The House was adjourned during pleasure.

After some time the House was resumed.

His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor then entered the House, and being seated in the Chair on the Throne, was pleased to open the Session by a gracious Speech to the House.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly :—

I have much pleasure in again welcoming you to your annual duties as representatives of the Province in Parliament assembled.

I congratulate you on the recent decision of the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council confirming the right of the Province to the Crown Lands, including timber and minerals, situate within the Provincial boundaries as declared in 1884 by the decision of their Lordships and the Order of Her Majesty in Council. The principal objects which have hitherto retarded the settlement and development of our Northern Territory have thus been removed.

I have the pleasure of informing you that there is a fair prospect of our Northerly Boundary, as well as our Westerly Boundary, being satisfactorily settled by Imperial Statute at the next Session of Parliament.

I am glad to know that the Agricultural industries of the country have been fairly prosperous during the past year; that though the early part of the season was unfavourable, and in some localities crops and pastures were badly affected by drouth, yet that, over the greater portion of the Province, cereals, roots and fruits have been abundant and of superior quality. The extensive areas of land brought under cultivation during the last decade in India, South America, the United States, and our own North-West, make economy in production more essential to the farmers of Ontario than ever before; and emphasize the importance of giving increased attention to the best means of promoting the agricultural interests of the country. Increased efficiency has been given by the legislation of last Session to the Department of Agriculture throughout all its varied services; and experience is already justifying the policy of assigning to the Department a Minister free to devote to it his whole energies.

Acting upon a recommendation of the House, I appointed a Commission last year to inquire into the mineral resources of the Province, and the best means for their development. Much valuable information has been gathered by this Commission, and I have reason to believe that already its labours have resulted in drawing a large measure of attention to our mineral wealth. I also deemed it expedient to have the Province represented at the Centennial Exposition of the Ohio Valley and Central States, held at Cincinnati last summer; and, having in view the special importance of attracting foreign enterprise and capital to our mining industry, it was determined to confine the exhibit to minerals. There is reason to believe that the object of the exhibit will be to some extent realized in the near future. It is expected that the official Reports on both subjects will be completed and ready before the close of the Session to be laid before you.

With the growth of the Province, and the increasing competition in every department of industry, the necessity for increased skill in the various fields of labour is constantly becoming more urgent. The School of Practical Science, owing to its limited equipment and staff, has so far met the demand inadequately, although the School has been efficient within the field which it has occupied. Measures will be submitted to you for enlarging the staff; increasing the usefulness of the School in reference to mining matters; and extending the curriculum so as to include the study of applied mechanics, applied chemistry, and of architecture, according to the methods adopted by the best schools of a similar kind in Great Britain and the United States.

An agreement of the City of Toronto to permanently endow two additional Chairs in the Provincial University in settlement of certain litigated questions between the City and the University, will be submitted for your approval and legislative sanction.

Amongst the other measures to be submitted for your consideration are—a new Voters' List Act, embodying with the present law so far as it is applicable the provisions needed for carrying into full effect the legislation of last Session in reference to Manhood Suffrage; and Bills for increasing the efficiency of the Factory Act, and the Workmen's Compensation for Injuries Act; and for further improving the laws respecting Land Titles and the Registration of Deeds.

A second report of the Municipal Commissioners collects in convenient form a considerable amount of interesting and valuable information regarding Municipal matters, and will, I trust, be useful in dealing with the Municipal legislation which may be proposed during the present Session. This Report, and all Departmental and other usual Reports, will be laid before you.

During last summer the south wing of the new asylum at Hamilton was completed, and accommodation was thereby afforded for 150 additional patients. For the new cottages at Mimico in connection with the Toronto Asylum, a more eligible site than the Government property afforded was obtained in the vicinity, through the exchange of land; and a contract was let for building the cottages for which an appropriation had been granted. Two of the cottages will be ready for occupation before midsummer, and it is confidently expected that the others will be ready before the end of the year.

I regret to say that the accounts between the Dominion and the Province are still unsettled. Since the last Session of the Legislature a conference in connection with the accounts took place between the Finance Minister and the Treasurers of Quebec and Ontario; the conference lasted several days; and considerable progress had been made, when the work of the conference was interrupted by the representatives of the Dominion Government taking an entirely new and unexpected position with respect to the interest on the balance at the credit of the Province, the new contention involving a difference to this Province of a large sum. Representations have since been made to the Dominion Government by the Treasurers of the two Provinces which, I hope, may induce a reconsideration of the matter and the acquiescence of the Dominion Government in the just demands of the Provinces.

I regret also to say that the questions between this Province and the Province of Quebec are likewise unsettled; the intended Arbitration provided for in both Provinces by statute not having been proceeded with, in consequence of a difference as to the matters to be referred; my Government desired that all unsettled matters in dispute should be submitted; and Quebec was not prepared to include the question of the Land Improvement Fund, or any matters except such as relate to the School Lands. I hope that some satisfactory way of removing the difficulties in the way of a complete settlement may soon be found.

The Public Accounts of the Province, shewing the Receipts and Expenditures for the past year, will be promptly laid before you. I am glad to say that the revenue has exceeded the amount anticipated, and that the aggregate expenditure has been kept within the estimates.

The Estimates for the expenditure of the current year will at an early date be submitted for your approval. They will be found to have been prepared with all the economy consistent with the efficiency of the Public Service.

I feel sure that your Legislative labours in disposing of all matters which may come before you will manifest the same care and wisdom as heretofore.

His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor was then pleased to retire.

Mr. Speaker reported, That, to prevent mistakes, he had obtained a copy of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor's Speech, which he read.

On motion of the Attorney-General, seconded by Mr. Fraser, a Bill was introduced to provide for the Administration of Oaths of Office to persons appointed as Justices of the Peace, and the same was read the first time.

On motion of the Attorney-General, seconded by Mr. Fraser,
Ordered, That the Speech of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor to this House be taken into consideration to-morrow.

On motion of the Attorney-General, seconded by Mr. Fraser,
Resolved, That Select Standing Committees of this House, for the present Session, be appointed for the following purposes:—1. On Privileges and Elections; 2. On Railways; 3. On Miscellaneous Private Bills; 4. On Standing Orders; 5. On Public Accounts; 6. On Printing; 7. On Municipal Law; *which said Committees shall severally be empowered to examine and inquire into all such matters and things as shall be referred to them by the House, and to report from time to time their observations and opinions thereon, with power to send for persons, papers and records.

The House then adjourned at 4 p.m.

Friday, January 25th, 1889.

3 O'CLOCK P.M.

We are pleased to know that His Honour deemed it expedient to have the Province represented at the Centennial Exposition of the Ohio Valley and Central States, held at Cincinnati last summer ; and that, having in view the special importance of attracting foreign enterprise and capital to our mining industry, it was determined to confine the exhibit to minerals ; that we are glad to learn that there is reason to believe the object of the exhibit will be to some extent realized in the near future, and that it is expected that the official Reports on both subjects will be completed and ready before the close of the Session to be laid before us.

6. That we agree with His Honour that with the growth of the Province, and the increasing competition in every department of industry, the necessity for increased skill in the various fields of labour is constantly becoming more urgent, that the School of Practical Science, owing to its limited equipment and staff, has so far met the demand inadequately, although the School has been efficient within the field which it has occupied ; and we assure His Honour that the measures to be submitted to us for enlarging the staff, increasing the usefulness of the School in reference to mining matters, and extending the curriculum so as to include the study of applied mechanics, applied chemistry, and of architecture, according to the methods adopted by the best schools of a similar kind in Great Britain and the United States, will receive our most careful consideration.

7. That we observe with interest that an agreement of the City of Toronto to permanently endow two additional Chairs in the Provincial University, in settlement of certain litigated questions between the City and the University, will be submitted to us for our approval and legislative sanction.

8. That we thank His Honour for informing us that amongst the other measures to be submitted for our consideration are—a new Voters' List Act, embodying with the present law so far as it is applicable the provisions needed for carrying into full effect the legislation of last Session in reference to Manhood Suffrage ; Bills for increasing the efficiency of the Factory Act, and the Workmen's Compensation for Injuries' Act ; and for further improving the laws respecting Land Titles and the Registration of Deeds.

9. That we learn with satisfaction that a second report of the Municipal Commissioners collects in convenient form a considerable amount of interesting and valuable information regarding Municipal matters, and with His Honour trust that the same will be useful in dealing with the Municipal legislation which may be proposed during the present Session, and we thank His Honour for informing us that this Report, and all Departmental and other usual Reports, will be laid before us.

10. That we are pleased to know that during last summer the south wing of the new asylum at Hamilton was completed, and accommodation thereby afforded for 150 additional patients ; that we thank His Honour for informing us that for the new cottages at Mimico in connection with the Toronto Asylum, a more eligible site than the Government property afforded was obtained in the vicinity, through an exchange of land, and a contract let for building the cottages for which an appropriation had been granted ; that two of the cottages will be ready for occupation before midsummer, and that it is confidently expected that the others will be ready before the end of the year.

11. That we share His Honour's regret that the accounts between the Dominion and the Province are still unsettled ; that we thank His Honour for informing us that since the last Session of the Legislature a conference in connection with the accounts took place between the Finance Minister and the Treasurers of Quebec and Ontario, the conference having lasted several days, and considerable progress having been made, when the work of the conference was interrupted by the representatives of the Dominion Government taking an entirely new and unexpected position with respect to the interest on the balances at the credit of the Provinces, the new contention involving a difference to this Province of a large sum, and we share His Honour's hope that the representations which have since been made to the Dominion Government by the Treasurers of the two Provinces may induce a reconsideration of the matter and the acquiescence of the Dominion Government in the just demands of the Provinces.

12. That we share His Honour's regret that the questions between this Province and the Province of Quebec are likewise unsettled, the intended Arbitration provided for in both Provinces by statute not having been proceeded with in consequence of a difference as to the matters to be referred; and we thank His Honour for informing us that His Honour's Government desired that all unsettled matters in dispute should be submitted, and that Quebec was not prepared to include the question of the Land Improvement Fund, or any matters except such as relate to the School Lands, and that we share His Honour's hope that some satisfactory way of removing the difficulties in the way of a complete statement may soon be found.

13. That we thank His Honour for informing us that the Public Accounts of the Province, showing the Receipts and Expenditures for the past year, will be promptly laid before us; and that we are glad to learn that the revenue has exceeded the amount anticipated, and that the aggregate expenditure has been kept within the estimates.

14. That we thank His Honour for informing us that the Estimates for the expenditure of the current year will, at an early date, be submitted for our approval, and that they will be found to have been prepared with all the economy consistent with the efficiency of the Public Service.

15. That we thank His Honour for his expression of assurance that our Legislative labours in disposing of all matters which may come before us will manifest the same care and wisdom as heretofore.

The several paragraphs of the proposed Address, having been again read, were agreed to.

Resolved, That the above Resolutions be referred to a Select Committee, composed as follows: The Attorney-General and Messieurs Fraser, Smith (York), and Davis, with instructions to prepare and report an Address in conformity therewith.

The Attorney-General, from the Committee, reported an Address, which was read as follows:—

To the Honourable Sir Alexander Campbell, Knight-Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Member of the Queen's Privy Council of Canada, etc., etc., etc., Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Ontario:

We, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, humbly thank Your Honour for your gracious Speech at the opening of the Session, and tender you our acknowledgments for the pleasure you have expressed in welcoming us to our annual duties as representatives of the Province in Parliament assembled.

We rejoice with Your Honour at the recent decision of the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council confirming the right of the Province to the Crown Lands, including timber and minerals, situate within the Provincial boundaries as declared in 1884 by the decision of their Lordships and the Order of Her Majesty in Council; and that the principal obstacles which have hitherto retarded the settlement and development of our Northern Territory have thus been removed.

We are glad to learn that there is a fair prospect of our Northerly Boundary, as well as our Westerly Boundary, being satisfactorily settled by Imperial Statute at the next Session of Parliament.

We are glad to know that the Agricultural industries of the country have been fairly prosperous during the past year, and that, though the early part of the season was unfavourable, and in some localities crops and pastures were badly affected by drouth, yet that, over the greater portion of the Province, cereals, roots and fruits have been abundant and of superior quality; and we thank Your Honour for reminding us that the extensive areas of land brought under cultivation during the last decade in India, South America, the United States, and our own North-West, make economy in production more essential to the farmers of Ontario than ever before, and emphasize the importance of giving increased attention to the best means of promoting the agricultural interests of the country; we rejoice to know that increased efficiency has been given by the legislation of last Session to the Department of Agriculture throughout all its varied services, and that experience is already justifying the policy of assigning to the Department a Minister free to devote to it his whole energies.

We thank Your Honour for acting upon a recommendation of the House, by appointing a Commission to inquire into the mineral resources of the Province, and the best means for their development; we thank Your Honour for informing us that much valuable information has been gathered by this Commission, and that you have reason to believe that already its labours have resulted in drawing a large measure of attention to our mineral wealth. We are pleased to know that Your Honour deemed it expedient to have the Province represented at the Centennial Exposition of the Ohio Valley and Central States, held at Cincinnati last summer; and that, having in view the special importance of attracting foreign enterprise and capital to our mining industry, it was determined to confine the exhibit to minerals; we are glad to learn that there is reason to believe the object of the exhibit will be to some extent realized in the near future, and that it is expected that the official Reports on both subjects will be completed and ready before the close of the Session to be laid before us.

We agree with Your Honour that with the growth of the Province, and the increasing competition in every department of industry, the necessity for increased skill in the various fields of labour is constantly becoming more urgent, that the School of Practical Science, owing to its limited equipment and staff, has so far met the demand inadequately, although the School has been efficient within the field which it has occupied; and we assure Your Honour that the measures to be submitted to us for enlarging the staff, increasing the usefulness of the School in reference to mining matters, and extending the curriculum so as to include the study of applied mechanics, applied chemistry, and of architecture, according to the methods adopted by the best schools of a similar kind in Great Britain and the United States, will receive our most careful consideration.

We observe with interest that an agreement of the City of Toronto to permanently endow two additional Chairs in the Provincial University, in settlement of certain litigated questions between the City and the University, will be submitted to us for our approval and legislative sanction.

We thank Your Honour for informing us that amongst the other measures to be submitted for our consideration are—a new Voters' List Act, embodying with the present law so far as it is applicable the provisions needed for carrying into full effect the legislation of last Session in reference to Manhood Suffrage; Bills for increasing the efficiency of the Factory Act, and the Workmen's Compensation for Injuries Act; and for further improving the laws respecting Land Titles and the Registration of Deeds.

We learn with satisfaction that a second report of the Municipal Commissioners collects in convenient form a considerable amount of interesting and valuable information regarding Municipal matters, and with Your Honour we trust that the same will be useful in dealing with the Municipal legislation which may be proposed during the present session, and we thank Your Honour for informing us that this Report, and all Departmental and other usual Reports, will be laid before us.

We are pleased to know that during last summer the south wing of the new asylum at Hamilton was completed, and accommodation thereby afforded for one hundred and fifty additional patients; we thank Your Honour for informing us that for the new cottages at Mimico in connection with the Toronto Asylum, a more eligible site than the Government property afforded was obtained in the vicinity, through an exchange of land, and a contract let for building the cottages for which an appropriation had been granted; that two of the cottages will be ready for occupation before midsummer, and that it is confidently expected that the others will be ready before the end of the year.

PRAYERS.

Mr. Speaker informed the House, That the Clerk had received from the Judges appointed to enquire into and report on Estate Bills, their Reports in the following cases :—

Bill (No. 10), To simplify the Sales of Property held in trust for the Church of England in the Diocese of Toronto.

Bill (No. 3), To enable the Corporation of the Village of Wyoming to dispose of certain lands.

Bill (No. 31), To enable the Presbytery of Guelph to set apart for burial purposes and to sell certain glebe lands in the Township of Puslinch.

Bill (No. 24), To authorize the Synod of the Diocese of Huron to sell certain lands.

The Reports were then read by the Clerk at the Table, as follow :—

We have considered Bill (No. 10), An Act to simplify the Sales of Property held in trust for the Church of England in the Diocese of Toronto.

The Bill seems to us to be open to the remark, that the lands now held in trust by the various persons and corporations and for the different trusts and purposes mentioned in section one (1) may, in case of the failure of such trusts, be subject to resulting trusts in favour of the grantor of the land or of other persons, and that the general power of sale proposed to be conferred in respect of such lands may affect persons interested in such resulting trusts.

Subject to this observation, and assuming the truth of the facts stated in the preamble, the provisions thereof seem proper for carrying into effect the purposes of the Bill according to the apparent intention of its framers, and there is no reason in our opinion why it should not pass into a law.

February 15th, 1889.

JOHN H. HAGARTY,
F. OSLER.

To CHARLES T. GILLMOR, ESQ.,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

We are of opinion that this Bill (No. 3), Village of Wyoming, ought not to be allowed to become law without the consent of Robertson & McKay, if living, or if dead, of their heirs, and without disregard to the rights of the owners of the land acquired, on the faith of the "Reserves" mentioned therein being kept from the public.

the Association a grant of one thousand dollars in addition thereto for the privilege of holding their exhibitions in the City of London every fourth year, and that such indications of the unpopularity of the Provincial Exhibition are not creditable to the Province, is of opinion that it would now be justified in refusing to give any further grants for the purpose of holding a Provincial Exhibition under the direction and management of the Board of Agriculture.

That the following words be added to the motion, "And is further of opinion that the grant usually given to such Provincial Exhibition would best promote the interests of agriculture in the Province of Ontario if equally divided between the Western Fair Association of the City of London; the Central Industrial and Agricultural Association of the City of Hamilton; the Midland Fair Association of the City of Kingston; and the Central Canada Exhibition Association of the City of Ottawa,"

Mr. O'Connor, from the Committee on Standing Orders, presented their Twelfth, Thirteenth and Fourteenth Reports, which were read as follow :—

The Committee have carefully examined the following Petitions and find the notices as published in each case sufficient :—

Of James King and others, of Sarnia, praying that an Act may pass to revive the Act incorporating the Sarnia and Lambton Southern Railway Company.

Of R. W. Scott and others, of Ottawa, praying that an Act may pass to amend the Act incorporating the Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo Railway Company.

