrastructure necessary to ensure safe, secure and affordable communities.
5. Given that rent control policies lead to a deterioration of quality, affordable and accessible housing, this government should replace rent controls in Ontario with new forms of tenant protection.
6. Promote the involvement of the private sector in all aspects of housing development in Ontario.

And a debate arising, after some time, the motion was lost on the following division:-

Un débat s'ensuit et après quelque temps, la motion est rejetée par le vote suivant:-

With unanimous consent, in the absence of Mr Conway, Mr Beer moved,

Avec le consentement unanime, en l'absence de M. Conway, M. Beer propose,

Whereas the number of unemployed students between the ages of 15 and 24 has gone from 11.1% in September, 1990 to 18% in April 1992;

And whereas the government has not provided additional job opportunities for students;

And whereas the private sector has also had to reduce the number of opportunities offered to summer students due to an inability to compete in the current economic climate of the province of Ontario;

And whereas the Ontario Student Assistance Program was recently reduced by $10 million;

And whereas the number of students applying for student venture capital has declined significantly demonstrating the students' lack of faith in the province's economic performance;

And whereas the youth of this province are seeing no investment in their future by this government;

And whereas this government has managed to increase spending in other sectors which are not in crisis, thus calling into question its spending priorities in this time of recession;

Therefore, pursuant to the provisions of Standing Order 42(a), the House no longer has confidence in the government.

PRIÈRES

The Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

Last Thursday, the member for York Centre (Mr Sorbara) and the member for Eglinton (Ms Poole) raised a point of order concerning a notice filed with the Table the previous day.

The member for York Centre informed the House that government notice of motion No. 11 appearing in Thursday's Orders and Notices paper and business paper may not have been filed before 5 p.m. the previous day as required by Standing Order 51.

I have reviewed the circumstances surrounding the tabling of the notice, the Orders and Notices paper and Hansard for Thursday, and the practices and procedures followed in this and other jurisdictions concerning notices.

Let me say at the outset that our practice concerning notices is similar to that in other parliamentary jurisdictions, where the Speaker determines whether notice provisions have been complied with. Thus, the 21st edition of Erskine May states (at pages 329 and 330) that the practice at Westminster is that "[i]f an objection is raised to a notice of motion upon the notice paper, it is for the Speaker to decide upon its regularity...."

And in Ottawa, the 1989 edition of the Annotated Standing Orders of the House of Commons indicates the following (at page 190):

Once tabled or filed, each notice is examined for any irregularities by the Clerk (under the Speaker's authority) who, in consultation with the sponsoring Member, may amend it in form and content.

Therefore, as I indicated on Thursday, the notice in question did comply with Standing Order 51.

The member for York Centre also indicated that the Table would not provide him with a copy of the notice in question when he requested one after 5 p.m. The general practice both here and in Ottawa is that such notices are kept in confidence until they can be made available to all members simultaneously through the next day's Orders and Notices paper.

In closing, then, I have found nothing untoward in what transpired, but I do appreciate the concerns expressed by member for York Centre and the member for Eglinton.

Pursuant to Standing Order 35(b), the following
Petitions were presented:-

Mr Bradley moved,

M. Bradley propose,

That, in the opinion of this House, since General Motors announced its intention on February 24 of this year to close its St. Catharines Foundry eliminating over 2,000 employment positions in addition to 750 women and men who were to be laid off indefinitely as of March 1 and over 100 people who will lose their jobs as a result of the decision to discontinue the 3.1 litre V-6 engine; and

Since the St. Catharines General Motors Foundry is a cost competitive, world class, high quality operation with a highly skilled and motivated work force; and

Since the loss of these jobs will mean the loss of $130 million in wages and salaries to the economy of the Niagara Region and the Province of Ontario; and

Since the implications for businesses and industries that service and supply the auto sector are extremely negative and serious; and

Since whenever a production line and a significant part of a plant shuts down, the fixed cost of maintaining the rest of the operation increases and the quality of components from elsewhere cannot be guaranteed;

The Legislative Assembly of Ontario should urge General Motors to continue the operation of its Foundry in St. Catharines.

A debate arising, at 11:00 a.m., further proceedings were reserved until 12:00 noon.

À 11 heures, la suite du débat est réservé jusqu'à midi.

Ensuite, M. McLean propose,

FIFTY-FIRST DAY

TUESDAY, JULY 14, 1992

PRAYERS
1:30 P.M.

PRIÈRES
13 H 30

The Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

Last Monday, the member for Halton Centre (Mrs Sullivan) rose in the House on a question of privilege concerning 2 incidents involving "physical threats or threats of violence against members." The member, who intimated that the incidents occurred outside the parliamentary precinct, quoted Erskine May on molesting of members and influencing members by threats.

The first incident occurred in Thunder Bay on April 10, 1989, which was the day before the member for Halton Centre was scheduled to attend a meeting of the Standing Committee on Resources Development in that city. Whereas that incident occurred in the course of the 34th Parliament, the second incident occurred in Georgetown on June 27 of this year, and it involved the Minister of the Environment while she was in transit to a public function in that town.

I have carefully reviewed the member's submissions, together with the appropriate authorities, and I am now in a position to report to the House.

Let me begin by making a few remarks about parliamentary privilege. Standing Order 21(a) defines privilege as "the rights enjoyed by the House collectively and by the members of the House individually conferred by the Legislative Assembly Act and other statutes, or by practice, precedent, usage and custom."

Citation 24 of the 6th edition of Beauchesne, drawing on Erskine May, defines privilege (at page 11) in the following terms:

Parliamentary privilege is the sum of the peculiar rights enjoyed by each House collectively as a constituent part of the High Court of Parliament, and by Members of each House individually, without which they could not discharge their functions and which exceed those possessed by other bodies or individuals. Thus, privilege, though part of the law of the land, is to a certain extent an exemption from the ordinary law. The distinctive mark of a privilege is its ancillary character. The privileges of Parliament are rights which are "absolutely necessary for the due execution of its powers". They are enjoyed by individual Members, because the House cannot perform its functions without unimpeded use of the services of its Members; and by each House for the protection of its members and the vindication of its own authority and dignity.

The authorities suggest that for a prima facie case of privilege to be made out, the circumstances giving rise to the alleged breach of privilege should have impinged on the parliamentary duties of a member. For example, citation 92 of Beauchesne states (at page 25) that "[a] valid claim of privilege in respect to interference with a Member must relate to the Member's parliamentary duties and not to the work the Member does in relation to that Member's constituency."

Furthermore, Maingot's Parliamentary Privilege in Canada indicates (at pages 197 and 198) that "to be considered a matter of privilege, any molestation or intimidation of the member must relate to his parliamentary duties unless the circumstances arise within the precincts when the House is sitting, in which case the act alone of assaulting any person within the precincts is the gist of the contempt."

And at pages 199 and 200, Maingot makes the following additional remarks about the narrow confines of parliamentary privilege:

[I]t must be shown that the member was obstructed in his work relating to a proceeding in Parliament and not simply while he was performing his representative duties in his constituency or in other myriad areas (which is the wont of members of the House of Commons), nor simply in his private capacity.

[T]he underlying test in all cases [is] whether the right claimed as a privilege is one which is absolutely necessary for the due execution of the powers of Parliament.

I also want to refer members to some of the authorities concerning the timeliness of raising questions of privilege, an issue that is more germane to the first incident raised by the member for Halton Centre. Citation 115 of Beauchesne indicates the following (at page 29):

A question of privilege must be brought to the attention of the House at the first possible opportunity. Even a gap of a few days may invalidate the claim for precedence in the House.

The 21st edition of Erskine May indicates (at page 135) that "a Member who wishes to raise a privilege complaint is required to give written notice to the Speaker as soon as reasonably practicable after the Member has notice of the alleged contempt or breach of privilege."

I have to say, then, that a prima facie case of privilege has not been made out with respect to the 2 incidents raised by the member for Halton Centre.

Notwithstanding this ruling, I want to assure the member for Halton Centre, and indeed all members, that I am very concerned about how such incidents might affect members as they attend to their parliamentary responsibilities. To this end, I will review such security arrangements as are within the jurisdiction of the Speaker, and take such action as is appropriate.

I thank the member for Halton Centre for bringing the incidents to the attention of the House.

