EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Bill enacts the Soldiers' Aid Commission Act, 2020. The Act continues the corporation known as the Soldiers' Aid Commission as a corporation without share capital and provides for its objects, which include administering a financial assistance program for eligible veterans and eligible family members of veterans who are resident in Ontario. The Act sets out rules respecting the appointment of members of the Commission's board of directors, the meetings of the board and annual reporting requirements. The Act allows the Lieutenant Governor in Council to make regulations for the purposes of the Act, including regulations governing the financial assistance program.

The Act provides for the repeal of the current Soldiers' Aid Commission Act.

An Act to continue the Soldiers' Aid Commission

Preamble

All Ontarians recognize the great contributions and sacrifices that veterans have made to Ontario and to Canada. Since the establishment of the Soldiers' Aid Commission in 1915, Ontario has honoured the service of veterans to the nation, and supported veterans and their families in need. Ontario remains committed to carrying on the legacy of the Commission in order to help meet the modern and changing needs of veterans and their families.

Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:

Definitions

1 In this Act,

“Commission” means the Soldiers' Aid Commission continued under section 2; (“Commission”)

~~“family member” means, in relation to a veteran, any individual prescribed as a family member by the regulations made under this Act; (“membre de la famille”)~~

“Minister” means the Minister of Children, Community and Social Services or such other member of the Executive Council to whom responsibility for the administration of this Act is assigned under the Executive Council Act; (“ministre”)

“veteran” has the meaning given to the term by the regulations made under this Act. (“ancien combattant”)

Commission continued

2 (1) The corporation known as the Soldiers' Aid Commission is continued as a corporation without share capital under the name Soldiers' Aid Commission in English and Commission d'aide aux anciens combattants in French.

Composition

(2) The Commission is composed of the members of its board of directors.

Crown agent

(3) The Commission is an agent of the Crown in right of Ontario.

Application of certain Acts

(4) The Corporations Act and the Corporations Information Act do not apply to the Commission.

Objects

3 The Commission has the following objects:

1. To administer a financial assistance program for eligible veterans and eligible family members of veterans who are resident in Ontario.
2. To review applications for financial assistance and decide whether or not to approve them, in whole or part, in accordance with the regulations made under this Act, if any.
3. To provide advice to the Minister on matters affecting veterans and their families.
4. To engage in any other activities that may be prescribed by the regulations made under this Act.

General powers

4 (1) Except as limited by this Act or the regulations made under this Act, the Commission has the capacity, rights and powers of a natural person for the purposes of carrying out its objects.

Personal information