The Committee have carefully examined the Petition of the Church Wardens of St. James' Cathedral, Toronto, praying that an Act may pass declaring that they have and shall have power under the authority of the Vestry to lease, sell or mortgage certain lands, and find that notice of the proposed application to this Legislature was duly inserted in the Ontario Gazette for the space of six weeks, but the Committee are informed that through an oversight the said notice was not inserted in any local paper until the 16th instant when it appeared in the issue of the Daily Globe ; a declaration has also been filed that said notice will appear in the Empire of this date, and that in the case of each of the two last-mentioned papers the said notice will appear for five weeks longer. A Resolution of the Vestry of the Church was also filed asking for the proposed legislation. The Committee are also credibly informed that there is no opposition to the proposed measure, and that no other person or corporation is interested in the matter or desirous of opposing the same. The Committee, considering the evidence before them, would recommend the suspension of the Rule in this case.

The Committee have carefully examined the Petition of the Port Arthur Water, Light and Power Company, praying that an Act may pass to confirm certain by-laws and to legalize certain contracts between the Corporation of the Town of Port Arthur and the said Company, and find that a notice in the words following, viz. :—“ Notice is hereby given that the Port Arthur Water, Light and Power Company will apply to the Legislature of Ontario at the next Session thereof for an Act to confirm the By-laws of the Town of Port Arthur relating to water works and electric light, and also to legalize certain contracts between the Corporation and the said Company, and to empower the said Company to divert for the purpose of these works the stream known as McIntyre Creek,” was published in the Ontario Gazette of the 19th January now last past, and also in the Algoma Miner and Weekly Herald of the same date, and that the said notice has been published weekly in the said papers to the present time, and that the full term of notice will expire to-morrow, and that the said notice has also appeared daily in the Port Arthur Sentinel since the 8th instant, the Committee consider the notices with reference to the above sufficient. The Committee find that in the Ontario Gazette of the 9th instant an addition was made to the above notice in the words following, viz. :—"and to confirm by-laws of the Municipality of Shumiah " respecting said Company, and to confer on the Company powers for the expropriation " of lands and diversion of streams," and that the said notice as so amended was published in the Ontario Gazette on the 9th and 16th days of February instant, in the Algoma Miner, and Weekly Herald on the 16th day of February instant, and in the Port Arthur Sentinel on the 14th day of February instant, and daily to the present time. The Committee, however, deeming the increased powers sought for by the amendment to the first notice as above set forth, of great importance, do not consider the publication with reference to the amendment sufficient.

On motion of Mr. Balfour, seconded by Mr. McMahon.

Ordered, That there be laid before this House, a copy of any Report made to the Government, by the Prison Inspector and the Warden of the Central Prison of the result of their enquiries, during the past year relating to Prison Labour in the United States.

The Order of the Day for the second reading of Bill (No. 60), To enable Widows and Unmarried Women to vote for Members of the Legislative Assembly, having been read, Mr. Waters moved, That the Bill be now read the second time.

Mr. Hardy moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. Fraser,

That all the words in the Motion after the word "that," be omitted, and that there be inserted instead thereof the words following: "Women have not hitherto had votes at elections for the Imperial Parliament or for the Legislature of this Province or of any other Province of the Dominion. That whilst, on the one hand, the propriety of the extension of the suffrage to women has been strongly maintained, the opposite view has generally prevailed wherever Representative Governments exist. That if the right of female suffrage at Parliamentary elections were to be conceded, the restriction in Bill (No. 60), intituled "An Act to enable Widows and Unmarried Women to vote for Members of the Legislative Assembly," as to the classes and qualifications of the women who would possess the suffrage, are founded on no principle and are repudiated by leading advocates of the movement.

That notwithstanding the restrictions which the Bill purports to impose, the principle of the Bill involves the extension of the Franchise to all women on the same basis as the Franchise for men. That such an extension would double the number of the present electorate.

That there is reason for believing that it would even more than double such number, and might therefore involve the transfer to women of a preponderating voting power in all matters affecting the laws and institutions of the Province. That such a far-reaching extension of the Franchise is a subject which the present electorate cannot be said to have either dealt with or considered when selecting its representatives at the last election.

And that, under all these circumstances, it is the duty of this House, as now constituted, to refuse its assent to any measure involving the principle of female suffrage at Parliamentary elections."

And the Amendment, having been put, was carried on the following division :

The Original Motion, as amended, having been then put, was carried, and it was

Resolved, That women have not hitherto had votes at elections for the Imperial Parliament or for the Legislature of this Province, or of any other Province of the Dominion. That whilst, on the one hand, the propriety of the extension of the suffrage to women has been strongly maintained, the opposite view has generally prevailed wherever Representative Governments exist. That if the right of female suffrage at Parliamentary Elections were to be conceded, the restrictions in Bill (No. 60), intituled "An Act to enable Widows and Unmarried Women to vote for members of the Legislative Assembly," as to the classes and qualifications of the women who would possess the suffrage, are founded on no principle and are repudiated by leading advocates of the movement.

That notwithstanding the restrictions which the Bill purports to impose, the principle of the Bill involves the extension of the Franchise to all women on the same basis as the Franchise for men. That such an extension would double the number of the present electorate.

That there is reason for believing that it would even more than double such number, and might therefore involve the transfer to women of a preponderating voting power in all matters affecting the laws and institutions of the Province.

That such a far-reaching extension of the Franchise is a subject which the present electorate cannot be said to have either dealt with or considered when selecting its representatives at the last election.

And that, under all these circumstances it is the duty of this House, as now constituted, to refuse its assent to any measure involving the principle of female suffrage at Parliamentary Elections.

The House resolved itself into a Committee, severally to consider the following Bills :—

Bill (No. 2), To confer certain powers upon the Board of Trade of the City of Toronto.

That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair.

Mr. Meredith moved in amendment, seconded by Mr. Creighton,

That all the words in the Motion after "That" be omitted, and the following substituted therefor: "the present mode of administering the liquor license laws through the Board of Commissioners and Inspectors appointed by the Government of the day has resulted in a partizan administration of the law; has subjected those engaged in the liquor traffic to undue influence by and in the interest of the dominant party in this Province; has led in many cases to the tyrannical exercise of the powers of the Commissioners and Inspectors, and in others to the lax enforcement of the law and the condoning for partizan purposes of offences against its provisions; has unduly and unfairly interfered with the freedom of exercising their franchise by those engaged in the liquor traffic, and is otherwise mischievous in its purpose and operation; and while declaring its firm intention and purpose to be, not to relax or impair the efficiency of the other provisions of the law, and particularly those limiting the number of licenses to be granted—this House is of opinion that it is essential to the honest, non-partizan and faithful execution of the liquor license laws that the present mode of appointing Boards of Commissioners should be abrogated, and provision be made for placing the appointment of the Commissioners in the hands of a body more removed from the influence of partizanship, and more directly responsible to and under the control of the people."

And a Debate having arisen,

Ordered, That the Debate be adjourned until To-morrow.

On motion of Mr. Gibson (Hamilton), seconded by Mr. Drury,

(c) Payments may be made as portions of the railway, not less than ten continuous miles, are completed as aforesaid; and in cases where the whole distance aided is less than ten miles, then for such distance.

(f) That notwithstanding anything herein contained, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may dispose, by way of free grant, any of the lands so set apart as aforesaid, for the right of way of any railway, or for railway stations, workshops or any lands necessarily required for constructing or working any railway, or any other lands required for public purposes, and of which the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may deem it to be in the public interest to make free grants.

May it please your Honour:

We, Her Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, in Session Assembled, approach your Honour at the close of our labours with sentiments of unfeigned devotion and loyalty to Her Majesty's person and Government, and humbly beg to present for your Honour's acceptance a Bill intituled “An Act for Granting to Her Majesty certain sums of money to defray the expenses of Civil Government for the year 1889, and for other purposes therein mentioned,” thus placing at the disposal of the Crown the means by which the Government can be made efficient for the service and welfare of the Province.

To this Bill, the Royal Assent was announced by the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly, in the following words:—

“His Honour the Lieutenant Governor doth thank Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, accept their benevolence and assent to this Bill in Her Majesty's name.”

His Honour was then pleased to deliver the following Speech:—

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly:

In bringing to a close another session of the Legislative Assembly, I desire to recognize the earnestness and zeal with which you have devoted yourselves to the work of legislation.

The measure which you have adopted for developing the unsettled portions of the Province by means of Colonization Railways meets with my hearty approval. I am glad to believe that the revenues accruing from the opening up of the mineral and other lands through which the projected railways will pass, and the profits to be derived from the sale of certain classes of timber not at present marketable will alone reimburse to the Provincial Treasury the expenditure to be incurred in carrying into effect the policy which has received your sanction.

I am glad to give my assent to the Bill for creating the new Electoral District of Nipissing. The large territory embraced in that District and the new settlements springing up within its borders, entitle the District to a voice in the Legislative Assembly, the effect will doubtless be to direct public attention more fully than before to this important section of the Province.

The measure which you have passed for affording an expeditious and simple remedy for determining the claims of settlers in the new Districts for damages to their lands by flooding will, I trust, materially aid in accomplishing the object desired.

By the Voters' Lists Act and the Franchise Assessment Act, you have afforded increased facilities for enabling every qualified elector to have his name placed upon the assessment roll and voters' list.

The important amendments made to the Shops Regulation Act, the Factory Act and the Workmen's Injuries Act will, I feel assured, be appreciated by all those who are concerned in the beneficial operation of these laws.

I am much gratified with the measures you have adopted for the improvement of the Pharmacy Act; the Act respecting the study of Anatomy, and the Free Libraries' Act. Each of these Acts deals with important educational interests, and the amendments you have made cannot fail to exercise a salutary effect upon the special departments to which they respectively relate.

I have assented with pleasure to the Bills you have submitted to me for the further improvement of our Municipal and Assessment Laws.

I thank you for the liberal appropriations which you have made for the public service. The supplies which you have voted will be expended with prudence and in the public interest.

The Provincial Secretary then said :

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly :

It is His Honour's will and pleasure that this Legislative Assembly be prorogued; and this Legislative Assembly is accordingly prorogued.

The Committee proceeded to examine the papers brought down.

Messieurs Kerns, Clancy, Awrey, examined those in connection with supplies, etc., to the different asylums.

Messieurs French, Craig, Ballantyne, papers re Canada Temperance Act.

The Chairman asked for an explanation of the item of $35.00, page 196, Public Accounts, 1888, paid to Hon. G. A. Drew, which was given by the Treasurer.

Mr. Clancy complained of the manner in which supplies of clothing, groceries and provisions, etc., were purchased for the different institutions, of the difference in prices paid for the same standard article from different firms.

Considerable discussion took place thereon, taken part in by Messieurs Awrey, French, Kerns, Ballantyne, Craig and Harcourt, and comparisons made with various accounts.

The Treasurer explaining that in many cases small purchases were necessary and had to be made, and it was handy to buy at (possibly) small houses, but you will find on examination that the prices paid are not extravagant, but the cheapest that can be had.

Mr. French, in examining papers re Canada Temperance Act, moved, seconded by Mr. Craig, That Mr. Totten, Chief of the License Branch, be called before the Committee to explain some of the accounts re Canada Temperance Act.

The Chairman put the motion, which was carried, and the Clerk instructed to send for Mr. Totten.

The Clerk informed the Committee that Mr. Totten had been requested to appear, and was in attendance.

Mr. Totten called, appeared and gave the required explanation.

Mr. French asked that Mr. Totten prepare a statement or itemized account of Mr. Chapman, License Inspector of Prescott and Grenville.

The Committee instructed Mr. Totten to prepare the same.

Mr. Craig presented requisition, asking that the following papers be brought before the Committee for examination at its next meeting.

All tenders for supplies to the following public institutions for 1888 :

Asylums for the Insane at Toronto, London, Kingston ; Asylum for Idiots at Orillia ; Institute for the Deaf and Dumb at Belleville ; Institute for the Blind at Brantford, and the Reformatory at Penetanguishene.

The motion was put by the Chairman, was carried, and the papers asked for ordered to be brought down.

Mr. McLaughlin here entered the Committee Room.

Mr. French next took up for examination accounts re surveys, and asked for information as to how the surveyors were paid, and the manner of laying out townships. I see some cost more than others ; is it because they are larger, or how ?

Mr. Ross.—I believe they are paid so much per acre. Mr. Aubrey White, Assistant Crown Lands Commissioner, could give you all the information if you wish it.

Mr. Kerns called the attention of the Committee to certain items in the accounts of T. C. Watkins and Knox, Morgan & Co., for pins furnished to the Asylum at Hamilton, amounting to the sum of one hundred dollars, stating he thought it a large amount for pins, and would like an explanation of the item.

Mr. Awrey stated he thought Mr. O'Reilly, the Inspector, would be the one best able to explain the item, and moved that he be requested to appear forthwith.

The motion being put, was carried, and the Clerk instructed to send for Mr. O'Reilly.

The Clerk informed the Committee that Mr. O'Reilly was in attendance.

Mr. O'Reilly called, stated that at the present moment he could not give the desired explanation ; the item had never been brought to his notice before. I can readily understand that a great amount of pins would be used where there are 800 or 900 persons and they make their own clothes. However, if the Committee wish it, I will send to the Bursar and get all the information required.

Mr. Kerns moved that Mr. O'Reilly procure the necessary information for the Committee.

The motion being put, was carried, and Mr. O'Reilly instructed in accordance therewith.

Mr. Clancy called the Committee's attention to the prices paid for shirtings, cotton, etc., at Kingston, and asked the Inspector for an explanation.

Mr. O'REILLY.—Sometimes it is difficult to get what you want, especially in Kingston, where there are not so many wholesale houses. Only the other day the Bursar complained about the prices charged by some of the houses in Kingston, and told them that they would have to reduce their prices or he would not buy from them.

This concluded Mr. O'Reilly's examination.

Mr. FRENCH.—Mr. Chairman, I would like to know if the new Assistant-Treasurer has found out anything more, or new, concerning the discrepancies into which we were making enquiry last session. I mean the missing cheques, etc.

Mr. ROSS.—No; he had nothing to do with it, and did not go into it; it was all settled up by the Auditor before he came into office, and consequently he had nothing to do with it.

On motion, the Committee adjourned until to-morrow, Wednesday, the 27th of February, at 11 o'clock a.m.

TREASURER'S OFFICE,

WEDNESDAY, 27th February, 1889.

The Committee met, pursuant to adjournment, at 11 o'clock a.m.

Present:

Mr. Clarke (Wellington), Chairman.

Messieurs Awrey,

French,

Messieurs Harcourt,

Of the papers called for and ordered by the Committee to be brought down for examination the Clerk laid the following upon the Table:—

Accounts and vouchers, R. Hunter, government buyer, purchases of meat for the various public institutions.

Tenders and bonds for supplies for the various public institutions for 1889.

The Committee proceeded to examine the papers brought down.

Mr. Clancy examined papers re advertising for supplies for the different public institutions.

Different members of the Committee made complaint against the class and amount of stationery they received, and asked the Treasurer if he could explain the reason it was so.

Mr. ROSS.—I do not know, but I presume you get your full complement.

Mr. AWREY.—How much are we entitled to, for mine is growing less, and worse, and worse, every year, now this year my pens are rusty, I sent them back and got less in quantity of some other kind and they were as rusty as the first.

*A number of the Committee stated that there was a general complaint about the stationery among the members of the House.

The CHAIRMAN.—Probably it would be as well to have Mr. Notman before the Committee to explain the matter.

The Committee was of that opinion and instructed the Clerk to request Mr. Notman to appear before the Committee forthwith.

Mr. Notman was accordingly requested and appeared before the Committee.

In reply to Mr. Awrey, Mr. Notman stated he had not heard of any complaint about the stationery. The rule was to give each member ($10.00) ten dollars worth, now they got a trunk worth ($1.25) one dollar and a quarter besides, making ($11.25) eleven dollars and a quarter's worth they received.

Mr. AWREY.—My paper has been bad and my pens rusty, I sent them back and got less in quantity and they were as bad as the first.

Mr. NOTMAN.—I cannot understand that, unless you got a more expensive kind, and I have not heard of the pens being rusty.

Mr. AWREY.—Well mine are.

Various other members complained and questioned Mr. Notman thereon.

Mr. NOTMAN.—If any member had more of one kind than he wanted, or did not like what he had, he could get it exchanged if he would bring it up to him.

After some further discussion Mr. Notman's examination was concluded.

The motion being put was carried and the papers ordered to be brought down for examination at the next meeting of the Committee.

Mr. H. E. Clark (Toronto), moved that the Chairman instruct the Clerk to request Mr. O'Reilly the Inspector of Prisons and Asylums, to appear before the Committee this morning to give information and make explanation in re purchases of meat by R. Hunter.

The motion was put and carried. The Chairman instructed the Clerk to request Mr. O'Reilly to appear before the Committee.

The Clerk informed the Committee that he had requested the Inspector to appear and that he was in attendance.

Mr. O'Reilly called, and in reply to Mr. H. E. Clarke (Toronto), stated that in the purchase of meat by Mr. Hunter, a sum of money was advanced to him to make these purchases, and he takes receipts for the money paid. We weigh every cattle after it is purchased, and keep track of every hoof, hide, and horn, until it is accounted for. We compare prices paid with the market quotations in the daily newspapers, and keep as good a check upon him as is possible. It is hard to keep any other check. We used to have the contract system, but had to abandon it, as useless. If the Committee wanted further information, possibly Mr. Hunter himself could give it.

It was moved by Mr. H. E. Clarke (Toronto), that the Clerk be instructed to request Mr. R. Hunter, the Government buyer, to appear before the Committee to give information in connection with his purchases of meat, and that Tuesday next be appointed as the day for his examination.

The motion being put was carried and the Clerk instructed in accordance therewith.

Mr. Kerns presented requisition asking that the following papers be brought down for examination at the next meeting of the Committee :—

Mr. CLANCY in examining accounts re advertising for tenders for supplies, raised an objection to the way the Government advertised in out of the way places and small places at that.

Mr. ROSS.—You will find they are where these institutions are or in the immediate vicinity.

Mr. CRAIG.—The tenders for supplies brought down are for 1889, I asked for those for 1888.

Mr. O'REILLY.—We do not keep the old tenders, they are from year to year ; if we did so, there would be an immense accumulation of papers. We have a book in which everything is recorded which would show you what you want.