On motion by Mr Cooke,

Ordered, That Standing Order 85 respecting notice of committee hearings be suspended for the consideration of Bill Pr46, An Act to revive The Mississauga Real Estate Board by the Standing Committee on Regulations and Private Bills on Wednesday, 15 July, 1992.

Mr Mills moved,

M. Mills propose,

That, in the opinion of this House, recognizing that there are a large number of British Old Age Pensioners residing in Ontario who are, in many cases, entirely dependent upon pensions earned through their contributions made while working in the United Kingdom, and that these pensioners suffer deprivation and discrimination in that the amount of their pension incomes were frozen to the rate in force when first commenced, in contrast to British pensioners in other jurisdictions whose pensions have been indexed to the cost of living, the Government of Ontario should, (a) petition the Government of the United Kingdom in the name of those ideals of justice and human rights to review immediately their policy pertaining to pensioners living in Canada and, thus, the Province of Ontario, to abandon the damaging inaction of the past 13 years and return to the table to resume discussions with the Government of Canada over the long sought wide-ranging social security reciprocal agreement which will bring into force the indexation of British old-age pensions in this country and province, and (b) petition Her Majesty the Queen to request Her Royal Highness' intercession with her Ministers to rectify this manifest injustice.

A debate arising, at 11:00 a.m., with unanimous consent, pursuant to Standing Order 96(e), no objection having been made to the putting of the question on Mr Mills' Resolution Number 16, the question having been put, was declared carried.

Un débat s'ensuit et à 11 heures, avec le consentement unanime, conformément à l'article 96(e) du Règlement, la motion portant sur la résolution numéro 16 de M. Mills n'a pas fait l'objet d'opposition et la motion, mise aux voix, est déclarée adoptée.

And it was,

Resolved, That, in the opinion of this House, recognizing that there are a large number of British Old Age Pensioners residing in Ontario who are, in many cases, entirely dependent upon pensions earned through their contributions made while working in the United Kingdom, and that these pensioners suffer deprivation and discrimination in that the amount of their pension incomes were frozen to the rate in force when first commenced, in contrast to British pensioners in other jurisdictions whose pensions have been indexed to the cost of living, the Government of Ontario should, (a) petition the Government of the United Kingdom in the name of those ideals of justice and human rights to review immediately their policy pertaining to pensioners living in Canada and, thus, the Province of Ontario, to abandon the damaging inaction of the past 13 years and return to the table to resume discussions with the Government of Canada over the long sought wide-ranging social security reciprocal agreement which will bring into force the indexation of British old-age pensions in this country and province, and (b) petition Her Majesty the Queen to request Her Royal Highness' intercession with her Ministers to rectify this manifest injustice.

Mr Beer then moved,

Ensuite, M. Beer propose,

That, in the opinion of this House, recognizing that,

- the decision to prohibit the regions of the Greater Toronto Area from searching for landfill sites beyond their boundaries is contrary to the intent of the Environmental Assessment Act, Section 5(3), and

- the government has promised each person in Ontario the right to a full environmental assessment, including the right to a review of all options as it pertains to waste disposal in Ontario, and

- the impact of a landfill site in the Greater Toronto Area has not been fully examined in terms of the effect on communities, the environment, agriculture, municipalities, businesses and individuals, the Minister of the Environment should amend Bill 143 to allow a more democratic process for the consideration of future options for the disposal of Greater Toronto Area waste, and consideration of disposal sites outside the GTA where a "willing host" community exists.

Pursuant to Standing Order 96(e), no objection having been made to the putting of the question on Mr Beer's Resolution Number 19, the question having been put, was lost on the following division:-

Conformément à l'article 96(e) du Règlement, la motion portant sur la résolution numéro 19 de M. Beer n'a pas fait l'objet d'opposition et la motion, mise aux voix, est rejetée par le vote suivant:-

FIFTY-FIFTH DAY

TUESDAY, JULY 21, 1992

THE AFTERNOON SITTING
1:30 P.M.

SÉANCE DE L'APRÈS-MIDI
13 H 30

The Speaker ruled as follows:-

Yesterday, the member for York Centre (Mr Sorbara) raised a point of order concerning government notice of motion 13, which seeks to invoke Standing Order 44a in order to allocate no time to third reading of Bill 150. The member for Parry Sound (Mr Eves), the member for Bruce (Mr Elston), the member for Carleton (Mr Sterling), and the Government House Leader also made submissions to the point of order.

When a point of order is raised in this Chamber, the chair is entitled to rule on it at that time, or to reserve a ruling. In yesterday's case, the chair reserved a ruling, and this has afforded me an opportunity to reflect on the submissions that were made. Having reviewed yesterday's Hansard, together with House precedents and various parliamentary authorities, I am now ready to make a ruling.

The member for York Centre referred to the practice in the House of Commons at Ottawa, where Standing Order 78(3) states that a time allocation motion cannot specify less than one day's debate for the consideration of any one stage of a bill. The member also quoted citation 533 of the 6th edition of Beauchesne to the effect that "[t]ime allocation is a device for planning the use of time during the various stages of consideration of a bill rather than bringing the debate to an immediate conclusion."

However, it is important for all members to know that Ottawa has had many years' experience with time allocation motions. In fact, such motions have been a part of Ottawa's Standing Orders in one form or another since 1965. By contrast, time allocation motions were first recognized in our Chamber in 1982, and have been a part of our Standing Orders for less than 3 weeks. Moreover, the notice of motion that is the subject of this ruling is only the second one to have appeared on our Orders and Notices paper since Standing Order 44a came into force on July 3.

There are other distinctions between the practice in Ottawa and our own. Ottawa's Standing Order 78(3) does not require written notice; it does not require debate on the motion; it specifies that the question is put immediately after the motion is put; and it requires at least one day's debate on the stage of the bill that is under consideration. By contrast, our Standing Order requires written notice and a full day's debate on the motion, and it makes no mention of a minimum time requirement for third reading debate on a bill.

There was some mention yesterday about whether previous time allocation motions in this House have ever provided that the question on a certain stage of the legislative process be put forthwith without debate or amendment. I have reviewed the time allocation motions that have been moved in this Chamber since 1982, and I have found that 8 of them contained just such a provision with respect to the adoption of the report of a standing committee, the adoption of the report of the Committee of the Whole House, or both.

With respect to the comparisons that were made yesterday between Standing Order 44a and Standing Order 45, I must say that they are 2 very different Standing Orders and that they have different applications. A closure motion under Standing Order 45 can be moved without notice, it can be moved by any member of the House, and it is non-debatable. By contrast, a time allocation motion under Standing Order 44a can be moved only by a government minister and upon written notice, and it is debated for one day.

I want to make some additional remarks about closure motions under Standing Order 45. Such motions are generally known as the 'previous question' in many other parliamentary jurisdictions. Indeed, they used to be known by that name in this Chamber until the 1986 Standing Orders changed the name to 'closure' because members commonly referred to it by that name. But the change should not obscure the fact that if a motion under Standing Order 45 were successfully moved while an amendment was on the floor of the House, the result would be that the amendment would be lost and the question would be immediately put on the main question. That is the full nature of Standing Order 45.

Moreover, Standing Order 44a does provide a certain measure of balance when a time allocation motion is moved. For example, the Standing Order does not require that the motion provide for a minimum period of debate at third reading of a bill, but it does require that the motion cannot be moved at second reading until there has been at least 3 days' debate at that stage.

I can appreciate that yesterday's notice of motion may have surprised some members by virtue of the fact that it calls for no time to debate third reading of Bill 150. In this regard, I want to quote from the 21st edition of Erskine May's Parliamentary Practice, which states the following (at page 409):

[Time allocation motions] may be regarded as the extreme limit to which procedure goes in affirming the rights of the majority at the expense of the minorities of the House, and it cannot be denied that they are capable of being used in such a way as to upset the balance, generally so carefully preserved, between the claims of business and the rights of debate.

In closing, then, government notice of motion 13 does comply with Standing Order 44a as it presently stands and is therefore in order.

I thank all members for their submissions, and the member for York Centre for his written submission.

Pursuant to Standing Order 36(b), the following
Petitions were presented:-

Conformément à l'article 36(b), les pétitions

THE AFTERNOON SITTING

The Speaker ruled as follows:-

On June 17 the Leader of the Official Opposition (Mrs McLeod) rose on a point of privilege with respect to the outcome of an O.P.P. investigation of certain members of this House.

