ORDERS OF THE DAYOpposition Day 5:

Marit Stiles — Whereas the Government has cut education funding by $1500 per child since 2018; and

Whereas this underfunding is preventing our children from getting the learning and mental health supports they need; and

Whereas this results in a challenging and unsafe learning environment; and

Whereas this has a disproportionate impact on our most vulnerable students; and

Whereas the burden is falling to parents to find and pay for the supplemental mental health and education supports that their children need;

Therefore, in the opinion of this House, the Government of Ontario should substantially increase funding for public education in Ontario so that every child receives the high-quality education they deserve, regardless of their family's income.

Addressed to the Premier.

Motion text/Texte de la motion

Whereas the Government has cut education funding by $1500 per child since 2018; and
Whereas this underfunding is preventing our children from getting the learning and mental health supports they need; and
Whereas this results in a challenging and unsafe learning environment; and
Whereas this has a disproportionate impact on our most vulnerable students; and
Whereas the burden is falling to parents to find and pay for the supplemental mental health and education supports that their children need;
Therefore, in the opinion of this House, the Government of Ontario should substantially increase funding for public education in Ontario so that every child receives the high-quality education they deserve, regardless of their family's income.