Mr. CRAIG.—Could you furnish us with that book.

Mr. O'REILLY.—Yes ; if the Committee order it.

On motion of Mr. Craig the Committee ordered the book to be brought down.

Mr. CLANCY, (examining accounts re Crown Lands Agents).—I see Mr. Chairman that in these accounts furnished us, only receipts and vouchers are given, no detailed statement.

The CHAIRMAN.—Do you wish the detailed accounts.

Mr. CLANCY.—Yes ; I would like to look at them.

The CHAIRMAN.—Just tell the Clerk what you require and he will see they are furnished to you.

Mr. CLANCY.—I would like to have in detail the accounts of P. O. Campbell, D. F. Macdonald, and W. Margach, (agents, salaries, and disbursements) Crown Lands timber agents.

Mr. CLANCY moved that that the Chairman instruct the Clerk, to request Mr. W. Anglin, the Bursar of the Asylum for the Insane at Kingston, to appear before this Committee on Tuesday next, for the purpose of explaining items in the accounts for supplies for that institution.

The motion being put was carried and the Clerk instructed in accordance therewith.

On motion the Committee adjourned until Tuesday next, at 11 o'clock a.m.

TREASURER'S OFFICE,
TUESDAY, 5th March, 1889

Present :

Mr. Clarke (Wellington), Chairman.

Messieurs Awrey,
Balfour,
Ballantyne,
Clancy,
Clarke, H. E. (Toronto),
French.

Messieurs Harcourt,
Hardy,
O'Connor,
Ross (Huron),
Waters,
Wood (Brant)—13.

Of the papers asked for and ordered to be brought down, the Clerk laid the following upon the table.

Accounts and vouchers re expenses of legislation.

Accounts and vouchers re Provincial police Niagara and Detroit Rivers as asked for per requisition.

Committee proceed to examine various papers.

Mr. Clancy examined paper re Kingston Asylum.

Mr. Clancy enquired if Mr. Anglin, the bursar of the Kingston Asylum, had been requested to appear before the Committee this morning.

The Chairman.—The Clerk informs me that he was in attendance.

Mr. H. E. Clarke (Toronto), made similar enquiry concerning Mr. R. Hunter, the Government buyer of meat, and received similar information.

The Committee then considered as to who they would examine first, and after some discussion decided to examine Mr. Anglin first.

Mr. Anglin, called, sworn, examined by different members of the Committee, evidence taken down by the shorthand writer appended marked "A" and "B."

"A."

Mr. Anglin, being sworn, was examined and gave evidence as follows :

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—You are the bursar of the Kingston asylum, Mr. Anglin?
A.—Yes.

Q.—How long have you occupied that position?

A.—I have been bursar since 1872.

Q.—You are accustomed, in your capacity as bursar, to purchase supplies for the Kingston asylum, are you not?

A.—That is part of my duty.

Q.—Do you generally buy those supplies daily, monthly, as the requirements of the asylum may be, or do you have any other system?

A.—Sometimes I buy monthly, sometimes daily, as we need supplies, but generally we get quarterly supplies.

Q.—In that case is there any requisition made for the quantity you want?

A.—Yes; I send in a requisition to the department every quarter for the quantity of goods we think we shall require, and upon that we purchase.

Q.—Do you ever exceed the purchases made in this manner during the quarter for which they are made?

A.—Very seldom; only in the case of anything we might not think of at the time we sent in the requisition; that does not happen very often.

Q.—I suppose you make all the purchases that are required?

A.—Yes.

Q.—You have nothing to do with the tenders that are sent in?

A.—No; except to make out the necessary requisitions for what is required.

Q.—In the public accounts there are some purchases that appear to be outside of your quarterly requisition. How about these? Do you make them? Do you come to Toronto, for instance, to buy these extra supplies?

A.—No; they are made by the Inspector, I suppose, or by somebody acting under his instruction.

Q.—At whose request?

A.—I suppose he is instructed to do so by the department. I don't know.

Q.—You say the Inspector makes these purchases?

A.—I suppose he does.

Q.—Who informs him as to the necessity for these things?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—Does the Inspector ever make purchases without your knowledge and send them to you?

A.—Sometimes.

Q.—Is there not danger of this clashing with your purchases?

A.—No; because the purchases are made upon the quarterly requisition. He does not make purchases outside of that requisition.

Q.—But is it customary for the Inspector to make purchases upon the requisition?

A.—It is not customary, but he sometimes does it.

Q.—And when he does it you do not know at whose request it is done?

A.—I do not. Perhaps at the request of the department, perhaps at his own option.

By the CHAIRMAN.—Q.—As a matter of fact, Mr. Anglin, do you remember whether or not any purchases were made from Hughes Brothers last year or not?

A.—I believe there were.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—The purchases I noticed from Hughes Brothers are in public accounts for 1887, where I see an amount of $466.69 in their name. Now, Mr. Anglin, in making those purchases, I suppose you are entirely free to make them where you like, or are you supposed to purchase them from certain persons only?

A.—My instructions are to give preference to persons who support the Government, but not to give those persons any advantage in buying, or in other words, to get as good a bargain with them as with anybody else.

By Mr. A. M. Ross.—Q.—That is, not to give them any higher prices than you could obtain the same goods for elsewhere?

A.—Yes.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—I see there is a house in your city, that of J. M. Gardiner Brother, that has been furnishing you with dry goods for some time past. I see also, that formerly you dealt with another house there, that of Mr. Nee & Minn's. Have you, from year to year, compared the prices of those two establishments? The one is a wholesale house and the other a retail house, I believe?

A.—They both do wholesale business.

Q.—Have not Gardiner Brothers a mixed stock of goods?

A.—I believe they have nothing but dry goods.

Q.—Is not Mr. Gardiner considered a retail dealer in the city?

A.—I don't know; he does a large business as such, but he also does a wholesale business, too, and I understand he is going into the wholesale business now exclusively.

Q.—In making your purchases do you go to the various establishments and find out whether or not you can buy from other places as cheaply as, say from Gardiner Brothers?

A.—I have gone to McNee & Minn's and compared the prices of the two firms. I don't always do it.

Q.—And you found that you could buy goods just as cheaply from Gardiner & Brother as from the other firm?

A.—Well, they have to sell them to me at as low a price as I can purchase them for at any other place.

Q.—Does that rule hold good also in the purchase of groceries? I see there are two firms there which have supplied you with groceries for a number of years—those of W. R. McRae & Co. and of M. Redden?

A.—Those are the principal grocers we deal with.

Q.—Are they wholesale or retail?

A.—They are both wholesale and retail.

Q.—Is there any exclusively wholesale house in the city of Kingston?

A.—Yes; there are three or four of them.

Q.—How have you done in that case? Have you always endeavored in every case to get the best prices in groceries, as well as in dry goods?

A.—Yes; I have always endeavored to do so. Only very recently in the case of sugar, for instance, I noticed that the wholesale price was at a lower figure than that at which it was offered to me by a certain firm, and I made them give it to me at the same price.

Q.—Who was this that was charging you high prices?

A.—I would rather not answer that question unless the committee so desire.

Mr. CLANCY insisted upon the question, whereupon the chairman ruled that as the only point to be elicited was whether or not Mr. Anglin had made the purchases at the higher price, and as that point had been already elicited, the witness was not bound to answer the question. Mr. Clancy continued as follows:—

Q.—Were the persons from whom you were endeavoring to purchase those goods for which they charged you too high a price, persons from whom you had been accustomed to make purchases?

A.—They were.

Q.—And you refused to purchase that particular class of goods from them?

A.—Except they gave it to me at as low a price as I could buy it at elsewhere.

Q.—As Bursar of the institution you very properly gave them to understand that if they would not sell to you as cheaply as other people you would not deal with them?

A.—Yes.

The CHAIRMAN—You did then as you always do, I suppose Mr. Anglin bought in the cheapest market?

A.—Yes.

By Mr. CLANCY—Q.—Do you compare prices always between Mr. McRae & Co. and Redden? They appear to be in the same line, and to be your chief dealers in groceries

A.—Yes; I always compared the prices of the two firms.

Q.—Do you buy teas in large quantities?

A.—Yes; I buy a quarter's supply at a time.

By Hon. A. S. HARDY—Q.—About how much would that be?

A.—About ten or twelve chests.

By Mr. CLANCY—Q.—You always buy certain lines?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Are there many variations in the prices you pay?

A.—Yes; they vary considerably.

Q.—I see you use a good deal of shirting in the asylum?

A.—Yes.

Q.—I suppose it is all made up for the inmates?

A.—The principal shirting we use is flannel.

Q.—What do you usually pay per yard?

A.—From thirty to forty cents, according to quality.

Q.—What is the other kind of shirting?

A.—It is a material called shirting or gingham, whatever you like.

Q.—About how much of that do you use?

A.—About a thousand yards.

Q.—Is that for summer wear?

A.—For both winter and summer wear. It is used principally for the attendants as a sort of uniform.

Q.—Have you any instructions as to the class of goods you are to buy, in the case of uniforms for instance, as applied to other institutions?

A.—We buy the same uniform, I believe, as the other institution. They are all the same I think. I have word from the Inspector.

Q.—And you are supposed to get the same sort of goods as the other institutions?

A.—We get the same pattern from the same mill.

Q.—And the goods are sold throughout by the business houses with whom the government generally deals?

A.—I suppose so.

Q.—(Reading from accounts) “653 yards of shirting at fifteen cents.” Was that used for uniforms?

A.—Very little of it was used as shirting. Most of it was used for other purposes.

Q.—(Reading over several items in original accounts of dealers). Did you in every case I have mentioned go to other establishments to learn as to the prices, or did you take it for granted you were charged fair prices?

A.—I did not go to other places in every case, not in those cases when I was asked what I thought a fair price.

By Mr. A. M. Ross—Q.—When you get goods at what you consider fair current prices, you don't enquire further?

A.—No.

By Mr. CLANCY.—This shirting, I see, is charged at fifteen cents a yard. Now, I am told that is considered a retail price for this class of goods. Are you supposed to buy at retail or wholesale prices?

A.—I buy generally at current wholesale prices, but you can buy those goods at any price from eight or ten cents up to fifteen cents a yard. It varies like teas.

Q.—But you have samples to buy from?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And these samples are furnished to the Bursars of the different public institutions throughout the province to enable them to buy a uniform class of goods?

A.—Yes, in some cases (samples produced).

Q.—Do you have these samples sent to you from the houses or from the Inspector?

A.—These are the Inspector's samples. We take whatever they have at the establishments we deal with if it is suitable, except in the case of this (holding up sample of blue material). That is the material used for the dresses of the attendants, and we follow the sample of the Inspector.

Q.—How much of that do you use?

A.—About enough to supply twenty females.

Q.—There is more of the other material used then?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And you have no sample of that other class of goods from the Inspector?

A.—No.

Q.—You agree, though, as to the class of goods to be furnished to the attendants ?
A. Yes.

Q.—And you buy the best goods ?

A.—Yes; they would not stand it unless we did so. Besides it is more economical to do so. The better material lasts so much longer, and does not tear in the washing, as the poorer material does.

Q.—How long have you been accustomed to purchase these heavier shirtings ?

A.—For some years. We used to get a cheaper material, but found that it was not really so cheap in the end as those we are buying now.

Q.—You have no samples of the tweeds you use ?

A.—No; I thought it was not necessary to bring them.

Q.—Is there any uniformity in the tweed used ?

A.—There is a uniform for attendants; that is all.

Q.—Is there not a large amount used ?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Manufacturers make certain classes of these goods at 40 and 45 cents a yard. Have you no instructions as to the quality you should purchase ?

A.—No; we buy at from 60 to 65 cents; we generally buy Canadian tweeds.

Q.—And you have no instructions as to the quality of goods you should buy ?

A.—No; except to buy good strong goods. We do not buy fine goods.

By Mr. HARDY.—Q.—You don't confine yourself to any particular lines ?

A.—No.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—You have been using a class of goods similar to this (holding up a cheap sample) ?

A.—For some purposes.

Q.—Have you ever consulted with the Inspector as to the desirability of getting a better class of goods ?

A.—Only for the attendants.

Q.—Have you ever consulted the Inspector as to the class of tweeds you should use ? I suppose he has an idea of the class of goods that should prevail ?

A.—Sometimes the Inspector has sent me some tweeds, or a sample of some, and I have purchased about the same kind for Kingston.

Q.—I notice in the case of the London Asylum that forty-five cent tweeds are purchased from Robinson & Little ?

A.—I dare say; they are like teas; you can get them at any price.

Q.—But what I want to get at is whether or not it is desirable that there should be uniformity as to the kind of tweed purchased by the different institutions ?

A.—Well, we buy a strong material of tweed and find that the best. The matter is left pretty much to myself; you might say it is so entirely, save for any advice the Inspector may occasionally give me.

By Mr. HARDY.—Q.—You don't confer with the bursars of any other institutions as to that point?

A.—No; but if Mr. Clancy will compare the cost of maintenance of the Kingston Asylum with that of any other public institution in the Province, he will find the result very favourable to the Kingston Institution.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—You say the Inspector does not confer with you as to the class of goods you should buy in these staple lines?

A.—The Inspector looks at the goods when he comes on a visit to the Institution, and does not find any fault; so we go on buying in the same way.

Q.—In your long experience as Bursar do you think it an advantage that the class of goods which you buy should be bought? The reason I ask is that your price is higher than that of any other institution?

A.—I think decidedly the better class of goods proves the cheapest in the long run.

Q.—Did the Inspector ever confer with you as to the prices you should pay?

A.—No; he never recommended higher or lower prices.

Q.—It was not at his instance that you bought higher priced goods?

A.—No; I think it was simply a result of my own experience.

By the CHAIRMAN.—Q.—You keep goods in store, do you not?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Does the Inspector examine them?

A.—Yes; and whenever he thinks it necessary, gives advice in regard to them.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—Do you buy grey or white blankets?

A.—Some grey, but principally white.

Q.—What do you pay per pound?

A.—I can't say exactly without referring to the accounts.

Q.—Then you don't know anything of the prices paid in other institutions for goods similar to those you are accustomed to purchase?

A.—No, I don't; except from the Public Accounts.

Q.—In the purchase of your groceries, Mr. Anglin, do you simply compare the prices of a couple of houses in the city, or do you go to various other houses?

A.—I don't go about much, I must say, outside of those two houses. I think I can buy as reasonably and as cheap there as anywhere else.

Q.—Do you find that you can't buy goods as cheap from McNee & Minns as from the other firm?

A.—No; they are about the same.

Q.—Do you think you are buying at just as much advantage now as when you were buying at such a large wholesale business?

A.—Yes; it is about the same.

Q.—Is it not natural that a large wholesale business house can sell cheaper than a smaller house?

A.—Naturally.

Q.—And having that in view, have you endeavoured to make your purchases on those supposed cheaper lines, or have you felt it your duty to purchase from persons with whom you had been accustomed to deal?

A.—I have always bought at the wholesale price. Mr. Gardiner goes to England once or twice a year, and imports much of the material he supplies us with. He does a considerable wholesale trade.

By Mr. H. E. CLARKE.—Q.—Did you get any instruction to change from McNee & Minns to the Gardiner firm?

A.—Yes; I was told to purchase from friends of the party provided other things are equal; also that that firm had had its share.

Q.—How long did you purchase goods from McNee and Minns?

A.—For a good many years. We had dealt with them under the Dominion Government, that is, while the institution remained under the charge of the Dominion Government, and after it was transferred to the Provincial Government, we continued with them.

By Mr. FRENCH.—Q.—The Dominion Government dealt with them under contract, I presume?

A.—Oh no.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—The Dominion Government bought goods in the same way as you are doing at the present time?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And that has been your practice ever since?

A.—Yes.

Q.—At a certain period you were told that a certain person had had share enough?

A.—The Inspector told me when the transfer was made that the rule was to purchase from the friends of the Government when the prices were the same.

By the CHAIRMAN.—Q.—Did you purchase for the Institution before the transfer was made?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And what system did you pursue then?

A.—Well, a few things were contracted for—meat, for instance; and terrible meat it was too.

By Mr. BALLANTYNE.—Q.—Do you think the present system is better than that which you followed then?

A.—I do.

By Mr. A. M. ROSS.—Q.—Do you think groceries could be advantageously contracted for?

A.—I do not.

Q.—You would find it very difficult, would you not, to confine a dealer to a particular sample of tea, for instance?

A.—Very difficult. Even buying as we do at present it is very difficult to keep everything at a proper standard all the time.

Q.—Although you have the privilege of changing them if you wish to do so, and they know it?

A.—Yes.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—When you were told that you should buy from the friends of the Government you made a change?

A.—After a little time.

Q.—Did you feel yourself bound to make the change?

A.—My instructions were not absolute. They were simply to give friends of the Government the preference in buying goods. I was not asked to give them any advantage. Mr. Langmuir, the Inspector, was very positive as to that point.

Q.—And did you compare the prices of the two houses before making a change?

A.—I knew the prices of the other house, and it was not necessary for me to compare them.

By Mr. A. M. Ross.—Q.—You have an intimate knowledge of what the prices should be?

A.—Yes.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—But I thought you said the goods varied so that it would be difficult to make comparisons?

A.—So they do, in some lines.

Q.—And you did not make any comparison of prices at the time of the change?

A.—I don't remember that I made any actual comparison.

Q.—Are not the heads of the firms of Gardiner Bros. and Redden active supporters of the Government?

A.—They are friends of the Government.

Q.—But are they not active supporters?

A.—I don't know what you mean by "active." I suppose they are active at times.

Q.—Have you compared during the past year the prices you are paying Gardiner with those you paid McNee and Minns?

A.—In certain lines of goods I have done so.

Q.—If you had found that the prices you were paying were higher than those you could have obtained the same articles for from the other firm, would you have considered yourself at liberty to change?

A.—If there had been any serious discrepancy, I would have consulted the Inspector.

Q.—Don't you think you ought to be at liberty to do so?

A.—I don't think so.

By Mr. A. M. ROSS.—Q.—But practically you have found yourself at liberty to do so when any case of that kind has occurred?

A.—Yes.