The member will recall that I have previously ruled on the issue of members of an outside police force gaining access to any office within the Parliamentary Precinct for investigative reasons. As I understand this latest point, the Leader of the Opposition is asking that the Speaker somehow obtain for this House the results of the recent visit by O.P.P. officers to the offices of the member for Bruce (Mr Elston) and the member for Halton Centre (Mrs Sullivan).

It has been pointed out on many occasions, that the Speaker has no investigative powers. While I can appreciate the concern of all members with respect to the issue raised by the Leader of the Opposition, I must inform the House that the Speaker has no authority over the O.P.P. or any investigation that that police force may carry out. Thus, I am unable to obtain or provide for the House any information which would indicate the results of a police investigation.

SIXTY-SECOND DAY

PRIÈRES

The Speaker ruled as follows:-

Yesterday, the honourable member for Leeds-Grenville (Mr Runciman) raised a point of order regarding the wearing of buttons expressing a particular political point of view in the House. In his argumentation he mentioned that it is our practice not to allow displays and in the case at hand, he alleged that the wearing of buttons could, through television coverage, influence the public in its decision.

I have considered these points seriously and although I agree with the honourable member that it is our practice to discourage displays of any kind in the House, the wearing of buttons with a particular message is a difficult one for the Speaker to control. Members, I am sure, are aware of the proliferation of buttons in recent years, expressing all kinds of opinions which, I am sure, all members are not always in agreement with. The wearing of buttons has never been challenged in this House and I might say that it has become accepted practice. Therefore, although I am sympathetic to the point raised by the honourable member, there is not much that I can do in this regard other than add this consideration to the ones that I have already referred to the Standing Committee on the Legislative Assembly for their opinion.

The Speaker addressed the House as follows:-

I know that all Members of the House will be saddened to hear that Smirle Forsyth who has served this House, and its Committees, with distinction since 1978, has been compelled by ill health to resign.

The Speaker was joined by Members of all three parties in expressing their appreciation and best wishes for his improved health.

During "Oral Questions", the Speaker requested the member for Lanark-Renfrew (Mr Jordan) to withdraw unparliamentary language.

The member having refused was named by the Speaker and directed to withdraw from the service of the House for the balance of the day's sitting.

The Speaker then suspended the proceedings for 10 minutes for grave disorder pursuant to Standing Order 16.

Pursuant to Standing Order 36(b), the following
Petitions were presented:-

Conformément à l'article 36(b), les pétitions
suivantes sont déposées:-

Pursuant to the Order of the House, dated 28 May 1992, these Bills stand referred to the Committee of the Whole House.

Want of Confidence Motion pursuant to Standing Order 43(a)

Motion de censure conformément à l'article 43(a) du Règlement.

Mr Harris moved,

M. Harris propose,

This House, noting that since this government has taken office it has pursued policies which have discouraged investors and consumers and punished taxpayers and which have compounded rather than ameliorated the economic problems facing the province by imposing multi-billion dollar tax grabs, by adding billions to the provincial debt, by pursuing an anti-business agenda as expressed through its biased and unbalanced labour law reforms, by creating an environment hostile to the private sector and by showing itself to be hostage to the special interest groups as opposed to an advocate for the public interest and further noting since this government took office two years ago:

- (a) that more than 290,000 additional Ontario workers have been forced onto unemployment,
- (b) that the unemployment rate has increased by more than five percentage points,
- (c) that 86,000 jobs in manufacturing, 60,000 jobs in the construction industry and 24,000 jobs in the trade sector have vanished,
- (d) that the welfare caseload has increased to the point where today more than one million Ontarians depend on welfare, finds that this government is incapable of managing the economy of the province in a manner which will create new jobs, new opportunities and lower taxes and therefore this government lacks the confidence of this House.

Mr Curling moved,

M. Curling propose,

That, in the opinion of this House, since over 75% of the trade of the Province of Ontario is with the United States of America; and since Ontario has created exceptional technological infrastructure in the areas of health, resources, transportation, education and technological development; and since we have in our recent history an example of how enhanced and exuberant economic growth has beneficially affected the attitude of citizens of all countries toward the people of Japan; and since attitudes of racial intolerance towards Japanese people have given way to respect and cultural sensitivity, as a consequence of that nation's contributions to the global economy; and since it is the genuine intent of every citizen of Ontario to move toward greater equality and the establishment of a better system of securing to every person the human rights for which our democratic society stands; and since Ontario has abandoned efforts with bettering trade with developing nations; the Government of Ontario should make a significant commitment and a concerted effort to re-establishing very active trade activities with developing nations that will focus on Technology Transfer and the enhancing of the skills of the people and, through trade policies, which benefit the economy of the Province of Ontario as well as the economics of developing nations, the citizens of Ontario will acquire a sensitivity toward the culture of developing nations and a regard for their citizens as persons deserving of respect.

Mrs Marland then moved,

Ensuite, M^{me} Marland propose,

That, in the opinion of this House, recognizing that on June 18, 1992, the Minister of Housing released the consultation paper, Apartments in Houses, which contains draft legislation to allow homeowners to create an apartment in a house without municipal zoning approval; and recognizing that the Housing Ministry's consultation period, even with the Ministry's decision to accept written submissions after the deadline of August 31, 1992, is inadequate for legislative changes of this magnitude; and recognizing that several parties, including the Association of Municipalities of Ontario, many municipal councils, the Ontario Homebuilders' Association, and many ratepayers groups, have identified serious deficiencies in the proposed legislation; and recognizing that these deficiencies include the following:

- failing to recognize that accessory apartments, unless located in suitably zoned areas, may not offer a reasonable quality of life for their occupants or be compatible with their surrounding neighbourhoods;
- failing to provide adequate legal protection to homeowners who need to regain possession of their accessory apartments;
- interfering with municipal zoning authority and negating official plans and decades of land-use planning decisions;
- failing to provide municipalities with licensing authority for accessory apartments;
- failing to consider how municipalities and school boards will pay for the services required by the residents of accessory apartments;
- failing to consider whether sufficient infrastructure is in place to accommodate the residents of accessory apartments;
- failing to require on-site parking for accessory apartments;
- contributing to the "absentee landlord syndrome" by failing to limit accessory apartments to owner-occupied homes;

therefore the Minister of Housing should not introduce the legislation proposed in the consultation paper, Apartments in Houses, which would permit an apartment as-of-right in a detached, semi-detached, or row house.

Whereas the New Democratic Party government has initiated a landfill site selection process for the Greater Toronto Area through its Interim Waste Authority, and

Whereas many citizens of the Regions of Peel, Durham and York do not have confidence in the integrity of the Interim Waste Authority and are appalled at the inconsistencies involved in the process and

Whereas this government made a promise to the people of this province that they "would get tough on protecting irreplaceable farmland" and

Whereas this government made a promise to the people of this province that any new landfill sites would be "subject to the fullest kind of environmental assessment" and

Whereas 76 landfill sites are expected to close within the next 12 months across the province, and

Whereas the New Democratic Party government is not meeting its promises for waste reduction.

Therefore, the government should table a rationale, an effective plan complete with regulations, a timetable and clearly set out schedule, which will provide immediate and measurable progress for waste reduction in Ontario.

PRIÈRES
13 H 30

The Speaker ruled as follows:-

On Thursday, October 8, 1992, the member for Scarborough-Agincourt, Mr Phillips raised a point of order with respect to Ministerial Statements. His concern was that the statement made by the Chair of Management Board in the House did not follow precisely the text of the statement that had been provided pursuant to Standing Order 32(c).

I refer members to a decision made by Speaker Edighoffer on May 29, 1990 in which he indicated that the Speaker does not receive copies of written statements and is therefore unable to follow along. I would add, that even if the Speaker were required to receive copies of written statements it would not be his or her responsibility to determine whether a discrepancy is substantial in nature or whether it is an embellishment of no consequence.

While the powers of the Speaker in this regard are circumscribed surely it is in keeping with the spirit of the Standing Order that Ministers adhere closely to the written text when making statements so as to avoid possible misunderstandings. It may be, that on occasion, changing circumstances require that the oral statement differs in some respect from the written statement. In such a situation, I would expect that any Minister would wish to advise the House of the departure from the prepared text.