By Mr. HARDY.—Q.—I have had this complaint made in regard to some of the bursars—that they are in the habit of going from one place to another, and quoting at one place the price at which they can purchase certain articles at another place, with the object of making one place undersell another. You are not in the habit of doing that, I suppose, Mr. Anglin?

A.—No, I don't do that.

Q.—Have you ever had instructions definitely and directly, or otherwise, to allow persons to sell goods to you at high prices?

A.—Certainly not.

Q.—Not the slightest intimation of the kind in any way?

A.—No.

Q.—The instructions given you have been simply to buy from Reformers when you can get your goods as cheap from them as elsewhere?

A.—Yes.

By Mr. FRENCH.—Q.—Do you know the firm of A. Strachan in Kingston? They are dealers in paints and oils?

A.—Yes.

Q.—You have had dealings with them during the past year?

A.—Yes.

Mr. FRENCH called for certain records of accounts with the firm.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—Speaking of the tender system so far as this class of goods before you is concerned, Mr. Anglin (referring to shirtings, etc.), don't you think this is one of the things that could very well be tendered for?

A.—Perhaps so, if we were provided with samples.

Q.—Do you not think it would be a good thing to have them tendered for?

A.—I suppose if we had the samples, they might be tendered for.

Q.—If you had samples of tweeds could they not be tendered for?

A.—I suppose they could be.

By Mr. HARDY.—Q.—Where is that made (holding up Inspector's sample of shirting)?

A.—In Dundas.

Q.—What does it cost?

A.—Fifteen cents a yard.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—You also bought some from Hughes Brothers, did you not?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And what did you pay them?

A.—The same price, and the carriage down.

Q.—Then you made nothing by purchasing from them?

A.—I did not make the purchase.

Q.—Who made the purchase?

A.—The Inspector.

Q.—I have heard that Hughes Bros. were out of business at this time?

A.—I don't know anything about that.

Q.—I suppose you have to give special orders for these goods?

A.—For some of them.

Q.—Could not those be tendered for?

A.—Well, special orders are only required for the goods of which the attendants' uniforms are required.

By Mr. BALFOUR.—Q.—If you were confined to one line of goods you would have to keep uniformity in dress among all lunatics, would you not?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And that would be objectionable, I suppose?

A.—Yes; they are as crazy as sane people on the subject of dress.

Q.—Was it ever the practice to dress them in a uniform manner?

A.—I don't think so.

Q.—And you could not as well obtain this variety by tenders on a fixed line of goods as you can by following your present system?

A.—No.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—You don't know if there is a special order given to the manufacturers for those goods?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—These others (showing samples of goods used for inmates) are the main class of goods used?

A.—Yes.

“ B.”

By Mr. FRENCH.—Q.—Now, do you remember what was the amount of Mr. Strachan's account in 1886?

A.—No; I don't recollect.

Q.—No; I suppose not; well do you remember using that year a large quantity of Japan?

A.—I don't remember using more than in other years.

Q. So that during that year it is not likely there was a greater quantity used than during the past year?

A.—I think not.

Q.—For what purposes is it used?

A.—Painters use it for drying paint, etc.

Q.—How much do you generally use during the year?

A.—Ten or twelve gallons, I dare say.

Q.—During 1886, I see in this account of Strachan's there is five gallons in January, and five gallons more in October; so that is about the quantity you use?

A.—Yes.

Q.—You would use about that quantity every year?

A.—I think so.

Q.—Do you ever attempt to buy from anywhere else than from Strachan?

A.—Yes; I have bought from three or four other persons (giving names).

Q.—What do you pay per gallon for it?

A.—About $1.20 to $1.25 per gallon.

Q.—You are satisfied that is the value of the stuff?

A.—That is about it.

Q.—Do you ever go as high as $1.50?

A.—Perhaps I have purchased it as high as that, but very seldom. Of course it varies in quality, but we don't often want a higher priced material.

Q.—You don't use Japan of higher value than the figures you have named.

A.—I think not. There is, however, a coach-maker's Japan which is still higher in price. We don't use more than a gallon or two of that in a year.

Q.—What would you pay for it?

A.—Some of it is as high as four dollars a gallon.

Q.—You heard of what was said in the House the other day about the Strachan account?

A.—Yes, and I don't believe it is so.

Q.—You don't remember buying any carriage varnish from Strachan?

A.—No.

Q.—(Reading account). There is a charge here "five gallons of Japan, $15, at $3 per gallon." Now, in face of what you have said, how is it you have paid three dollars per gallon for varnish?

A.—It may be varnish of a higher quality.

Q.—The Japan you require can be got there for $1.20 or $1.25 you say, I have heard it could be got for eighty cents; but we won't go into that. Now, look at this account and see if you can understand it?

A.—Well, I don't buy these things at my own option. The painter makes out a requisition of what he wants, the Medical Superintendent signs it, and I go and buy it.

Q.—But you make the purchase ?

A.—Yes.

By Mr. HARDY.—Q.—How do you explain the purchase of varnish at $3 ?

A.—Well, I can't call to mind easily the facts of a small transaction in 1886.

Q.—There was no job in it ?

A.—Oh ! no.

By Mr. FRENCH.—Q.—In October of the same year, you purchased five gallons more at $20. Can you explain the purchase of that at four dollars a gallon ; and in January, five gallons more at three dollars, making fifteen gallons in all, or fifty dollars worth of japan in one year ?

A.—I can't explain these points just now, the transactions occurred so long ago. If the Japan was purchased, I am sure it was needed. The painter could no doubt explain. I can get the explanation from him, and send it to you.

Q.—Do you get a regular kit of tools at the Asylum ? I see an account with Strachan for four brushes at six dollars. That is $1.25 each. Is that the usual price ?

A.—You can get them as high as $1.50 or $1.75.

Q.—Do you buy them at wholesale or retail prices ?

A.—Retail ; you can't buy three or four brushes at wholesale price.

Q.—There are six more brushes at $1.50 each ?

A.—Yes, I remember buying those particular brushes. They are painter's brushes ; pound brushes they are called, and are made of long Russian hair. I bought them at Skinner's wholesale store and other places, and as much as $1.75 is sometimes asked for them. You can buy them from $2 to $20 a dozen.

Q.—You think then there is no foundation in fact for the charge that the brushes you bought are worth only forty cents ?

A.—Certainly not.

Q.—Would you be able to satisfy this Committee there is no foundation for the charge ?

A.—I don't know what would satisfy them. These brushes proved the cheapest in the end. The painter must have them.

Q.—One more question. It is charged that in the purchase of soap you allow the dealers to make a dollar a box profit on the wholesale price. Have you anything to say to that ?

A.—I don't think the statement has any foundation. There are different kinds of soap. There is the common brown soap at two dollars a box, and the Globe soap, better and higher priced. I have heard of this charge, but we have not paid a dollar beyond the manufacturers' prices.

Q.—There is no foundation in the charge that you could have got it cheaper by dealing with another person than by dealing with the persons you have dealt with ?

A.—No.

Q.—But you know you don't seem to be a free agent altogether in the matter of purchasing ?

A.—I am pretty free.

Q.—You seem to be in this position ; you are instructed by the government that where you can purchase from their friends you are to give them the preference ; you deal with Strachan and with Gardiner for instance, and if you find that they are charging you too much, you do not feel justified in quitting them without consulting the Inspector. That is what I understand, am I right ?

A.—I should prefer not to act without consulting the Inspector ; but I have a good many people with whom I deal and could go from one to another.

At this point a member of the Committee looking over Mr. Strachan's account for the varnish above mentioned, observed that the varnish in question was called " C. P. Japan," and that there was a deduction in the account on account of varnish returned.

By the CHAIRMAN.—Q.—What is the meaning of " C. P. Japan ?"

A.—That is the Coach Painters' Japan.

Q.—I see there is a deduction of $14.50 on this account, will you state to the Committee how it appears there ?

A.—Yes ; I remember now. Just now I could not remember the facts of the matter. That amount was deducted on account of varnish he sent me being returned to him.

Q.—And why was it returned to him ?

A.—Because I could get it cheaper from another party. Get Skinner's account for the same time, and you will find I got it cheaper from him.

By Mr. FRENCH.—Q.—You found you were being imposed upon by Mr. Strachan ?

A.—I found that he was charging me more than I could get the same goods for at another place. He may have been supplying me with a better quality of goods, though.

Q.—But you did not discover this until out of fifty dollar's worth you had used all but $14.50 worth ?

A.—I daresay the varnish he supplied was of a higher quality, and that the higher quality was needed. I explain that the 5 gallons of Japan ordered from Strachan in October, 1886, and charged at $4 per gallon. I found the price charged was too high, and bought from H. Skinner & Co. 5 gallons Japan at $1.10 per gallon, which answered our purpose, costing $5.50. We procured this Japan through Strachan, and deducted from Strachan's account in December, 1886, $14.50, being the difference between the two Japans. The original Japan was returned to Mr. Strachan, none of which was used at the asylum.

Q.—But as a matter of fact, you found he was charging you too much ?

A.—Upon a certain quality, or else was sending me a better quality than I needed. I don't remember which.

Q.—Did you ever discover any similar proceedings in connection with any other goods than this ?

A.—No.

Q.—Do you examine closely the prices of all the goods you buy ?

A.—Well ; we know the prices of the goods we generally buy.

Q.—And this is the only case of which you have any recollection where you bought them at a higher price than you could get them for at another place ?

A.—This is the only case I recollect.

Q.—Did you tell Mr. Strachan your reason for returning the varnish ?

A.—Yes ; and he said he could not afford to sell it to me any cheaper than the prices named in his bill. I told him we could get it at a cheaper price and would have to send it back.

Q.—And what price did you get it for from the other dealer ?

A.—I think it was $1.10 or $1.20, but it was probably not so good a quality of varnish.

Q.—Well ; that is satisfactory so far. I suppose when you returned the varnish he allowed you full price ?

A.—Yes.

Q.—What was the large amount of work going on that caused so much varnish to be required.

A.—I don't exactly recollect ; but we are all the time painting the corridors and the walls, and some part or other of the building.

Q.—You remember you told me that you don't require more than about ten or twelve gallons in a year, with only a gallon or two of carriage varnish.

A.—Yes.

Q.—Then why did you permit him to furnish you with so much Japan of so good a quality ? The price he charged you was much too high, was it not, for Japan for the purposes for which you would require it ?

A.—Well ; perhaps he bought a different quality of Japan, which may have been well worth the money he charged. But the quality I got from Skinner suited me just as well.

Q.—Well, you did your duty apparently ; but is it not a matter of general complaint in Kingston—you are an old resident there I believe—that the supplies to the government institutions are not given out by tender ? Is it not a frequent cause of complaint among a certain class of people—call them Tories if you will—that the same course is not pursued in reference to the Dominion institution ?

A.—There may be some complaint, I don't hear much of it, I don't think there is much difference as to our manner of buying. The flour, coal and beef are tendered for at the penitentiary, and flour, beef and butter are tendered for at the asylum. There may be some other differences.

By the CHAIRMAN.—Q.—Is there not a greater variety required in the food purchased for the asylum than in that purchased for the inmates of the penitentiary ?

A.—Yes.

Q.—So that it would be more difficult to contract for supplying the one place than the other ?

A.—Yes ; certainly.

By Mr. FRENCH.—Q.—In reference to the matter of painting in the penitentiary—Do the inmates do it themselves ?

A.—I am unable to say.

Q.—Is there any officer at the penitentiary who is charged with running down to Strachan's for instance, and buying a gallon of varnish?

A.—I don't know. I know there is a store-keeper there named Macdonald; but he would not be likely to go to Strachan's for his goods.

Q.—And why not?

A.—Because he does not belong to the school of politics.

Q.—Did you make an inspection of these goods purchased from Hughes Bros., when they got down there?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Did you find them up to the standard?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Do you think you could have bought them as cheaply in Kingston?

A.—I think so.

Q.—So you are out the amount paid on the carriage of the goods down there. Was there any object in buying from them?

A.—I don't know any thing about that.

Q.—Do you know anything of the firm?

A.—I know they are wholesale merchants; no more.

By the CHAIRMAN.—Q.—Did you receive anything from Messrs. Hughes Bros. during the past year?

A.—Yes.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—It does not appear in the public accounts?

A.—I think it came after the close of the financial year, in November or December.

By the CHAIRMAN.—Q.—You know about how much a box of soap contains?

A.—About forty or fifty pounds, I think.

Q.—And about what price per pound is it?

A.—About four or five cents.

Q.—Would it be possible for a person to make a dollar on every box in his dealing with you?

A.—I don't see how he could do it.

By Mr. WATERS.—Q.—How long have you been bursar of the institution?

A.—About 17 years.

Q.—Which system do you consider the better—purchasing by contract, or as you are doing at present?

A.—I consider the present system the best and most economical. Perhaps we might have some dry goods contracted; certain lines of tweeds and blankets.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—(Holding up certain varieties of shirtings.) You buy large quantities of both of these varieties?

A.—Yes; dresses and shirts are made indiscriminately out of it.

Q.—Have any higher priced goods than this been used within the past year?

A.—No.

Q.—There is a sample of lower priced goods I imagine. (Shewing certain sample)?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Where was that purchased?

A.—From Murray & Taylor.

Q.—Well; since the dresses and shirts are made indiscriminately out of this, and you have told the Committee that you believe it to be in the interest of the public that a pretty good class of goods should be bought, you have of your own notion purchased these goods. What is the object of these lower priced goods?

A.—I don't know that there is any particular object.

Q.—Do you ever buy the lower priced class of goods?

A.—Sometimes.

Q.—I find here a bill from Murray & Taylor for shirting in September, at ten cents a yard. What about that?

A.—That, I think, would be cotton, in all probability.

Q.—For what purpose would it be used?

A.—It could be used for either shirting or dresses.

Q.—But you said it was in the interest of the public that you should buy at fifteen cents. and yet you purchase this at ten cents a yard?

A.—It was as good as anything else for the purpose.

Q.—Then why not use it all together?

A.—We don't want to give them all the same class of goods. I don't know of any object in doing so.

By Mr. HARDY.—Q.—Does the matron assist you in buying?

A.—The matron sometimes assists me in making purchases.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—I want to settle this account. For what purpose do you say this cheap class of material was used?

A.—The matron sometimes goes with me to make purchases. She has charge of a certain class of clothing.

Q.—Then of your own knowledge, you don't know for what purposes some of the goods thus purchased are used? Now, I think you can buy very good cotton for 8 or 9 cents at retail, can you not?

A.—I suppose so.

Q.—I see there is a bale of cotton 1,025 yards, at 10½ cents, on the 14th July of last year. Can you explain that?

A.—It must be very heavy cotton at that price.

Mr. BALFOUR.—Perhaps it was sheeting.

By the CHAIRMAN.—Q.—Do you remember the width of it?

A.—I do not.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—Did you buy wholesalesale or retail?

A.—Wholesale.

Q.—You did not bring a sample of it?

A.—No; I was not asked to do so.

Q.—There was another bale of cotton 1,183 yards, in October, at ten cents. Do you compare the prices of cotton in buying these large bales? Ten cents would be considered, I understand, a very high retail price. I may say I had occasion to buy very strong cottons very recently, and I bought them at 8 cents?

A.—We get the very heaviest cotton.

Q.—You still adhere to what you said, that good cottons can be bought for 8 cents?

A.—Oh yes; fit for linings, etc.; we can get cottons for 6 cents fit for curtains, etc.

Q.—Do you ever use that for lining shirts?

A.—I don't think so.

Q.—In making the purchase of this cotton, and having at the same time the knowledge that cotton could be got retail at the price you named just now, were you not surprised at the figure of ten cents being asked for it?

A.—No.

Q.—And how is that?

A.—Because we buy the very heaviest cotton that can be got.

Q.—What is the retail price of these cottons?

A.—I don't know; I don't think they retail the very heaviest quality. I have no absolute knowledge, but I don't think so.

Q.—Was this order given by you specially to Mr. Gardiner, to get this class of goods.

A.—Yes.

Q.—You don't really know then whether he was paid too much or not?

A.—I don't think he was paid too much.

By Mr. AWREY.—Q.—When purchasing, have you not a knowledge of wholesale prices from lists that are furnished you?

A.—Yes.

Q.—It has been said that varnish can be purchased at from 80 cents upwards. What do your prices show?

A.—There is the price list of A. G. Peuchen & Co., of Toronto.

Q.—Now, I want to ask you, Mr. Anglin if this account presented by Strachan did not undergo a very careful supervision before being paid?

A.—It did.

Q.—(To Chairman) Take the account for 1886, and look at the last item, you will see that in the account he is charged two dollars for a half gallon. (To witness, giving him the account). What did you reduce the account by?

A.—I reduced it down to $1.50.

Q.—Was it for the reason that from price lists furnished you, you knew he was charging you more than wholesale prices?

A.—From that fact and from my knowledge of prices generally, I knew his charges were too high.

Q.—So in the same manner, when an account is presented from any firm in which prices higher than wholesale prices are charged you reduce them?

A.—Yes, when my knowledge is sufficient.

Q.—Mr. French makes you say there is a complaint as to the provincial system of purchasing, as compared with the system pursued by the Dominion in connection with the penitentiary. Can you say that there is more purchased by tender in connection with the penitentiary than in connection with the asylum?

A.—I did not say there was a general complaint; the only point in the system of purchasing in which I know the penitentiary to be different from the asylum is that of meat. It is tendered for at the penitentiary, but I think you might almost say we purchase ours by tender.

Q.—You believe that the system pursued at one place is very much that of the other?

A.—Very much; I am not certain whether they do not buy groceries by tender at the penitentiary.

By Mr. BALLANTYNE.—Q.—You endeavor to have your prices run with what is the current value of the different articles you require from time to time, I suppose?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And there is no discount allowed to you personally?

A.—No.

Q.—Mr. Clancy asked you just now if eight cents per yard was not a fair price for cotton, you said "yes." Do you mean that is a fair price for the same cotton for which you paid ten cents per yard?

A.—Oh no; this ten cent cotton is entirely different.

Q.—It is not the same kind as the eight cent, you mean?

A.—Not at all.

By Mr. HARDY.—Q.—You say the Inspector, when this institution was taken over from the Dominion in 1877, instructed you to buy your goods from friends of the government when prices were the same. I suppose you understood him to speak as the head of the department, and not in a private capacity?

A.—Oh yes.