Jour de l'opposition

Mr Elston moved,

M. Elston propose,

That, this House condemns the government of Ontario for its failure to recognize:

That northern Ontario has been a source of enormous wealth for the private sector;

That northern Ontario has been a source of enormous revenues for the provincial government;

That the provincial government puts very little revenue back into the north;

That the roads in northern Ontario are in terrible shape;

That the NDP government has not proceeded with serious four-laning of highways in the north;

That the delivery of health care services in the north is still inferior;

That northern municipalities have particular problems of boom and bust while the NDP government freezes unconditional grants;

That forestry jobs are threatened because of this government's failure to live up to its commitment to provide seedlings and because of the continuing practice of clear-cutting;

That almost no attempts have been made to diversify the economy to create jobs nor to work with the private sector and create meaningful jobs when serious layoffs occur;

That the Ontario government continues to treat northern Ontario citizens like second-class citizens.

On Wednesday, October 28, 1992 the Member from Bruce (Mr Elston) indicated that he desired to give notice of a reasoned amendment. The member attempted to give that notice orally and was interrupted and told that the procedure for giving notice in this House is that it be laid on the table in writing. I draw the member's attention to Standing Order 53 which states;

All notices required by the Standing Orders of the House or otherwise shall be laid on the Table or filed with the Clerk of the House before 5.00 p.m. and printed on the Orders and Notices paper for the following day.

I would point out that this Standing Order in no way distinguishes between various types of substantive motions. It applies equally to notice of reasoned amendments as it does to opposition day notice or notice of a government motion.

The practice in this House has been that notice is written. The reason for this longstanding practice is both practical and simple. Notice is to be printed on the Orders and Notices paper so that every member may be apprised of it on the day following its tabling or filing. To ensure the accuracy of such a notice, it is necessary that it be provided in writing.

As to the question of whether or not the member is at liberty to give notice orally prior to providing it in written form, I would like to refer to a decision made by the Deputy Speaker on March 27, 1990 wherein he prevented a member from reading his notice of motion with respect to an opposition day by indicating that "it is not the standard practice to read the resolution. You may table it if you want..."

In addition to our practice in this regard, there is a more fundamental difficulty with providing notice orally. That is, we do not have a provision in our procedures that would allow a member the floor to give notice. We do not have a routine proceeding that is titled "notice" nor do we have any other Standing Order that sets out a procedure for giving notice of a substantive motion orally. It could not for example be done on a point of order as the member for Bruce attempted to do.

Last Wednesday, the member for Ottawa West (Mr Chiarelli) informed the House that the Premier had responded to a question during Oral Question Period on a matter currently before the Ontario Municipal Board, contrary to the sub judice rule contained in Standing Order 23(g). The member for York Centre (Mr Sorbara) rose in the House the next day to the same effect.

I have reviewed the Hansard for both days, the written submission of the member for Ottawa West, several parliamentary authorities, and Standing Order 23(g).

Let me say at the outset that this Standing Order requires the Speaker to call a member to order "where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Speaker that further reference would create a real and substantial danger of prejudice to the proceeding."

I am not satisfied that the requirements of the Standing Order have been met in the case at hand, and accordingly I do not find anything out of order. However, had I ruled otherwise, members may have been prevented from continuing to place questions or to make responses in Oral Question Period concerning certain aspects of the proceeding that is before the Board. Members can appreciate, then, that the sub judice rule is invoked only in exceptional situations, and that its invocation has consequences with respect to members' ability to speak.

I thank the member for Ottawa West and the member for York Centre for raising this matter in the House.

While I am on my feet, I would like to take this occasion to answer a few questions put to me last Thursday about the procedure followed by the House and in the Committee of the Whole last Wednesday evening. Let me first state the practical circumstances as they were then in Committee of the Whole.

The Chair of that Committee, Mr Villeneuve, was conducting business on Bill 40, An Act to amend certain Acts concerning Collective Bargaining and Employment, following the procedure as described in the Allocation of Time Motion passed on July 14, 1992.

I will quote to you here, as I quoted to you on Wednesday evening, the pertinent sentence which dictated the conduct of the Chair.

"At 5.45 p.m. on that Sessional day, those amendments which have not yet been moved shall be deemed to have been moved and the Chair of the Committee of the Whole House shall interrupt the proceedings and shall, without further debate or amendment, put every question necessary to dispose of all remaining sections of the bill and any amendments thereto and report the bill to the House"

It is my opinion that that sentence is an extremely clear one. There can be no doubt as to what day it was. It was the Second Sessional Day in Committee and there can be no doubt as well as to what time it was. It was 5:45 p.m. on the Second Sessional Day and there can also be no doubt as to the imperative nature of that order in its use of the word "shall" to guide the manner in which the Chair must dispose of that particular stage of the bill. During those proceedings a point of order was raised, a ruling given and that ruling appealed to the Speaker. I then took the Chair for the express purpose of entertaining the appeal of the Chair's ruling and the Mace was put on the Table as is necessary when the Speaker is in the Chair.

After considering and upholding the Chair's ruling, I had no alternative but to leave the Chair in order for the House to revert to Committee of the Whole so that it could continue to abide by the order of July 14. There was no other possibility at that point and I would have been disregarding the Order of this House had I done otherwise.

I hope these few words will help explain the proceedings of Wednesday night.

Opposition Day

Jour de l'opposition

Mr Harris moved,

M. Harris propose,

Whereas, the NDP government's amendments to the Ontario Labour Relations Act, known as Bill 40, will kill jobs and destroy investment in Ontario;

And whereas, Bill 40 ignores the rights of individual workers by not legislating a secret ballot vote for certification, ratification of a collective agreement and the decision to strike;

And whereas, a Progressive Conservative government will repeal Bill 40 following the next election and initiate a fair and balanced tri-partite process to review labour relations in Ontario;

Therefore, this House calls upon the NDP government to immediately withdraw Bill 40.

EIGHTY-SECOND DAY

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1992

PRAYERS
10:00 A.M.

PRIÈRES
10 H

With unanimous consent, ballot item numbers 31 and 32 were considered in reverse order.

Mr Elston moved,

M. Elston propose,

That in the opinion of this House, whereas Premier Rae of the Province of Ontario has forced upon the Ontario Legislature a change in the rules governing the procedures to be followed in the House;

and whereas recognizing that Premier Rae has removed from Members of the Opposition the ability to properly debate and discuss legislation and policy in the Legislature by limiting the length of time Members may speak to only thirty minutes;

and whereas recognizing that Premier Rae has reduced the number of days that the Legislative Assembly will be in session thereby ensuring fewer Question Periods and less access for the news media to Provincial Cabinet Ministers which in turn makes them less accountable to the House and people of Ontario; and whereas recognizing that Premier Rae has diminished the role of the neutral, elected Speaker by removing from that person, the power to determine the question of whether a debate has been sufficient on any matter before the House;

and whereas recognizing that Premier Rae has concentrated power in the Office of the Premier and severely diminished the role of elected members of the Legislative Assembly who are accountable to the people who elect them; and whereas recognizing that these rules diminish the rights of the minority to properly voice their concerns and limit their privilege to utilize the mechanisms of Parliament as full and equal members of the House;

Premier Rae and the Government of Ontario must withdraw the rule changes imposed upon the Legislature by his majority government and restore the rules of procedure in effect previous to June 22, 1992.

A debate arising, at 11:00 a.m., further proceedings were reserved until 12:00 noon.

À 11 heures, la suite du débat est réservé jusqu'à midi.

Mr Perruzza then moved,

Ensuite, M. Perruzza propose,

That in the opinion of this House, whereas housing is a basic human right; and whereas our current property tax system is regressive and bears no relevance on ability to pay; and whereas successive, large, property tax increases have propelled property taxes to the highest levels ever; and whereas the unemployed, low-wage earners, pensioners and others on fixed incomes have great difficulty in paying their property taxes; therefore, priority should be given to reforming the property tax system by removing the education portion of property taxes and shifting the burden for education to a more progressive form of taxation.

Pursuant to Standing Order 96(e), no objection having been made to the putting of the question on Mr Elston's Resolution Number 31, the question having been put, was lost on the following division:-

Conformément à l'article 96(e) du Règlement, la motion portant sur la résolution numéro 31 de M. Elston n'a pas fait l'objet d'opposition et la motion, mise aux voix, est rejetée par le vote suivant:-

THE AFTERNOON SITTING
1:30 P.M.