By Mr. H. E. CLARKE.—Q.—You say there is a strict supervision of accounts?

A.—Yes.

Q.—What is it ?

A.—I take them and examine them with the storekeeper, check them with his books and see that they correspond with his entries. If we find that anybody has charged us above what we have usually paid to these or other people for the same goods, we deduct the excess. We have examined the accounts very closely before they came up here for audit.

Q.—You say there were large purchases made from Hughes Bros. last year, can you say what they were ?

A.—I did not say “large purchases,” I said “purchases.”

Q.—You said they did not appear in the public accounts ?

A.—No ; I think they came in after the public accounts for the year were made up—in October or November, perhaps even December.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—You said the cottons you bought at ten cents a yard are not of the class generally retailed, and that cottons that are generally retailed are sold at eight cents ?

A.—Yes ; from eight to ten cents ; but there are some cottons sold cheaper than eight cents.

Q.—Therefore Mr. Gardiner sold you a superior kind of cotton ?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Did you compare the prices that he said he would furnish you the cotton for with any other prices ?

A.—It was difficult to do that, but we had the cotton in stock ourselves and knew what we wanted and what we ought to pay for it.

Q.—What did you order ?

A.—I gave him an order for the heaviest kind of cotton made.

Q.—Then you went to him and said you wanted so many yards of the heaviest kind of cotton made ?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And did you ask anybody else the prices for these goods ?

A.—I don't know that I did.

Q.—Then you don't really know whether you paid too high a price or not ?

A.—I am pretty sure he did not get too much

By Mr. HARDY.—Q.—Was there any earthly reason why you should give Mr Gardiner a fraction more than anybody else ?

A.—No.

Q.—Was not that cotton for sheeting ?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And you could not get it for eight cents per yard.

A.—Oh no.

Mr. AWREY.—Here is another instance of the careful supervision of the accounts. In the bill for goods purchased on August 15th, 1888, in an item of $9.00, for white lead, I see there is a reduction of $1.50 made in the revision of the accounts.

WM. ANGLIN,
Bursar.

Mr. French also examined paper re Kingston Asylum.

Mr. French moved, That the accounts of A. Strachan re Kingston Asylum for July, October, December, February, in the year 1886, be brought forthwith for examination.

The motion being put, was carried, and the papers brought down and laid upon the table and examined by Mr. French.

The Committee ordered Mr. Anglin to send written explanation of certain items for Japan, appearing in the accounts of A. Strachan in 1886.

Mr. Anglin's evidence being concluded, he retired.

The Committee next proceeded to examine paper re purchases of meat.

On motion the further consideration of the above papers and the examination of Mr. R. Hunter in connection therewith was postponed until Thursday next at 10 o'clock, and the Clerk instructed to inform Mr. Hunter in accordance therewith.

The Clerk informed Mr. Hunter accordingly.

On motion the Committee adjourned until next Thursday, at 10 o'clock a.m.

TREASURER'S OFFICE,
THURSDAY, 7th March, 1889.

The Committee met, pursuant to adjournment, at 10 o'clock a.m.

Present:

Mr. Clarke (Wellington), Chairman.

Messieurs Awrey,
Ballantyne,
Clancy,
Clarke, H. E. (Toronto),
Harcourt,

Messieurs McLaughlin,
Kerns,
O'Connor,
Ross (Huron),
Wood (Brant)—10.

The Committee took up for examination papers re purchases of meat by R. Hunter, Government buyer.

In reply to the Chairman, the Clerk stated that Mr. R. Hunter was in attendance.

Mr. R. Hunter called, sworn and examined, evidence taken by shorthand writer, appended and marked "C".

"C."

MR. HUNTER, being sworn, was examined, and deposed as follows:—

By Mr. H. E. CLARKE.—Q.—What is your position under the Government, Mr. Hunter?

A.—I suppose I might call myself Government butcher.

Q.—Who is your chief?

A.—Dr. O'Reilly, I suppose.

Q.—About what is the amount of purchases you make during a year?

A.—Somewhere about sixty thousand dollars' worth, I think.

Q.—What do they cover?

A.—Sheep, milch cows, hogs and everything like that.

Q.—Nothing but live cattle?

A.—No.

Q.—Do you buy for all the institutions throughout the country?

A.—For all the principal ones—Kingston, Hamilton, London and two or three others in Toronto.

Q.—How are they bought?

A.—Always live cattle.

Q.—Do you buy no hay, straw, oats, or anything of that sort?

A.—I buy the hay for the slaughter-house.

Q.—(Reading from the Accounts)—November 13th, 13 head of cattle, 66 hindquarter, 42 forequarters. What do these entries represent?

A.—The delivery from the slaughter-house to the institutions.

Q.—Who is the Inspector? Do you inspect the cattle yourself?

A.—I buy the cattle and I make a personal examination.

Q.—Do you keep a stock of cattle on hand? Do you buy here?

A.—When there is a glut here, I mostly buy in Toronto. Sometimes I go west.

Q.—When you buy heads of cattle do you get a bill from the dealer giving the number of cattle sold and the weight?

A.—I get receipts, not always giving weight. We don't always buy by weight. I just take a receipt. I get a load of cattle worth perhaps $800 or $900, I fill out the receipt and get the dealer's signature to it. That is the only acknowledgment I have for the cattle I buy.

Q.—The receipt shows the number of cattle and the weight?

A.—It shows the number, but not always the weight.

Q.—What account do you keep of these purchases when you make them?

A.—I enter the receipts in my receipt book. (Receipt book produced.)

By Mr. BALFOUR.—Q.—What do you do with the receipts afterwards?

A.—I return them to the Inspector's office.

By Mr. H. E. CLARKE.—Q.—When do you report these purchases?

A.—Whenever I want money I return these receipts and get $2,000 more.

Q.—In what way do you get money from the Treasury Department?

A.—I get cheques for $2,000 at a time.

Q.—And you cash this two thousand dollar cheque, and keep the money in your pocket until you have spent it?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Then you report your receipts and get another cheque for the same amount?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Would it not be better to get a bill from the dealer and have this as a voucher?

A.—I get a receipt from the dealer, which does the same thing.

Q.—What is the usual custom with the cattle buyers in this respect?

A.—Oh, generally they take no receipts or anything else,

Q.—But would it not be possible for such a man to report that he had paid  $4\frac{1}{2}$  cents instead of  $4\frac{1}{4}$  cents per pound?

A.—He could not if the receipt is given.

Q.—But the receipt does not say how many pounds?

A.—No; we don't weigh them always.

Q.—When you do weigh them it shows the number of pounds?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Who weighs them?

A.—The city weigh man. Afterwards they are weighed by the steward at the asylum.

Q.—You buy by the head, then, not knowing exactly what you may pay per pound?

A.—We can just buy them better that way than any other way.

Q.—What check has the Government over your expenditure?

A. They weigh all the cattle I send in to the different institutions, and a record is kept of the weight of every purchase in the Inspector's office, so that it can be compared with the market prices as published in the leading newspapers. So, you see, if I were to claim to have paid the dealer more than I actually did it would very soon appear by the comparison. You will see a return there which is kept in the Inspector's office, which shows the market prices and also the prices paid by me. Cattle will shrink 5 per cent. in shipping, and still, with all that against me, my prices stand the comparison very well. (The return referred to is produced and examined.)

Q.—That is the only check which they have over your expenditure, is it?

A.—That and the weighing after they leave my hands.

Q.—Now about this sum of $2,000. That amount is charged to yourself when you get it, and you have to account for the expenditure before you get any more?

A.—Yes; I have to give full account of the amount I have received, and don't get any more until the whole of one supply is used.

Q.—Do you get a receipt from the institutions for the supplies they receive ?

A.—No ; they send in their receipts to the Inspector. What I buy everywhere is weighed at the institutions, and some of it is weighed at the city weigh-house.

Q.—Do you keep a stock on hand ?

A. Sometimes ; at this time of year, for instance, when owing to the cold weather it is an advantage to do so.

Q.—You say they weigh the supplies you send in ?

A.—Yes, the steward sends a report to the Inspector of the number and weight of the cattle they each receive, and he has them entered up so that they have a check against me as to the number of cattle I buy and send in.

Q.—I suppose you are not very particular from whom you buy cattle ?

A.—No.

Q.—You have no particular preference for reform rather than conservative dealers ?

A.—No. I buy wherever I get the best bargains.

Q.—Were you ever accused of showing any preference to a dealer on account of his politics ?

A.—Not to a reform dealer ; but I have been accused by some of the butchers in the city with purchasing too much from the conservatives. There are times when I can do so with advantage.

Q.—But do you at any time or under any circumstances give any preference on account of politics ?

A.—No ; it makes no difference to me.

Mr. HARDY.—I know the drovers denounce you because you buy so much from the Tories, as they say.

By Mr. CLARKE.—Q.—Is there any difficulty in getting your supplies by tender ?

A.—I don't think it would be a good plan at all. For one thing, you would require to have an expert at each institution to keep the meat contractors up to the mark.

Q.—Well, is there not such an expert at each place ?

A.—No ; there may be at some, but I suppose not in every case. It would require a good deal of experience to know good beef, dead or alive. When I started I went around to some of the institutions and found they could not get along with the kind of beef they were getting under contract, it was so poor.

Q.—But that was the fault of the Inspector, was it not ?

A.—Well I can't say that it was. You see, they were grumbling and complaining all the time about the sort of meat they got. The fact was the butchers could not supply it at the prices.

Q.—You have heard no complaints since the present system was adopted ?

A.—No ; it seems to work very well.

Q.—But perhaps they don't feel like complaining of the head of a Department ?

A.—Oh, the institutions would complain as quickly of me as they would of the contractors if there was any occasion.

Q.—Well, what I principally wanted to find out was the check that is kept upon your purchases. You say they weigh your purchases at the institutions, and compare your prices with the market quotations?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And if your figures come within a reasonable distance of the market quotations that is supposed to be satisfactory?

A.—My prices are nearly always below the market prices, and I should hear about it if they went above them.

Q.—Now, when you have this amount of two thousand dollars to spend you might, or any man less honest than yourself might if he choose, buy at four and a quarter cents and report that he had bought at four and a half?

A.—If I did so I should get a note from Dr. O'Reilly.

Q.—But how would Dr. O'Reilly know?

A.—By the returns sent in.

The CHAIRMAN.—Q.—Mr. Clarke thinks you could buy half a cent below the market price?

A.—I do sometimes.

By Mr. CLARKE.—Q.—Are they always satisfied if you are within range of the market price?

A.—If my returns are satisfactory.

Q.—You know sometimes people will sell very much below the market price. They may desire to get the cash right down?

A.—Well, I have bought cattle in the city at a hundred dollars a load less than other people have paid.

Q.—And the comparison is the only check they have over this expenditure?

A.—Yes, but I think it is a very good check.

Q.—You don't know how any other check could be kept on you?

A.—No. The present system gives my weights and the prices. I don't know of any better one.

Q.—You think anything wrong could be figured out?

A.—I think it would show.

Q.—You don't know how the weight of the cattle is taken at the institutions, I suppose. You see, you have to make allowance for so much?

A.—Everything is taken into account in the weighing. The hides, etc., are weighed and included under the head of offal.

By Mr. BALLANTYNE.—Q.—After all I suppose, Mr. Hunter, that the only real check is your own integrity and capacity?

A.—Well, I don't know; I don't think a man could go very far wrong without being found out.

By Mr. CLARKE.—Q.—It would not be a very good thing for a man who was not honest, would it?

A.—I don't think he could do very much wrong.

Q.—Don't you think you would have a more complete check if you were to get a bill from the cattle dealer at the time you make your purchases?

A.—I think it would be very difficult to do that.

Q.—I have heard that a farmer will sign almost anything of that kind that he is asked to. He might sign one of your receipts without looking to see if it was two hundred pounds or sixteen hundred pounds that you claimed to have bought from him?

A.—On the contrary, a farmer will read over anything he is going to sign very carefully indeed. He is afraid of signing a note, or something of the kind.

By Mr. A. M. ROSS.—Q.—Do you think the cattle could be purchased as cheaply by tender as under the present system.

A.—I don't think so. Suppose a person were tendering for a year, he would have to take into account the fluctuations and in attempting to go to a low figure he would end by supplying meat of a low quality.

Q.—I suppose you buy as advantageously as the cattle dealers will allow?

A.—I get the best bargains I can.

By Mr. McLAUGHLIN.—Q.—You buy nothing but the best of beef in the market?

A.—That is all.

Q.—And you find that more in the interests of the institution than the quality you obtained by tender?

A.—Yes.

Q.—I see in this statement here that on the third of December, 1888, for instance, you purchased 2,300 pounds of beef at the rate of $3.44. The market quotation is $3.75. Why is there so large a difference?

A.—I suppose got a good bargain and bought cheap that day.

Q.—What price did you pay for the average carload of beef?

A.—Well, it varies a good deal.

Q.—But tell me in round numbers?

A.—About from seven hundred to nine hundred dollars.

Q.—So that the purchase of a couple of carloads would exhaust almost your allowance of two thousand dollars?

A.—There would not be much of it left.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—You usually buy on the market?

A.—Generally.

Q.—Are those market reports in the newspapers generally correct?

A.—They are generally very near the mark. Sometimes the cattle cost a little more than the report in the paper. The drover does not give the reporter the correct figures.

Q.—The market reports for some days then are below the real figures ?

A.—Occasionally.

Q.—Yet your figures seem to be generally below the market quotations according to this statement ?

A.—I think they generally are.

Q.—Then, do you mean to say, Mr. Hunter, that you can buy cheaper than other people ?

A.—I think I can sometimes do so. You see it is cash business for the dealers, and I generally am ready to buy a carload.

Q.—But it appears from these reports that you have bought cheaper than anybody else ?

A.—Well, I have bought loads of cattle in the market on which I could have made a hundred dollars.

Q.—But other people have the same chance ?

A.—Yes.

Q.—What class of cattle do you generally buy ?

A.—The class known as butcher cattle.

Q.—What is that like ?

A.—Well, it means keeping up with the export trade generally.

Q.—Is it not a fact that a rather large class of what you buy is rather a low grade of butchers' cattle ? Does it not include, for instance, bulls that have been castrated at the age of one or two years, and which it is hard to class as butchers' cattle ?

A.—No.

Q.—Do you not sometimes buy a steer that was castrated when he was a calf ?

A.—Oh, occasionally one of them is found in a carload.

Q.—Are they not low in price ?

A.—They would be if they were not well up in quality. But unless they were well up in quality they would not be considered straight cattle, and I would not buy them. If they were in good condition they would not be sold at a low price.

Q.—Is that class of cattle bought for export ?

A.—Oh yes ; more for export than for any other purpose. Sometimes they get very heavy, up to fifteen hundred or seventeen hundred pounds, and are very fat. I don't buy them unless they are very fat and in very good condition.

Q.—A good many cattle have a cancer of the jaw. You don't buy them, I suppose ?

A.—No ; I just buy good butcher cattle.

Q.—The dry cows you buy are taken to the institutions and fed up and afterwards killed, are they not ?

A.—I don't buy dry cows for the institutions.

Q.—When you send a load of cattle to Kingston, for instance, do you accompany them yourself ?

A.—No.

Q.—Are they killed immediately ?

A.—A couple of days afterwards.

Q.—They are taken off the train and weighed ?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Have you seen them weighed ?

A.—No, I have not been there when they were weighed.

Q.—How do you know they are weighed off the train ?

A.—Because I know those are the instructions, and when I have been there I have been told about them. I believe the instructions are carried out. I generally know the weight pretty well.

Q.—But you don't always have them weighed ?

A.—No ; but I generally have a pretty good knowledge without weighing them.

Q.—Do you know to three or four or five or six pounds ?

A.—I would not like to have to estimate so close as that on a carload.

Q.—Well, take twenty or two and twenty head of cattle, including bullocks weighing 1,000 or 1,150 pounds each. Would it be out of the way for you to go fifty pounds each off on the bullocks ? Would not even that be considered very close buying at estimate ?

A.—No ; we can generally get within seven or eight pounds of the weight of a good bullock. A man who was fifty pounds off would not be a good judge.

Q.—When you send a load of cattle to an institution you expect certain weights ?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And when you get the returns back you conclude they have dealt fairly with you at the institution if the weights are what you expected ?

A.—Yes.

Q.—They are supposed to weigh them off the car ?

A.—Yes ; I always understood so.

Q.—It would make a great difference if they were not weighed until next day, would it not ?

A.—Yes ; a great difference against me.

Q.—Did you ever enquire if the regulation in question was carried out properly ?

A.—I have always understood it to be so ; I never heard anything to the contrary.

By the CHAIRMAN.—Q.—Have you seen the cattle weighed at the Toronto Asylum ?

A.—Yes ; it is weighed there for all the Toronto institutions.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—(Looking at accounts.) I see here an entry of $200 paid for five cows, fed on the asylum farm at Kingston. They are killed there and used, I suppose?

A.—Yes.

Q.—So, in that instance, you bought from the asylum and sold to the asylum?

A.—Yes; we buy a very nice quality of milch cows, and when they are dry and are not paying for their feed we kill them.

Q.—But what is the object of your buying them from the asylum and sending them back to the asylum again?

A.—To keep the accounts straight, I suppose.

Q.—I don't understand that. Is it anybody's business to check these transactions?

Mr. A. M. ROSS.—The transactions act as a check upon each other—the institution on Mr. Hunter, and Mr. Hunter on the institution.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—Who made the purchase?

A.—I did.

Q.—You were not there?

A.—No; I have an arrangement with the authorities of the institution when the cows are dry to take them out and weigh them, and to send me the weights; then I am to buy them.

Q.—It seems to me to be a very strange system of book-keeping. This transaction is simply gone through on paper. You receive the weight of the dry cows from Mr. Anglin. Then the bursar sells the cows to you. You have no weight but that given to you by the bursar?

A.—I have the butcher's weight.

Q.—Is that the case in every one of these transactions?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Do you go there to see the cattle killed?

A.—No.

Q.—Would it not be possible for them to exaggerate the weight of the animals if they felt inclined to do so?

A.—Not very well. I know the quality, and am pretty sure as to the weight. I tell the butcher what cows are to be killed. He kills them at a certain time, and they send me the returns, and I send the money.

Q.—Do you know what ones he takes out and kills?

A.—I receive his returns.

By Mr. BALLANTYNE.—Q.—But, Mr. Hunter, is it of any importance to you or to any other person to know what animals he chooses?

A.—No; not in any way.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—Is it not then, following upon what Mr. Ballantyne has said, a matter of fact that the Province buys and sells things that it knows nothing of?

A.—No; it is not the case.

Q.—You don't go to Kingston when you make those purchases?

A.—Not generally.

Q.—Were you in this case—20th February last?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Well, now, there are five dry cows bought in this case. Will you swear that you know these five dry cows to be the ones for which you gave the receipt?

A.—I ought to know, for I purchased them.

Q.—But are you sure these are the same ones?

A.—I know they are, by their weights.

Q.—Do you know they are weighed beforehand?

A.—I suppose so. I know they are good fat cows.

Q.—How do you know that?

A.—I know they are the cows that I purchased, and I know their size and weight.

Q.—How do you know they are the cows that you purchased?

A.—Well, the butcher is instructed by me to take the best and the fattest of the cows and weigh them and kill them and send me the weights.

By Mr. McLAUGHLIN.—Q.—You say they have to be up to a certain standard before they are killed?

A.—Yes.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—Do you go down to see if they are up to that standard?

A.—No; it is not necessary; I am sure.

Q.—Are you sure simply because they are said to be up to that standard?

A.—No; I can tell by the weights.

Q.—From whom do you get the weights?

A.—From the steward.

Q.—But do you know their weights before they go in as milch cows?

A.—Well, I might put a cow in there weighing a thousand pounds, and she might come out weighing thirteen hundred pounds or otherwise. I know pretty well what they will weigh.

Q.—What difference would it make to the Province if they were not up to the standard?

A.—None, whatever; but I require them to be up to the standard.

By Mr. McLAUGHLIN.—Q.—Is it not to the interest of the institution that they should be up to the standard? Is there any object to be served in letting them fall below the standard?

A.—None, whatever, so far as I know.

---

By Mr A. M. ROSS.—Q.—It is that same institution that has to eat it, is it not?

A.—Yes.

By Mr. BALLANTYNE.—Q.—You are in the habit of visiting the institution, and can form an idea of what the cow will be?

A.—Yes.

Q.—There would be no fear of their taking a good milch cow?

A.—Oh, no.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—Suppose you paid more than these cattle were worth; for instance, you pay two hundred dollars and the cattle are worth but one hundred dollars. Would not, in that case, the Province be the loser of the difference of a hundred between the cost and the worth of your purchase, just as they would if you had made a similar purchase from an outsider?

A.—No; there would be no loss to the Province whatever.

Q.—I don't believe there is any collusion, but it seems to me there must be a difficulty in persons dealing where there is no responsibility. Some of the money may not have been paid. Practically, it is like a man paying the money and taking a receipt from himself.

Mr. A. M. ROSS.—Not by any means. The Bursar of the institution is charged with the money that is paid him, and if he receipts for $200 when he has only received $150, he would be fifty dollars out. He makes a return to the Department of all moneys he has received, and one return acts as a check upon the other. There is no opportunity whatever for anything in the shape of collusion.

Mr. Kerns examined accounts of Eastwood, Osborne, Kerr, Winnifrith re Hamilton Asylum, which had been asked for and ordered to be brought down.

Mr. O'Reilly produced statement showing meat supply December, 1888, monthly return and statement of meat delivered at the Asylum for the Insane, Toronto, by the Government buyer.

Mr. McLaughlin moved, That the statement produced, showing meat delivered at the Toronto asylum, be filed with the Clerk with instructions to enter the same upon the minutes of the Committee.

The motion being put was carried, statement filed, and the Clerk instructed in accordance therewith.

Mr. Hunter's evidence concluded.

Mr. Clancy moved, That Mr. O'Reilly, the Inspector who is present, be sworn.

The motion being put was carried.

Mr. O'Reilly sworn, examined; evidence taken by shorthand writer, appended, marked "D."

"D."

Dr. O'Reilly, Provincial Inspector of prisons and asylums, being sworn, gave evidence as follows:

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—Do you get the gross weight in the market reports, doctor?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Who does the checking of Hunter's returns with the market reports?

A.—An accountant in my office looks after it.

Q.—What papers are the reports taken from?

A.—Generally he takes them from the Globe, I think, sometimes perhaps from the other dailies.

Q.—Do you take any steps to see if whether the market reports in the newspapers are correct or not?

A.—Oh no; what steps could we take? Sometimes I find they show four dollars day after day, while Hunter, perhaps, has been buying at $3.75.

Q.—The market report does not amount to anything then?

A.—Oh yes; it is a guide to the public. The papers go to a good deal of trouble in connection with the matter. I know the Globe keeps a man whose business it is to report the cattle markets.

Q.—There is really no way of knowing exactly what Hunter buys?

A.—Well, there comes a point in these transactions when, from their nature, you must trust somebody. We trust Mr. Hunter, and I think he deserves the confidence we place in him. If he were to pay $3 50 for his purchases and charge us at the rate of $4.00, we could not, perhaps, check him the first time, but we would mighty soon find it out.

By Mr. A. M. ROSS.—Q.—You can only check him when he buys beyond the prices in the market reports?

A.—Yes, and that very rarely happens.

By Mr. BALLANTYNE.—Q.—You see a line of cattle quoted at so much per hundred, and twenty head sold at a certain figure, with the estimated weight?

A.—Yes.

Q.—You assume these statements to be accurate?

A.—We assume that these statements show what other people are paying for their meat. If Mr. Hunter's prices do not go above that, we consider it is all right.

Q.—But purchases are very frequently made below the market price?

A.—Yes; Mr. Hunter often does that.

By Mr. A. M. ROSS.—Q.—The only other system of purchasing beef would be by tender, would it not?

A.—I see no other way.

Q.—You have had some experience of that; how did it work?

A.—Well, it worked badly. There was general complaint as to food from all the asylums, and at last it came to the knowledge of the Government that every bull's hide for twelve months for inspection in the Government Inspector's office, came from the office of the Government contractor for meat.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—The inference was that the institutions had been supplied with bull's meat?

A.—Yes.

Q.—But was not the Inspector responsible for this? Could he not tell the difference?

A.—There had been constant complaint in the matter.

Q.—Was it not his duty to return the meat if it was inferior in quality?

A.—How could it be done? Here is the meat coming in the morning. The contractors know how to work these things. The people have to be fed on something. It was only because it was found that the contract system was so thoroughly unworkable that it was abandoned.

Q.—Has there been any complaint since this system was adopted?

A.—Very little; sometimes I would get a complaint against Hunter to the effect that one animal in a carload was not up to the standard. I would call Hunter to account and he would explain.

Q.—But the beef is generally good?

A.—Yes. At my own table, and travelling all over the Province, at the hotel table, I never taste as good beef anywhere as at the asylum.

By the CHAIRMAN.—Q.—And as a Government official, I suppose you take care to stop at good hotels?

A.—You bet!

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—Is there any increase in price as well as improvement in quality?

A.—It costs a cent or two a pound more. The contractors' figures are put as low as possible, of course. I am satisfied that under contract for beef we could not get as good meat as we are now getting for the same price as we are now paying. The medical superintendents say we save it in other ways. There is far more nourishment in the meat.

By the CHAIRMAN.—Q.—Has the per capita cost of maintenance increased?

A.—No.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—Do you know whether, when Mr. Hunter buys a load of cattle, they are all sent to the one institution?

A.—As a rule they are. All the beef bought for the city, however, goes to one slaughter-house. All the cattle to be killed for the Asylum, Central Prison or Mercer Reformatory, are sent direct to the slaughter-house. We give all the hind quarters to the asylum, the rest to the prisons.

Q.—Who checks at the slaughter-house ?

A.—The slaughter-house is in close contact with the asylum, and the steward of that institution weighs and counts the cattle, and gives a certificate, that is, so far as the live cattle are concerned.

Q.—What is the name of the accountant whose duty it is from day to day to keep the check appearing in this statement ?

A.—Mr. Mann.

By Mr. BALLANTYNE.—Q.—Can you suggest any better way than the present of supplying the institutions, doctor ?

A.—The way in which they are being supplied at present seems to me to be the best way. It appears to be entirely satisfactory, and works smoothly. There is no complaint, save once now and then two or three years ago, in the case of one animal in a carload, as I said just now.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—When you said you were paying a cent a pound more for beef, do you mean more than the contractors would pay or more than he would sell for ?

A.—More than he would sell for.

Q.—When was the change made ?

A.—In 1881.

By Mr. BALLANTYNE.—Q.—Do you think you are paying more now for beef than you would if you were getting it under contract ?

A.—I believe we are getting beef as cheap as or cheaper than we would by contract.

Q.—If it was possible to keep a contractor up to his standard, would you be getting it as cheap or cheaper than now ?

A.—We are getting it now as cheap as the contractor can get it. We are making the profits he would make. No contractor can handle the things cheaper than we can.

Q.—Have you any complaint against Mr. Hunter in the matter of buying ?

A.—No ; none whatever. I devised these checks myself, and saw there was a point somewhere at which we had to trust somebody. Mr. Hunter is a man whose character is above suspicion, as I have often taken occasion to prove. He was the man whom we had to trust. The whole cattle business is done in what the merchant would consider a very loose way.

By Mr. H. E. CLARKE.—Q.—You charge him with the two thousand dollars he gets each time, I suppose ?

A.—Yes ; I make out a requisition for him for two thousand dollars, which is charged against him. He gets the money, and comes in and tells me when the money is gone. He gives me full account for it, and then I give him a requisition for another two thousand dollars.

By the CHAIRMAN.—Q.—You believe then that, under the present system, the Province is actually making the profits which, under the old system, would be made by the contractor ?

A.—Yes.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—What salary is Mr. Hunter paid ?

A.—$800 a year.

Q.—And travelling expenses?

A.—Yes; but he travels very little because he says he can buy better in Toronto than anywhere else.

Mr. O'Reilly's evidence concluded.

Mr. Clancy moved, That Mr. Mann, clerk in the Inspector's Office, be requested to appear before the committee forthwith, for the further explanation of these papers.

The motion being put was carried.

Mr. Mann appeared, was sworn, examined, evidence taken by shorthand writer, appended marked "E."

"E."

Mr. MANN, accountant in Dr. O'Reilly's department, being called, was sworn and deposed as follows:

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—What are your duties, Mr. Mann?

A.—Checking of accounts submitted for payment.

Q.—From whom do you receive this account for weight? (Showing statement of month's purchases in cattle checked by market quotations.)

A.—From the bursars of the different institutions.

Q.—From the bursar of each institution in Toronto?

A.—No; only from the storekeeper of the Toronto Asylum, there being one general slaughter-house for all the city institutions.

Q.—Do you receive a voucher each time you receive a statement of weight?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Have you Mr. Hunter's voucher before you when you check this weight?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And you copy it into the book?

A.—Yes.

Q.—I see here, on the 3rd of December, that a load weighing 2,300 pounds cost at the rate of $3.04, while the market price was $3.75, showing that Mr. Hunter bought considerably below the regular market price. What are your instructions in the matter?

A.—My instructions are simply to take the market report once a week and check with it Mr. Hunter's returns.

Q.—What day of the week is that?

A.—Whatever day of the week the market report appears; generally Wednesdays.

Q.—When do you do it?

A.—When I get the paper in the morning, I look it up and check the figures; then I keep the quotations before me and use them until the new ones are out.

Q.—How do you keep them before you?

A.—On a slip.

Q.—From what slip did you make up this statement? Where is the slip now?

A.—I am sure I could not say now?

Q.—Is the statement made up every month?

A.—Yes.

Mr. HUNTER, recalled :

By the CHAIRMAN.—Q.—Is the price higher or lower for December than for other months?

A.—About the same.

By Dr. McLAUGHLIN.—Q.—Is not the quality of the cattle you buy above the average sold in the market?

A.—Oh, yes.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—Are these market reports supposed to be for a better class of cattle? Is it fair to make a comparison between them and your prices?

A.—Oh, yes; you would have to take the highest market reports. Mr. Mann can tell you best of that.

Mr. MANN.—We take the figures for first-class butcher's cattle.

By Mr. KERNS (to Mann).—Q.—Are not the figures in the market quotations arranged in this way—from $3.80 to $4.00, etc.?

A.—Yes; they give the lowest and the highest.

Q.—And which do you take?

A.—We take the highest.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—Were you instructed to take the highest?

Dr. O'REILLY.—He is instructed to take the highest figures. As we buy the best meat it would not be fair to take the lowest figures.

Mr. A. M. ROSS.—The highest figures are for the best meat in that line.

By Mr. KERNS (to Hunter).—Q.—Would it not happen that the price would fall when there comes a glut in the market?

A.—No; or at least very rarely indeed.

Q.—Are there not fluctuations in the same day in the same class of cattle?

A.—Not in that class of cattle, I think.

By Mr. BALLANTYNE.—Does not the price sometimes vary in the same day on the same class of cattle?

A.—Oh occasionally, a car-load comes in late, and that would perhaps lower prices the afternoon. Then in that case, when it is quoted at $4.00, some of it would have sold at say $3.75.

By Mr. KERNS.—Q.—Are not the quotations printed in the newspapers, as a rule, higher than the real prices paid?

A.—Oh, I don't know anything about that. They are often above my figures.

Q.—How is that ?

Dr. O'REILLY—Well, you see Hunter is always ready to buy a carload and to pay cash down for it, and that is apt to give him an advantage over others buying in the market.

Mr. Mann's evidence concluded.

Mr. Clancy examined papers re Crown Lands Agents McDonald, Campbell and Murgach.

On motion committee adjourned until Tuesday next at 11 o'clock a.m.

TREASURER'S OFFICE,
TUESDAY, 12th March, 1889.

The Committee met pursuant to adjournment at 11 o'clock, a.m.

Present :

Mr. Clarke (Wellington) Chairman.

Messieurs Awrey,
Clancy,
French,
Harcourt,

Messieurs Morin,
Kerns,
Ross (Huron),
Wood (Brant)—9.

A number of papers ordered to be brought down were laid upon the Table.

The Committee proceeded to examine papers.

Mr. Morin examined accounts Provincial Police, Niagara and Detroit Rivers.

Mr. Clancy examined papers re Crown Lands Agents.

Mr. Wood (Brant) presented requisition asking that the following papers be brought down for examination at the next meeting of the Committee :

Tenders for supplies for the Institute for the Blind, Brantford, for 1889.

The motion being put was carried and the papers ordered to be brought down.

The Committee requested the Treasurer to give them a brief sketch of the changes he had made in the Department in connection with the book-keeping therein, etc.

Mr. Ross then proceeded to state the changes made, (taken by short-hand writer and marked "F.")

"F."

At the request of the Chairman, Mr. A. M. Ross, Provincial Treasurer, made an explanation of the changes made in the book-keeping in the treasury department. He stated as follows :

Mr. Ross.—I think all will agree that it is a wrong principle that the accountant who keeps the books should handle the money. He has the making up of the books, and if disposed to be dishonest, can cover up his delinquencies. I therefore thought it better to have a receiving officer or cashier who should perform the same duty as the receiving teller in banks, and handle all money received by the department. I took authority at the last session of the Ontario Legislature to appoint that officer, who should receive all the moneys payable to the Province from the different departments. As you are aware Mr. Chairman, we pay everything by cheque. There are no disbursements in cash except those made by the contingency clerk. His accounts are audited by the auditor, and vouchers put in for them, which then go into the accounts. The system adopted in paying in moneys is this: Every department is furnished with a requisition book in which there is a duplicated form of application to the cashier to receive a certain sum of money named on the form of application. One of these duplicates is kept by the cashier. The other, with the cashier's acknowledgment that he has received the sum named therein, is returned to the department. The department is required at least once a week, to transmit these duplicates to the auditor. The department still retains the counterfoil held by the cashier. In this way the payments by the department are checked by the auditor and also the receipts of the cashier. The cashier deposits the money in the banks under the directions of the Assistant Treasurer.

Mr. AWREY.—What was the former system, Mr. Ross.

Mr. ROSS.—Just this: The money was paid in to Mr. Harris, the accountant, and a receipt sometimes given, and sometimes a mere memorandum. There was this security—the departments always saw they got credit in the Public Accounts for the amount paid in. The main difference between the old system and the new is that the man keeping the books does not handle the money, and that there is a systematic and regular checking of the receipts by the auditor. There was a little kicking at first on the part of some of the officials against the forms introduced, but they have got over that, and it now is working well and smoothly.

Mr. AWREY.—Q.—In this case, now, for example, suppose the license department has ten thousand dollars which it wishes to deposit with the treasury department. They send with the money this requisition that they should accept the money?

Mr. ROSS.—A.—Yes.

Mr. AWREY.—Q.—That the cashier files?

Mr. ROSS.—A.—Yes, and a duplicate is given for the amount received, the official seeing that it receipts for no more and no less than the sum mentioned.

Mr. AWREY.—Q.—And this goes back to the license department?

Mr. ROSS.—A.—Yes; and the counterfoil also is kept there as a record of what they send. Then these requisitions, with the acknowledgment of the cashier upon them are returned to the audit office not less than once a week.

Mr. AWREY.—Q.—What is your system in regard to banking?

A.—The cashier banks all the money himself. He takes his directions from the assistant treasurer or accountant as to what banks it is to be deposited in. The assistant treasurer keeps track of the amounts in the different banks with which the Government does business. He gets a slip from the different banks every two or three days. If the assistant treasurer sees the deposit at any particular bank has run down he directs the cashier to deposit there. If he gets a large amount of money from the Crown Lands department for instance, he has so much deposited in one bank and so much in another. The assistant treasurer does not handle any money himself. It is all taken out by the cashier himself.

Mr. AWREY.—Q.—Who compares the bank book with the cheques?

Mr. ROSS.—A.—The cashier as far as the deposits are concerned. The cheques are kept in check by this form (the form was exhibited here). You see we pay out everything by cheque and nothing by cash. I have got up an expenditure book with columns for the date and number of the cheque, for each of the banks with which we do business, for the amount of the cheque, the party to whom it is to be paid, and the department of service to which it is to be debited.

(The expenditure book in question is produced and examined by the members of the committee.)