SÉANCE DE L'APRÈS-MIDI
13 H 30

The Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

On Tuesday, November 17, 1992 the member for Ottawa South (Mr McGuinty) rose on a question of privilege concerning developments arising out of the proceedings that occurred at a meeting of the Standing Committee on Resources Development during its consideration of a matter designated pursuant to Standing Order 125. The member for Bruce (Mr Elston), the member for Parry Sound (Mr Eves), and the member for Carleton (Mr Sterling) also spoke to this matter.

At the outset, I want to remind the House of previous rulings relating to proceedings in committee. The Speaker cannot rule on a procedural matter that occurs in any committee of this Legislature unless the request to do so comes by way of a report from that committee. As Speaker Edighoffer indicated at page 44 of the Hansard for March 21, 1990, "matters arising out of the proceedings before committees should be settled in the committee, and only if a report comes forward from the standing committee to the House dealing with the member's question of privilege could this matter be studied by the Speaker." This has been our practice both before and since that time.

I have to say, then, that a prima facie case of privilege has not been made out.

I would, however, like to take this opportunity to clarify the procedures with respect to the issue raised by the member for Ottawa South.

Members will know that there is a well-defined procedure for the issuance of a Speaker's warrant, and that the requirements of section 35 of the Legislative Assembly Act must be met before the Speaker exercises a discretion to issue a warrant.

Section 35 of the Act states that:

- (1) The Assembly may at all times command and compel the attendance before the Assembly or a committee thereof of such persons, and the production of such papers and things, as the Assembly or committee considers necessary for any of its proceedings or deliberations.
- (2) When the Assembly requires the attendance of a person before the Assembly or a committee thereof, the Speaker may issue a warrant directed to the person named in the order of the Assembly requiring the person's attendance before the Assembly or committee and the production of the papers and things as ordered.

The process to be followed under this section of the Act is very straightforward. When a person refuses to attend the proceedings of a committee, the committee may, upon the passage of a motion, report to the House its request for the issuance of a Speaker's warrant. The House must then adopt the report of the committee before the Speaker may act.

Section 35 clearly requires that it is the Assembly that may command and compel the attendance of a witness before a committee and that if the Assembly requires such attendance, the Speaker may issue a warrant. The Speaker cannot issue a warrant at the request of a single member of the Assembly or even at the direct request of a Committee. The Speaker may only exercise a discretion to issue a warrant upon the passage of a motion in this House.

On occasion, the Assembly has delegated its authority in this regard to a committee. Such was the case when the Sub-committee of the Standing Committee on the Legislative Assembly was authorized by an order of the House dated December 19, 1991 to request the issuance of a warrant by the Speaker without the intervening step of making a report to the Assembly.

Even under Standing Order 125, decisions such as those concerning the issuance of a Speaker's Warrant require the adoption of a motion first by committee and then by the House.

Members will realize that passing motions either in committee or in the House is the only way that the House can express itself. In our Parliamentary system, a motion is adopted or rejected upon the counting of a majority either in the affirmative or negative. Therefore, I can only repeat that the correct procedure in this case has been followed and that there is nothing that the Speaker can do on his or her own initiative, first of all because it is a matter arising out of proceedings in Committee and secondly, because the motions necessary to initiate this process were not passed. I thank the honourable members for their contributions.

On motion by Mr Cooke,

Ordered That, notwithstanding Standing Order 86(a), the referral of Bill Pr45, An Act to incorporate the Toronto Atmospheric Fund and the Toronto Atmospheric Fund Foundation to the Commissioners of Estate Bills be discharged, and the Bill stand referred to the Standing Committee on Regulations and Private Bills.

Opposition Day

Jour de l'opposition

Mr Harris moved,

M. Harris propose,

Whereas, 320,000 jobs have been lost in Ontario;

And whereas there are 595,000 unemployed individuals in this province;

And whereas over one million persons are dependent on welfare;

And whereas the NDP's jobs Ontario Training Fund has proven to be nothing more than a public relations scam;

And whereas the NDP government's flagship program for older workers, Transitions, is badly backlogged to the point where participants have to wait more than 34 weeks to have an application approved;

And whereas the NDP government is incapable of managing change and has failed to prepare Ontario for job creation;

And whereas, our children need to have the skills necessary to meet the challenges of a rapidly changing workplace;

Therefore, this House calls upon the NDP government to immediately:

- (a) review the job training initiatives that are outlined in the Progressive Conservative Caucus' documents New Directions Vol. I: A Blueprint for Economic Renewal and Vol. II: A Blueprint for Learning in Ontario;
- (b) redirect the resources that have been allocated to implementing its flawed Ontario Training and Adjustment Board to improving delivery of the Transitions program;
- (c) repeal the Act to amend certain Acts concerning Collective Bargaining and Employment (Bill 40) as a means of attracting new job-creating investment to Ontario;
- (d) tie social assistance payments more directly to job training.

Want of Confidence Motion pursuant to Standing Order 43(a)

Motion de censure conformément à l'article 43(a) du Règlement

Mr Elston moved,

M. Elston propose,

Whereas the NDP government has undertaken to make "integrity in government" and "conduct of ministers" the centrepiece of an NDP administration and made specific reference to that undertaking in its first Speech from the Throne;

And whereas several Ministers and Parliamentary Assistants of the government have, since the NDP government took office, violated the Members' Conflict of Interest Act, the general standard of conduct applicable to elected officials and Ministers of the Crown, and the specific Conflict of Interest Guidelines adopted by the Premier;

And whereas, last winter, the Premier allowed the Minister of Northern Development and Mines, without penalty, to maliciously smear the reputation of a private citizen in order to advance the government's own policy;

And whereas the Premier's own Special Communications Advisor has now wilfully smeared a private citizen with deliberate disregard for the injury done to that private citizen;

And whereas these actions on the part of NDP government officials constitute personal vendettas against private citizens, and a blatant victimization of those who are already victims of abuse at the Grandview Reform School;

And whereas the Premier has consistently applied ad hoc, politically expedient standards and sanctions to those who have violated his own guidelines and appropriate standards of conduct;

And whereas the NDP government has abused the power and trust vested in it by the people of Ontario;

And whereas these gross breaches of the public trust have destroyed public confidence in this government and in the integrity of the democratic process;

Therefore, pursuant to Standing Order 43, the House no longer has confidence in the government.

Mr White moved,

M. White propose,

That in the opinion of this House,

Whereas the public is entitled to receive professional social work services from legally accountable professional social workers; and

Whereas professional social workers work with people suffering from serious degrees of vulnerability; and

Whereas survivors of sexual abuse, children at risk, persons with disabilities, homeless persons, and assaulted women who receive professional social work services are vulnerable to further victimization; and

Whereas Ontario is the only province in Canada without any form of legislation for the profession of Social Work; and

Whereas the Government of Ontario has recently enacted legislation to regulate the practice of twenty-four professions, these protections should be equitably extended to those being served by the profession of Social Work; and

Whereas the Province allocates substantial resources to social work services in such key ministries as Health, Corrections, Education, Community and Social Services; and

Whereas the Province supports Social Work Education at the baccalaureate, Masters, and Doctorate levels at ten Universities including programmes in both official languages and in first nation communities; and

Whereas the Ontario Association of Professional Social Workers created the Ontario College of Certified Social Workers in 1982 and that body represents those who are willing to be held publicly accountable for their professional practices; and

Whereas over the past ten years, this college has established an excellent record as a regulatory body, but it still lacks the authority of legislation;

Therefore, since the public would be best protected by legislative authorization of Professional Social Work Regulation and that Social Work clientele are just as entitled to such protection as are clients of any other profession, the Government of Ontario should develop an Act for the registration and self-regulation of Professional Social Workers within the sanction of a ministry of the Government of Ontario.

His Honour the Lieutenant Governor was then pleased to deliver the following gracious speech:-

Mr Speaker, Members of the Legislative Assembly, Ladies and Gentlemen:

The second session of the 35th Parliament has been productive, albeit in difficult times.

The people of Ontario and the government have dealt with the most severe recession since the 1930s. We are not alone -- economic activity has slowed throughout the industrial world. Global pressures have dramatically affected the structure of Ontario's economy. Although there are now signs of improvement, economic recovery will be gradual.

The government has responded by fighting the recession, by creating and protecting jobs for people, by direct investment and encouraging private-sector investment in the economy, by increasing its commitment to worker training, and by maintaining human services, while at the same time controlling the provincial deficit.

The government's 1992 Budget continued this approach. The Budget focused on creating and supporting jobs, maintaining public services for people, and controlling the deficit. Focusing on jobs, services and controlling the deficit reflects the concerns that Ontarians have made clear and also responds responsibly to the government's tough financial situation. The length and depth of the current recession have cut government revenues, at the same time as people are in greater need for services such as social assistance.

Part of the government's response to this financial squeeze has been aggressive internal cost-cutting measures. And it's working. For every dollar of new revenue the province raises this year, we have found four dollars of cost reductions inside government. Health care is the most dramatic example. Over the last ten years, annual spending growth in the health field averaged more than 11 per cent. Last year, the government brought that down to less than two per cent, at the same time as we have maintained these essential services to Ontarians. The overall rate of growth in total spending in the 1992 Budget — 4.9 per cent — is the lowest in 39 years. Excluding public debt interest, operating spending will grow by only 2.8 per cent this year.

The April 1992 Budget also announced the jobsOntario Funds:

- The $1.1 billion jobsOntarioTraining Fund will support job creation and training for 100,000 Ontarians who are receiving social assistance or have exhausted unemployment insurance eligibility, and training for 80,000 others. In addition, 20,000 new, subsidized child care spaces will be created to meet the needs of participants, many of whom are single mothers. Contrary to recent media reports, which were based on results for the first three months alone, the Fund is moving aggressively. The government expects that more than 10,000 person-years of employment will be created by March, 1993.
- The jobsOntarioCapital Fund will invest $2.3 billion over five years on capital investments like public transit, environmental projects and roads to support Ontario's transition to a more productive economy. Over $370 million is already committed this year.
- The jobsOntarioHomes Fund will generate more than $2 billion in work for the construction industry by supporting 20,000 more non-profit housing units. These are in addition to the 10,000 new units provided by the 1991 Budget. The government's housing policies created 27,000 construction jobs in 1991.
- This past summer, jobsOntarioYouth invested $20 million and created 8,800 new summer jobs for young people. Five thousand of these jobs were promoted heavily to black youth. Total spending for summer youth employment programs was $45 million this year, an increase of 73% from last year.

In addition, $3.4 billion in regular capital investment means 67,000 jobs as a result of construction and renovation of infrastructure like roads, sewers and public buildings.

The 1992 Budget announced a number of tax assistance measures to foster private sector investment and help create jobs. These include tax cuts and incentives benefitting manufacturing and processing industries and small business.

The Budget also eliminated or reduced Ontario income tax for an additional 120,000 low-income Ontarians, and enriched support for low-income seniors. As a result, benefits were increased for over 350,000 senior households, with an average increase in benefits of $135 for seniors with household income of $23,000 or less.

Legislation to establish the Ontario Training and Adjustment Board (OTAB) is now before the Legislature. OTAB is one part of a comprehensive reform of Ontario's training and adjustment programs. Its central objective is making the design and management of training and adjustment a partnership among labour, business, training providers, educators, and community-based groups.

OTAB, the Canada-Ontario Labour Force Development Agreement and other initiatives add up to training expenditures of $930 million this fiscal year — an increase of 24% over last year and the most ever spent by an Ontario government on training and adjustment for workers.

The government released an industrial policy framework. Unique among recent efforts in this field, the framework rejects the winning sectors/losing sectors approach. Instead, it identifies six "competitive fundamentals," that are key to business success and greater competitiveness. The government will work in a variety of ways to support these fundamentals and orient the economy towards higher value added activities. The most important of the initiatives announced in the framework paper is the Sector Partnership Fund — a three-year, $150 million fund to enhance competitiveness and higher value added activity at the sector level. This is the principle supporting the work of almost two dozen sector strategies now being developed in various ministries.

In addition to $35.5 million in emergency financial assistance for farmers in 1991, the government has announced a five-year, $120 million Agricultural Investment Strategy which will work toward long-term stability for farmers and rural communities. The first of its kind in Canada, the Agricultural Investment Strategy includes:

- the Commodity Loan Guarantee Program to provide financing early in the season, as well as security from crop failure;
- the Rural Loan/Agricultural Mortgage Pool Program to encourage investment in agricultural projects and provide farmers with alternative, low-interest credit;
- the Private Mortgage Guarantee Program to attract investment to agriculture;
- the Farmer Apprentice Program to give new farmers experience and the opportunity to build equity for the eventual purchase of a farm;
- the Agricultural Expertise and Education Program to give credit unions a greater role in farm financing and help farmers resolve financial problems.

My government is providing workers with some of the best protection in North America and showing that jobs and justice are not contradictory goals — in the long run, they reinforce each other.

After a lengthy period of public discussion, which included four months of consultation on the contents of a discussion paper and five weeks of legislative committee hearings across the province, amendments to the Ontario Labour Relations Act were passed and will take effect January 1, 1993. The new Act will: allow employees to organize who are currently prevented; limit the use of replacement workers during strikes and lockouts; make it easier for workers to organize — especially women, new Canadians and part-time workers, many of whom work in the service sector; and speed up Labour Board processes, including the arbitration of first contract disputes.

A further set of amendments to the Labour Relations Act (Bill 80) is now before the Legislature. Bill 80 will promote greater democracy, and local control in the relationships between internationally-based parent construction unions and their Ontario locals. Ontario-based construction locals have long expressed a desire for greater control over their own affairs.

The Worker Investment and Ownership Program received royal assent in July, 1992 and is retroactive to October, 1991. It establishes tax incentives for investment by workers in Ontario businesses. One part of the program complements existing federal legislation and provides tax credits to workers who invest in labour-sponsored investment funds; another part provides enhanced tax credits to workers acquiring control of their employer's corporation through direct investment. By enabling worker investment in Ontario companies, the program keeps jobs and investment in Ontario, especially in small and medium-sized businesses. The worker ownership part of the program has already been used by workers in Kapuskasing, when they acquired control of the Spruce Falls mill.

Following the release of a public discussion paper on employment equity in late 1991, the government introduced legislation that will increase fairness in the workplace for women, aboriginal people, persons with disabilities and members of visible minorities. The government remains fully committed to legislated employment equity and will be proceeding with the legislation as soon as the drafting of the regulations that give effect to many of the Bill's provisions is complete.

Legislation to extend pay equity to cover an additional 420,000 women is now before the Legislature. Its enactment will mean fairer wages for women who work in jobs that, until now, did not qualify for pay equity increases. This will be accomplished by adding proxy and proportional value comparisons to the original job-to-job comparator method of calculating pay equity contained in the original 1987 law.

The government is active in pursuit of environmental and justice objectives as well.

The draft Environmental Bill of Rights, released for public review, reflects a consensus of business and environmental groups. It aims to give people new powers to protect the environment. The Ontario Round Table on Environment and Economy report sets out a strategy for sustainable development in Ontario that my government is eager to follow. The government has renewed the mandate of the Round Table.

The Waste Management Act has been proclaimed. This statute provides greater authority for initiatives to reduce, reuse, and recycle materials.

The government has concluded an historic Statement of Political Relationship with aboriginal people. We are pursuing self-government, land claims, and quality of life issues with Ontario First Nations on a government-to-government basis.

To empower and offer protection to vulnerable persons, a system of non-legal social advocacy will be established under the Advocacy Act.

Legislation has been introduced that aims at eliminating sexual abuse in health care and removing limitation periods for civil lawsuits by many sexual assault victims.

Rent control legislation was proclaimed. This ends high rent increases for tenants and ensures better maintenance and repair of rental buildings.

Amendments to the Planning and Municipal Acts were introduced to allow homeowners to create an apartment in their house.

The government maintains its commitment to protecting essential public services and managing the difficult fiscal challenges in prudent ways.

By reforming the health care system, we are ensuring we can enjoy its benefits at an affordable cost in future years. The Ontario Medical Association and the government have committed themselves to mutual efforts to control costs while maintaining quality services. The government has improved the management of the Ontario Drug Benefit Program to help reduce the spending growth rate of this program.