Mr. Ross continued :

These columns are added up monthly, so that the total cheques issued on a certain bank, and the total expenses charged against the various departments each month appear at once. These totals are transferred every month to the journal and posted into the ledger. The banks therefore are checked exactly by the ledger. I think the change which allows the book to show so readily the amounts charged to the different departments of public service instead of having them posted promiscuously is a great improvement. Under the present system, at the close of each month you know the amount that has been expended for every department of the public service. There is also a cheque book in the auditor's department wherein every cheque is entered as issued, the amount, the name of the party in whose favor it is, and the bank upon which drawn.

Mr. AWREY.—Q.—Is that an additional safeguard—one that the Government never had before ?

Mr. ROSS.—A.—Oh no ; that has been existence for years, ever since 1879, but was not properly balanced until seven years later than that. But the check in the treasury department is one we never had before.

Mr. AWREY.—Q.—So it would be impossible now under any circumstances for any improper transactions to take place and not to be found out at once ?

Mr. ROSS.—A.—Well, nothing is impossible, but it would be very difficult, and would certainly be detected at the end of the month.

Mr. AWREY.—Q.—Have you a book for revenue similar to that for expenditure ?

Mr. ROSS.—A.—Yes. (The book is produced and examined by the committee). You will see columns for all the branches of Government revenue, and another in which are to be given the particulars of the money received. Then as the money comes in it is entered and credited to the proper branch of revenue, and the cashier banks it. We have done away with the old form of cash book. The revenue book, like the expenditure book, is posted once a month.

The CHAIRMAN.—Q.—So that you can verify your balance at any moment ?

A.—Yes. The system simplifies the accounts very much. If you want to see when a certain cheque was paid, or to whom issued, or the amount of it, or the amount of money received from a branch of the service or expended on account of a department, you can see it at once under the present mode of keeping the accounts. At the close of each month a summary of the total expenditure for the month is entered up under the different heads.

Mr. AWREY.—Q.—Has the Crown Lands department a separate bank account ?

A.—No ; the Crown Lands department sends in all its money every few days. It all comes in and goes through the cashier's hands.

Q.—Can they issue a cheque independently of the treasurer, as they used to do ?

A.—Well, they have to send out money to the overseers of the Colonization roads. A cheque would be no use in the outlying districts where the money is required. We still carry on in connection with this branch of the Crown Lands department a system of accountable warrants, under which the department receives sums of money of say ten thousand to twenty thousand dollars at a time, for which they send in the vouchers when received. In regard of their expenditure through the department here, and for other than outside services, payment is made by cheque from the treasury department, as in the case of every other department.

Q.—When was this new system of book-keeping introduced ?

A.—It has been in operation since the first of July, and is working very satisfactorily. At first, as I said, there was some objections to it from some of the officials, but they got over that, and now it involves really less labor than the old system, while it is greatly superior to it.

The CHAIRMAN.—Q.—What about the volume of business done under the head of petty cash ?

A.—That is very small, and for it we have a contingency account. The messengers for instance, are paid fortnightly, and you can't very well give them cheques. We give them money from the contingency department. The contingency account is checked by the auditor, and vouchers for everything paid in connection with it are gone over and passed by the auditor before the expenditure is carried into the general expenditure account.

Mr. AWREY.—Q.—In the case of the clerk of contingencies you give him a cheque for a certain amount every month, and hold him accountable ?

A.—He gets two thousand dollars at a time and places it in the bank, and from this he can draw over his own signature as required. He always keeps a small amount of cash on hand.

Q.—Does he give bond for the amount advanced to him ?

A.—No ; the cashier and the assistant treasurer are the only officials giving bonds I am preparing to transfer the contingency fund to the cashier, as he has time to attend to it, and then there will be but one official handling money.

Q.—Through whom are the payments on account of the Legislative Assembly made ?

A.—The Clerk of the House. He has an account of his own for that purpose.

Mr. Kerns entered committee room.

Mr. French presented requisition asking that the following papers be brought down for examination at the next meeting of the Committee.

Re KINGSTON ASYLUM.

Accounts and vouchers, A. Chown & Co., hardware, etc., item $838 50, page 139
“ Ford Bros., belting,	“	94 66	“ 139
“ A. Strachan, hardware, etc.,	“	770 47	“ 141
“ Nixon & Rockwell, boots,	“	67 50	“ 141
“ John McKay, shoes,	“	280 28	“ 141
“ Robertson Bros. glassware, etc.,	“	454 17	“ 141

The motion being put was carried and the papers ordered to be brought down.

Mr. Wood (Brant), presented requisition asking that the following papers be brought down for examination at the next meeting of the Committee.

Re HAMILTON ASYLUM.

Tender for supplies for the Asylum for the Insane, Hamilton, for the year 1889.

The motion being put was carried and the papers ordered to be brought down.

Mr. French, moved that he be furnished with an itemized account of Mr. Phillips as License Inspector for Leeds and Brockville.

The motion being put was carried and the account ordered to be brought down.

In examining accounts re Crown Lands Agents, Mr. Clancy asked for some explanation of certain items which are first disallowed and afterwards allowed.

Mr. Ross (Huron)—I cannot explain it without referring to the Department, perhaps you had better ask that Mr. White, the Assistant Crown Lands Commissioner, appear before the Committee and give you the particulars.

Moved by Mr. Clancy, That Mr. Aubrey White, of the Crown Lands Department, be requested to appear before the Committee at its next meeting to make explanation of items in accounts of P. C. Campbell, et al.

The motion was put and carried and the clerk instructed to request Mr. White to appear.

Moved by Mr. Clancy, That Mr. White prepare a statement showing the quantity of logs measured by Messieurs Renaud, Campbell and Wigg, for the use of the Committee.

The motion being put was carried and the clerk instructed to have Mr. White prepare the same.

On motion the Committee adjourned to the call of the chair.

TREASURER'S OFFICE,
THURSDAY, 14th March, 1889.

The Committee met, at the call of the chair, at 10 o'clock a.m.

Present :

Mr. Clarke (Wellington), Chairman.

Messieurs Ballantyne,
Clancy,
Craig,
French,

Messieurs Morin,
Kerns,
Ross (Huron),
Wood (Brant)—9.

Of the papers ordered, the following were laid upon the table:—

Book containing tenders for supplies for the different Public Institutions for the year 1888,

Re KINGSTON ASYLUM.

Accounts and vouchers, of Messieurs Chown, Ford Bros., Nixon & Rockwell, Strachan, McKay & Co. and Robertson Bros., as ordered per requisition of Mr. French.

Tenders with bonds for supplies to the Institute for the Blind at Brantford for the year 1889.

Tenders with bonds for supplies to the Asylum for the Insane, Hamilton.

Committee proceeded to examine papers.

Messieurs Craig, Wood (Brant), Kerns and Morin, examined tenders, etc.

Mr. French examined accounts, A. Strachan, Kingston.

Mr. Hayes, on motion of Committee, appeared and made some explanation in connection with the tenders for supplies.

Mr. Clancy examined paper re Crown Lands Timber Agents.

In reply to the enquiry of Mr. Clancy, the clerk stated that Mr. White was in attendance, also that the statement and papers asked for in connection with these accounts had been brought down.

Mr. Aubrey White, Assistant-Commissioner of Crown Lands, called, sworn and examined, evidence taken down by shorthand writer, appended marked "G."

"G."

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—What is the custom, Mr. White, in relation to the disbursements to the Crown Lands agent when he is in discharge of his duties? Take Mr. Campbell, for instance, who seems to have had money sent him from time to time, to pay for services in connection with forest ranging, etc. What has been the custom as to the manner of his accounting for those moneys?

A.—He is supposed to send in vouchers with his accounts from time to time during the year, and he swears to the correctness of his accounts. There is nothing in the regulations to call for this, but I have asked him to do so.

Q.—To whom does he apply for the necessary funds?

A.—To the Crown Lands Department.

Q.—And he renders accounts as an offset against the money he receives in this way?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Then, as a matter of fact, the account he sends in as an offset should appear in the public accounts under the head of disbursements in connection with these matters?

A.—Yes, if paid.

Q.—I see that, according to the Crown Lands Department report, Mr. Campbell is in receipt of a salary of $1,600 a year?

A.—Yes.

Q.—I see also from the Crown Lands Department report that his disbursements are put in as nine hundred dollars? I suppose all this would appear in public accounts?

A.—Yes; but part of it appears as credited to R. Campbell, on page 261. That is a mistake of the auditor. It should be credited to P. C. Campbell.

Q.—(Referring to statement before him)—Here is a statement made from Mr. Campbell's accounts, showing his expenditures up to the end of October, 1888, from which it would appear that he disbursed $1,196.50. Now, Mr. Campbell paid out that sum?

A.—Mr. Campbell's account for disbursement's was $1,196.50. He was paid $900 on account, salary $1,600, making $2,500, as shown in public accounts, leaving balance due him $296.50 at end of year.

Q.—Therefore it should come over and appear under the head of disbursements, and Mr. Campbell should be represented as having paid that amount of money out instead of nine hundred dollars ?

A.—No ; because we had not paid it out at that time. He had claimed the full amount, $1,196.50, but we had only paid nine hundred dollars on it.

Q.—Why was not the balance allowed ?

A.—Because there were certain items in it that had to be adjusted. I wanted to see Mr. Campbell before he received the money for them. These items were subsequently adjusted, and when Mr. Campbell came here in January last, the money he asked on them was handed to him.

Q.—Had he meantime paid out the difference between those accounts ?

A.—Yes, I suppose so.

Q.—Can you tell us why these accounts were not adjusted at that time ?

A.—They were adjusted as soon as they could be investigated.

Q.—Then, all these accounts have now been adjusted ?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Were these accounts before your Department before Mr. Campbell came down ?

A.—Oh, yes.

Q.—Were exceptions taken to any of the items ?

A.—Exceptions were taken to Sundays being included in the days charged for.

Q.—But I notice here that the Sundays claimed by Mr. Campbell were afterwards allowed ?

A.—Yes ; I found that Mr. Campbell had paid the men for Sunday, and that he would be out of pocket himself to that extent if the Department did not recoup him. I looked into the circumstances, and came to the conclusion that it was only fair to him not to make him pay this money out of his own pocket. Here is Mr. Campbell's explanation :

TORONTO, February 2nd, 1889.

To Mr. AUBREY WHITE, Esq.,
Assistant Commissioner of Crown Lands,

Toronto.

SIR,—In connection with my account of expenses for wood ranging, etc., dated the twenty-second day of September last, and the objections thereto, that Sundays were included, I wish to say, by way of explanation, that the lateness of the season on which we started for the final round of the camps, and the danger of the ice and roads breaking up, so as to make it impossible to get through or to return home after completing the work, made it imperatively necessary that every day should be utilized. I therefore gave my assistants instructions to lose no time and to travel on Sunday if necessary, which they did, and I allowed them pay for the same.

I trust, therefore, that the Department will reimburse me this outlay, as I considered it necessary in the interest of the Department, and I am now out of pocket that amount.

I have the honour to be,

Your obedient servant,

(Sgd.) P. C. CAMPBELL.

Mr. CLANCY, continuing.—Q.—I see a Mr. James Jennings credited here with $99, representing thirty-three days at three dollars a day. In the same statement of account there appears to be a reduction of twelve dollars on account of four Sundays?

A.—This is the account as presented, and this (pointing to particular places in account) is the deduction made by a clerk in the Woods and Forests branch of the Department.

Q.—At whose request did he make that reduction?

A.—He proceeded on the general principle that the Department does not count Sundays, and does not pay for them.

Q.—That principle prevails everywhere?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And, as a final summing up, this sum was allowed by you?

A.—Yes.

Q.—On what ground are they allowed in this account?

A.—Here is Mr. Campbell's explanation.

Q.—Had the Department no control over Mr. Campbell that he should pay them for Sundays when the usual custom, you say, is that they should not be paid for those days?

A.—Oh, yes. I could have disallowed it if I had considered it proper to do so. Where men are ranging at five dollars a day, we never allow for Sundays. But, under the circumstances as set forth in Mr. Campbell's letter, and seeing that the men were getting only three dollars a day, I thought it was only proper we should pay it.

Q.—Their services are partly of a professional character, are they not?

A.—The men performing them require to be men who have a knowledge of the mode of measurement of timber, and various other qualifications along that line. They visit the different lumber camps, take timber measurements and overlook the operations generally to see if the returns made to the Government were fair, etc.

Q.—Do they make any measurements?

A.—Only sample measurements. They could not measure the whole output. That would take a small army.

Q.—I see in one case they have been making measurements other than those you speak of?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Have you the quantity of timber they measured on these occasions?

A.—Yes; it was the operations of the C. P. R. that they measured, and the reason they measured it was that we were led to infer that the proper returns had not been made in the first place. Mr. Campbell reported to me that the proper returns had not been made, and that a particular operation should be remeasured, and I instructed him to go and remeasure the whole operation.

Q.—Who pays the expenses of that measurement?

A.—The Department pays the cost in the first place, but the whole amount is debited to the C. P. R.

Q.—In what way?

A.—An account has been rendered to them for the cost of the same.

Q.—For all that measurement?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Now, in that measurement what amount was measured; for instance, by T. G. Wigg?

A.—I can't say exactly. They had a man tallying on the bank, who swears to these returns. I could not say how much each man measured.

Q.—Have you the gross amount measured?

(The account is here produced.)

Q.—The whole operation was remeasured?

A.—Yes.

Q.—And it comes to about two and a half million feet?

A.—Yes; about that.

Q.—Have you ever had any experience in measuring timber, Mr. White?

A.—Yes; a good deal.

Q.—Do you think the number of days employed altogether, amounting altogether to 106 days for one man, would be a reasonable thing? I see Campbell is down for 26 days, Wigg 66 days and Renaud 14 days—making 106 in all. My experience would be that a man ought to measure from a hundred and fifty thousand to two hundred thousand a day. Supposing they had measured even a hundred thousand a day though. Can you account for the manner in which they got in so many days?

A.—It depends a great deal as to where the logs are. I suppose in such a case as you mention you are not counting upon the logs being in running water, where the work of the men is interrupted by strong winds, etc.

Q.—But a man ought to be able to measure logs as well in water as out?

A.—The explanation is here in Mr. Campbell's letter.

The following letter was here read by Mr. White:—

SAULT STE. MARIE,
22nd SEPTEMBER, 1888.

To the HON. COMMISSIONER OF CROWN LANDS,
Toronto.

SIR,—Herewith I have the honour to enclose returns of the measurement by me of logs cut for the Canadian Pacific Railway Company in the Townships of Striker, Thompson, Bright and Bright additional, with the account of expenses in connection therewith. While making the sample measurements of those logs and comparing notes with the foreman and check scalers, I found such discrepancies occur that made it manifestly necessary to have the logs all remeasured. This, of course, could not be done until they were delivered in the water, as at nearly all the dumps, except on the Mississaga River, the logs were dumped on the ice and piled several feet deep, with the under tier (perhaps two or three tiers) buried in frozen slush and snow. Measuring in the water, of course, made it much more expensive, taking a number of more men and consuming much more time even when the wind and weather were favourable, and when having a head wind we could do nothing. It could not be helped, however, for I either had to go on, no matter at what cost, to vindicate the principle that the Department must be furnished with honest and true returns, or I must accept returns as to which I had abundant evidence of their incorrectness and intentional dishonesty. I chose the former course, and if it costs the railway company a round sum they have the remedy in their own hands, as they can charge the cost to the jobbers who furnished the cullers, and their instructions, which they admitted, were not instructions to scale for Departmental returns, but to meet their contract with Rowan, the jobber, who cut and took out the logs which were to be free from hollow, butts, crooks, knots, strakes, or punk. Now, to cut and scale logs in accordance with such a contract would entail for the Department a considerable loss, as hollow butts are no condemnation to a log, as the very best clear stuff is generally got from a log with a hollow butt; but the Canadian Pacific Railway Co., requiring all timber suitable for it to be cut full length to be cut into square stuff for bridges, etc., a hollow butt would not answer for the purpose. Then again, a log 40 to 60 feet long, with a crook in the top 10 or 12 feet from the end, they would only measure less the pieces beyond the crook, in both cases losing a good deal of sound timber. A good deal of sound timber has been left in the woods by cutting off hollow butts, which we could not remedy by our re-measurement of the logs, but a good many were taken out as they were without cutting off the hollow butts or crooked tops, but the cullers deducted from butt or top, as the case might be, six, eight, ten or twelve feet to make it straight and sound all through, whereas we, in the measurement, made a fair allowance for the hollow and for the crook. Where there would be only four or six feet outside the crook we threw it off, and if more than that we charged full measurement, because better judgment in cutting might have been exercised and no timber lost.

With regard to the returns made to Rowan I cannot reconcile them with my measurements in any, and they are still further from agreeing with Mr. Mullin's returns, his figures being as much below mine as I am below the cullers, that is, in pieces, for, although I am 1,634 pieces less than the culler's account. I am 232,852 feet in excess of them in the contents, while I am 1,050 pieces ahead of Mullin's account, although his account was made up before the loss of any logs by high water, bush fires and other casualties; my measurement was made after all these things, and Mr. Rowan claims that he has lost a number of hundred pieces. Exhibit "C" is an account of logs furnished by the cullers, Devlin, Kennedy and Mullin, to Rowan, of logs taken away by rail up to December 6th last, and which, as far as I am aware of, have not been returned. Mr. Mullin made some returns last fall, but I am of the impression that it was long before the 6th of December.

The account of expenses has been more than I anticipated, owing to the awkward position of the logs, being boomed either in Lake Huron or at the very mouth of the Mississawaga River, where the logs would have to be pushed out into the lake into a rafting boom as they were measured, and when the wind blew from the lake we would have to be idle.

Mr. Rowan claims that he ought to be paid for his men, also for their time booming filling up platform from which to measure, bringing up the logs and taking them away, etc. I think it is right he should, but he has so far sent no bill to me for the amount.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

I have the honour to be,
Your obedient servant,

(Sgd.) P. C. CAMPBELL.

Mr. Clancy having concluded his examination of Mr. White in connection with the said accounts, Mr. French took up papers re surveys, and examined Mr. White in connection therewith evidence taken by shorthand writer appended, marked "H."

---

---

“H.”

Q.—They count so many days then for this work ?

A.—Yes.

Q.—The actual days consumed in the measurement ?