The government introduced the Long-Term Care Statute Law Amendment Act as part of a comprehensive reform. This initiative will integrate and improve the services supporting elderly persons and their caregivers, adults with physical disabilities, and those who need health services at home.

Honourable Members, I commend your achievements this session. In closing, I take this opportunity to wish you a joyous holiday season.

Au nom de notre souveraine, je vous remercie. In our sovereign's name, I thank you.

Je déclare cette session prorogée. I now declare the session prorogued.

Monsieur le président, honorables membres de l'Assemblée législative, Mesdames et Messieurs,

La deuxième session de la 35^e législature a été productive, malgré les temps difficiles.

La population de l'Ontario et le gouvernement sont aux prises avec la récession la plus grave qu'ait connue la province depuis les années trente. Et nous ne sommes pas les seuls dans cette situation -- l'activité économique a ralenti partout dans le monde industrialisé. Les pressions exercées à l'échelle mondiale ont eu un effet dramatique sur la structure même de l'économie ontarienne. Certains signes laissent présager une amélioration, mais la reprise économique ne s'accomplira que de façon graduelle.

Le gouvernement a réagi en s'attaquant à la récession, en créant et en protégeant des emplois, en investissant directement dans l'économie et en encourageant le secteur privé à faire de même, en intensifiant son engagement en matière de formation professionnelle et en préservant les services à caractère social, tout en contrôlant le déficit de la province.

Dans son budget de 1992, le gouvernement a poursuivi dans la même voie. Le budget met en effet l'accent sur la création et la préservation d'emplois, le maintien des services publics au profit de la population, ainsi que le contrôle du déficit. La priorité accordée aux emplois, aux services et au contrôle du déficit répond aux préoccupations exprimées par les Ontariens et les Ontariennes tout en tenant compte de façon responsable de la situation financière difficile dans laquelle se trouve le gouvernement. La profondeur et la durée de la présente récession se traduisent par une réduction importante des recettes fiscales au moment même où la population a besoin plus que jamais de services comme l'aide sociale.

Le gouvernement a répondu en partie à ces contraintes financières par des mesures énergiques de compression des dépenses internes. Et ces mesures donnent des résultats. Pour chaque dollar de nouvelle recette perçue cette année, les coûts ont été réduits de quatre dollars au sein du gouvernement. Le domaine des services de santé en est l'exemple le plus marquant. Au cours des dix dernières années, l'augmentation annuelle des dépenses dans le domaine de la santé a été en moyenne de 11 pour cent. L'an dernier, le gouvernement a réduit ce taux à moins de deux pour cent, tout en maintenant les services essentiels pour toute la population. Le taux global d'accroissement des dépenses totales dans le budget de 1992, qui est de 4,9 pour cent, est le moins élevé que l'on ait connu depuis 39 ans. Si l'on exclut l'intérêt sur la dette publique, les dépenses de fonctionnement n'augmenteront que de 2,8 pour cent cette année.

Le budget d'avril 1992 annonçait également la création des programmes boulotOntario:

- La somme de 1,1 milliard de dollars affectée au fonds boulotOntarioFormation appuiera la création d'emplois et la formation professionnelle à l'intention de 100 000 Ontariens et Ontariennes qui doivent compter sur l'aide sociale ou qui ont épuisé les prestations d'assurance-chômage auxquelles ils avaient droit, ainsi que la formation professionnelle de 80 000 autres travailleurs et travailleuses. De plus, 20 000 nouvelles places subventionnées seront créées dans les garderies afin d'aider les participants et participantes, dont un grand nombre sont des mères seules. Contrairement aux affirmations récentes des médias, lesquelles ne tenaient compte que des résultats des trois premiers mois, le programme se poursuit avec dynamisme. Le gouvernement estime que le programme procurera à la population ontarienne des emplois équivalant à 10 000 années-personnes d'ici mars 1993.

- Le fonds boulotOntarioConstruction investira 2,3 milliards de dollars en cinq ans dans des projets d'immobilisations comme le transport en commun, des initiatives environnementales et des travaux de voirie, pour appuyer la transition de la province vers une économie plus productive. Plus de 370 millions de dollars ont déjà été engagés cette année.
- Le programme boulotOntarioLogement injectera plus de deux milliards de dollars dans l'industrie de la construction en appuyant la création de 20 000 logements de plus dans le secteur à but non lucratif. Ces nouveaux logements viennent s'ajouter aux 10 000 habitations qui avaient été annoncées dans le budget de 1991. Les politiques du gouvernement en matière de logement ont permis la création de 27 000 emplois dans la construction en 1991.
- L'été dernier, boulotOntarioJeunesse a investi 20 millions de dollars et créé 8 800 emplois pour les jeunes. Cinq mille de ces emplois ont fait l'objet d'une campagne dynamique au sein de la communauté jeune noire. Pour l'ensemble des programmes d'emplois d'été pour les jeunes, le gouvernement a dépensé cette année 45 millions de dollars, soit une augmentation de 73 pour cent par rapport à l'an dernier.

De plus, la construction et la réfection d'éléments de l'infrastructure comme les routes, les égouts et les édifices publics ont entraîné la création de 67 000 emplois grâce à des investissements de l'ordre de 3,4 milliards de dollars.

Dans le budget de 1992, le gouvernement a annoncé un certain nombre de mesures fiscales — notamment des réductions d'impôt ainsi que des mesures incitatives au profit du secteur manufacturier, des industries de transformation et des petites entreprises — pour encourager l'investissement privé et favoriser ainsi la création d'emplois.

Le budget a également éliminé ou réduit l'impôt sur le revenu pour un nombre additionnel de 120 000 contribuables à faible revenu tout en améliorant les mesures de soutien au profit des personnes âgées à faible revenu. Chez les aînés, plus de 350 000 ménages ont ainsi bénéficié d'une augmentation de prestations, l'augmentation moyenne étant de 135 $ pour les personnes âgées dont le revenu familial est de 23 000 $ ou moins.

Le gouvernement a également déposé des mesures législatives prévoyant la création du Conseil ontarien de formation et d'adaptation de la main-d'oeuvre (COFAM). Le COFAM n'est qu'un volet d'une réforme en profondeur des programmes de formation professionnelle et de reconversion de la main-d'oeuvre. Son objectif central est d'établir un véritable partenariat entre les syndicats, les entreprises, les services de formation professionnelle et d'éducation et les groupes communautaires pour la conception et la gestion des programmes de formation et de reconversion de la main-d'oeuvre.

Le COFAM, l'accord Canada-Ontario sur la formation de la main-d'oeuvre ainsi que d'autres initiatives en ce domaine portent à 930 millions de dollars les sommes affectées à la formation au cours du présent exercice, ce qui représente une augmentation de 24 pour cent par rapport à l'an dernier et constitue le montant le plus élevé jamais consacré par un gouvernement ontarien à la formation et à la reconversion des travailleurs et travailleuses.

Le gouvernement a fait connaître le plan d'action du gouvernement en ce qui a trait à l'industrie. À l'encontre des autres initiatives lancées récemment dans ce domaine, le cadre d'action proposé rejette l'approche qui consiste à examiner les secteurs de pointe par rapport aux secteurs en perte de vitesse. Il établit plutôt six principes fondamentaux qui visent à accroître la compétitivité des entreprises. Le gouvernement s'efforcera de diverses façons d'appuyer les activités qui soutiennent ces principes fondamentaux et d'orienter l'économie vers des activités à forte valeur ajoutée. La plus importante des initiatives annoncées dans l'énoncé du plan d'action est le Fonds de partenariat sectoriel, par l'entremise duquel 150 millions de dollars seront versés, sur une période de trois ans, pour améliorer la compétitivité et intensifier les activités à forte valeur ajoutée dans les divers secteurs. Ce fonds sert à financer les travaux relatifs à plus d'une vingtaine de stratégies sectorielles que divers ministères sont en train d'élaborer.