A.—Well, supposing they were prevented from working owing to a high wind, and had to lay off for a few days, they would have to be paid all the same.

Q.—The explanation given by Mr. Campbell on that point is not very clear.

A.—The Mississauga river is very rapid, you know.

Q.—But would not the logs be boomed in some places where the current was not so strong? The current would not interfere with them if they were properly boomed would it?

A.—As I understand it they pass the logs from the boom, and measure them as they come out.

By Mr. MORIN.—Q.—Don't they have to examine the logs also as they measure them ?

A.—Yes.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—Do you not understand that it is impossible for anybody to measure logs in the water and inspect them properly at the same time ?

A.—I am not prepared to admit that.

By Mr. MORIN.—Q.—Is not two hundred thousand feet of measurement a very large day's work on logs under any circumstances ?

A.—It would be a remarkable good day's work.

Mr. CLANCY.—I thought I put it very moderately at that figure. I have known men do a good deal more than that.

Mr. MORIN.—And do their own checking.

Mr. CLANCY.—Yes.

Mr. WHITE.—I measured logs for four or five years, and I think you would find it very difficult for one man to measure that number of logs in a day ; especially if the logs were at all faulty. Of course, if they were all good large logs the work would be easier ; but I think under any circumstances the amount in question would be a very large day's work.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—This has been a very expensive matter. You say the account has been sent to the Canadian Pacific Railway Company for collection ?

A.—Yes.

Q.—When was it sent ?

A.—At the end of the year.

Q.—Have you heard from them in regard to it ?

A.—No.

Q.—They have not objected to it?

A.—No.

Q.—Are they acquainted with the facts?

A.—Yes; they are perfectly familiar with all the circumstances, because their manager was over there. You will understand the position of the department in this respect, Mr. Clancy. We sometimes have to make an example, no matter what it costs.

Mr. CLANCY.—Yes; and a very proper thing, too.

Q.—Will you explain how you came to have $900 advanced to him for disbursements when he had spent over $1,100.

A.—The $900 was advanced to him from time to time, and consisted merely of payments on account. He would have applied, I dare say, when he undertook the measurement for $400, and that was sent to him. Then another $400, and another $100 was sent to him. These sums were merely sent on account. The total amount was not adjusted or gone into.

Q.—Are these all the sums he received?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Have you Mr. Campbell's vouchers?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Where does he draw his salary?

A.—That is sent to him direct from the Treasury Department. I have only given you there the account of his disbursements.

Q.—It seems that this amount of $1,124 was paid by Mr. Campbell to the men who were doing this work, and he seems to have paid out sums considerably in excess of the amount he received. Have you any other cases in which persons employed by the department have been allowed to do the same thing?

A.—If the men had made the same representations to me, I should have done the same as Mr. Campbell did.

Q.—Have you ever made the same allowance before?

A.—Oh, yes; at least, I don't know that I have done so, but it has been done by the department.

By Mr. MORIN.—Q.—By Mr. Johnston?

A.—Yes.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—It has not been proved that these men travelled on Sundays?

A.—They swear to so many days work—that they were actually employed for thirty days as rangers. These men are not ordinary wood rangers; ordinary wood rangers get five dollars a day, and are not paid for Sundays. These men are specially employed, and get only three dollars a day, and then I objected to paying for Sundays, and did not do so until I had received his explanations. He explained in his letter the circumstances under which he had paid for Sundays, and the reasons why he should receive the money back.

Q.—Don't you think Mr. Campbell should not have power to allow these accounts and pay them?

A.—He has no power to do so.

Q.—But of course it makes a strong plea if he comes to you and says that he has paid these accounts and that unless you allow them to him, he will lose the money out of his own pocket.

A.—It does not matter. I could overrule his action if I saw proper.

Q.—Still, it is a little difficult, under those circumstances, is it not?

A.—No; there is not the least difficulty; there would not have been any trouble in my overruling it if I had seen proper.

By Mr. A. M. Ross.—Q.—These are cases in which you have to exercise your discretion, Mr. White.

A.—Yes; of course, I have to use my judgment.

By Mr. CLANCY.—Q.—Has it been the custom of the Department to hold over portions of the account until it was adjusted?

A.—Yes; we are obliged to do it in the case of a man at a great distance.

Q.—But why in this case where there is nothing in dispute?

A.—Oh yes; there were the Sundays. I said at first that I would not allow them, and the Clerk of the Woods and Forests Department had struck them off. Afterwards Mr. Campbell asked that they should be allowed; I thereupon asked him to write a letter reporting the circumstances; then, when I had looked into the matter, I allowed the payment for Sundays, and after the end of the year the balance of the money he had disbursed was paid to him.

Q.—Would it not been better if Mr. Campbell came down before the close of the year so that the accounts could be finished each year?

A.—I admit the inconvenience, but it would cost considerable time and money to bring him here, and it has only occurred in three cases. In one of these cases there were matters in dispute, and in another case the account was left open because the man was away in the bush. The third case, that of Mr. Macdonald, was in connection with Indian Reserve dispute between the two Governments, and there was delay in settling the account because we thought it ought to be paid by the Attorney-General's Department. In this case of Mr. Campbell, the Commissioner's report agrees to a cent with the public accounts, but between the public accounts and the account rendered there is a difference of $269.50, which remained unpaid, for the reasons I have given, until the public accounts were closed.

Mr. CLANCY.—Still, without some explanation as to why it was not paid, in an examination of the public accounts you would be unable to understand the difference?

A.—I suppose so, if I were not familiar with the facts.

By Mr. FRENCH.—Q.—Will you explain to the committee, Mr. White, the marked difference between the cost of surveying the different townships as appears by the different accounts. For instance, Mr. Willis Chipman seems to have got sixteen hundred dollars for his township, and some other surveyor three thousand dollars for his. Can you explain the difference?

A.—It all depends upon the size of the township. Seven cents an acre is what is paid.

Q.—I merely mention Mr. Chipman's case as an example and because I am familiar with the name. I am quite sure he is perfectly straight in his account. I hope the others are also?

A.—If they were not their accounts would not be paid.

Q.—Mr. Chipman surveyed the township of Stewart and received sixteen hundred dollars ($1,600.90) for it?

A.—Yes; you will find 22,870 acres in that township, and if you multiply that by the required sum of seven cents per acre you will get the amount that was paid him, sixteen hundred dollars and ninety cents.

Q.—Does that include everything?

A.—Yes; he pays the men, and finds provisions, etc., out of that amount.

Q.—Does it cover cost of travelling, and so forth?

A.—Yes; it covers everything.

Q.—Does that apply also to the case of Mr. A. Niven?

A.—No; he was running base lines—outlines of townships—at the head of Lake Temiscamingue.

Q.—Just state, Mr. White, if you please, whether or not that is a mistake in the public accounts in calling Mr. Niven's work a survey?

A.—Yes; that should be outlines of townships, and in that sort of work the surveyor is paid so much a mile. He ran ninety-six miles, I think, and I believe he is paid at the rate of thirty dollars per mile.

Q.—That is in the Nipissing district, is it not?

A.—No; beyond that; a long way up the Ottawa River.

Q.—And does the amount of thirty dollars a mile cover everything?

A.—Yes; it covers everything, outfit, men, provisions, travelling expenses, etc.

Q.—What does that work consist of?

A.—It is a permanent work of course. It is not exactly a base line; it is the laying out of blocks of townships. A base line is one from which townships will afterwards be laid out.

Q.—Base lines have been run before this in these districts?

A.—Yes; I think Mr. Niven ran a base line from Temiscamingue to Nipissing.

Q.—And he was paid for that work when he did it ?

A.—Oh yes.

Q.—Would not that assist him in this subsequent work you speak of ?

A.—No ; this work goes beyond that.

Q.—How do you account for F. Burns getting $3,300.14 for his township. His township contains 55,002 acres apparently—$400.14 was balance last year's work, and $2,900 was on account this year's survey. The townships are not over ten miles square, are they ?

A.—They vary in size. Chipman's was only six miles square.

Q.—Supposing there is a large lake in the township that is being surveyed, is that taken into consideration ?

A.—I could not answer for that. Mr. Kirkpatrick could do so. But my opinion is that only the land is taken into consideration.

Q.—Is that quite fair ?

A.—Well, I am not sure that is the practice. I speak subject to correction.

Q.—I should like to know whether it is the rule of the Department to deduct the area of water comprised within the boundaries of the township ?

A.—I will ascertain that. The practice is to pay for the water area in the townships. That is the area within the township, land, water and roads, is paid for, except a lake is a very large one.

Q.—Here is an account with James Dixon amounting to $3,185 ; at what rate is he paid ?

A.—I think he gets eight dollars a day.

Q.—How did he make up $3,185 in a year at that rate of payment ?

A.—I would have to have his account before I could speak definitely on the matter. Mr. Dixon has to have assistance.

Q.—Will you enquire into the account ?

A.—Yes.

Mr. Dickson, according to public accounts, was paid $3,185.17, made up as follows :

Balance for services inspecting in 1887.....	$48 92
Traversing of lakes, checking surveys on the ice .....	346 25
His aid for services inspecting, 1888, was $2,996.79, on which he has been paid.....	2,790 00
	$3,185 17

MEMO. re P.L.S. DICKSON'S INSPECTION OF SURVEYS, 1888.

Amount paid for transport and supplies in re inspection of surveys, 1888.....	$821 54
Amount of pay-list of wages paid to surveying party employed on inspection of surveys in 1888 (8 men in all, including cook and assistant) .....	703 25
Amount of P.L.S. Dickson's account for inspection of surveys—13 days in C.L.D., 171 days in the field—184 days in all, at $8 per day.....	1,472 00
	1,472 00
Total amount of account for inspection of surveys in 1888.....	$2,996 79

Q.—Here is a payment to E. Stewart of $3,504.69 ; can you explain how it amounted to so much ?

A.—The township he surveyed had 50,067 acres. If you multiply that number of acres by seven cents you get $3,504.69.

Q.—That is a very large township ?

A.—Yes ; those in what is known as the Huron and Ottawa territories are larger than those in the Nipissing district.

Q.—What idea guides the Department in laying out the townships ?

A.—The Department follows what has been the practice in that locality. On the North Shore a new system was introduced—that of making all the townships six miles square.

AUBREY WHITE.

Mr. Craig presented requisition asking that the following papers be brought down for examination at the next meeting of the Committee :—

Mr. Hays, Clerk in Inspector of Prisons' office, at the request of the Committee appeared and made some explanations in connection with tenders for supplies.

On motion the Committee adjourned until Tuesday next, at 10 o'clock a.m.

TREASURER'S OFFICE,
TUESDAY, 19th March, 1889.

The Committee met, pursuant to adjournment, at 10 o'clock a.m.

Present :

Mr. Clarke (Wellington), Chairman,

Messieurs Awrey,
Ballantyne,
Clancy,
French,
Harcourt,

Messieurs McLaughlan,
Morin,
Kerns,
Ross (Huron),
Wood (Brant)—11.

Of the papers ordered to be brought down the following were laid upon the Table :—

Itemised account of the License Inspector of Leeds and Brockville.
 Accounts and vouchers, J. Sprague & Son, item $1,261.95, page 167.
 Accounts and vouchers, Jacob Hess, item $908.07, page 171.
 The Committee proceeded to examine papers.

The Chairman produced and read a letter from W. Anglin, the Bursar of the Asylum for the Insane at Kingston, explaining certain items for Japan in the accounts of A. Strachan for the year 1886.

Moved by Mr. Awrey, that the letters of explanation (of items for Japan in the accounts of A. Strachan, 1886) of W. Anglin, just read by the Chairman, be filed with the Clerk with instructions to enter the same upon the minutes of the Committee.

The motion being put was carried, letter filed, and the Clerk instructed in accordance therewith.

LETTER (to come in with evidence).

KINGSTON, March 18th, 1889.

Re C. P. JAPAN,

DEAR SIR,—I have the honour of yours of the 14th inst., re C. P. Japan, and beg leave to report that I have questioned the Asylum painter as to its use, and he states that it is used principally where quick drying is a necessity, such as on the plastered walls in the corridors and rooms occupied by the patients. It is also used on the coffins, and on the furniture that is renewed, some also being used on the engine and pipes.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

(Sgd.)

WM. ANGLIN,
 Bursar.

COL. C. CLARKE, M.P.P.
 Toronto.

Mr. Clancy re-examined book containing tenders.

Moved by Mr. Clancy, that the Clerk be instructed to request Mr. O'Reilly, Inspector of Prisons, to appear before the Committee forthwith, to further explain tenders for supplies.

The motion being put was carried.

The Clerk informed the Committee that Mr. O'Reilly was ill and not able to attend this morning.

Mr. CLANCY.—I notice in examining these tenders, that in the case of W. Ryan, for butter for the London Asylum, for the year 1887, he makes a tender at a certain price and then withdraws it, advertisements are again made for tenders; he again tenders at a much higher rate or price and his tender is again accepted. Now that seems rather strange, and I would like to have it explained.

Mr. ROSS.—It is possible that the Inspector's clerk, Mr. Hayes, could explain it.

Mr. CLANCY.—I would like to have him do so.

Mr. HAYS (re-called).—Stated he could make no explanation concerning it as he was away at the time it took place, therefore knew nothing about it. Mr. O'Reilly himself would have to explain it; he is ill this morning and not in his office.

Moved by Mr. Clancy, that the matter be laid over, to enable Mr. O'Reilly to appear.

Mr. BALLANTYNE.—As the Inspector is ill, Mr. Clancy might put his queries in writing and they could be sent to the Inspector at his residence and answers procured, for the session is drawing to a close and we will not be able to meet many more times.

Mr. CLANCY.—I would much rather examine him here before the Committee, I could do that if it is found that he is unable to attend at the next meeting of the Committee.

The motion being put was carried and the matter laid over until the next meeting of the Committee.

Mr. French examined itemized accounts of Mr. Philips, License Inspector of Leeds and Brockville, asked some explanations and was given them by the Treasurer.

Mr. French next examined accounts of A. Strachan, Kingston, for 1886, and also accounts of Messrs. Chown, Noxon & Rockwell, McKay, Ford Bros., Robertson & Bro., for the year 1888.

Moved by Mr. French, That the account and voucher of A. Strachan, for June, 1886, be brought down for examination forthwith.

The motion being put was carried.

Accounts brought down, laid upon the table, and examined by Mr. French.

Messieurs Kerns, Clancy and Wood (Brant), examined accounts, J. Sprague & Son, and Jacob Hess.

Mr. KERNS.—I notice by these accounts that the supply of butter for the Deaf and Dumb Institute, Belleville, and Institute for the Blind, Brantford, are not by tender and for that reason, in many cases high prices are paid; I would like to know why they are not by tender as the other institutions are.

Mr. ROSS.—I suppose, in these small institutions it is difficult to get what they want by tender, and a better article, and some times better prices are obtained, however, Mr. O'Reilly can better explain that.

Mr. CLANCY.—I see that for the supply of butter for the Institute for the Blind at Brantford, tenders were advertised for, and none of them were accepted; but Mr. Ryan is allowed to furnish it at 19c. per lb. How is that?

Mr. ROSS.—I think you had better wait and let the Inspector explain it.

Mr. CLANCY.—I am willing, if you will appoint the day.

Mr. ROSS.—Say next Thursday.

Mr. CLANCY.—That will suit me.

The matter was then laid over until Thursday next.

On motion of Mr. French, the Committee ordered the following items in the accounts of A. Strachan, for 1886 re Kingston Asylum, to be entered and appear in the minutes of the Committee :

1886, Feb.	5—5 galls. O. P. Japan .....	$15 00
“	May 17—5 galls. O. P. Japan .....	15 00

“	Dec. 14—2c. white lead .....	15 00

Also the following items in the accounts of A. Chown & Co., for 1888, re Kingston Asylum :

“	24—2 galls. shellac, at $3.50 .....	7 00

April	11—2 kegs blasting powder, at $3.50 .....	7 00

On motion, Committee adjourned until Thursday next, at 9.30 a.m.

TREASURER'S OFFICE,

THURSDAY, 21st March, 1889.

The Committee met, pursuant to adjournment, at 9.30 o'clock a.m.

Present :

Mr. Clarke (Wellington), Chairman.

Messieurs Awrey,
Balfour,
Ballantyne,
Clancy,
French,
Harcourt,
Hardy,

Messieurs Morin,
Kerns,
O'Connor,
Ross (Huron),
Waters,
Wood (Brant)—14.

The Committee proceeded to examine papers.

Mr. HARDY.—I understand, Mr. Chairman, that some of the Committee were examining the accounts for butter supplied to the Institute for the Blind at Brantford, and making comparisons with that supplied to the Deaf and Dumb Institute at Belleville. If I can give the Committee any information on that point I would be glad to do so.

The CHAIRMAN.—I think those papers were called for by Mr. Craig, but examined by Messrs. Kerns and Clancy in his absence, who stated the prices paid at Brantford were very high and higher than that paid at Belleville, also that they were not by tender.

Mr. HARDY, in explanation, stated, that these institutions contained very many young children, small, weak, puny little ones, and of course required much more butter than elder folks, as they eat a good deal of bread and butter; they must have the best that can be had. In Belleville, or near it, they have a creamery where they can get good butter, and at creamery prices. In Brantford we have no creamery, and, therefore, have to buy where we can do the best, besides Brant is not much of a county for dairying. Now this man Hess, from whom they buy, has the reputation of making the best butter up there. I buy from him for my own private use. It is very difficult to get good butter, and therefore if you get the best you sometimes have to pay high for it; but on the whole, I think they buy as well as can be under the circumstances. I think myself it would be better if the Institute at Brantford would purchase their butter from a creamery, even at a distance; it would be better.

The CHAIRMAN suggested the Agricultural College.

Mr. HARDY.—Yes, that might do.

Mr. CLANCY.—If Mr. O'Reilly is present I would like to have him explain the matter, in re tenders, that was laid over from former meeting.

Mr. O'Reilly appeared and made satisfactory explanation.

There being no further business before the Committee, they proceeded to consider draft of Report prepared and submitted to them by the Chairman.

Mr. Awrey moved, That the draft of Report submitted by the Chairman be adopted by this Committee and that he be instructed to present the same to the House this day as the Report of this Committee.

The motion being put was carried.