En plus des 35,5 millions de dollars affectés à l'aide financière d'urgence à l'intention des agriculteurs en 1991, le gouvernement a annoncé la mise en place d'une stratégie d'investissement dans l'agriculture, à laquelle il consacra 120 millions de dollars; il s'agit d'une série de mesures échelonnées sur cinq ans, qui visent à procurer aux agriculteurs et aux localités rurales une stabilité à long terme. Cette stratégie, la première du genre au Canada, comprend les volets suivants :

- le Programme de garanties d'emprunt pour les produits agricoles, qui fournit un financement en début de saison, ainsi qu'un mécanisme de sécurité en cas de perte de récoltes;
- le Fonds commun pour les prêts aux collectivités rurales et le crédit hypothécaire aux agriculteurs, qui encourage l'investissement dans des projets agricoles et offre aux agriculteurs la possibilité d'obtenir du crédit à de faibles taux d'intérêt;
- le Programme de garantie d'emprunts hypothécaires des investisseurs privés, qui vise à intéresser les investisseurs à l'agriculture;
- le Programme de stages agricoles, qui donne aux nouveaux agriculteurs la possibilité d'acquérir de l'expérience et d'amasser un capital en vue de l'achat d'une exploitation agricole;
- le Programme de formation et de conseils spécialisés à l'intention des agriculteurs, qui confère aux credit unions un plus grand rôle dans le financement des activités agricoles et aide les agriculteurs à résoudre leurs problèmes financiers.

Mon gouvernement est parmi ceux qui assurent aux travailleurs et travailleuses la meilleure protection qui soit en Amérique du Nord, démontrant ainsi qu'emplois et justice ne sont pas des éléments contradictoires; ce sont des objectifs qui, avec le temps, se renforcent l'un l'autre.

Après une longue période de discussions publiques, notamment quatre mois de consultation sur un document de travail et cinq semaines d'audiences tenues dans toute la province devant un comité législatif, les modifications proposées à la Loi sur les relations de travail en Ontario ont été adoptées et elles prendront effet le 1^{er} janvier 1993. La nouvelle loi permettra la syndicalisation des travailleuses et travailleurs qui en sont actuellement empêchés, limitera le recours à des remplaçants en cas de grève ou de lock-out, et facilitera la tâche aux travailleurs qui veulent se syndiquer, en particulier les femmes, les néo-Canadiens et les personnes employées à temps partiel, dont un grand nombre travaillent dans le secteur des services; de plus, elle accélérera le fonctionnement de la Commission des relations de travail, entre autres le processus d'arbitrage en cas de différends dans la négociation d'une première convention collective.

Un autre ensemble de modifications à la Loi sur les relations de travail (projet de loi 80) a été présenté à l'Assemblée législative. Ces nouvelles dispositions favoriseront une meilleure application des principes démocratiques ainsi qu'une plus grande autonomie locale dans les relations entre les syndicats internationaux de la construction et leurs sections ontariennes. Ces dernières expriment depuis longtemps leur désir d'avoir une maîtrise accrue de leurs propres affaires.

La loi prévoyant la création du programme d'investissement et d'actionnariat des travailleurs a reçu la sanction royale en juillet 1992 et ses effets seront rétroactifs au mois d'octobre 1991. On instaure ainsi des mesures fiscales qui incitent les travailleurs et travailleuses à investir dans les entreprises de l'Ontario. Un volet du programme vient compléter les mesures législatives déjà mises en place par le gouvernement fédéral en vue d'offrir des crédits d'impôt aux contribuables qui investissent dans des fonds d'investissement des travailleurs; un autre volet du programme rehausse les crédits d'impôt pour les membres du personnel qui, grâce à un investissement direct, deviennent propriétaires majoritaires de l'entreprise où ils travaillent. En incitant les travailleurs et travailleuses à investir dans les sociétés ontariennes, le programme maintient des emplois et des investissements en Ontario, particulièrement dans les petites et moyennes entreprises. Le volet du programme touchant la participation des travailleurs et travailleuses à la propriété de l'entreprise a déjà servi au personnel de la papeterie Spruce Falls, à Kapuskasing, qui a pu acquérir des intérêts majoritaires dans la société qui l'emploie.

À la suite de la publication d'un document de travail sur l'équité d'emploi à la fin de 1991, le gouvernement a déposé un projet de loi destiné à accroître l'équité en milieu de travail pour les femmes, les autochtones, les personnes handicapées et les membres des minorités visibles. Le gouvernement maintient un engagement total à l'égard de l'enchâssement des principes d'équité d'emploi dans la législation ontarienne et poursuivra l'étude du projet de loi dès que sera terminée la rédaction des règlements qui permettront l'application d'un grand nombre des dispositions de la loi.

L'Assemblée législative étudie actuellement un projet de loi qui permettra à un nombre supplémentaire de 420 000 femmes de bénéficier de l'équité salariale. Cette loi se traduira par des salaires plus équitables pour les femmes qui occupent des emplois auxquels ne s'appliquaient pas jusqu'ici les augmentations accordées en vertu de l'équité salariale. On y parviendra en ajoutant la méthode de comparaison par substitution des postes et la méthode de comparaison de la valeur proportionnelle des postes à la méthode que prévoyait à l'origine la loi de 1987 aux fins du calcul de l'équité salariale, c'est-à-dire la comparaison de postes équivalents.

Par ailleurs, le gouvernement poursuit avec énergie ses objectifs de protection de l'environnement et de justice sociale.

L'ébauche du Code des droits environnementaux, publiée pour permettre à la population d'exprimer son opinion, reflète le consensus auquel sont parvenus le monde des affaires et les groupes environnementaux. Le code vise à donner à la population de nouveaux pouvoirs en matière de protection de l'environnement. Dans son rapport, la Table ronde de l'Ontario sur l'environnement et l'économie définit une stratégie pour le développement viable de l'Ontario, stratégie à laquelle le gouvernement adhère avec enthousiasme. Le gouvernement a renouvelé le mandat de la Table ronde.

La Loi sur la gestion des déchets a été promulguée. Cette loi fournit un cadre législatif qui facilitera les initiatives de réduction, de réutilisation et de recyclage.

Le gouvernement de l'Ontario a signé une déclaration historique de relation politique avec les peuples autochtones. Il poursuit une série d'entretiens intergouvernementaux avec les Premières nations à propos de questions comme l'autonomie gouvernementale, les revendications territoriales et la qualité de la vie.

Pour offrir aux personnes vulnérables une plus grande autonomie et une meilleure protection, un réseau d'intervention sociale de nature non juridique sera établi en vertu de la Loi sur l'intervention.

D'autre part, on a déposé des mesures législatives qui visent l'élimination de l'agression sexuelle dans les services de santé et la suppression des délais de prescription relatifs aux causes civiles pour un grand nombre de victimes d'agression sexuelle.

Des mesures de contrôle des loyers ont été adoptées. Le nouveau programme met fin aux augmentations excessives des loyers pour les locataires et garantit un meilleur entretien des immeubles locatifs.

Des modifications à la Loi sur l'aménagement du territoire et à la Loi sur les municipalités permettent aux propriétaires de créer un logement locatif dans leur maison.

Le gouvernement est toujours fidèle à son engagement de protéger les services publics essentiels tout en assurant une gestion prudente dans le contexte fiscal actuel.

En réformant le système de santé, le gouvernement veille à ce que toute la population puisse se prévaloir de ses avantages à un coût abordable au cours des années à venir. L'Association des médecins de l'Ontario et le gouvernement se sont engagés à joindre leurs efforts pour contrôler les coûts tout en maintenant des services de qualité. Le gouvernement a amélioré la gestion du Régime de médicaments gratuits de l'Ontario afin de contribuer à réduire le taux d'augmentation des dépenses à ce chapitre.

Le gouvernement a déposé la Loi modifiant des lois en ce qui concerne les soins de longue durée dans le cadre d'une réforme à grande échelle. Cette initiative vise à favoriser l'intégration et l'amélioration des services d'aide aux personnes âgées et à leurs soignants et soignantes, aux adultes ayant un handicap et aux personnes qui ont besoin de soins à domicile.

Honorables membres de l'Assemblée, permettez-moi de vous féliciter pour tout ce que vous avez accompli au cours de cette session. Je voudrais également profiter de l'occasion pour vous souhaiter de joyeuses célébrations en ce temps des Fêtes.

Au nom de notre souveraine, je vous remercie. In our sovereign's name, I thank you.

Je déclare cette session prorogée. I now declare the session prorogued.

The Government House Leader then said:-

"Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly:

It is the will and pleasure of His Honour the Lieutenant Governor that this Legislative Assembly be prorogued and this Legislative Assembly is accordingly prorogued."
